MISS EMILY STONE OF SAN FRANCISCO WHOSE ENGAGEMENT HAS BEEN ANNOUNCED TO MR. FRED S. CHAPMAN OF PORTLAND

A MOST successful affair was the Charity Ball on Thursday, given by the Knights Templars in aid of the Baby Home, which resulted in the accumulation of a large sum for the worthy association. Over 1000 were present, and the ball at its height presented a brilliant scene, the handsome gowns of the matrons and girls and the additional color note loaned by the striking uniforms of the Knights making a charming kaleidoscopic effect of color.

Interest in outdoor events is in the ascendency. This being manifest particularly in motoring, horseback riding and golfing, the latter in particular having had many devotees at the links during the recent period of ideal Spring weather.

Congratulations have been showered on Fred S. Chapman over the announcement of his engagement to Miss Emily Stone, of San Francisco, who has visited here on two occasions. Miss Stone, who made her debut two seasons ago, has been one of the acknowledged belles in the Bay City since then. She has lived and traveled much abroad and is a handsome girl, being tall, dark, and patrician. Mr. Chapman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Chapman. The bride-elect attended Miss Hamilton's school of San Francisco at the same time as Miss Fannie Brown and the beautiful Elsie Sperry, the present Mrs. Arno Dosch.

Bishop and Mrs. Charles Scadding are to leave in May for a four month trip to Europe.

Mrs. Rodney L. Gilsan, Miss Carrie Gilsan, Rodney Gilsan, Mrs. Arthur Gilsan and Mrs. Arthur Minott are also contemplating a trip abroad this summer.

Among those contemplating trips to Europe this coming summer are Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Burns, Miss Anita Burns, Mrs. Richard Koehn, Mrs. George F. Russell, Miss Nan Russell, Miss Lillian Russell, Henry E. Dosch, Miss Camille Dosch, Miss Lillian Dosch, Marguerite and Roswell Dosch, Mrs. James Dougherty, Mr. Dorothy Kinney, Jack Dougherty, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Rush, and Miss Aita Rush. While any number of Portlanders have returned from Europe this winter.

An extremely smart affair on Friday was the German given by Mr. and Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox for their daughter Miss Claire. The drawingrooms of the handsome Wilcox residence were the scene of the cotillion and presented a charming appearance with the lavish decorations of early Spring flowers combined with the attractive frocks of the girls who compose the younger set. There were numerous and extremely pretty, being chic flower hats, parasols, miniature musical instruments, fans, popguns, windmills and huge baskets of flowers. Distributing the favors or gifts were Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, Mrs. Frank Hart, Mrs. Zera Snow and Mrs. A. A. Morrison. Assisting in leading the many pretty figures of the cotillion were Miss Effie Houghton, Miss Miriam Strong, Charles Holbrook and Raymond Wilcox. Present were the Misses Louise Burns, Grace Honeyman, Katherine Hart, Nell Cameron, Thornton Ladd, Robert Livingston, Jack Burns, Ruth Teal, Hallock Maxwell, William Howe, Holt Cookingham, Ronald Strong, Clifton Watson, Genevieve Halley, Lloyd Mayer, Tony Bacon, Margaret Gansney, Eleanor Efinger, Berkeley Snow, David Loring, Gaven Dyott, Nelson Gammans, Clarence Curry, Nathaniel Sage, of Vancouver Barracks; Henry Beuhner, Walker Kamma, Phillip Kamm, William Wheeler, Cassy Heller, Margaret Wallace, Katherine Holbrook, Grace Mackenzie, Mary Brownly, Dorothy Huber, Charlotte Laidlaw, Winifred London, Margaret Mackenzie, Lillian Dehmer, Mildred Honeyman, Sarah Hart, Margaret Hewett, Mable MacMaster and Albert Davis, of Vancouver Barracks.

The portrait of Mrs. William T. Muir which appears on today's page has just been painted by Mrs. Frank Vincent Du Mond and has been much admired. Mrs. Muir is depicted in a striking gown of rich yellow satin, with a bertha of rose point. Mrs. Du Mond is now engaged on a painting of Miss Carrie Flinders on horseback.

Mrs. Grellie and her two charming daughters, Misses Freda and Elsa, who have spent the winter as guests of Edward Grellie, have returned to their home in South Orange, N. J. The Grellie girls during their visit enjoyed much popularity, having a pleasing manner and being accomplished and athletically inclined.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Russell and their daughter Nan will leave Portland for Europe the second week in June. After a month in New York, they will sail directly for Liverpool, and then remain on the Continent. Their plans for remaining abroad are as yet uncertain, but there is a probability that Miss Nan will attend some European school.

Mrs. W. S. Ladd was the hostess on Thursday, at a luncheon given in compliment to Mrs. Frank Vincent Du Mond, of New York. Covers were laid for 12 which included Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Miss Sallie Lewis, Miss Virginia Wilson, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, Mrs. H. Lea Barnes, Mrs. Ernest Tucker, Mrs. William T. Muir, Mrs. E. C. Shevlin and Mrs. John Shepard.

The presence of Mr. and Mrs. Bull, of New York, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, was the motif for a round of dinners, bridge parties and luncheons. Mrs. William Taylor, of San Francisco, sister of Mrs. Lewis, has been a guest of the Lewises, and being a decided favorite here, much has been done in her honor. On Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Bull returned to their New York home, and on this coming Tuesday Mrs. Lewis and her little son will leave with Mrs. Taylor for California, where they will attend the reception of the fleet.

Mrs. Warren F. Houghton and Miss Claire Houghton returned Monday evening from a three month visit in New Orleans, where Mrs. Houghton formerly lived. While in the South they were showered with attentions in addition to being present during the gay season of the Mardi Gras. Mrs. Houghton has returned vastly improved in health.

Major and Mrs. Canby arrived recently from the Orient and have taken apartments at the Noronia Hotel. Mrs. Canby will be remembered as Miss Eugenia Cunningham, who was one of the very popular Portland girls. Mrs. Cunningham is with her daughter.

Dr. and Mrs. E. DeWitt Connell have recently moved from their King's Heights residence and are now domiciled at the Welas apartments, on Twenty-third street. Dr. and Mrs. Connell entertained informally last week in honor of their guest, Lieutenant John Charles Fremont, Jr., who is aide to Rear-Admiral Bacon, of the U. S. S. West Virginia. A number of men were asked to meet Lieutenant Fremont last week at a luncheon which Dr. Connell gave at the Arlington Club.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Fieschner have returned from their beach cottage, where they spent the Easter holidays and entertained several house parties over the week-end.
