

George Willard Brown, Colonel and Mrs. Charles E. McDonnell, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wentworth, Mr. and Mrs. Alma D. Katz, Dr. and Mrs. E. DeWitt Connel, Miss J. E. McDonnell, Mrs. R. E. Hogue, Miss Alice Sansbury, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Hall, Miss Hazel Hall, Mrs. William T. Pangle, Dr. and Mrs. William Northrup, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hickman, Mrs. E. T. Strain, Mrs. Fred D. Chamberlain, Miss Ethel Chamberlain, Dr. and Mrs. George Marshall, Miss Florence Williams, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hassen, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Simon, Miss Helen Simon, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ehrman, Miss Celeste Moore, W. A. Mac Rae, John Lewis, Robert Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John Peters, Clarence Jacobsen and F. W. Mulkey.

Wednesday, the opening night of the New York Symphony Orchestra, with Damrosch, conducting, in the finest of Beethoven symphonies, has attracted a smart clientele. Many will entertain with dinners before the event and with supper afterward. Several parties are planned for the Thursday matinee, while Thursday night, the Wagnerian programme is creating enthusiasm among all music lovers.

Mrs. Edward Cookingham has sent out cards for a reception on Friday in honor of Mrs. Cunningham and her daughter, Mrs. James Canby, who recently returned to Portland, where Major Canby, for the time being is acting as paymaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Clara B. Lamont (Miss Maud Hahn) have returned from their wedding trip. They will spend the week in Portland before taking up their residence in Seattle. While in the East and South Mr. Lamont received many complimentary attention, particularly from the men of Mr. Lamont's fraternity at Cornell.

Mrs. C. E. S. Wood has been ill for some time at her Kings Heights residence.

Many telegrams and letters of congratulations have been sent to Mr. and Mrs. William C. DeWitt, on the occasion of the arrival of a son. Mrs. Williams was formerly the attractive Miss Helen Gosa.

Miss Alta Smith, Miss Elizabeth Parker and Miss Lucile Parker are the Portland girls who will graduate this June from Smith College. The trio are all exceedingly popular among the college girls and have carried off many honors during the four years they have spent at the institution. Miss Margaret Hume, who is a junior at Smith, has recently had the honor of being elected president of the Philosophical Society, one of the leading student organizations. Miss Lucile Parker has had the distinction of being chosen the manager of field day.

Mrs. S. B. Lathicum entertained last week with bridge, in compliment to Miss Frances Wilson's guest, Miss Ruth Dannehower, asking Mrs. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. John Shepard, Mrs. Morton Inley, Mrs. Frank Hart, Mrs. William Warren, Mrs. Kerr, of St. Paul, Mrs. W. C. Atwood, Mrs. M. E. Smith, Miss Ethel Houghton, Miss Wilson, Miss Isadora Bryan, Miss Gladys Wedder, Miss Hannah Adair and Miss Caroline Burns. Arriving later for tea were Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Miss Kathleen Burns, Miss Claire Houghton and Miss Hardy, of Seattle.

Congratulations are being extended Miss Virginia Gordon Borup and Mr. Richard Holder over the announcement of their engagement. Both Miss Borup and her fiancé have resided in Portland for the past two years and have many friends. Miss Borup was formerly from St. Paul, where she spends her summers with her mother, Mrs. Gustav Borup. Mr. Holder is from Illinois.

For Mr. and Mrs. George F. Russell, who leave for a tour of Europe in the near future, Mrs. Joseph N. Teal and Miss Clara Teal gave a dinner party on Tuesday.

Mrs. Ralph W. Hoyt and her two daughters have returned from a two months' visit in the California.

Mrs. A. E. Butterfield and Mrs. George W. Bates were joint hostesses on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, entertaining on Wednesday with 13 tables of bridge and on Thursday with 13 tables of five hundred. Mrs. Rudolph Prael and Mrs. J. J. Pantan were the bridge winners. Mrs. Frank Heitkemper and Mrs. Horace Butterfield made the highest scores on the second day.

Mrs. F. D. Chamberlain and daughter, Miss Ethel, returned from Seattle Thursday, after a visit of four days. Mrs. Chamberlain having preceded them there a couple of days. A number of railroad officials and their wives joined the party and were delightfully entertained on board the Kearsarge by Mr. Freilson, one of the junior officers. Miss Ethel received much attention at the junior officers' ball at the Hotel Washington. A luncheon of eight covers was also given in honor of Mrs. Chamberlain and daughter by Miss Floss Orth, formerly of Chicago, and the guests were old Chicago friends of both. Miss Orth will be remembered, having visited here last winter.

In honor of Miss Annie Elizabeth Welch, whose marriage to Mr. Henry George Tuttle is to take place Monday evening, June 1, a plate shower was given on Thursday afternoon by Miss Grace Tule.

Mrs. Josephine Ladd, of Malden, Mass., arrived here yesterday, and will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. James Rteel, who is residing with her daughter, Mrs. J. P. Ewing, at 810 Spring street.

Miss Sara D. Harker, teacher of music in Miss Harker's school, Palo Alto, Cal., is spending the month as guest of her grandmother, Mrs. DeWitt, on Gilman street.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Josselyn and their two daughters returned on Thursday from St. Louis, where the girls have attended a fashionable finishing school. They have taken the John Ehen Young residence on King's Heights.

The friends of the distinguished actress, Rose Eyringe, are looking forward with pleasure to a reading which she will give June 2 at her apartments, 424 Flanders street. Miss Eyringe will be assisted by her former pupils and the readings will be from Shakespeare, the Brownings and miscellaneous poets. Mrs. Kerr, who was the attractive Miss Edna Irvine of Corvallis, is to make her first appearance since her marriage and her recent stage successes in the East.

For Monday afternoon Miss Effie and Claire Houghton have asked informally a number of girls to tea to meet Miss Dannehower and to play bridge.

Mrs. Fielding S. Kelly (Miss Bea Barker) asked in to tea 12 girls to meet Miss Phillips, of Los Angeles, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Sanderson Reed.

Miss Malle Effinger has returned from a visit in Hood River vastly improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. James McI. Wood have returned from San Francisco, where they went to view the fleet. While south they were entertained extensively by Lieutenant-Commander Wiley, a brother-in-law of Mr. Wood, who is attached to the United States steamship Kaitiaki. Lieutenant Wiley is at present on Puget Sound, but during the time that the battleship is in dry-dock he will visit for a week in Portland, dividing his time with Mr. J. McI. Wood and Mr. C. E. S. Wood.

Owing to the unsettled state of the weather, the play given annually by the Oregon branch of the Collegiate Alumnae which has hitherto been an all fresco affair is this year to be given at the Empire Theater with June 15 as the date. Browning's "Colombe's Birthday" has been chosen with the following cast: Colombe of Ravenna, Mrs. H. W. Wilbur; Sabine, her attendant, Margaret Nash; Valence, advocate of Clere, Miss Edith Chamberlain; Prince Berthold, Ethel Waksman; Malchior, Edith Gaidis; Gubert, Frank Towles; Garsmeine, Lola Goddard; Mautroy, Daisy Sausfield; Chagnet, Louise Brace; Adolf, Edith Abbott.

The Arts and Crafts exhibition at the Art Museum is still attracting much at-here last year. They report that she is having great success in her work in Seattle. She will soon be in Portland to commence rehearsals for the "Toymaker"—the children's opera by Mrs. Jessie Gaynor, of Chicago. An invitation has been extended and accepted by several young men of Vancouver. R. C. who were especially clever in the Vancouver performance to assume the same roles in the Portland performance.

Mrs. N. J. Levinson and daughter, who have spent the winter in Southern California, will return this week and will be for some time at the Hobart Curtis.

On Monday, Dom J. Zan underwent an operation for appendicitis, but is recovering with rapidity.

Among the many attentions extended Miss Helen Brigham was a mili-

PRINCIPALS IN AN EAST SIDE WEDDING

MR. AND MRS. J. W. MERRILL.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Strard, 424 East Davis street, last week, when the sister of Mrs. Strard, Miss Lulu Noland, was united in marriage to J. W. Merrill, a prominent business man of Cornelius, Or. The house was effectively decorated with snowballs and Scotch broom. Promptly at 3 P. M. the bridal party entered to the wedding march "Lohengrin," played by Mrs. Alta Wolf, sister of the groom. Rev. Corby officiated. The bride was gowned in golden brown silk and carried an arm bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by her sister, Miss Alice Noland, of this city. The bridegroom was attended by the bride's brother, J. S. Noland. After congratulations refreshments were served.

tion. Worthy of note is the artistic and original leather work of Miss Georgia Burns and some attractive specimens in wood sent from the East by Mrs. Henderson Dady.

Lee Hynson has returned from Philadelphia where he has spent the winter at the Jefferson Medical College.

The opening of the Rock Island Club on Thursday evening was most successful, though the weather was unsettled and also conflicted with the dance given at the Golf Club by Scott Brooks. Chester Murphy, is the newly elected president; Gay Lombard, the vice-president, and James McCracken the secretary. The club is to be the scene of many dinners luncheons and dancing parties this summer.

The faculty and cadets of the Hill Military Academy gave their commencement hop Friday evening at the Academy armory. The patronesses were: Mesdames George Lunda, Campbell, Anna Rebecca Hill, Joseph Wood Hill, Herbert Holman, S. Rutherford Johnston, John K. Kellock, J. Wesley Ladd, Alpha Eugene Rockey and Charles C. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Felschner received informally Friday evening, it being the 20th anniversary of their marriage.

A pretty party for children was given Saturday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Hans Hirscherberger, for their children, Waldo and Clara. The attic of the residence was converted into a miniature theater, where "Jack and the Beanstalk" was presented with its pictur-

PORTLAND GIRL MARRIES A PROMINENT SAN FRANCISCO MAN.

MRS. S. O. HALL.

Mr. S. O. Hall, a prominent lumber and mining man of San Francisco, and Miss Minnie Erdahl of this city, were married in Reno, Nev., Thursday last. Mr. Hall has extensive mining interests in Nevada, and like his bride, is very popular in the younger set of San Francisco. The bride has just returned from an extended trip abroad, during which she completed some of her studies in art, and returned with a rare collection of different studies, in which she will continue. They will travel until in the fall.

esque scenery of the giant's garden, cottage and castle. Present were Susan Cheney, Margaret Mackenzie, Jesse Colgate, Mary Stuart Smith, Helen Adams, Louise Letter, Alice Smith, Catherine Mackenzie, Wilfred Smith, Stella Wolfe, Annie Hansen, Irene Goldsmith, Josephine Richardson, Mary Hansen, Frances Allen, Dorothy Goldsmith, Mary Warrack, Fowler Cardwell, David Loring, Harold Sandford, Wayne Coe, Charles Burness, Gordon Stuart, Charles Allen and Earl Coe.

Miss Josephine Smith is the guest for a fortnight of Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards, at their charming country home at Hay Creek, Or.

Several of the Portland visitors to Seattle last week met Miss Margaret R. Martin, who will be pleasantly remembered as connected with the "House-that-Jack-Built" performance tary whist party on Saturday last, given by Miss Irene Higgins, who is to be the maid of honor at the coming wedding. Bridge was played at six tables and prizes were French embroidered jackets.

Mr. and Mrs. George Maxwell have arrived from Glaskanie, to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cook during the Rose Festival.

On Thursday a luncheon of 13 covers was given for Miss Grace Nicholson, whose wedding will also take place this coming month, with Miss Mateo Howe as the hostess. Favors were bisque dolls dressed as brides. The color scheme was yellow with many enormous brass bowl of Golden Gate roses as a centerpiece. Miss Howe again entertained on Friday afternoon at bridge for Miss Nicholson, whose bridesmaid she is to be, and also for Miss Brigham.

A luncheon was given in honor of Miss Ethel M. Lytle on Thursday by Mrs. W. A. T. Bushong. The decorations were in pink and white—pink tulle and white ribbons. The members of the Lakme Quartet, of which Miss Lytle is a member, were guests; also Mrs. W. H. Boyer, Mrs. C. A. Shaw, Mrs. Herman Thankhauser and Mrs. Frank Taylor. Miss Lytle met a surprise when in cutting the bride cake a shower of handkerchiefs was revealed. Five hundred was played.

Mrs. L. R. Dwyot and Mrs. Anderson Cannon were the honor guests at a reception given last week by Mrs. Frank Gilbert, at her West Park-street residence. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. E. W. Church, Mrs. G. W. Parker, Mrs. R. M. Tuttle and Mrs. Waldo Coe, assisted by Miss Veda Nichols, Miss Alice Collier, and Miss Adelle Dwyot. Funch was served by Miss Gertrude Jones and Miss Beadie Luckey. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. E. Nichols, Miss Ruth Church, Miss Fay Nichols, Miss Flora Hanson, in cream and Miss Annylyd Jones. The drawing-rooms were decorated in Scotch broom, carnations and ferns. Sweet peas were used for the tea table, covered with artistic Japanese lilies, collected by the hostess on her recent visit to the Orient.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

One of the notable social events of the week was the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Montgomery, at the opening of their new and beautiful home at East 20th and Salmon streets, on the afternoon and evening of May 21. The decorations were, in the dining-room, pink and white carnations, with asparagus ferns, and a profusion of Oregon roses and sweet-peas throughout the house. Mrs. Montgomery wore a beautiful gown of brown chiffon and lace over white silk, combined with hand-embroidered lace. Mrs. C. Henry Chamberlain, in cream lace over light blue silk trimmed with lace; Mrs. Arlis in black crepe de chene, combined with lace; Mrs. R. G. Cramer, sister of Mrs. Montgomery, in mesaline silk and princess, and Miss Mildred Strader in a white lingerie gown, assisted in receiving. Mrs. F. A. Jones in black crepe de chene and black lace, and Mrs. Stokes in champagne crepe de chene, with hand-embroidery and lace, poured tea. Mrs. C. A. Mann in lovely gray silk and cream lace and Mrs. E. W. King served, with Misses Dixie Sojinar, Minnie Turner and Elizabeth Barton, at the punch bowl; these all being of families connected in business relations with Mr. Lewis Montgomery. Webber's orchestra furnished the music.

The following were present: Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Ghormley, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Cline, Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Ingram, Waco, Tex.; Mrs. W. J. Farley, Dallas, Or.; Mr. and Mrs. H. Knox, Boring; Mrs. Benjamin Knox, Stevens, Wash.; Arthur Strader, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey, St. Helens; Miss Ida Davis, Roseburg; ex-Senator A. M. and Mrs. Stoddard, Madison, Wis.; Mr.

ENGRAVED WEDDING AND SOCIETY STATIONERY R. F. PRESCOTT & CO. 271 1/2 McCLELLAN ST.

LARGEST AND LEADING FUR MANUFACTURERS OF THE WEST.

EXCLUSIVE OUTFITTERS FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

Cor. Fourth and Morrison Sts.

Rose Festival Week WELCOME TO OUT-OF-TOWN VISITORS

The Correct New Apparel For the Summer Months If further evidence were needed that this is a store for exclusive styles it can be found in the fact that right now, while many stores are reducing their heavily over-bought stocks, we are daily receiving the latest models and selling them at prices which are less in comparison. Our customers appreciate the distinctive, out-of-the-ordinary apparel, and this class of merchandise is not made up in big lots, but is produced for us from day to day as it is desired — we receiving every advantage from the manufacturers that prevailing trade conditions permit. Special attention is called to a complete new showing of tailored suits in the cool fabrics for Summer at popular prices.

ROSE FESTIVAL SPECIAL

Extraordinary Sale Lingerie Dresses

There are five distinct styles, suitable for both indoor and street wear. All are carefully made and are very exceptional values. $10 These dainty Dresses are made of soft mull, in white and delicate shades of pink, light blue, tan and lavender.

Suits of Linen and Poplin

Plain tailored effects at $10, $12.50, $15, $18.50 and $25. Every line that lends style and symmetry to the figure is embodied in these suits of linen and poplin, that are tailored with as much care and fit as perfectly as if made of broadcloth. The coats are made in long, short and medium length styles, and the skirts show many new ideas in the plaited, circular and gored models. In white and all colors of linen and poplin.

Tailored Waists at $1.00

A special lot of Tailored Waists, $1. They are made in severely tailored plaited style, of sheer lawn, and have stiff collars. An exceptional value at $1.00

Pongee Coats at $15

Mannish, semi-fitted styles with long lapels and cut-off fronts. There isn't anything more desirable for Summer evenings than these pongee Coats at only $15.00

FURS REMODELED — REPAIRED — STORED

Ours, the largest and best-equipped Fur Factory on the Coast, enables us to repair and remodel fur garments now better and at smaller cost to you than at any other time. Latest styles for next season are being shown. We also pay the very highest prices for Raw Furs—and save you the middleman's profit, as we are manufacturers. Send them in.

and Mrs. C. P. Merrill, Hood River; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Moore, Hood River; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Johnson, LaFayette; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Johnson, LaFayette; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Johnson, Clackamas; Mr. Frank, Oswego; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Montgomery, Brush Prairie, Wash.; W. Dunbar, Olympia; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Roots, Boring; Mr. and Mrs. W. Moran, Boring; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mann; Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey, Misses Chamber, Mr. and Mrs. Reeder, Captain J. N. and Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Glasspool, Miss Alice Glasspool, Miss Ethel Clark, Miss Alta Ring, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wood, Miss Mary Wood, Mr. and Mrs. J. Manary, Mr. and Mrs. Lee VanWay, Dr. H. H. and Mrs. Hickman, Miss Alice F. Clark, Mr. T. W. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Easton, Mr. and Mrs. Tobias, Mr. and Mrs. John Kenefick, Miss Bertha Mastera, Mr. and Mrs. Goldfield, Mr. and Mrs. L. Strachan, Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Miss Morton, Mr. and Mrs. M. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Brock, Misses Elsie Jones, Mrs. M. J. Wilson, Olympia; Miss

Mrs. Dabney, Henry Stennick, W. Miller, Mr. Eversole, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Cramer, Mr. and Mrs. James Montgomery, Herbert Clarke.

A pleasant surprise was tendered Professor William Maxwell Wilder, leader and director of Grace Methodist Church male

Continued on Page 5.

H. B. LITT

Fiesta Week Only

To interest out-of-town patrons in our specialties during Fiesta Week, we have marked prices down to far below the labor and material cost. Regular prices plainly marked—the prices you have seen on our goods if you have visited the Needlecraft Shop recently—and reduced prices are marked right on the same price-ticket.

- Over 3000 Pieces Offered Study the following carefully. HAND EMBROIDERED GOODS Infants' Dresses, regular $4.50 and $5.50.....$3.25 Shirtwaist Patterns, regular $10.00.....$5.50 Shirtwaist Patterns, regular $5.00.....$3.50 Sofa Pillows, regular $15.00.....$7.00 Dollies, regular $3.00.....$1.50 Dollies, regular 50c......25 Handkerchiefs, regular $2.25.....$1.50 Corset Covers, regular $5.50.....$2.50 Chemise, regular $9.00.....$4.50 STAMPED PIECES TO EMBROIDER Shirtwaists, regular $1.35..... 99c Corset Covers, regular 50c..... 33c Chemise, regular $1.00..... 69c Gowns, regular $2.00.....$1.50 Centers, regular 75c..... 50c Pillow Tops, regular 50c..... 33c

Specials for Graduates and Brides We expect to realize thousands of dollars from our sale Fiesta Week, and hope to introduce our specialties to hundreds of new customers.

The Needlecraft Shop 384 WASHINGTON STREET

FINAL SALE Monday

Ladies' and Misses' SUITS

- Formerly $35 to $50 at Every $17.00 Formerly $50 to $75 at Suit $27.00 Formerly $75 to $100 at In $37.00 Formerly Over $100 at Stock $47.00