Dr. and Mrs. El DeWitt Connell for a few days. Lieutenant Fremont is a grandson of the famous pathander, and the youngest officer of his rank in the Newy. His career has been a particularly brilliant one. At the present time he is aide to Rear-Admiral Dayton, of the Facilite fleet, and is on a brief leave from the flagship West Virginia. He is much sought after socially and a tremendous favorite in California.

Though the rumor had been whispered among their intimates, not until Thursday were the engagements of Miss Beien Erigham and Miss Grace Nicholson formally announced. The announcements were made at a bridge party given by a recent bride. Mrs. David Jordan, formerly Miss Claris Root. On the 16th of this coming month, Miss Nitholson, who is a drughter of an Oregon plonter. W. T. B. Nicholson, is to become the bride of Lawrence Holman, and on the seventeenth Miss Brigham is to marry Norris B. Greez, formerly of Virginia, although he has lived in Portland the past two years. Both the brides-elect are popular, and many affairs are being planned prior to their respective weddings. The former is decidedly popular in Santa Barbara, where, with her father, she spends her Winters. During 1902 and 1903 Miss Brigham attended Miswaukee Downer College, being there a fellow-student of Miss Ruth Maxwell, the present Mrs. Maxwell Blake, of Scotland, and Miss Maud Morey, who is now married and living in New York. Miss Brigham has a pleasing voice and charmingly accompanies herself on the terra patch and the cucalalt, the hative Hawalian instruments, which she mastered on a recent visit to the islands. Mr. Holman is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Holman, and a graduate of the Hill Military Academy. He is a brother of Raymond Holman is to be best man, Miss Matell Howe the bridesmaid, and little Florence Holman the dower gir.

One of the prettiest and largest wedding receptions of the year was that given Wednesday at the residence of Colonel and Mrs. David M. Dunne, following the wedding of Miss Laura Gale Dunne and John Ker, which was performed in the presence of the immediate relatives by Pather McDevitt. The decorations were most artistic, an arbor effect of magnolins, wedding bells and smilax forming a canony over the drawing-room. In addi-
