

PORTLAND SOCIETY NEWS AND NOTES

CONTINUED FROM THIRD PAGE

readings of Mrs. W. G. Martin, at the regular monthly meeting of the society, held at the residence of Captain A. L. Pease, 74 Deitzgrove street last Tuesday night. A large number of the society were present and after a short business session the members had the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Martin render "At the Box Office," "Ain't Goin' to Cry any More" and "The First Pudding." Light refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent in talking over the Epitaph State. Several new members joined during the evening. If the weather will permit, the next meeting on June 15 will probably be a garden party and all former, as well as present, New Yorkers are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. George Gammie, of Irvington, entertained the Missionary Society of Westminster Church, Monday afternoon. There were 23 in attendance, and the free will offering amounted to $21.65. Mrs. A. Bradshaw had charge of the programme, which was exceptionally fine. Aside from the few short papers on the topics of the month, very charming musical selections were rendered by Miss Alice Jordan and Miss Delta Watson. A shower of applause greeted the two very comical recitations given by little Miss Jeanie Findlay. The afternoon closed with light refreshments served by the daughters of the hostess.

A pleasant party was given Thursday evening, May 14, in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. George C. Snider (Anna G. Walker), at her home at 23 East Third street. The room was tastefully decorated with Chinese lanterns and flowers. Games and music were pleasant amusements of the evening. Worthy mention was made of the party by Charles Granstrom. Later refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. L. Granstrom, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gerlach, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. H. East, Rona Granstrom, Rosina R. Haight, Pauline Pflieger, Hilda Granstrom, Lorin Hoyt, Charles Granstrom, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Snider.

Master James Beard, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Beard, 749 East Salmon street, celebrated his 5th birthday last Saturday. The house was tastefully decorated with carnations, ferns and birthday bells. Sixteen little boys and girls were present. Refreshments were served and each guest was presented with a basket of goodies. Those present were: Misses Margaret and Helen Gough, Katherine and Margaret Alexander, Grace and May Kan, Othelia Saucino, Garnet West, Mrs. East, Alma Sewell, Masters Norris and Lester Coomer, Jordan Savine, Carley Bower, Russell McWaters, Rhiner, Anne and James Beard.

A very pleasant surprise party was given in honor of Fred Lomax, on May 12, at the home of his parents, on East Alder street. The occasion was the 15th birthday of Alfred Lomax. The evening was spent in games and music, after which refreshments were served. Those present were: Grace Elerath, Ruth Elerath, Mabel Poor, Doris Ford, Estella Ford, Mabel Markell, Dan Foster, Frank Hurbert, Pauline Sellwood, Baumer, Alfred Lomax, Claude Lomax, Lester Lomax, Elmer Lee, Mrs. N. Lomax, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Lomax.

A most delightful time was spent Thursday by many members of Golden Rule Maccabees playing "500," at the home of Mrs. Sarah Swan, on Manhattan street. The evening was enjoyed by Mesdames Barber, Seffin, Carter, Abender, Kromer, Frey, Sebring, Allen, Leady, Donihier, Vetes, Nicholls, Vanorden, L. E. Tormalin, Pauline Wendell, Wood, Knott, Bowman, Nickern, Kilbesmith, Murphy and Luthie. Mrs. Barner won the first prize and Mrs. Vanorden the second prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Turney entertained with a dinner at their residence, 185 East Taylor street, on Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Rose and Emma Rueck, who expect to leave on May 25 for an extended trip through the East. The young women will be chaperoned by Mrs. E. C. Turney. The occasion was also celebrated the 23rd wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Turney.

Thursday afternoon, May 21, the Philo-xian Society of the West Portland High School gave an entertainment in honor of its eighth anniversary. The officers of the society are: Miss Pearl McKenna, president; Miss Jennie Donnell, vice-president; Miss Adelle Bowie, secretary; Miss Bertina Robertson, assistant secretary; Miss Ada May Bigger, treasurer; Miss Hannah McLeod, editor; Miss Hattie Hyde, sergeant-at-arms.

Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. David Henderson, of 531 Clinton street, entertained with a dinner in honor of her friend, Mrs. P. V. Denton, who is leaving soon for her country home in Washington County. Those present besides the hostess were: Mrs. Charles Boothby, Mrs. G. M. Turner, Mrs. Seaman Mrs. J. Duncan, Mrs. A. Blank, Mrs. C. Ganzmiller, Mrs. Gibbs and Miss Hazel Reader.

Friday evening May 15, Mrs. Gertrude Gordon entertained several of the Los Angeles baseball players and their wives and friends at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. E. Elmer, 123 East Burnside street. The evening whist was played, the first prizes being awarded to Mrs. Knapp and Mr. Oakes. The consolation prizes fell to Mrs. Ella and Mrs. Oakes. The first prizes were hand-painted china souvenirs of Portland.

Mrs. R. P. Graham entertained Wednesday with a card party, 500 being played at 14 tables. Mrs. B. W. Denton was the first prize and Mrs. J. Ferguson the second. A dainty luncheon was served at the card tables. Mrs. Graham was assisted by Miss Helen Watt, of Medford, Miss Bertha Masters, Miss Brown, Miss Walt, Miss Wentworth and Miss Biggar.

The 56th anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tracy was celebrated at the home of their daughter, Mrs. O. A. Tibbetta, at 530 East Burnside street, on May 19. Seven grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren represent the later generations of their family. Mr. Tracy is a veteran of the Civil War.

Eureka Council, No. 264, Knights and Ladies of Security, gave a "Five hundred" party Monday evening, Mr. W. E. Smith and Mrs. N. P. Anderson winning first prizes. Mr. W. H. Benedict and Mrs. P. Fisher won second prizes. The next open meeting will be a "Five hundred" party June 1.

WEDDINGS.

Rhodes-Stengel.

A beautiful wedding took place last week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stone, when Miss Martha Stengel and Mr. Ivan B. Rhodes were united in marriage by Dr. William Hiram Foulkes, of the First Presbyterian Church. Promptly at 3:30 P. M., to the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin" the bridal party descended the stairs and took its place amidst a bower of dogwood and pink carnations, which had been previously arranged by the friends of the bride.

The bride has been Mr. Stone's private secretary for several years, and Mr. Rhodes is state secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of Oregon and Idaho. Both are extremely popular in Y. M. C. A. circles, where they did most efficient work in helping to secure the fund for the handsome new building which will soon be an ornament to the city. The bride was gowned in a dainty lingerie frock of white messaline with Irish point trimmings, and carried an arm bouquet of roses. The maid of honor, Miss Louise Stengel, wore a becoming gown of rose pink chiffon and carried sweet peas. Mr. Rhodes was attended by Mr. Fred W. Nelson. By a clever maneuver the couple departed without the knowledge of their friends, who were prepared to shower them with rice and other good luck symbols. Their destination is not known, but it is rumored that "The Breakers" figures prominently in the location chosen for the honeymoon.

Massey-Love.

A very pretty home wedding was celebrated Wednesday evening, May 20, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis W. Love, 1726 Dana street, University Park, where their eldest daughter, Lucy Pearl, was united in marriage to Raleigh R.

ried bride's roses. Mrs. Woods, the maid of honor, wore a pink silk. Mr. Woods was the best man. At the bride's home a banquet of good things to eat was served. After June 1, Mr. and Mrs. Mason will be at home to their friends at Stewart's station, two blocks north. Many beautiful presents were received.

Aumend-Grischaw.

A pretty wedding was celebrated at St. Patrick's Church, Nineteenth and Savier streets, Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, when Miss Helen Grischaw was united in marriage to Francis E. Aumend, Rev. Father Murphy officiating. The bride looked charming in a gown of white mull and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Mae Schiller acted as bridesmaid and wore a becoming blue organdie gown. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. Patrick H. Keegan acted as best man. After the wedding breakfast, which was served at the home of the PORTLAND BUSINESS MAN MARRIES BROOKLYN GIRL.

MR. AND MRS. AZIZ E. ATIYEH.

Aziz E. Atiyeh, of Portland, and Miss Selma Mailouk were married May 4, at the bride's home, Brooklyn, N. Y., Bishop Hawaweeny officiating. Mr. Atiyeh is a well-known Portland business man.

Massey, a prosperous young farmer of Amity, Or. The house was effectively decorated with ferns, dogwood and roses, under the supervision of Mrs. Bert Love. Promptly at 8 o'clock the bridal party entered to the strains of the march from "Lohengrin," played by Mrs. Lillian Simpson and were met at the altar by Rev. J. Bowersox, of the Evangelical Church. The bride looked charming in her gown of white batiste trimmed with lace over taffeta, and carried an arm bouquet of bride roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Edna Love, who wore a gown of light blue and carried white carnations. The bridesmaid was attended by his brother, Archie Massey. After congratulations, refreshments were served in the dining-room, where Miss Hazel King presided at the banquet table. As the bride descended the stairs to leave she threw her bouquet, which was caught by Miss Lizzie Donnerberg. Mr. and Mrs. Massey left the groom's sister, the wedding party returned to the home of the bride's parents, 201 North Nineteenth street, where a reception was held. The house was decorated with ferns and Oregon grape. Mr. and Mrs. Aumend will be at home to their friends after June 1 at 391 North Nineteenth street.

Zeutner-Hough.

A pretty wedding took place at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church on Tuesday, May 12, when Miss Luita Laurel Hough was united in marriage to Mr. Otto LeRoy Zeutner by the Rev. Mr. Brock. Before the ceremony, Miss Nona Lawler sang very charmingly "Thou Art Unto a Lovely Flower." At 5 o'clock the bridal party entered the church to the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin," played by Dr. Stout. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. Frederick Perry. She wore a traveling suit of Copenhagen blue broadcloth with a picture hat of the same shade and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Her maid of honor, Miss Florence Wolrath, wore an apricot colored suit and carried bridesmaid roses. The groom was attended by Mr. Ben Morrow and Mrs. Zeutner have gone to Dorris, Cal., where they will make their home.

Andrew-McGillivray.

A pretty home wedding occurred Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. P. McGillivray, 123 Killingsworth avenue, when their daughter, Christena, was united in marriage to Mr. William K. Andrew. Immediate relatives only were present. Dr. E. M. Sharp officiated. The bride's gown was of white crepe de chine over white silk, trimmed with point lace and chiffon. Around her neck she wore a beautiful gold locket with diamond setting, a gift from the groom. A dainty wedding supper followed. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew left on the 8:30 A. M. train Thursday for their home in Northern Alabama, where the groom owns a large plantation.

Sall-Boston.

A very pretty home wedding was celebrated Tuesday evening, May 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Boston, 807 Front street, when their daughter Myrtle was united in marriage to A. F. Sall, of this city. Rev. E. S. Moseley, of the First Christian Church, officiating. The bride wore a cream batiste and carried white carnations. The living-room was decorated in white and green. After congratulations, refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Sall left for a trip to the Sound. They will be at home after June 5 at 526 Water street.

Boylington-May.

At the residence of her brother, H. A. May, 985 East Ankeny street, Clara May, of Astoria, was married to Guy Boylington of Spokane, Wash. The wedding took place at 11 A. M. Wednesday, May 20, in the presence of a few friends and relatives, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Henry Marcotte. The young couple left for Seattle and other Sound cities on the 2 o'clock train, and will be at home to their friends after June 15, in Spokane, in which city they will make their future home.

Nerod-Bashor.

Louis Nerod, formerly of Salem, and Miss Chloé Ethel Bashor, of this city, were married at the First Congregational Church, Spokane, Wash., at 8 P. M., Wednesday, May 20, the bride being the daughter of Mrs. Kate Bashor, who re-

TALENTED YOUNG PIANISTE WILL GIVE RECITAL.

Miss Winona Bressler.

Preparations have been made and invitations issued for a piano recital by Miss Winona Bressler, a talented young pianiste, next Friday evening, May 29, at Ellers Recital Hall. Miss Bressler has already acquired a brilliant technique, while she grasps interpretations of the great masters wonderfully, and her many admirers predict a very brilliant future for her. She will be assisted by Miss M. Evelyn Hurley, contralto, and Miss Cornelia R. Barker, violinist.

same evening for their future home near Amity and will be at home to their friends after June 1.

Walter-Anderson.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the Church of Immaculate Conception, Seattle, Wash., at 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning, when the Rev. Father E. J. Gallagher united in matrimony Miss Theodor Charlotte Anderson, youngest daughter of Mrs. B. Anderson, of Portland, Or., and Mr. Jerome Walter, of Republic, Wash. The bride was dressed in a gown of white linen embroidery, made princess and en traine. She carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses. She was attended by Miss Edyth Klopf, who wore white swiss and carried pink carnations. The groom was attended by Mr. Charles Ashford. After the ceremony the bridal party retired to the residence of the bride's sister, Miss Irene Anderson, where the wedding breakfast was served. During the day many telegrams of congratulation were received. In the evening the bride and groom were tendered a reception by Mrs. I. Klopf, in her apartments at the St. Aubin. Later the couple left for Victoria, returning to Seattle in time for the fleet. They sail May 31 on the Princess May for Alaska, expecting to return to Portland in time for the Rose Festival. They will make their home at Republic, Wash.

Mason-Viggers.

A prominent social event occurred Friday evening, May 22, at the Laurewood Methodist Episcopal Church, it being the marriage of Oscar Mason to Miss Miriam Viggers, daughter of Mr. Viggers, of Forty-first street. Rev. E. H. Bryant officiated. At 8:30 P. M., to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Horn, the ushers, bridesmaids and maid of honor preceded the bride, supported by her father, to the chancel rail, where she was met by the bridegroom. The auditorium was very prettily decorated. About 35 invited guests and relatives were present. The bride was gowned in Copenhagen blue silk and car-

LENNON'S

Specialty Glove and Umbrella Store.

Parasol News

We are showing the greatest assortment of fine Parasols ever brought to Portland. On special sale for Monday: Pongee Parasols in plain effects and with fancy silk borders; pure silk tafetas and handsome lingerie Parasols; values up to $3.00; special at..... $1.95

We make Parasols out of your own material in best possible manner, at most reasonable charges. Bring us your plain linen before you have it stamped. We block out the spaces free of charge.

Hosiery Specials

Women's and children's—new designs in the best fabrics; all col- 25c ors; 50c values, pair..... 25c Umbrellas Repaired and Re-covered.

Lennon's FOR GLOVES AND UMBRELLAS

309 Morrison St., Opposite Postoffice.

sides at Chapman and Jefferson streets, and until a year ago lived at Salem, where she was born. Mr. and Mrs. Nerod will reside at Spokane, where Mr. Nerod is employed by the Portland Seed Company.

Gifford-Wan.

Miss Lottie Wann and William C. Gifford were married Wednesday at noon, by Rev. John Bentzen, superintendent of Portland Missions.

Seward-Ross.

Walter M. Seward and Stella M. Ross were quietly married at the First Baptist Church Thursday evening, May 21, at home after June 1 at 840 East Taylor street.

Brady-Smith.

Mr. Edward Laurence Brady and Miss Alice A. Smith were married at St. Mary's Cathedral May 9. Rev. Father H. McDevitt officiating. No cards.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard E. Kerns announce the engagement of their daughter Bessie to Hanson M. Shaw, all of this city. The wedding will take place the latter part of June.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Kerrigan announce the engagement of their daughter, Lotta Eva, to William Francis Lehigh, of Honolulu. The wedding will take place in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Pike announce the engagement of their daughter, Vera, to Dr. J. C. Tammlesie, of this city, the wedding to take place in June.

Ringler's Hall for dancing parties, musicals, receptions, reasonable. Phone B. 1003.

May Sale Wade Corsets, $6, $6.50, $7 models for $5.

COMING EVENTS.

On Thursday evening, May 28, the Daughters of St. David will give the amusing comedy in two acts entitled, "Sunbonnets," in the East Side Woodmen Hall, East Sixth and East Alder streets, at 8:15 P. M. The young women taking part from the East Side are: Miss Frances Richmond, Miss Bessie Hughes, Miss Dorrie Clark, Miss Elsie Lewis, Miss Lucy Powell, Miss Luella Maybee, Miss Amy McDonnell, Miss Claire Oakes, Miss Marguerite Egbert, Miss Edna McZein and Miss Lorraine Miller. The play is given under the personal direction of Mrs. Mina Crollus Gleason, of the Baker Theater company.

An entertainment will be given at the First Congregational Church next Wednesday, which promises plenty of fun. A laughable play called "The Minister's Wife" is to be rendered by some half dozen girls, who are proving themselves adepts. A burlesque, new and decidedly funny, will also be given. Miss Flora Fieschner will sing. The Young Ladies' Bible Class is giving this entertainment to help furnish one of the rooms at the new Y. W. C. A. building, now nearing its completion. No admission will be charged but a silver collection will be taken.

Mount Hood Circle Women of Woodcraft which has met with such flattering success during the Winter with its whist parties and dances has decided to give two more parties, one next Tuesday evening and the second the last Tuesday in June. The committee in charge for next Tuesday has provided some excellent prizes and will have an orchestra for dancing.

The members of Mrs. R. K. Warren's Bible class will give a concert Tuesday evening, May 28, at 8 o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church, corner Twelfth and Alder streets. All are cordially invited to attend.

Prof. Ringler's dancing classes never close. Class nights Tues, Wed, Thurs. Private lessons daily. Social club dance every Saturday. Ringler Hall, Grand avenue and East Morrison.

Arts and Crafts Summer term, June 22 to July 27. Design, metal work,

The Meier & Frank Store Demonstration Extraordinary and Exploitation Sale of

THE GOSSARD CORSETS

They Lace In Front

The manufacturers have delegated Mrs. L. C. Redding, their expert corsetiere, to our establishment for one week, commencing Monday (tomorrow), to demonstrate and fit these remarkable corsets to the women of Portland.

We count that woman fortunate who profits from this new principle in corsetry, which assures

Style, Comfort and Health and we urge every woman reading this advertisement to visit our corset section during this sale that Mrs. Redding may select and scientifically fit to you that particular model which will improve the defects and emphasize the perfections of your figure.

For the Figure Slight and Slender

Model S defines the hip lines and produces rounded effects, which create wonderment.

For the Woman Over 140

the woman of generous proportions, Model M and Model L attain the summit of corset ideality. They give a hip suppression beyond belief until you see the actual demonstration. They have the long back below the waist, which, by their carefully-planned lines, reduces the hips in appearance and cleverly draws them back, thereby imparting lines of youth. The soft extension at bottom of the front clasps, with hook and eye fastening, nips in under the abdomen and holds perfectly, forming a support of inestimable value, thus performing the necessary province without the discomfort of long front steels.

In them the bust finds a firm snugness at the side, which holds the bust well forward, and forms an easy support in front.

L'IRRESISTIBLE and GOSSARD corsets are for sale in no other store in Portland.

Monday and Tuesday. A handsomely-finished, dainty, new-style pocket mirror, precisely intended for purse or portmanteau, will be presented to every woman visiting our Corset Department who investigates the merits of L'IRRESISTIBLE and the Gossard corsets.

The Meier & Frank Store

PORTLAND'S LARGEST AND BEST STORE

pottery, leather and stenciling. Arts and Crafts Shop, 443 Washington st.

The police officers' wives will meet with Mrs. Addison, 824 Holgate street, Wednesday, May 27, at 2 P. M. Take Sellwood car.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Mrs. Philip Neu and sons have gone to Seattle for a few days.

Mrs. Frances Sealy left Friday night for Seattle to visit Mrs. Henry A. Kyer.

Mrs. T. Lammers left this week for California to visit her daughter, relatives and friends.

Mrs. J. C. Owen has returned from a visit in Astoria as the guest of Miss Armelia Gruss.

Miss Mayme Brown left Thursday morning for Seattle to visit her aunt, Mrs. W. E. Cody.

Mrs. Caroline Fischer and daughter, Miss Elsie Fischer, have returned from a year's trip traveling in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Fuller, of Betterview, Cal., are visiting at the residence of Catherine and Mrs. E. A. Hackett.

Julius V. Seyler has received an invitation to play a group of piano solos at the first convention of the Northwest Music Teachers' Association to be held at Seattle in July.

Mrs. Anna Craven, Mrs. C. A. McCarger and Master Donald McCarger have returned from a two weeks' visit at Medford.

Mrs. L. E. Sauvain returned from the Dalles Tuesday, where she had spent a pleasant week visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Bohn.

The friends of Miss Effie B. Bills will be interested to hear of her marriage on May 12 in New Orleans, to Santo Oteri, a prominent business man of that city. Mr. Oteri is president of the Oteri Steamship Company and has extensive real estate holdings. Mr. and Mrs. Oteri are located at the New Grunwald Hotel and expect to spend the greater part of the Summer on their private yacht.

Dr. P. L. Austin left yesterday for Northern Idaho to inspect several claims owned by him in the Coeur d'Alene mining district.

Mrs. J. E. Lehrer, of Napa, Cal., is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McDowell, of Lentis, for a few weeks.

Woodard, Clarke & Co.

Wish to Announce an Exhibition and Sale of

Original Water Colors

Forty Different Subjects

Following We List a Few:

SULTAN'S FAVORITE

By Signorini. Value $1000.00.

THE CARDINAL'S FAVORITE

By Cinibaldo. Value $600.00.

THE GLEANER

By Ridgeway Knight. Value $550.00.

A DIFFICULT MOVE

By Augusto Daini. Value $350.00.

HOMeward BOUND

By Wm. Steelink. Value $300.00.

ENTRANCE TO DOGE'S PALACE

By De Colla. Value $150.00.

SCENE IN HOLLAND

By William Rip. Value $75.00.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY ONLY

In the Picture Section, Fourth Floor, Take the Elevator

Closing-Out Sale of Hamburger's Superb Stock of Fresh NEW MILLINERY

Special lots brought to the front for Monday's selling. Look for the blue-pencil price-mark underneath our original modest prices, and you can readily see the tremendous reductions made all through the line.

Trimmed Hats, 95c, $1.95, $2.95, etc. Untrimmed Hats, 49c, 75c and 98c. Worth up to $3.00. Flowers, 10c, 19c, 25c and 50c. Worth up to $1.50 bunch. Everything Else Liberally Reduced.

In the J. M. Acheson HAMBURGER'S Corner 5th Co. Store and Alder

