SAN FRANCISCO, May 2.—(Special.)—For the first time this week the Seals hung one on the Beavers at the Valencia-street lot this afternoon.

McCredie made the mistake of putting Busher Bloomfield to work just when his team was rounding into winning form.

The work of the slender Mr. Henley on the Seal slab was not so high class as to shine out brightly.

McCredie committed a piece of bad head-work in the third inning. With men on first and third and only one to the bat, he hit a slow one to Henley.

City League grounds this afternoon, score 7 to 2. Woodburn's victory was due largely to the manner in which the players were able to land on Hill's curves and the number of errors made by Salem.

Salem made its scores in the first inning. The first man up for Woodburn, Polen, who plays second base, hit one of Hill's slowest over the fence in the right field and scored a home run.

The day was cold and a strong south wind aided Woodburn's heavy hitters. There was a very small crowd.

Batteries—Hull and Heyser for Salem; Bowen and White for Woodburn.
