EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

The season's last Pianola Recital was given by Ellers Plano House on Friday evening. The programme was an ex-cellent one and attracted the largest audience of nusic lovers and critics ever assembled in their hall. The open-ing number was for pipe organ and pianola. Mr. Frederic Goodrich's interpretation was excellent and was greatly enjoyed. Miss Kathleen Lawler was never in better voice and sang a group of songs most admirably, a flute obliof songs most admirably, a flute obligate by Signor Biancone adding greatly to the artistic effect. Hiness prevented Mr. Dom Zan from appearing and Mr. Monteith very kindly substituted and pleased all with his splendid renditions. Charles Duncan Raff, the latest addition to the local coterie of musicians, made his first public appearance. His masterly playing showed him to be a 'cellist of rare ability. His tone is remarkably sympathetic and strong.

The instrumental numbers were very pleasing, particularly Liszt's second

It was a rare music evening, given through the courtesy of the House of Ellers and was a fitting climax to the splendid series of recitals given during the Winter. Following is the pro-

The gathering at the residence of M. J. Morse, at 35 East Twenty-eighth street corner of Tangart, celebrating the birth-day of two brothers, W. N. and M. J. Morse, was a very enjoyable affair. As meet of the people present were G. A. R. members, the programme was largely patriotic and reminiscent. Captain G. E. Caukin, the senior past department commander, was master of exemonies, and called on a number of the guests for short addresses, which were given in the spirit befitting the occasion. Among the speakers were the Rev. L. R. Dyott, D. D., Rev. Gilman Parker, Department Chaplain Barden, Past Department Commander Borthwick, Comrade D. J. Halines, Colonel S. R. Harrington, Dr. Hickman, late C. S. A., and others. The Veteran Male Quartet, consisting of W. N. Morse, C. W. Tracy, A. W. Mills and C. H. Bestow, rendered a number of selections.

been chosen for the play, and already diligent rehearsals are in progress under the efficient direction of Rose Eytinge, for many years America's foremost emotional actress. The title role is to be played by Mrs. Ralph Wilbur, and the principal man's role is to be portrayed by Miss Elenor McDonald, who will be remembered for her charming rendition of Robin Hood last season.

The many admirers of Miss Eytinge are delighted to learn that she is to give an interesting recital or reading at her apartments in the very near future, when several of her former pupils are to appear, among them Kate Burney, who will recite the poem of her uncle, Sam Simpson, "Beautiful Willamette."

One of the pleasant social events of the week was the entertainment given on Thursday to about 30 members of the Shakespeare, Self-Improvement and the Shakespeare, Self-Improvement and the Current Events Clubs of McMinnville by the Pleasant Hour Reading Club of Dayton. The McMinnville ladies drove over and were met by the reception committee of the entertaining club and escorted to the home of Mrs. A. J. McCain, where an address of welcome was made by the President, Mrs. Martin Miller. Responses were made by Mrs. R. H. Grover, Mrs. Dr. Lewis and Mrs. T. J. Warren on behalf of the visiting clubs. The home was profusely decorated, the colors oeing white and yellow. A banquet was served at noon in the G. A. R. Hall, in which the color scheme was faithfully carried out both as to the menu and decorations. A musical and literary programme was given followed by a review of the Dayton school children in a drill at the City Park.
