

Campbell, S. M. Mears, Thomas Kerr, gave in response to an encore. Refresh-L. N. Fleischner, H. C. Wortman, J. Frank Watson, J. R. McCraken, Isador Campbell, S. M. Mears, Thomas Kerr, L. N. Fielschner, H. C. Wortman, J. Frank Watson, J. R. McCraken, Isador Lang, J. N. Teal and F. G. Sykes, and the floor committee of W. H. Warrens, chairman: Thomas Robertson, C. E. Greile, Walter R. Beebe, B. R. Honey-man, Marion Dolph, T. S. McRath, Ches-ter G. Murphy, Robert Strong, L. H. Hoffman and Sidney Loewenberg.

The annual picnic and business meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Club was held last Tuesday in Columbia Park, when a merry group of members and invited guests gathered round the heavily-laden tables. After the luncheon the regular stasion was called and routine buainess was disposed of. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. H. J. Jackson: vice-president, George Bryn-ton; secretary, Mrs. Mary Vorse; treasurer, Mrs. A. Balley; preas cor-respondent, Mrs. A. J. Stiles; calendar . . . treasurer, Mrs. A. A Balley; press cor-respondent, Mrs. A. J. Stiles; calendar committee, Mrs. George Boynton; Mrs. William F. Amos, Mrs. Frank Miles. The next and last meeting for the samon will be at the home of Mrs. A. A. Balley, 1516 Hawtholde avenue, May 20. The afternoon will be occupied with a review of the year's work and an address on "A May Pilgrimage to Eng-lish Literary Themes," by Miss Eliza-beth A. Packard, of Los Angeles, Miss Packard is a member of the Friday Morning Club, of Los Angeles, and for the past year has had charge of the art and past year has had charge of the art and travel section of the Highland Park (Los Angeles) Club.

A plano recital was given by pupils o. Mrs. E. E. Tressier at the studio of their feacher, 86 Seventeenth atreet north. Saturday afternoon, May 9. Miss Cornella Barker, violinist, assisted in the programme. The selections were difficult, considering the youth of the performers, but each pupil played with skill, showing brilliancy in execution and intelligent conception of time and technique. The programme: Concerto, and intelligent conception of time and technique. The programme: Concerto, G Minor, Op. 24 (Mendelssohn), first plano Miss Oakes, second plano Miss Maegly; (a) "Hanebmann" (Schytte), (b) "L'Avalancho" (Heller), (c) "Trau-merie (Schumann), (d) "Romanze" (Schumann), (e) "Alla Tarantella" (Hiller), (f) "Austrian Folk-Song" (Pacher), Miss Dorotny Duniway; vio-lin solo, "Ava Maria" (Gounod), Miss Barker; (a) "If I Were a Bird" (Hen-selt), (b) Etude Op. 25 (Chopin), (c) "To the Evening Star" (Wagner-Lisst), (d) "The Eriking" (Schubert-Lisst), (d) "The Eriking" (Schubert-Liszt), Miss Gakes: (a) "The Swan" (Saint-Saens), (b) Rhapsodie Hongroise No. 12 (Liszt), Miss Maegly.

The annual reception given the Behnke-Walker Business College alumni last Friday evening in the Elks' Temple was the most brilliant affair in the history of the college. The magnificent, spacious hall of the Elks, seldom thrown open for any social function outside the order of that body, was filled to overflowing by 1900 enthusiastic students and alumni. As Mr. Walker, president of the col-lege, stepped upon the platform to welcome his guests, he was greeted with round after round of applause. The following informal but delightful programme was rendered by friends of the college, each number a gem in it-self: Vocal solo, Miss Emma Kienow; plano duct, Misses Willis and Benson; plano solo, Miss Helen Willis; reading, Mrs. O. A. Bosserman; vocal solo, Miss pinno solo, Miss Helen Willis; reading, Mra. O. A. Bosserman; vocal solo, Miss Klenow; plano solo, Miss Benson; plano solo, Mr. Shapirer. Parsons' orchestra and college songs were enjoyed throughout the evening. Two features of the evening were the college song and the college march. Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Bosserman, Miss Anna Filmn and Miss Garrett were hostesses at the much tables. punch tables.

One of the pleasant social events of the week was a flower party, given on Saturday evening. May 9, to the "Merry-makers," at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Crawford, Soi Kenilworth avenue. The home was tastefully decorated with The home was tastefully decorated with dogwood and Solomon seal. The prize for the flower contest was given to Miss Hazel Lee. Miss Bess Munro was given the prize for progressive whist. Those present were: Misses Marguerette Webb, Hazel Lee, Louisa Webb, Bess Munro, Edna Munro, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Bin-ford, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Saterlee and Marguer Nanton Moreau. Clude Shidds ford, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Saterlee and Messrs. Newton Morgan. Clyde Shields, Arthur Royal, Otto Lane, Jack B. Web-ber and George G. Randall. Bright ex-pectations are heat for the pleasure trips the 'Merrymakers' are planning to take this Summer.

(a) (b) (b)

The Art Department of the Woman's Club announces that Mrs. Weister will give a talk on Dutch Art, illustrated with stereopticon slides, on Monday evening, May 18, at 5 o'clock, in Sunny-side Hall, East Thirty-fourth and East Yamhill streets. All members of the Woman's Club and friends are invited. This is a part of the regular art course of this department. The ple-tures to be shown are rare and a com-prehensive idea of the subject is to be given.

. . . The Orlanda Club, which held a suc

And of the second secon The club members are: J. F. Hayman, E. C. C. Michelsen, J. J. Healy and S. D. Bonner. The patronesses will be Mrs. J. E. Kane, Mrs. L. Knudson, Mrs. E. Healy and Mrs. D. A. Bonner.

. . . A very pleasant reception was held on Thursday atternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock, at the home of Miss Van Vleet, by the women of Central Methodist Episcopal (Bhurch, in honor of the women and pas-tors of Woodlawn, Patton and University Park Churches, Mrs. Lena Day rendered several plano selections and Miss Mabel Downs sang. The parlors were fragrant with bunches of occan foam, and the der-orations in the dining-room were lavender. orations in the dining-room were lavender

A birthday surprise was given Mrs. Carrie Courter, president of the George Wright Women's Rellef Corps, No. 2. on Friday evening, May 8, Pres-ent were various members from Lin-coln, Garfield, Sumner and Ben Butler corps. After the closing of busi-ness a reception was held. Refresh-ments were served by the young la-dles and color-bearers, Winifred Mc-Creary, Zuba White, Grace and Lena Gilman.

. . . The Zin Vive Club met at the suburban home of Mrs. H. C. Day, 1127 Francis avenue, Thurnday, May 14. Those present were: Mesdames W. Pritchard, W. H. Lyon, H. C. Day, H. D. Curtis, W. A. Lyon, H. C. Day, H. D. Curtis, W. A. Monroe, D. J. Cameron, W. Friberg, C. M. Fraley, Bert Jackson and J. B. Olmsted. The guests were Mrs. Laccy and Mrs. Jar Muir. The hostess was as-sisted in serving the sumptuous lunch by Mrs. Jar Muir and Mrs. Florence Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Gay Lombard were hosts at a dinner dance on Wednesday even-ing, entertaining for Mrs. James Doughentertaining for ans. James Dough-erty and Miss Dorothy Kinney, who are leaving shortly for Europe. Wilder's or-chestra played during dinner and after-wards for dancing. Besides the homor guests those present were: Dr. and Mrs. George Marshall, Mrs. Frank Freeman, Morris Whitehouse, Joseph C. Meuhe, Jordan Zan and Chester G. Murphy.

. . . Mr. Lee F. Hanmer, field secretary of the Playground Association of Amer-ica, will lecture on 'The Importance of Providing Playgrounds for Children in Growing Cities," at the Unitarian Chapel, Seventh and Yamhill streets, Monday evening, May 18, at 8 o'clock. The lecture will be illustrated with a magic lantern. The public is respect-fully invited. There will be no admission charge. . . .

Much disappointment was expressed that the opening of the Rock Island Club was postponed last evening owing to the inclement weather. Many had planned to go up in their motor boats and launches. large parties being planned by Mr. and Mrs. James McCraken, Mr. and Mrs. Gay Lombard and Chester G. Murphy. From now on the club is open to its members.

Mrs. Charles F. Sanger entertained at her residence, Wednesday afternoon, a number of young women, the occasion being a linen shower in honor of Miss Mazie Camp. Recitations and instru-mental music were rendered. Refresh-ments were served. The house was pret-tily decorated with calla lilies, white iris and ferns. . . .

Miss Nellie Poulterer entertained at Riverdale for the week end, Miss Edna Reed, of Hood River, being the honor guest. Miss Reed, who was formerly a resident of Portland, has been the recip nt of many similar favors during her music for the occasion. One hundred and thirty couples were in attendance The club's last party for the sease will be given Thursday. May 28. The will also be a shirt-waist party. This will also be a shirt-waist party. The members of the Christian En-deevor Society of the First Congre-gational Church met at the home of Miss E. A. Duke. on East Twelfth street. last Monday evening, May 11. Mrs. Dyott assisted in making the evening a pleasant one.

A concert under the auspices of the Women's Relief Corps of George Wright Wollen's Relief Course of course of white Post, G. A. R., was given by Mrs. Whigham, from the Royal Academy of Music, London, on Friday evening, May J5, at the G. A. R. Hall, on Second and Morrison streets.

The Philathea Club of the East Forty-The Finishea Chub of the East Forty-fifth-street Baptist Church, met Friday afternoon at the home of Eva Wishon. A very pleasant hour was spent in the study of the first Baptist missionaries in India. Mrs. Wishon served refreshments.

On Thursday evening Miss Alice Holmes entertained a few friends and women of St. Stephen's Pro-Catherdal, at the resi-dence of her sister, Mrs. Hugh McCabe. The evening was spent with music. Light refreshments were served.

A tes which invariably attracts atten-tion is the annual May reception at the Baby Home, which this year will be given on May 28, from 2 until 5. A number of prominent matrons are to serve. Mrs. Carrie Buchanan, past president of Summer Relief Corps, No. 21, re-cently entertained the members with an elaborate luncheon, 31 being pres-ent. The afternoon was spent sewing. . . . Mrs. Ruben P. Graham has sent out cards for a five hundred party May 20

WEDDINGS.

Bilyeu-Perkins.

A very pretty home wedding occurred Tuesday evening, May 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Perkins, in New-berg, when their daughter, Hazel D., was united in marriage to Floyd M. Bilyeu, a young attorney of Portland. The house was effectively decorated with ferns, smilax, carnations and dogwood. Prompt-ly at $:50 o'clock the bridal party entered to the march from Lohengrin, played by Miss Helen Perkins, a sister of the bride, and was met at the altar by Rev. C. L. Hamilton, who officiated. The bride was beautifully gowned in cream silk poplin beautifully gowned in cream silk poplin trimmed with real lace, over taffeta, and carried an arm bouquet of bride roses. She was attended by Miss Minnie John-son, of this city, who wore a gown of nile green and carried a bouquet of pink carnetions. The bridements are situated carnations. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Dr. Bilyeu. After conby his brother, Dr. Bilyeu, After con-gratulations, refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Bilyeu left the same even-ing for an extended trip through Ore-gon, Washington and Idaho, and will be at home to their friends in North Irving## ton after June 15. Smith-Bacon.

On Thursday evening, May 14. at 3 o'clock, there was a quiet family wedding, when Byron M. Smith and Mrs. Anna Bacon were joined in marriage by Rev. Cephas F. Clapp. The ceremony took place in the beautiful home of Mr. Smith in South Park in South Park, and was witnessed only by in South Park, and was witnessed only by a few intimate friends of the families. Byron Smith is a builder and contractor of Forest Grove, and has resided here many years, while the bride was born in Greenville, Washington County, and has resided here the most of her life. She has for some time been associated with the Smith home as housekeeper and com-panion for Mr. Smith's invalid mother. They remain in the home of Mr. Smith in Forest Grove.

Peters-Hill.

A quiet wedding, at the St. Mary's Ca-thedral, was solemnized Wednesday morn-ing, May 13, at 8 o'clock, when Daisy Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hill, of Astoria, was united in marriage to James Peters, Rev. Father Edwin V. O'Hara officiating. The bride wore cream albatross over taffeta. Her sister, Mrs. Maude Ballard, who was recently mar-ried, was the bridesmaid and Harry Bal-lard may herd market.

The wedding of Miss Anna Blust and J. The wedding of Miss Anna Blust and J. lard was best man.

of Terre Haute, Ind. A reception will be given on Sunday, May 17, from 2 till 5 P. M. at $41 Second street.

Mrs. Isabella H. Emken announces the engagement of her daughter, Mar-garet Edna, to J. Claude Sparks. The wedding will take place early in June.

Art La Mode, opposite the Portland: Special all this week, strictly tailored skirts are made for $5. Tailored by Gor-don, lately with Heff Bros., New York.

Ringier's Hall for dancing parties, mu-sicals, receptions; reasonable. Phone B 1000

COMING EVENTS.

All arrangements have been completed for the holding of the grand concert by the combined British societies in com-menoration of Queen Victoria's birthday on Monday evening. May 25. Owing to the large attendance in the last two years the computer in charge this way have on Monday evening. May 25. Owing to the large attendance in the last two years the committee in charge this year has taken the large Armory Hall, which will be decorated with flags and bunths, as will also the booths, representing the different sections of the Brittsh Empire. As soon as the musical numbers are over refreshments will be served and an opportunity given to those attending to visit each other as in former years. Mrs. Waiter Reed will have charge of the musical numbers. The Weish Glee Club will be one of the features of the pro-gramme, which is as follows: Intro-ductory remarks: song, "Yeomen of England." F. T. Crowther; address, H. B. M. Consul James Laidlaw; song, "The Harp That Once Through Tara's Halls." Miss Lawler; song, "My Hame is Where the Heather Blooms." Mrs. Waiter Reed; glee, "The Summer," Weish Glee Club; song, "The Maple Leaf." Miss Glance; dance, Highiand reel, James King, Frank Darcey, Jeanie Best, Jeaste Pottage. Agnes Pottage; song, "Angus McDonald." Mrs. Waiter Reed; song, Frank Hen-nessy; song, "Land of Hope and Glory." F. P. Crowther; song, Miss Glance; "Star Spangied Banne;" "God Save the King." Piper, J. McKinley; director. "Star Spangled Banner;" "God Save th King." Piper, J. McKinley; director "God Save the Carl Denton. . . .

The Irvington Tennis Club will have an-other one of its delightful "at homes" on Friday evening. May 22. The social com-mittee has arranged a special programme for the evening. President Hamilton has appointed a social committee for the year, consisting of Dr. Calvin S. White, W. J. consisting of Dr. Calvin S. white, W. J. Hofmann and Frank S. Fields. The men of the club will meet at the clubhouse tomorrow (Monday) evening to discuss plans pertaining to the year's social events and matters fegarding the tennis day evening, May 30-Miss Delta Watson, Miss Petronella Connolly and Dr.-George Ainslie. tournament.

and friends.

The local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy will meet on Friday at 2:30 P. M. at the residence of Mrs. John Rogers, 174 Grover street. Take Third or . . . The Degree of Honor lodges of Portlan The Degree of Honor lodges of Portland will unite in giving a reception Friday evening, May 22, in honor of Superior Chief of Honor Mamie W. Briggs, who leaves shortly for Des Moines, Ia., to pre-side over the 11th session of the Superior lodge. The reception will be given at the W. O. W. Hall, on Eleventh street, be-tween Washington and Alder. A cordial invitation is extended to all A. O. U. W. and D. of H. members and their families and friends. Fulton cars and walk one block east. . .

A progressive whist party will be given by the police officers' wives, at the real-dence of Officer M. P. Murphy, 646 Alberta street, on Tuesday evening, May 19. Take Alberta car.

The Mystic Stars of Myrtle have issued invitations for a dancing party on Wed-nesday evening. May 13, at the New Masonic hall, West Park and Yamhill A county W. C. T. U. institute will printing. ington st. streets.

. . .

. . . The Associated Students of the Univer sity of Oregon Law School have sent out cards for a banquet May 19 at $:30 P. M., at the Nortonia Hotel. 3436.

No. 2, will meet at the residence of Mrs Olive Van Orden, 437 Killingswort street, Tuesday morning, May 19. HOLD QUARTERLY MEETING

Mrs. A. B. Winfree will entertain the Woman's Home Missionary Society Portia Club on Tuesday next at her home, 598 Salmon street.

Portland district, Woman's Home Missionary Society, was held at Centenary M. E. Church last Friday, beginning at ise Ladd. Interesting groups will be formed at 4 o'clock before the pro-gramme commences.

Mrs. M. F. Cooke is visiting her daugh-er, Mrs. Judge Bradshaw, in The Dalles. Miss Sarah Glance is a new member of Mrs. Walter Reed's Treble Clef Club

Invitations have been sent out by the Qui Vive girls for a May basket party. Monday evening, May 18, at Voelker's Hall, 733 Mississippi avenue. The pa-tronesses will be: Mrs. J. Hyland, Mrs. S. Peterson, Mrs. T. Phillips and Mrs. R. Lewis. The committee is composed of the Misses Hulda Peterson, Julia Hy-land, Emma Hyland, Jennie Phillips and Winnifred Phillips.

for Seattle to visit her sister, Mrs. Free Langerman

Good Merchandise Only - Quality Considered Our Prices Are Always the Lowest

Mrs. May Batcheller,

in Busy Session.

The second quarterly meeting of the St. Helen's Hall, which included: Miss Bauer, Madam Prost, Mrs. Kings-ley, Miss Collier, Miss Short, Miss Touslee, Miss Clark, Miss Carlisle, Miss Beebe, Miss Clark, Miss Carlisle, Miss Beebe, Miss Bialir, Miss Matthews, Miss Bernays, Miss Naah, Miss Carter, Miss Bernays, Miss Naah, Miss Carter, Miss Arnold, Miss Knappen, Miss Snook. Mr, and Mrs. W. P. Olds left last week for San Francisco, sailing thence for Honolulu, where they will remain until June. The trip was taken, hoping the change would prove beneficial to Mr. Olds, who has been for some months past in ill health. of the meeting Mrs. O. J. Bales spoke words of greeting to all present, which were fittingly responded to by Mrs. J. W. Wiseman. At 12:15 all were invited to the din-

Arts and Crafts Summer School.

June 22 to July 22. Design, metal work, stenciling, pottery, leather, wood-block printing. Arts & Crafts Shop, 446 Wash-

W. Wiseman. At 12:15 all were invited to the din-ins-room, where Centenary ladies had spread a bountiful luncheon. The devotional service for the after-noon was spiritual, led by "Mother Byl." of Grace Church. Interspersed with music, the following interesting papers were read: "Alaska." by Miss Lyons: "Emigration and City Missions." by Mrs. L. M. Whiteaker; "Our Work in the Southland," by Mrs. Hazelton, and "Are We Keeping Step?" by Mrs. M. L. Kenworthy. Mrs. E. ... Belknap, conference corresponding secretary, gave a most impressive address. During the afternoon the Ladies" Double Quartet sang, led by Mrs. Mil-ler, to the delight of all present, as did Mrs. Jones and Miss Cadwell. A plano solo was rendered by Miss Effic Wiss-man. A splendid exercise by Home Guards and Jewels was given, under leadership of Mesdames Candlish and Short. Tencuracing words wards ware spoker by Teacher of the plano. Accompanist. Soloist. 362 Third street. Phone Main Encouraging words were spoken by brs. Ford and Wilson; also by Rev. Drs. John Oval.

NO SUNDAY DANCING.

There will be no dances at Merrill's Hall Sunday nights. Wednesday and Saturday are our nights. Polished maple floor: spiendid music. Charles Berry, manager.

Eve glasses $1.00 at Metzger's ENGRAVED WEDDING AND SOCIETY STATIONERY R. F. Prescott & Co. 271 1-2 MORRISON STREET

A county W. C. T. U. institute will be held Friday, May 22, in the Friends' church, corner of East Thirty-fifth and East Main streets. The morning ses-sion will open at 10 o'clock. Among the subjects to be discussed will be "Health and Heredity." "Systematic Giving." "Loyal Temperance Legion" and "Christian Citizenship." The even-ing will be devoted to medal contest work. Basket lunch at noon. George Wright Women's Relief. Corps. The Y. W. C. A. at homes are always delightful affairs and a good time is expected tomorrow, when Dr. Clarence True Wilson will speak. The subject of his address is "True Dignity of Life." There will be vocal solos by Mrs. S. N. Stoner, Miss Leona Struble and Mr. Klipack, and a violin solo by Miss Lou-iss Ladd Interactions proves will be

Leap year party at Ringler's Hall, Sat. May 23. Invitations from Prof. Ringler, SOCIETY PERSONALS. Mrs. William Krull, of Ellers Plano House, Bolse, Idaho, is at The Danmoore.

Miss Elizabeth Dayard has returned rom a visit in San Francisco.

Miss E. A. Packard, of Los Angeles, will spend the Summer with Mrs. G. C. Babelman, 321 Pearl street, Piedmont. Miss Carolyn Lowengart left last week

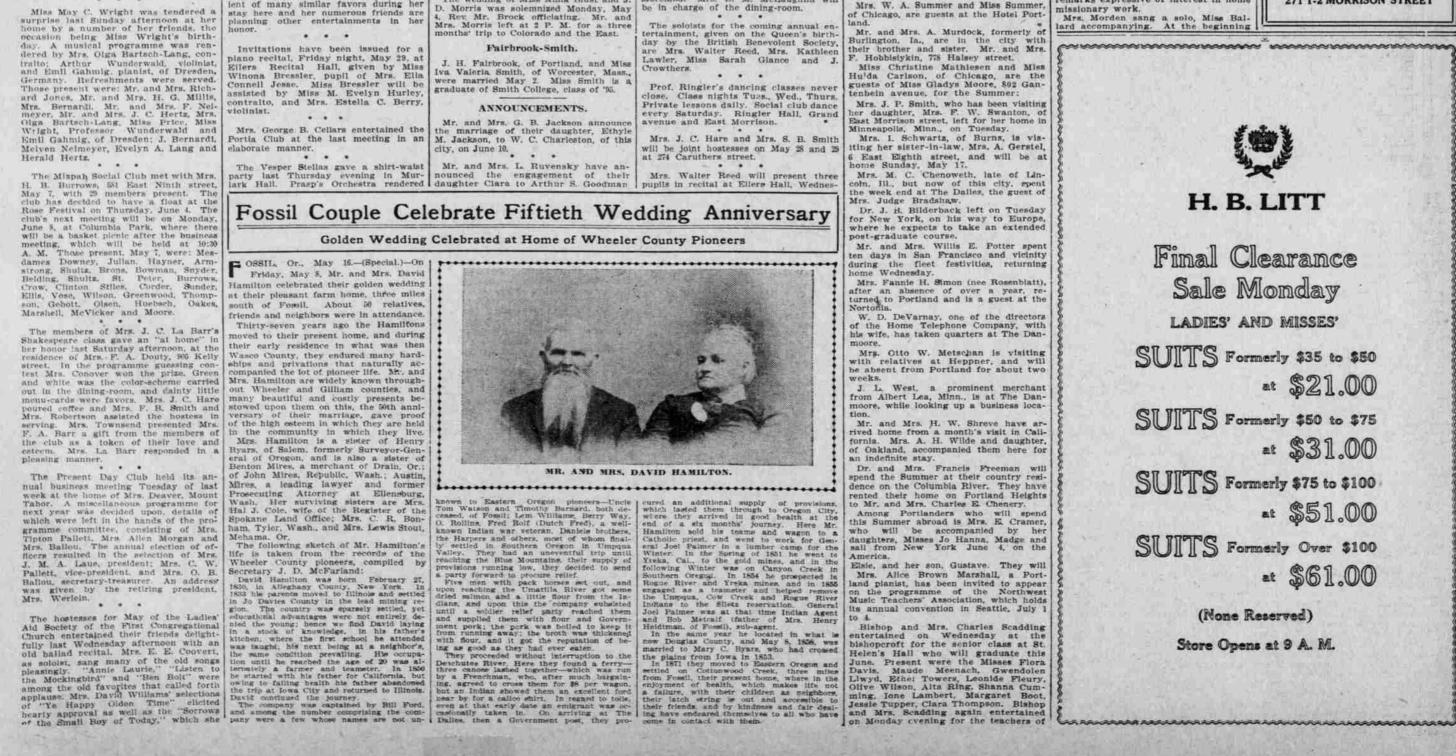

Miss Helen Wall, of Medford, is the guest of Mrs. R. P. Graham at her Irvington home. Mrs. W. A. Summer and Miss Summer, sence of Miss Anna Rankin. An im-pressive devotional service was led by Mrs. Waldfogel, concluding with a solo, "The Voice of Jesus," sung by Mrs. Candilsh. The reports from aux-illaries of the district showed marked advance in integrat and marked advance in interest and membership advance in interest and membership. An interesting paper on "Stickney Home" was read by Mrs. A. J. Bales. "Notes From the Field" were telling facts, read by Mrs. E. W. Hariow. Dr. Royal was announced, and made a few remarks expressive of interest in home

M. E. Church last Friday, beginning at 10 A. M. In the absence of the district president, Mrs. J. E. Bennett, Mrs. J. D. Lee was called to the chair. Minutes of the last district meeting were read by Mrs. Belknap, who acted as secre-tary during the forenoon, in the ab-sence of Miss Anna Rankin. An im-ressive devotional service was led by

The regular monthly "Patton Hor

be in charge of the din