PROPOSED LAW WOULD SAVE STATE GREAT EXPENSE. Attorney-General Atkinson Proposes Amendment to Washington Constitution—Copies Utah.

PROPOSED LAW WOULD SAVE STATE GREAT EXPENSE.

Attorney-General Atkinson Proposes Amendment to Washington Constitution—Copies Utah. OLYMPIA, Wash., May 30.—(Special.)—Among other economic and legal problems, Attorney-General John D. Atkinson has been making a study of the jury system of this state. He will have presented to the next Legislature a proposition to submit to the people for consideration a constitutional amendment to fashion our constitutional and jury laws after the new system of the State of Utah, which has proved to be an excellent one both for the ends of justice and expedition of court business, and which Mr. Atkinson declares would save to the taxpayers of this state more than a round million of dollars within the next ten years.
