TO PRY OFF THE LID the mark of quality is up where the wild geose fly.

The horses will be shown and sold Tuesday. Wedteesday and Thursday at the Lewis and Clark Fair grounds, and the cattle sale will occur Friday at the Union Stock Yards. Portland as a live stock market has come to the treat place of tate, and interest in this breeders' sale is an important factor of the commercial activities of this city. It will be worth while to attend this sale for busing purposes or from the simple standpoint of sightseeing. The horses will be shown all of these three days. Two auctioneers from the bine grass country Colonel Harriman and Mr. Higginbottom, will have something worth while to say, being famous men in their line, and the horsemen and would-be horsemen of Portland have never before had such an opportunity to acquire value as in this cale.

School Has Liquor License.

LONDON, April 18 .- St. Albans grammar school can boast of being the only scholastic institution in the kingdom which holds a license to zell wine. which holds a license to self wine.

It is known to have been one of the privileges of this school for centuries to own such a license, and probably the right was granted to the old monks who kept the school in times long past an a sort of monopoly in that district "for favors received."

At any rate the school has certainly derived the right to sell wine, or to attow it to be sold, on its premises, from ancient charters granted to it, which privilege has been confirmed by its sub-ventient charters. sequent charters.
