

embroidered and trimmed with point lace. She wore as a brooch a beautiful miniature of her great-grandfather, Major Robert Searcy, of the Revolutionary War...

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Weeks were dinner hosts Wednesday evening at the Hobart-Curtis, asking Judge and Mrs. John B. Cleland, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Holman, Miss Ties Van Bolton, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thompson, Judge and Mrs. H. H. Northrup, Miss Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Woodward, W. A. Cleland and N. J. Levinson.

Mrs. Hugh Hume has returned from a visit to New York, whither she went to bid bon voyage to her brother, DeForest Brush, the famous artist, who is going to Italy. Many attentions were showered upon Mrs. Hume by the New York artists, Charlotte Coman, Douglas Volt and others.

Portland friends of Miss Sally Kirkland and Lieutenant Edward S. Hartshorn, Fourteenth Infantry, U. S. A., will be pleased to learn of their engagement. Miss Kirkland is a sister of Lieutenant Roy Kirkland, and was a belle at Vancouver Barracks during the stay of the Fourteenth Regiment. The marriage will take place in Manila early in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Linn are at their Jacksonville farm, where they will remain until the arrival of the fleet in Seattle, when they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kerrys, at whose residence Miss Elizabeth Patterson Sawyer, Mrs. Linn's sister, is at present a guest. The Kerrys and Miss Sawyer are this week at Victoria, attending the golf tournament.

Among the Portlanders attending the reception and ball Wednesday night at the Fairmont Hotel to Admiral Evans and the fleet were Mr. and Mrs. James McEl Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Malarky, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Herring and E. J. Daly.

On Wednesday Mrs. Charles Whitney, formerly of Los Angeles, gave a luncheon at her Willamette Heights residence for Mrs. Ralph Heath, a recent arrival. Present were Mrs. R. R. Taylor, Mrs. W. Talbot, Mrs. James Dougherty, Miss Inez Bartlett, Mrs. Sherman O'Gorman, Mrs. Dorothy Dick, Miss Fannie Brown, Miss Dorothy Kline, of Salt Lake, Miss Congate and Miss Alice Sanbury. On Tuesday, May 19, Mrs. Whitney will give a luncheon followed by bridge.

News comes from Fort Worth, Tex., of the engagement of Heppner Blackman, of Heppner, Or., a son of Henry Blackman, who was introduced to the family of the President Cleveland, to Miss Irene Tift, a daughter of Julius A. Tift, of San Francisco. Mr. Blackman is a Portland boy who has made his name in the newspapers in Eastern papers. Miss Tift is a cousin of Admiral Dewey, and a member of the Tift family, of Tifton, Ga., an old Southern family. NANCY LEE.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Founders' day at Columbia University, observed every year as one of the special events in the life of both student and faculty of the institution, was celebrated Wednesday of the past week. At noon a banquet was served in the spacious hall of the university building. Following the banquet, Dr. S. W. Waite, in behalf of the student body, tendered the formal greetings to Archbishop Alexander Ratti, O. S. B., Father Joseph Gallagher, in behalf of the faculty and community, and declared that sound education blends with intellectual development. Archbishop Christie then responded and reviewed the founding of the Columbia University. Ex-Senator John M. Gearin followed with an eloquent address, in which he declared for Christian education. At 8 P. M. a musical programme was rendered by Columbia Glee Club. The club came to the programme by the Columbian Alumni Association, closing with an address by the Archbishop. A $500 scholarship was the theme of the evening. Following was the programme: Chorus, "Hunting Song"; Glee Club; Rev. Father Gallagher; piano solo, Harry Couillard; vocal solo, "Beautiful Moonlight"; M. G. Ennis and H. Couillard; instrumental, Otto Weiskerker; solo, "Asleep on the Deep"; F. J. Clarus; music, Glee Club; address, Archbishop Christie. Guests were from different portions of the state.

Mrs. E. K. Warren and Miss Harriet Yarwood were hosts at a reception given in the parlors of the First Presbyterian Church Tuesday evening, the occasion being in honor of the winning section of the membership contest of the Warren Bible class. Through the efficient work of each section, 135 names have been added to the class roll since the first Sunday in October, Miss Harriet Yarwood being captain of the winning section, known as the "Gleaners." Received the hearty congratulations of all present, and the evening was most delightfully spent socially. The Warren orchestra, under the leadership of Professor J. H. Cowan, rendered a musical programme, which was enthusiastically received. The parlors were decorated with drooping branches of Scotch broom, Oregon grape and ferns. The young ladies served at the refreshment tables. Mrs. Warren and Miss Yarwood received many congratulations upon the success of the evening. The young ladies who assisted in receiving were: Miss Alice Sprague, Miss Madeleine Smith, Miss M. Crusee, Miss Elizabeth Anderson, Miss Stella Mangus and Miss Christine John.

The Tuesday Afternoon Club met with Mrs. Harry Frise. A brief business session was held, after which the following programme was in charge of the hostess: Quotations from Bryant by members in response to roll call; "Evolution of Literary Freedom," Mrs. A. A. Bailey; "Evolution of Science, 1763-1837," Mrs. A. J. Stiles; "Philosophy of Periods," Mrs. G. C. Eshliman; selected readings from Bryant, Mrs. Mary S. Myers; Mrs. E. A. Packard, from Los Angeles, and Miss Helen Peters, from The Dalles, were guests of the club. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Peters. The annual business meeting and picnic will take place at Columbia Park, Tuesday, May 12. Take St. John cars at Third and Alder streets at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Steele, Jr., gave a farewell surprise party at their home, 298 Monroe street, Saturday evening, May 2, in honor of Mrs. Mary Seede, who left for the East last Monday morning, to visit relatives. The evening was spent in games and music, after which a delicious supper was served in the dining-room. The following guests were present: Mrs. Mary Seede, Mrs. Marie C. Bachrodt, Mrs. W. J. Shely, Mrs. M. J. Walter, R. Bernard, Mr. Hoopes, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Steele, Mrs. George, Mr. and Mrs. Burch, Mr. and Mrs. George Seed, Mr. and Mrs. George Porth, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Seed, Jr., Miss Mamie Porth, Miss Mildred Porth, Messrs. Lester Seed, Andrew Magee, Wilbur Porth and A. H. Hartung, Messrs. Clarence and Carlos Steele.

The cantata "Cross and Crown," which was so successfully rendered by the choir of the Fourth Presbyterian Church during Easter week, was repeated at the Sunnyside Congregational Church on Friday of this week before a large and appreciative audience. Miss Carrie Spalding, a soprano with a voice of good range, who has just returned from Europe, did some fine work and was well received. The sympathetic interpretation of the cantata solos by Miss Eleanor Kurth deserves special mention. Miss Kurth has made marked progress during the past few months and her friends have every reason to be proud of her work in this cantata. Miss Klumpp, organist at Fourth Presbyterian Church, was the able accompanist; Mrs. J. H. Hamilton, director.

At the Y. W. C. A. Sunday "at home" today, Miss Cartwright, the president of the Young Women's Christian Association, who has been away for some time, will give a talk. The subject is "Corner Stones" and all who have heard Miss Holbrook know that this will be a most interesting address. A delightfully informal time closes the afternoon. A lunch is served, and social chitney follows.

THE SOLOISTS FOR MRS. FREDERICK EGGERT'S INVITATIONAL RECITAL ON FRIDAY AFTERNOON AT THE HEILIG

Miss Adn Alice Tuttle, the soloist, who is to give a piano recital at the Heilig on May 15, at the musical given by Mrs. Frederick Eggert for the Women's Club and their guests, appeared as piano soloist with Kubelik at the Heilig on January 11. Of her numbers on that occasion The Oregonian critic published the following: "Miss Berthe Roy played the C minor prelude of Chopin, a Portland girl. It was an extremely difficult position for Miss Tuttle, and she acquitted herself extremely well. Her first number was a prelude in C sharp minor, by Rachmaninoff, and she brought out the solemn, stately feeling in the composition very well. Next she played the Etude in C minor of Chopin, which called for a greater display of technique and into the spirit of which she thoroughly entered. As an encore, Miss Tuttle played the C minor prelude of Chopin, played it better than either of her other numbers, and played it in a manner that held the audience breathless. Miss Tuttle has the music feeling and will some day make her mark in the world of music."

Mrs. Clyde B. Altchison, who has a fine dramatic soprano voice, with some coloratura quality. She sings with taste and temperament, and will be a great surprise to those who have only heard her in church work.

follows. The girls can come and go as they please, and strangers or all girls away from home can spend a pleasant, friendly afternoon. Following is the musical programme which begins at 4:20 o'clock: Soprano solo, Miss Nona Lawler; contralto solo, Miss May Breslin; violin solo, Miss Mary Mackenzie Cahill; reading, Miss Marguerite Shiley.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Spence celebrated the 25th anniversary of their wedding at a friendly gathering held at their home, 68 East Stark street, Tuesday night. It had been planned to have a quiet family party in recognition of the event, but the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Spence suddenly arrived and surprised them, bearing gifts of silver. William and Jessie Spence had prettily decorated the rooms with Oregon grape and narcissus. The evening was pleasantly spent with music and anecdotes, and a delicious luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Spence, who were married at Invercurie, Scotland, by Rev. George Bain, who also baptized Mrs. Spence, left for Portland three weeks after their marriage and have lived here ever since.

A birthday surprise party given Mrs. Ellen Mills Monday evening was one of the most enjoyable of the season. Nearly 40 members of George Wright Relief Corps and friends were in attendance. The surprise was completely carried out by Mrs. Mills being escorted to the residence of Mrs. Graft, a relative, several blocks from her home, until the company had all assembled. The evening was spent in story-telling and vocal and instrumental music. Mrs. Mills was the recipient of many presents, among which was a beautiful band ring from Mr. Mills, and a handsome silver berry spoon from the Relief Corps, of which she is senior vice-president. Mrs. Graft, assisted by Mrs. Ralph Mills, served ice-cream and cake.

Miss Mabel Hurley and Mrs. Armitage entertained the "Glimpses" and a number of invited guests, at the Women of Woodcraft Hall on Wednesday evening, May 6, with an illustrated description of their trip through Europe last year. They had carried a camera with them, and were successful in securing a number of excellent views, from which the lantern enjoyed. A number of presents were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice M. Binford were pleasantly surprised at their home, 47 East Stark street, north, last Monday evening, by the merry-makers, in honor of their third wedding anniversary. They were presented with a handsome piece of cut glass. Progressive whist was played during the evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. George Weiss, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Satterlee, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Binford, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Crawford, Miss Meta Legrande, Miss Munro, Mrs. M. G. Tomasi, Miss Hazel Lee, Miss Gurine Olson, J. Legrande, G. Barks, Newton Morgan, Alvah Grout and Clyde Shields.

Arrangements are nearly completed for the last party of the season to be given by the Mystic Stars of Myrtle in the new Masonic Temple, Wednesday evening, May 12. Parson's Orchestra will furnish the music. The patronesses are: Mrs. Robert Lutke, Mrs. A. J. Farmer, Miss Sophie Durkheimer, Mrs. D. G. Tomasi, Mrs. Hugh J. Royd, Mrs. E. W. Colson, Mrs. M. C. Banfield, Mrs. Rufus R. Ball, Mrs. A. Tiltz, Mrs. Annie C. Clark. Reception committee: Robert Lutke, W. A. Cleland, George A. Pease, D. G. Tomasi, Hugh J. Boyd, R. W. Colson, M. C. Banfield, Rufus R. Ball, Hopkin Jenkins and J. R. Rogers.

The O. E. S. Girls gave their last large dancing party for the season last Monday evening in the large ballroom of the new Masonic Temple, West Park and Yamhill streets. There was a large attendance of the friends of the club members, and all enjoyed a most pleasant evening. The club members were greatly pleased with the most excellent music which Stiles' orchestra of seven pieces furnished, and complimented Mr. Stiles accordingly. The patronesses last Monday evening were: Mrs. J. F. O'Donnell, Mrs. J. C. Olds, Mrs. J. S. Greeny, Mrs. E. B. Cowell and Mrs. G. M. Hyland.

LAMOND-CARLISLE WEDDING IS CELEBRATED

MR. AND MRS. M. HARRY LAMOND. The wedding of Miss Ella M. Carlisle to Mr. M. Harry Lamond occurred at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Belle Carlisle, and was one of the prettiest events of the season. Rev. L. N. B. Anderson read the marriage service. The decorations were most artistic. The parlor was in white and green, and the reception room in green and red. The bridal party entered to the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin," which was played by Miss Eva Emerick, and stood beneath a canopy of green and white streamers trimmed with ivy, from which was suspended a large white wedding bell. The bride was gowned in an ivory duchesse messaline, with trimmings of oriental and Irish point lace, and a veil of tulle, which was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. Miss Maude Carlisle, who wore pale blue satin, with trimmings of lace, was maid of honor, and Miss Pearl Carlisle was bridesmaid. The groom was attended by Mr. J. A. Byrne, of Salem. Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served, after which a reception was held. About 50 guests were present. Fruit punch was served by Miss Pearl Carlisle and Miss Cora Law and Miss Eva Carlisle presided at the cake table. Mr. and Mrs. Lamond will be at home after May 15, at the Hobart-Curtis.

Silverfield's EXCLUSIVE OUTFITTERS FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN. Cor. 4th and Morrison Sts.

GREAT MAYS SALES Our May sales have given an impetus to the season's business altogether without precedent, a condition made possible only through our complete mastery of the unusual trade conditions now prevailing and the activity of our New York buyers in gathering the choicest merchandise for midsummer.

Lingerie Dresses at $12.50 to $30.00 Opening Sale of Mid-Summer Millinery. These are the light, filmy Dresses for Summer wear, and come in white, pink, light blue and mauve. This is an exceptional collection, arranged for this May sale, and there is such a variety of dainty effects that you will probably buy more than one when you find how satisfactory the prices are.

Special Showing New Tailored Suits OF WHITE SERGE, IN MANY NEW EFFECTS, AT $25, $27.50, $30, $35. Jabots and Stocks Dainty Jabots and high Stocks are especially pretty with the cutaway coats, or those that button low in front. Gibson Stocks of German Val., shaped with high rounded sides, carefully boned, and pretty Jabot and bow of lace attached. 75c to $1.25

Sale Children's Apparel White Lawn Waist Dress $1.50 The little girl's wardrobe can be replenished more economically just now than at any other time of the year, for the Silverfield May sales are synonymous in the Portland mind with the lowest prices of the entire year. Third floor. Children's White Lawn Waist Dresses, round neck and short sleeves, circular collar with lace insertion and ruffle, full skirt, 2, 3 and 4 years, at $1.50. New Tailored Waists Specially Priced at $1.39 A new line of Tailored Linen Waists in stripes and pin checks, stock collars and ties, and stiff cuffs. VALUES TO $2.50 for only $1.39

FUR DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCEMENT Special inducements offered for all repairing and remodeling for the Summer. All furs remodeled at a cost of $5.00 and upward, STORED FREE OF CHARGE DURING THE SUMMER. WE PAY HIGHEST PRICES FOR RAW FURS. SEND FOR PRICE-LIST.

young men and young women, the former winning. A fine spread was prepared by the Philathea Society. There were about 70 present. Miss Emma Harlow was toastmistress. Among the many responses was a tribute to the McMinnville College, given by L. J. Richardson, a student. The tables were attractively decorated.

A meeting of the Educational Department, Woman's Club, was held May 7 at the spacious home of Mrs. O. P. M. Jamison on Kings Heights. A large number were present to listen to an address by Mayor Lane on "How We Should Build Our Schoolhouses to Make Them Safe and Sanitary." Miss Petronella Connelly delighted the members by rendering several vocal selections. She possesses a voice of unusual sweetness. The next meeting

Lennon's SPECIAL GLOVE AND HOSIERY SALE AT PORTLAND'S ONLY Specialty Glove and Umbrella Store

Monday, May 11th 16-button-length finest French kid—overseam and pique sewn; black only; all sizes, $4.00 quality, $2.85 special. Elbow length fine French kid, in red, green, navy and slate; $1.95 $3.50 value, special at. Pique Mousquetaire, wide flare top; 10-button length; black, tan, brown; regular $3.00 value; special at. $1.95 HOSE SPECIAL Women's Silk Lisle Stockings, tans and blacks; 40c value, special, pair. 25c Children's "Kas-tie-on" stockings, the world's best, pair. 25c PARASOLS AND UMBRELLAS MADE AND REPAIRED Lennon's 309 Morrison St., Opposite Postoffice.