WEDDINGS.

Chapman-Hill.

One of the most prominent post-Easter weddings was that of Miss Agnes Helen Hill to Horace Earle Chapman, Tuesday evening, at Trinity Church, Dr. A. A. Morrison officiating. The bride was given away by her father, George H. Hill. She was beautifully gowned in ivory duchesse mesaline cut princess, and en traine, trimmings of rich princess lace and a veil of tulle completely enveloping her, the veil being held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms which her mother, Mrs. George H. Hill, wore on her wedding day. Her outfit ornament was a necklace of pearls, a gift from her father. She carried lilies of the valley.

The bride party, Mrs. Benjamin Gadaby, Mrs. Walter Gadaby, Mrs. Ambrose Scott and Mrs. Elnathan Sweet, all recent brides, wore their wedding gowns of ivory white mesaline, wreaths of tiny pink rosebuds in their hair. They carried pink roses.

The maid, Miss Judith Scott, wore a rose pink semi-empire gown, of marquisette with a broad satin sash. Trimmings of lace and panne velvet of a deeper shade made the toilette extremely chic. Her cofiture was completed by a wreath of tiny rosebuds, the same as worn by the bride party. Her flowers were pink roses.

Miss Hannah Sweet, a niece of the groom, wore a dainty frock of white mull, trimmed with Armenian lace; her sash of Dresden ribbon and hair ribbons of the same design, made a very pretty picture, as she strewed flowers from a large feather hat fastened to her shoulders with pink streamers.

Elnathan Sweet attended the groom and the ushers were: Arnold Rothwell, Ambrose Scott, Walter M. Gadaby and Benjamin Gadaby.

Following the ceremony, a reception for the bride party and Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Morrison was held at the home of the bride's parents, at 351 Twelfth street. The color tone of the wedding being pink, roses of that hue, dogwood, lilies and greens combined with tulle, made the home decoratively attractive. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman upon their return from a short trip will reside with Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hill. Much entertaining was done for Miss Hill up to the day of her wedding.
