PORTLAND AGAIN

DEFEATS OAKLAND

HY WILL G. MAC.RAE. Well, even if If was yellow around the edges and even if the boots, bin-spices and whit heaves were as thick as flees and whit heaves were as thick as flees in California, that 5 to 2 defeat that we stung Oakland for yesterday fround helps use a little—yes?. Jesse Garrett performed for us, and, but for helps use a sittle—yes?. Jesse for which he was not responsible, those at the wobbles in the opener, something for which he was not responsible, those at the wobble in the opener, something for which he was not responsible, those at the wobble in the opener, something for which he was not responsible, those at the wobble in the opener, something for which he was not responsible, those at the work of the two and but for the pan with two. After that, Mr. darrett simply applied the breaks and two forward and back for the visi-tors within our gates. Mr. Garrett's within our gates. Mr. Garrett's within our gates. Mr. Hard's seven of the newly-named builed the ozona market. The Athenians handed us Mr. Hardy, a stocky slabster, who worked his south propeller. Mr. Hardy started with a cut-in that was largely in his favor, but he blew up in the sixth and Mr. Killan, whom we met and fondly greeted upon a former oc-casion, was substituted. Mr. Killan's debut added one run to the general store on hand, making it five. Mc-Credie's hired men had to come from behind to win. behind to win.

' Crowd Starts With Roast.

The game wasn't two minutes old, when the large crowd present out loose a gurgle of discontent as Cooney booted Smith's drive. Van Haitren and Heit-muller both singled, Heiny getting his because Ote Johnson thought it was going to roll foul. With three on the pegs, Johnson muffed Engan's grass-scorcher. The two boots and the three bingles, the third by Haley, and a sacri-fice gave Onkland the brace of tallies. Mr. Garrett didn't like the idea of being scratched any further, so he saw to it that n& Oaklander got along the route past second after this. Yet, while this was going on there The game wasn't two minutes old,

Yet, while this was going on there Yet, while this was going on there was a lovely mix-up. Oakland's sec-ond run came in when Cook drove out a long fly. Heitmuller was at second and Eagan on first. Cook, instead of heaving-to after Bassey had caught his fly, kept on going to second. Bassey heaved the ball to Casey and Pearl. lamping Cook, just stepped forward and tapped him gently on the slats. Heitmuller cursed soundly, instead of tearing for third and minding his own business, and Casey made the mistako ousiness, and Casey made the mistake of tagging Cook instead of Heitmuller.

It was a smashing clever bit of head-work on Cook's part, at that. We'll take a little cold bottle, Casey. We'll Portland began to get the runs back Ahomeoffer without a parallel in Portland's history.

Take M.-V. car and see Terrace Park today; after June 6 absolutely no discount "goes."

I The Spanton Co.'s selling contract expires on Terrace Park June 6; they will have had charge of this beautiful piece of property one year on that date-their contract is up and the owners say they will not sell any lot or lots in Terrace Park after that date for less than the scheduled prices shown in this advertisement; whatever remains after June 6 will be held as an investment.

I Terrace Park is the ideal residence section of the East Side. It commands the most sightly view in Portland-it is convenient to streetcars and has all the et ceteras that go to make up a first-class section. Terrace Park has been offered right along for less money than many other residence sections not half so good. This is a strong statement, but it simply means an hour's time to investigate the truthfulness of it.

I Retain this price-list.

I Every lot in Terrace Park shows its block and number, and you can easily determine the prices for yourself by consulting the price-list.

I Take "M-V" car and go out to the tract yourself.

Portland began to get the runs back in the second. Singles by Johnson and Cooney and Garret's long fly gave us one. Raftery singled in the third, stole second and scored on Johnson's safe poks. In the sixth, two came home without the painful process of hitting 'em out. Garrett walked. Just to prove that he had lost his range finder, Mr. Hardy, after Casey had messed Mr. Lewis up and was safely perched on first, injected a wild pitch into the game. A passed ball scored Garrett. Casey's score came up after a funny game. A passed ball scored Gairett. Casey's score came up after a funny play. Ryan had struck out and Raftery had walked because Hardy didn't like his hoks. Casey had taken third on the passed ball and, when Danzig hit to Eagan, Casey scored while Raftery was being put out at second. Danzig's drived kissed off Eagan's shin and arcent toward second. Balan set drived Rissed on Eagan's sain and caromed toward second. Haley fell, kept his great toe glued to the bag and managed to pick up the ball as it was rolling by, morguing Raftery.

Score Again in Seventh.

The fifth and last run came in the eventh. Bassey hit safe and Johnson put him on second with a sacrifice. Cooney wiffed and Madden's safe drive scored the Italian. We didn't try very hard in the eighth, in spite of the fact that Casey and Ryan both plucked hits out of the fining. The score:
