

BOTH SIDES CLAIM SENATORIAL FIGHT

Liquor Question Will Also Be State-Wide Issue in the Election.

BIG INCREASE IN ELECTORS

Initiative and Referendum Bills of Great Importance Will Be Decided Tomorrow—Registration in Oregon Numbers 121,000.

Streek, of the Democratic organization, declares the Governor will capture Multnomah County by a margin of at least 1500 votes. In his estimate, Chairman Sweek regards the following counties as doubtful: Coos, Josephine, Klamath, Morrow, Wasco, Washington and Wheeler. He concedes to Cake four counties by the following pluralities: Columbia, 250; Lane, 250; Tillamook, 150; Umatilla, 200.

How the Vote is Estimated.

The following table shows the estimated plurality, by which the respective state chairmen claim the different counties:

Table with columns for County, Cake, and Cham-berlain. Lists counties like Baker, Benton, Clatsop, Columbia, Crook, Curry, Douglas, Gilliam, Grant, Harney, Jackson, Josephine, Klamath, Lake, Lane, Lincoln, Linn, Malheur, Marion, Multnomah, Polk, Sherman, Tillamook, Umatilla, Union, Wallowa, Wasco, Washington, Wheeler, Yamhill.

Democrat concedes to Cake: Columbia, 250; Lane, 250; Tillamook, 150; Union, 200.

Grand totals: 8050 for Democrat, 5350 for Republican.

Sharp Fight is Waged.

Between Cake and Chamberlain a sharp campaign has waged since the primaries, six weeks ago. Cake has made the most of his being the Republican nominee, but Chamberlain has subordinated his Democratic nomination as much as he could, following the non-partisan plan that twice elected him Governor, and as many times elected Lane Mayor of Portland.

Want More Legislators.

The Statement No. 1 men, including of course, Chamberlain's followers, seek the election of six or eight independent and Democratic Legislators. Their favored battle-ground is Washington and Yamhill Counties, where seven independents are running against as many anti-statement Republicans. They hope also to win a place or two in Linn, against two Republican anti-statement candidates; also in Jackson and Benton.

Against Chamberlain.

That he is not a consistent champion of Statement No. 1 chiefly because though professing adherence to that doctrine, he urges election of Republican candidates for the Legislature opposed to Statement No. 1.

Against Chamberlain.

That he employs a Japanese house servant, although declaring himself opposed to Oriental immigration.

Salmon Factions in Fight.

A bitter fight between "salmon" factions of the Columbia River for enactment of two opposing bills under the initiative has drawn the attention of the state to the rivalry between fisheries and their attempt to restrict or abolish each other. It is the general opinion that the bills should be rejected together, since each seeks the benefit of its own faction, to the detriment of the other.

the state much money by withholding the land from sale until the act went into effect.

That he assisted school land speculators to get land which they bought from the state as non-mineral, but which the state had no right to receive from the United States or to convey, since it was mineral; that he caused the state to refund the speculators the money they had paid the state, with interest, and aided them in securing the land from the United States with regular Government entries—this whole transaction revealing a connection between the speculators and Chamberlain.

That W. E. Thomas, Chamberlain's law partner, acting as Land Agent for Multnomah County, loaned and collected school money, receiving commissions therefor.

That James W. Morrow, State Land Agent appointed by Chamberlain between the time he was commissioned and took office, engineered and obtained nine claims to school land in Morrow County worth $100,000, for which he paid the state $4100.

That Chamberlain's success tomorrow would imperil Statement 1 because it might drive Republican Legislators, bound by the pledge, to repudiate it, to escape voting for him.

That election of Chamberlain, a Democrat, would startle the Nation and weaken the Republican party in National politics.

That Roosevelt wants Cake elected, and not a Democrat.

That Chamberlain lent aid to Hency's attacks on F. Manning and J. O'Day.

That Chamberlain has not been so much an advocate of Statement 1 as a candidate for the office.

Says County is Cake's.

Major J. P. Kennedy, chairman of the Republican county central committee, forecasted the election of the entire Republican ticket last night in the following statement:

"H. M. Cake is certain to carry Multnomah County by a margin that will insure his election by a good, round majority when the vote from the outlying counties has been reported. As to the rest of the ticket, there exists no question of the re-election of Sheriff Stevens by a substantial majority. Cameron and Morrow will both defeat their opponents. The Republican Legislative candidates will be elected, the only question being the size of their majorities."

But the Democrats are not satisfied with their predicted election of Governor Chamberlain for Senator. They are confidently expecting to re-elect District Attorney Manning and Circuit Judge O'Day, and with Tom Word to displace Sheriff Stevens. There is not much activity in betting circles. Considerable Chamberlain money has been posted but there are not many takers. There is also some betting on the District Attorneyship, while Stevens money at 2 to 1 is deposited at various places and but little of it being taken.

Thomas Also is Confident.

George H. Thomas, chairman of the Democratic county central committee, last night made the following statement:

"Governor Chamberlain unquestionably will carry Multnomah County by a good majority, but I hardly think it will reach 1500. We will re-elect District Attorney Manning and Circuit Judge O'Day and will elect Tom Word Sheriff. As to the legislative ticket, W. C. Farnham, for State Senator; A. King Wilson, for Joint Representative, and D. F. Campbell, for Representative, should be elected. They are all Statement No. 1 men, and since the Republicans made that the issue and nominated only men who subscribed to the statement, we believe our nominees

WARNS AGAINST ELECTION FRAUDS.

District Attorney Manning yesterday issued a warning against illegal voting, particularly calling the attention of election officials to the statutes and inviting their co-operation against the possibility of frauds.

"I desire to call attention to Section 1903 of the code, relating to offenses against the suffrage:

"Section 1903.—If any person shall vote, or offer to vote at any legally authorized election in this state, knowing himself not entitled by law to vote thereat, or shall vote, or offer to vote, at any poll or in any precinct at any such election, knowing himself not entitled to vote at such poll or in such precinct, such person, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the County Jail not less than three months nor more than one year, or by fine less than $100 nor more than $500."

"Fraud in none of its forms will be permitted at the general election Monday, June 1, and in any instance where it may be detected I shall prosecute the offender as by law required."

"I wish to sound specific caution with a view to deterring any attempt at intimidation of voters or the voting of any person not entitled to vote, by means of false freeholders' affidavits."

"I respectfully advise the judges and clerks of election to be particularly upon their guard in all precincts wherein local matters are at issue."

should be elected. We are also hopeful that Oakesby Young, candidate for Railroad Commissioner, will be successful."

Bills Before the People.

Initiative and referendum bills of large importance to the state are presented for enactment. The most far-reaching in its effect is a constitutional amendment initiated for a modified single tax, but as a united fight against it has been made all over the state, its enactment is unlikely. The $125,000 annual appropriation for the State University—a referendum bill of the legislature—is a measure over which there has been a vigorous fight on both sides, and for whose passage the outlook is favorable.

ment of its rival. Another important measure is that for woman suffrage—a constitutional amendment—now offered the third time for the popular vote.

In all, there are 19 measures to be voted on by the state at large, for both constitutional amendments and statutory acts. Among the others is an amendment for proportional representation, presented originally by W. S. U'Ren. Another, known as the home rule amendment, offered by Mayor J. F. Reddy, of Medford, would allow towns to legalize Sunday saloons and race-track gambling.

Proposed Change in Court.

One more proposed amendment of big importance is that giving the Legislature unlimited power to increase the number of Justices of the Supreme Court—a change that would put the Supreme Court wholly in the power of the Legislature.

Bills of lesser importance, but of big interest, are: To increase pay of Legislators from $2 a day to $10; to permit location of state institutions elsewhere than at Salem; to change the time of biennial elections from June to November; to give Sheriffs the custody of county prisoners, and allow the feeding of prisoners in Multnomah to the Sheriff at 12 1/2 cents a meal; to compel transportation companies to give public officers free passes; to appropriate $100,000 for militia armories; to enact the "recall" system of removing unpopular public officers; to instruct members of the Legislature to vote for the "people's choice" for United States Senator; to limit campaign expenses of candidates and compel publicity therefor; to create the County of Hood River out of the western portion of Wasco County.

MANNING MEN SCENT RUSE

Declare Altered Copy of Bolo Ticket Was Distributed.

An eleven-hour trick in political jiggery came to light late yesterday afternoon, according to claims made by the friends of District Attorney Manning. This is the way it was done, according to the Manning champions. Early this week a meeting was held by the Bolo Club, an organization made up of Spanish War Veterans. Several candidates were endorsed by this club, among them District Attorney Manning, for re-election. A ticket was immediately printed and started in circulation.

The boom for the District Attorney fell like a bomb in the Cameron camp and there were things doing among friends of the Police Judge. Late yesterday afternoon another ticket, purporting to be one emanating from the Bolo Club, appeared on the streets. But on this one the name of Manning was dropped and that of Cameron substituted. The Manning managers charge the ruse to the Cameron crowd, and the whole matter will probably be laid before the Bolo Club at a called meeting.

PORTLAND'S SECOND ANNUAL ROSE FESTIVAL. JUNE FIRST TO SIXTH. Includes illustrations of roses and decorative elements.

SHOWING of ART INTERIOR DECORATIONS WALL PAPERS, TAPESTRIES AND DAMASKS

Wall Decorations are most essential to the final completion of the home, enhancing materially the beauty of all surroundings and furnishing when properly assembled and completing the interior architectural beauty. Such work can be executed only where a thorough knowledge of this work is combined with the best material and workmanship.

Artistic wall decorations are today far different in treatment than in the past, inasmuch as they are originated and executed by students and masters in the art of producing interior effects to conform with what is being produced in art furniture and window hangings as well as lighting fixtures.

Our stock of wall papers consists of the newest European productions; papers that are substantial in color, and original and unusual in design. Many of our furniture coverings, and window and door hangings are purchased in patterns which are identical with our wall papers.

- Austrian and German tekko papers that produce satin damask effects. Japanese leathers that produce hammered metal effects of ancient periods. English Eltonbury silk fibers, both plain and figured. Dainty French and English chintz and cretonne effects. Heavy English Tapestry reproductions. English floral reproductions perfectly copied. Washable bath and lavatory tiles—flemish and mosaic—in all colors. We employ only the most competent and skilled workmen, and guarantee our materials and workmanship to be first-class in every particular. Our decorator will be pleased to call and suggest most practical and artistic treatment of interiors. Out-of-town work of this character specially solicited.

SPLENDID DISPLAY of ART FURNITURE PIECES IN THE CLASSIC PERIOD DESIGNS

Visitors during the festival week will have an opportunity of inspecting our extensive collection of period furniture and we extend a cordial invitation to all to make our store their headquarters. Such a gathering of art pieces is not displayed in such variety of select designs in any other city in the entire Western country. It represents the very finest reproductions of the old originals—the recognized periods of the English and French schools—Louis XIV, Louis XV, Regence, Louis XVI, Marie Antoinette, Elizabethan, Charles II, William and Mary, Jacobean, Chippendale, Sheraton, Hepplewhite and the stately Colonial. Those who appreciate the simplicity, elegance and character of the period designs will be deeply interested in this display.

CAMPAIGN IS VIGOROUS

Local Option Men Will Make Hard Fight on East Side.

The local option campaign on the East Side is being vigorously carried on Monday in 17 of the East Side precincts. Some weeks ago the temperance forces started a movement for an "all East Side" campaign, but this petition was held by the County Court to be irregular. Meanwhile the saloonmen and their friends filed a petition calling a local option election in the 17 precincts on the East Side of this city and two precincts in St. John in which the liquor business was most strongly entrenched, feeling certain that they would win the election. The temperance forces already had a well-organized committee consisting of representatives from nearly all of the churches in the entire city—and this committee concluded ten days ago to give the saloonmen who called this election the "surprise of their lives." A house-to-house canvass has been made and a very careful record kept, which shows a remarkably strong sentiment against the saloon. The object of this canvass was not only to discover as far as practicable the sentiment of the voters, but also with a view of definitely locating people who were not registered so as to prevent any attempts at colonizing men to be sworn in on election day. The information now in the hands of the general committee is most interesting and such as to prevent a recurrence of the incidents at Sellwood two years ago.

At the several polling places a representative of the committee will take an accurate description of each man who attempts to swear in his vote, and a list of the freeholders who may certify to his residence and right to vote, and these will be turned into the District Attorney the next day after election and, since the District Attorney has already declared himself against illegal voting, it will be unwise for any one to attempt it in these precincts. Cameras will be available if necessary and every means used to secure an honest vote. A watch will be set while the votes are being counted and any attempts to vitiate or tamper with the ballots will be summarily stopped. Much hard and effective work has already been done and the committee will keep right at it until the vote is in and counted, and it confidently hopes that the good people of the East Side will do their whole duty creditably and with courage on election day. The saloonmen and their friends will be out in force and no excuse should be deemed sufficient to keep any man from doing his duty to his family and his neighbors by voting right on this saloon question.

OREGON SHEEP FOR OMAHA

Thirty-Five Cars Sent From Heppner by F. C. Oxman.

HEPPNER, Or., May 30.—(Special).—F. C. Oxman shipped a train of 35 cars of sheep to South Omaha to graze in transit at Rock River, Wyo., tonight. Mr. Oxman bought quite extensively here this Spring, being next to Rea Bros. of Montana in purchases. These sheep are all mutton sheep and will be fattened at Rock River and this fall loaded on the cars and marketed in Omaha. This is the last shipment of any consequence and practically closes the sheep market for this season. The price is from 60 cents to $1 under that of last year, which has caused a good many sheepmen to hold on to their flocks for another year. VOTE "YES" ON U. OF O. APPROPRIATION. The University of Oregon is a part of the public school system of the state and should be properly supported. Vote "Yes" on the appropriation bill on election day.
