Mrs. Ernest Tucker entertained on Wednesday afternoon at bridge in compliment to Mrs. James Canby (Miss Eugenia Cunningham).

Mr. and Mrs. F. Jacobs have returned from California and taken the Rush residence, on Twenty-third street, during the latter's absence abroad. Mrs. Jacobs and her small children have spent the winter in Virginia.

Mrs. L. H. Tarpley has returned from a visit in San Francisco. Miss Genevieve Thompson, who accompanied Mrs. Tarpley south, is still in California, where many things are being done in her honor.

Mrs. Thomas A. Stewart and daughter Nora have returned from a six weeks' visit in Southern California.

On Wednesday Mrs. James De Lavall Flower, Miss Estelle Flower, Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Lorrillard-Barbey and Master Pierre Lorrillard-Barbey, Jr., of New York, are to sail for Europe, where they will motor on the Continent during the entire summer.

Miss Frances Wilson will have as a guest this coming week Miss Ruth Danenhauer, of Oswego, N. Y., with whom she recently traveled abroad, and who was one of her college friends at St. Margaret's school in Watertown, Conn. Miss Danenhauer is to arrive on Thursday, and her presence will no doubt be the cause of considerable entertaining.

Miss Effie Houghton and Miss Claire Houghton are to be hostesses next Saturday night at a dinner-dance at the Golf Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Meier and their little daughter are now in Paris. During their travels the two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Meier are at school in Germany.

Miss Dorothy Kinney is to return on Tuesday to San Francisco, before sailing for Europe with Mrs. James Dougherty, who has rented her Kings Heights residence for the coming year to Mrs. Benjamin Gadsby, of Gates. The Doughertys and their little son are temporarily at the Hotel Nor-tonia.

The engagement of Henry Dosch, the eldest son of Colonel and Mrs. H. E. Dosch to Miss Washburner, of Minneapolis, has just been announced. Mr. Dosch for the past ten years has lived in Alaska, though he has visited here several times in the interim. This is the third engagement in the Dosch family during the past year, the first being that of Arno Dosch and Miss Elsie Sperry, of San Francisco, and the second Miss Camille Dosch, whose wedding will take place this fall in Paris.

Three hundred and fifty cards were sent out for the pretty reception given jointly yesterday afternoon by Mrs. A. C. Pantou and Mrs. John A. Keating at the former's residence, "Rosemont," on Portland Heights, in honor of Mrs. Keating's mother, Mrs. O. E. Mitchell, of Georgia. The drawing-rooms were decorated in Oregon, grape, dogwood and Scotch broom, and the dining-room in maidenhair ferns and white tulips.

In the latter room at the tea table presided Miss Estlinger, of Washington, D. C., Miss Judith Scott and Mrs. Rupert Chipman. Assisting in receiving were Miss Carlotta Parker, Miss Lillian Dosch, Miss Dorothy Morrison, Miss Madin Harty, Miss Eliza Parker, Miss Josephine Smith, Miss Beulah Nicholas, Miss Lorraine Salls and Miss Clara McGowan, while serving guests were Mrs. Benjamin Gadsby, her sister, Mrs. Horace E. Chapman (Miss Agnes Hill).

Mrs. Mitchell, the honor guest, has made many friends during her visit in Winter. She is a Colonial Dame and a charter member of the charter chapter of the American Revolution, which was organized at Atlanta, Georgia, her former home.

Mrs. Pantou received in a Parisian gown of embroidered chiffon and carried an arm bouquet of Jacqueminot buds. Mrs. Mitchell was wearing a soft gray crepe de chine elaborately trimmed with lace, and carried pink bridesmaid buds, while Mrs. Keating appeared in Dresden gown of a pale pink and blue tints, with a huge bunch of golden gate roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter B. McCracken arrived last week from Elv. Nev. After a brief visit with Mrs. McCracken's sister, Mrs. Barker, they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. James McCracken until after the Rose Festival.

Mrs. Christopher C. Barker and the Misses Barker and William C. Barker have arrived in Shanghai. They will return the latter part of June.

In honor of Miss Lillian and Camille Dosch, who leave on Tuesday for Europe, Mrs. George W. McBride asked a number of girls to tea on a Friday afternoon. Mrs. Benjamin Trenkham entertained for them the same evening at dinner, as did Mr. and Mrs. John Peters, and on Friday evening Mrs. Frederick Eggert tendered them one of her boxes at her musicale at the Heilig, while any number of jolly informal affairs have continued the passing of the week in their honor.

The second of a series of bridge parties was given on Wednesday by Mrs. Walter Holt. There were six tables and the prize-winners were Mrs. J. C. Robinson and Mrs. L. H. Tarpley. Mrs. Holt again entertained yesterday afternoon with bridge, this completing the series.

Two brides-elect, Miss Cora Marx and Miss Mildred Rheinstrom, were the guests of honor at a pretty luncheon given yesterday by Miss Florence Wolfe at her residence on Kings Heights. A color note of pink was carried out in the table decorations, this delicate shade of tulle forming the foundation for a canopy covered with vines and pink sweet peas, under which stood a miniature bride and groom. Present were Miss Florence Wolfe, Miss Clementine Hirsch, Miss Hilda Heister, Miss Henryetta Lauer, Miss Mae Oppenheimer, Miss Frances Jacobs, Miss Daisy Rosner of San Francisco, Miss Florence Kohl, and Miss Mabel Beck.

As an innovation at the Patton Home tea this coming Tuesday, the entire programme will consist of child talent, under the direction of a Friday little 15-year-old reader, Miss Marguerite Eggert. Among the numbers a tiny tot of 5 years will sing "The Holy City."

Mrs. J. Mann was the hostess yesterday afternoon at nine tables of bridge, when her guests included Mrs. Adolph Dekum, Mrs. Eliot Haberman, Mrs. Wm. Northrup, Mrs. Jerry Bronough, Mrs. C. A. Macrum, Miss Helen Van Schuyver, Mrs. A. E. Mackey, Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mrs. E. B. Caldwell, Mrs. Bruzzy, Mrs. Helen Cardwell, Mrs. T. T. Davis, Mrs. J. G. Mack, Mrs. E. George E. Collins, Mrs. Herman Allen, Mrs. Gifford Nash, Mrs. Thomas Howes, Mrs. Harold Stalger, Mrs. L. L. Durham, Miss Johnstone and Miss Effie Johnstone.

Mrs. F. K. Kuehner entertained with a luncheon of 12 covers on Monday at the Hotel Noronia grill, followed by bridge. Mrs. Kuehner will also entertain with another bridge luncheon this week.

To Mrs. Frederick Eggert falls the distinction of giving the most elaborate entertainments of the year. This was again manifested on Friday, when she gave a musicale at the Heilig to the Woman's Club and their friends that taxed the capacity of the house in spite of the inclement weather. The delightful piano recital was given by Miss Ada Alice

A TALENTED PORTLAND GIRL WHO HAS SUCCEEDED ON THE STAGE

MISS LILLIAN CROSMAN.

Miss Lillian Crossman, the popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Crossman, who appeared here frequently in the Columbia and Baker stock companies, has met with much success on the New York stage, being at the present time a member of "The Soul Kiss" company. Miss Crossman has a dramatic contralto voice of excellent quality and is rapidly developing acting ability of a high order. She will return to Portland, where she will rest this summer, preparatory to filling an important engagement with a Broadway company next season.

Tuttle, assisted by Mrs. Clyde Bruce Alchison, soprano. The artists were both highly delighted with the success of the party which appeared last season, after her return as the accompanist for Kubelik, attracted at that time much favorable comment having taken at an hour's notice the place of Miss Bertha Roy, who was ill.

In the interim great improvement is shown in Miss Tuttle's work, showing the result of hard work and steady application. Her technique is splendid, and she has a charming sense of tone gradation, a breadth of tone and pleasing sentiment and touch.

Mrs. Alchison, who has hitherto been heard only in church music, received a most cordial welcome. Her voice is a dramatic soprano, with a coloratura quality, and is characterized by much sweetness and power.

Many attractive Spring gowns were in evidence. Mrs. Eggert, the hostess, was gowned in a blue and white rutilum silk, with lapis-lazuli and diamond ornaments. Miss Tuttle appeared in a striking imported gown of a delicate pink mouse-line, over chiffon and satin, and elaborately trimmed with bands of heavy embroidery, velvet and satin. Mrs. Alchison wore a creation of white mesaline, over chiffon and silk, combined with oriental lace in rose design; and a white picture hat, covered with plumes. The following occupied boxes: In box A, Mrs. E. E. Courson, Mrs. Rose Courson Reed, W. A. Montgomery, Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer, Mrs. W. A. T. Bushong, Dr. George Ainslie. In box D—Professor

A number of showers have been given for Miss Gertrude Cahalin, daughter of Mrs. A. Cahalin, whose engagement to D. J. Conan has been announced.

Miss Myrtle Schaffer will entertain on Tuesday at her residence in Irvington with bridge, in honor of the two brides-elect, Miss Helen Brigham and Miss Grace Nicholson. NANCY LEE.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

One of the most successful social events of the season was given by the Mystic Stars of Myrtle Chapter, O. E. S., in the new Masonic Temple, Wednesday evening, May 13. Music was furnished by Parson's Orchestra. The prizes at the card tables were won by Miss Cornelia Barker and Fred E. Ballin. Refreshments were served in the large banquet hall on the third floor. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Rynyon, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lutke, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Tomasin, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Harry, Dr. and Mrs. Clayton S. Seaman, Mr. and Mrs. A. Sunderland, Mr. and Mrs. M. Bloch Bauer, Mrs. W. A. T. Bushong, Dr. George Ainslie. In box D—Professor

A Timely Reminder---the Proper Care of Furs. NOW IS THE TIME TO STORE YOUR FURS. The commonest cause of the injury or ruin of furs is MOTHS; actual wear is responsible for little of it. This has been learned to their sorrow by many imprudent people. Through oversight, through carelessness or through false economy, they neglect to provide for the proper care of their furs during the Summer, and ruin follows. Let us relieve you of the anxiety of properly caring for your furs. We have every facility for giving them the treatment they must have, to keep them in prime condition. WE STORE FURS NOT AS A SOURCE OF PROFIT, BUT AS AN ACCOMMODATION TO OUR CUSTOMERS.
