The Best Styles and Materials

One of the largest deals of the present season was consummated when our suit-buyer made this gigantic purchase in New York. Such an enormous quantity staggered representations of leading stores in many larger cities, but knowing this store's supremacy as a supply center and the immense outlet provided by our large and constantly increasing clientele, our Suit Department manager negotiated for this stupendous quantity with perfect confidence in their quick disposal. No other store west of Chicago could think of handling so great a number of Suits in one purchase.

Our ready cash and willingness to handle such volumes of merchandise has made possible what is, without exception, the Premier Suit Value Ever featured in the West.

The Costumes concerned are marvels of artistic handiwork—in either the plain tailored or elaborately trimmed styles. Most expert tailors and garment makers is displayed in the construction of these garments. The materials are the finest obtainable and they are cleverly fashioned into distinctive and original styles. There are many remarkable fabrics in all the assorted colors, there are fancy stripes, checks, plaids, etc. The decorations employed are rich laces, appliques, silk braids, waffle braids, buttons, pendants and straps. The weaves run from the sheer silks to medium weight wool linings.

Many of the lighter weight fabrics are made with a silk drop shirt.

Every consumer who reads this advertisement must be intensely interested. It's an opportunity to economies greater than any that has come before, and perhaps the last one for years. Our choice Monday and Tuesday
