It is our portion, even when compared to the great bargains of the past few months. The pictures were erected in Sacramento during the argonaut days of 1850, the business of S. Lipman and it became the largest in Sacramento. In 1865 a branch store was opened in Virginia City and was famous for its high quality merchandise, so much in demand during the golden era of the West. Step by step the firm has grown, from eight employees to over 100. Fifty-eight years of honorable business success have created for this firm a prestige and respectability which has established an enviable bond of confidence between this store and its customers.
