

on on Tuesday Mrs. Raleigh Stott, Mrs. P. J. Mann, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Philip Wasserman and Mrs. J. D. Matheson, of Hillsdale, Mont., on Wednesday Dr. and Mrs. Eames again entertained at dinner, their guests including Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Simmons and Miss Cecilia Switzer.

The last of the present season's "at homes" of the Scottish Rite Masons was held in their cathedral, corner of Morrison and Lowland streets, Friday night. It was the most successful social event ever given by this order. Pink carnations, azaleas, palms and ferns decorated the ballroom and the numerous parlors. Refreshments were served, dancing, cards and billiards were enjoyed. Those present at the evening party were: General and Mrs. W. E. Finzer, Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Hooper, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Knicker, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Donnell, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Butterfield, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bachrodt, Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Bachrodt, Dr. and Mrs. Clayton G. Seaman, Mrs. and Mrs. Herman J. Hanning, Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gadsby, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer B. Colwell, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Fiske, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Tommasi, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Povey, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Moffat, Mr. and Mrs. F. Loomis, Dr. and Mrs. I. M. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Ballin, Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Fager, Mr. and Mrs. R. Latke, Mr. and Mrs. H. Martin, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Loomis, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Barfield, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Neuf, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Frosdick, Mr. and Mrs. M. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Judson, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Clark, Mrs. D. J. Phillips, Mrs. Anna S. Barnard, Mrs. Perry Hinkle, Mrs. Anna Clark, Mrs. Charles Frazier, Mrs. L. A. Bailey, Mrs. Marcus J. Delahunt, Mrs. William McLean, Mrs. E. D. Jorgensen, Mrs. G. E. Watts, Mrs. McNutt, Mrs. G. Butterfield, Mrs. William May Fennell, Miss Maude Ferrera, Miss Fannie May, Miss Cornelia Barker, Miss M. Pennicard, Miss Cannon, Miss Swart, Miss Lilla Clark, Miss Martha Hopkin, Miss Marie Watto, Miss Nellie Banfield, Miss Lettie Banfield, Miss Hazel Palda, Bryden H. Nicoll, Edward A. Beale, A. M. Wright, Y. A. Avery, F. B. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Sam May, B. H. Arnold, J. L. Bailey, Mason Wittenberg, G. R. Greer, Arthur B. Benner, E. Eysell and William McLean.

Of interest to students is the forthcoming concert of the Portland Symphony Orchestra, which is to be on Wednesday evening, May 6, at the Hotel, instead of this coming week, owing to the fact that the date conflicted with the charity ball. Mrs. Walter Reed and Henry Bettman are the soloists.

Under the head of weddings, full accounts of the marriage of Miss Agnes Hill and Horace E. Chapman, and of Miss Edwina Mastick and Gerald Anthony are given. Both held their banquets at popular and their wedding taxed their respective churches to their capacity.

Miss Emily Holbrook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Holbrook, is to leave for the 5th of May for Europe. On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Edward Holman gave a luncheon in honor of Miss Holbrook, leaving Mrs. Milled and Mrs. Brewster, Mrs. Frank Watkins, Miss Blanche Schacht, Miss Iris Cooke, Mrs. Walter Holman, Miss Helen Holbrook, Mrs. Philo Holbrook, Miss Marion Brodie, Miss Frances Jeffery, Miss Madge O'Connor and Mrs. George Nottage.

Under the head of weddings, full accounts of the marriage of Miss Agnes Hill and Horace E. Chapman, and of Miss Edwina Mastick and Gerald Anthony are given. Both held their banquets at popular and their wedding taxed their respective churches to their capacity.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

A most enjoyable gathering took place last Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Hamilton, at Leila, under the auspices of the Ladies of the G. A. R. It being the forty-seventh anniversary of the entrance of the Seventh Illinois Infantry Volunteers in the Civil War, Mr. Hamilton served as a private in that well-known organization, coming out totally blind, he had seen a great deal. The occasion was honored by the presence of Mrs. Richard Rownett, widow of the late Brigadier-General Richard Rownett, who commanded the Seventh Illinois Infantry till his promotion to the generalship. Mrs. Rownett was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Edith Reeves. The meeting of the blind old veteran with the wife of his former commander was affecting. Others present were Rev. Dr. C. E. Cline and wife, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Aldrich, Mrs. M. J. Wardell, Mrs. J. E. Baker, Mrs. W. H. Hold, Mrs. M. B. Powers, Mrs. Alice Crane, Mrs. Myrtle Thomas, Mrs. Blanche Thomas, Mrs. J. L. Hembree, Mrs. L. E. Hill, Mrs. M. J. Gray, Mrs. W. H. Lyon, Mrs. F. A. Wagoner, Mrs. Furdin, Miss Dorothy Ruth Purdin, Miss Jessie Hamilton, Misses Emma and Maggie Brown, John Hamilton and Mrs. Robert Hamilton, Rev. Mr. Cline, who also served in the Seventh Illinois, conducted the ceremonies of the occasion, after which a bounteous luncheon was served.

Mr. William C. Campbell and Miss Ida Jeanett will be married this afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, 462 Flint street, this city. The ceremony is to be performed at 2 o'clock with Rev. Paul Rader, of the Hussalo Congregational Church officiating. The daughter of Mr. Miss Jeanett, the daughter of Mr. Campbell is a member of the firm of McCredy & Campbell. After May 15 the couple will be at home at 375 East Forty-fourth street.

Both of these young people are popular and on several occasions during the past week their friends have assembled in their honor. Mr. Campbell was made the guest of honor at a "stag" reception given Friday night in the bachelor apartments of the Calumet Hotel. The apartments were tastefully decorated in true bachelor style, and refreshments were served. Features of the evening's entertainment were the chalk talks by Mr. F. N. Lupton, of Minneapolis; the music by Mr. A. Ethelbert Sanderson, of London, England. The guests of the evening were: J. W. Whitmer, C. Quirk, F. N. Lupton, S. L. Gibbs, John V. Strange, F. H. Geer, Tom McCredy, Jr., G. R. Howard, A. Ethelbert Sanderson, Harry Young, H. A. Burgess and W. C. Campbell.

The regular meeting of the Wisconsin Society of Oregon was held Thursday evening, April 23, at the Ross City Business College, 18 1/2 First street. There were between 75 and 100 Wisconsin people in attendance and enjoyed a very pleasant evening consisting of a literary and musical programme. The following programme was rendered: Dunbar's string orchestra; tenor solo, Mr. Merritt; reading, Miss Treacy; soprano solo, Miss Wooddy; alto solo, Miss Treacy. The annual meeting of the Wisconsin Society of Oregon will be held on May 29, at which time there will be a banquet and programme rendered, which will be especially prepared, inasmuch as this is the anniversary of the admission of Wisconsin to the Union. The committee on arrangements will announce through the public press the place at which the banquet and programme will be held. It is requested by the committee that all Wisconsin people kindly notify Miss Edith R. Sabia, secretary, 40 Chamber of Commerce, of any new Wisconsin people coming to the state, also any old-timers, as the committee is very desirous of having all Wisconsin people present at the annual meeting. There will probably be genuine old-fashioned badger pie served at the annual meeting, May 29.

The Luther League of St. James' English-Lutheran Church, West Park and Jefferson, held its regular monthly business and social meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Mary Alice Koch, 126 North Twenty-second. The league was well represented by its members and friends, there being 50 present. During the business session many important matters were disposed of. E. H. Gellinsky, vice-president of the league, has appointed the following committee: Miss Tension, Miss Cecile Albip, Miss Mildred Berguson and Mr. C. A. Ruff, who are to arrange for the distribution of roses to be made daily to the various hospitals of the city during week of the Rose Carnival. This movement has met with the approval of many young people's societies of the various churches of the city. After the business session a programme was rendered by the following:

PARTICIPANTS IN A GOBLE WEDDING

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the residence of the bride's father, Goble, Or., Wednesday, April 23, when Miss Madeline Foster and Willis A. Van Atta were united in matrimony by R. Clarence Cook, pastor of the East Forty-fourth-street Baptist Church, Portland. The home was beautifully decorated with carnations and Oregon holly. The bride was dressed in a traveling suit of Copenhagen blue and carried a bouquet of white carnations. After the ceremony a light wedding dinner was served, the bride and groom immediately departing for Seattle and points in British Columbia. The bride is a charming Portland girl. Mr. Van Atta was formerly from McMinnville, having been graduated from the McMinnville College in 1902, and until recently has been employed by Woodard, Clarke & Co. Mr. and Mrs. Van Atta will locate in Castle Rock, Wash., where the groom is manager of the Beebe-Van Atta Drug Company. They were the recipients of many beautiful presents. At home after May 15.

The Sunflower Club gave a pleasant surprise party on Mrs. W. Meeker, 442 Albina avenue, on Wednesday afternoon. After an hour of social chat light refreshments were served in the dining-room. Those present were: Mrs. Mercer, Mrs. Montag, Mrs. Hoke, Mrs. Ehlers, Mrs. Mueller, Mrs. Bays, Mrs. Mooney, Mrs. Chambers, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Kampe, Mrs. Winkieblack, Mrs. Hennings, Mrs. Bellmer, Mrs. Lewis, Miss Helen Hoke, Miss Royce Bays, Ray Winkieblack, Edward Bays and Thelma Lewis.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIS A. VAN ATTA.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the residence of the bride's father, Goble, Or., Wednesday, April 23, when Miss Madeline Foster and Willis A. Van Atta were united in matrimony by R. Clarence Cook, pastor of the East Forty-fourth-street Baptist Church, Portland. The home was beautifully decorated with carnations and Oregon holly. The bride was dressed in a traveling suit of Copenhagen blue and carried a bouquet of white carnations. After the ceremony a light wedding dinner was served, the bride and groom immediately departing for Seattle and points in British Columbia. The bride is a charming Portland girl. Mr. Van Atta was formerly from McMinnville, having been graduated from the McMinnville College in 1902, and until recently has been employed by Woodard, Clarke & Co. Mr. and Mrs. Van Atta will locate in Castle Rock, Wash., where the groom is manager of the Beebe-Van Atta Drug Company. They were the recipients of many beautiful presents. At home after May 15.

ing: Vocal solo, Mr. Franklin Koch; reading, Miss Mattie Schroeder; vocal solo, Mrs. W. S. T. Derr; reading, Miss Olga Gunderson. Refreshments were served. The next business and social meeting of the league will be held at the home of Mr. Charles Cook, 315 Twelfth street, Tuesday evening, May 12.

On the recent visit of the head officers of the Woodmen of the World to this city they were given a dinner by Mrs. J. M. Woodworth at her residence, 548 East Pine. Those present were: Head consul, I. L. Hook, of Denver; head adviser, T. Clinton Veale, of Pasadena, Cal.; head banker, P. E. Snodgrass, of Eugene, Or.; John Pattison, Mayor of Colfax, Wash.; general organizer, H. L. Day; special organizer, D. J. Beake; M. D. George, W. W. Minar, J. J. Jennings, William Reid, E. W. Wells and J. M. Woodworth. Mrs. Woodworth was assisted by Mrs. L. C. Henry and Miss Sadie Settlemier. The house was decorated with evergreens and wild flowers. A large bouquet of timber lilies graced the center of the table. Red rose buds were the favors for the gentlemen. The company dispersed early to attend the big initiation of Woodmen which was held that night in the West Side temple.

Portland musicians created much praise in a violin recital last Wednesday in Vancouver, Wash., which was given by Frank G. Eichenlaub, the well-known violinist, assisted by Miss Beatrice C. M. Hildon, pianist, and Edgar E. Courson, accompanist. The concert was given at the Auditorium and brought out the representative society of Vancouver. Mr. Eichenlaub's brilliant playing brought forth many encores as did the splendid work of Miss Hildon. Mr. Courson was, as always, an excellent accompanist. The following programme was given: (a) "Recit. et Romant." (Wagner-Leonard), (b) "Paroles du Coeur" (Radoux-Musini), (c) "Etude op. 104 (Mendelssohn), (d) "Scherzo" (MacDowell); (e) "Benediction" (Orta); (f) "Aria" for the string alone, (Bach), (g) "Humoresque" (Dvorak), (h) "To a Wild Rose" (MacDowell-Eichenlaub), (i) "Etude de Concert" (Fiscoll), "Spinning Song" (Wagner-Liszt); "Alra Ruisse" (Wieniawski).

The Young Women's Christian Association invites all women to an "At Home" (Sunday) from 4 to 6 o'clock. The day will be informal. Girls may come and go just as they please. A Drop-In Bible class begins at 4 o'clock, and a dialect story is read at that time to a different group of girls. The more formal programme commences at 4:30 o'clock with vocal and instrumental solos. Arthur E. Waltz gives the address, "The Earthly and Heavenly Vision," an interesting and helpful talk. An informal lunch and "getting acquainted" time closes the afternoon and all women will find a most hearty welcome and a good place to make friends.

The first wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Holts was celebrated at their new home, 105 East Twentieth street, North, Thursday evening, April 23. Many presents were received. The evening was spent in games after which a dainty luncheon was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Holts, Mrs. Luke and her daughter Olga, and Misses Edith Smith, Edna Harbaugh, Blina Cooper, Helen Cooper, Bertha Holts, Annie Holts, Bessie Holts, and Messrs. Paul La Mahr, Emerich Harbaugh, Harold Cooper, Spencer Cooper, Chester Cooper, Robert Cooper and Everett Holts.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club met with Mrs. A. V. Clark and the following programme, in charge of the hostess, was given: "Macaulay's Position as Poet, Critic and Historian," Mrs. George Boynton; "Macaulay's Milton," Mrs. C. Croger; "Other Historians of Note," Mrs. Harry E. Chipman. The guests of the club were Mrs. Shields and Mrs. Cameron. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Elizabeth Mrs. Shields. The club will meet at the home of Mrs. George Bateson, 2834 Margate street, April 29. Any Steel bridge may be taken.

The literature department of Portland Club met Wednesday, April 22, with Mrs. Fitzpatrick, at 709 Flanders street. Mrs. George and Mrs. Torance gave short biographical sketches of Edgar Allan Poe, and the club joined in general discussion of the beauty of his poetical style and the eccentricity of his character. Miss Nina Larue recited

Advertisement for Silberfeld's fur clothing. Features include: 'LARGEST AND LEADING FUR MANUFACTURERS OF THE WEST', 'EXCLUSIVE OUTFITTERS FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN', 'Cor. 4th and Morrison Sts.', 'SPRING AND SUMMER OUTFITS', 'The time for making the selection of your outfit is right now...', 'We Announce an Unusual Sale of STREET FROCKS', 'Our preparation of Street Frocks has been more than double that of any previous season...', 'FOR YOUR SELECTION AT $35 EACH', 'The large number we are serving assures us of the great appreciation of these models.', 'MANY NEW NOVELTIES IN NECKWEAR', 'Every day sees the arrival of delightful new accessories in our Neckwear Department...', 'HATS IN KEEPING WITH THE ADVANCING SEASON', 'For this week we have prepared for you inspection a distinctly new showing of the latest effects in millinery...', 'A TIMELY REMINDER---THE PROPER CARE OF FURS', 'NOW IS THE TIME TO STORE YOUR FURS. The commonest cause of the injury or ruin of furs is MOTHS...', 'HIGHEST PRICES FOR RAW FURS SEND FOR PRICE LIST', 'PHONE AND OUR MESSENGER WILL CALL. PHONES: MAIN 1295, A 1295.', 'REMODELING AND REPAIRING OF FURS AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES.'

Advertisement for H. B. Litt. Features include: 'H. B. LITT', 'Ladies' and Misses' SUITS', 'All Reduced One-Fourth ON MONDAY', 'All Waists AT Half Price'.

Advertisement for Lennon's Parasol Girl. Features include: 'Lennon's FOR GLOVES AND UMBRELLAS', 'Parasol Girl', 'PARASOL OPENING', 'We invite the ladies of Portland to inspect our superb Parasol exhibit...', 'Note-The Parasols shown on Page 4 Section 3, of this paper, are from our stock.', 'Lennon's FOR GLOVES AND UMBRELLAS', '309 Morrison St., Opposite Postoffice.'