

Great Alteration Sale

Beginning 9:00 A. M., Tuesday, May 26

“Forced Thro’ the Wall”

AFTER 20 successful years of continuous business we are practically forced to suspend our ordinary business while extensive alterations are being made; we must have more room. By a system strictly adhered to, of giving the very best merchandise on the market at prices fair to all, we have built up this business until it has outgrown its present quarters. In order to give the army of mechanics a clear field to reconstruct the lower floor of this building and prepare this and the adjoining room for one of the finest and best equipped stores on the Pacific Coast, we are compelled to practically throw this enormous stock of high-grade apparel—Men’s and Boys’ Clothing, Furnishing Goods and Hats—at the buying public.

This is the first time in the history of Portland that a complete stock of merchandise of this high class—including as it does Hart Schaffner & Marx Fine Suits and Overcoats (for which we are exclusive agents), Extra-good Brand of boys’ and youths’ clothing and the highest quality in furnishing goods and hats—were offered at such great reductions at height of the season. Positively 25 to 33¹/₃ per cent reductions. Contract goods excepted.
