MRS. JAMES CANBY, WIFE OF MAJOR CANBY, U.S.A., WHO HAS BEEN THE MOTIF FOR CONSIDERABLE ENTERTAINING

MISS HELEN BRIGHAM, WHO WILL BE MARRIED JUNE 17 TO MR. J. W. GREGG

MRS. HENRY LADD CORBETT, MISS GRETCHEN, MISS EDITH, BRIDES OF LAST WEEK

INFORMALITY and strenuousness have been the keynote for the week's diversions owing to the Rose Carnival, which monopolized the attention of young and old and kept the entire city en fete for a period of six days.

Though of a semi-public nature, the Rex ball on Friday evening at the Armory was a gratifying success, the presence of the officers of the Charleston and Yorktown and torpedo-boat flotilla, the officers of the National Guard and of Vancouver Barracks in full-dress uniform lending much dignity to the occasion. Among the guests of honor were Admiral Sibunne, Capt. Beatty, of the Charleston; Commander Glennon, of the Yorktown; Rex Oregonus, Queen Flora, who was Miss Carrie Lee Chamberlain, daughter of Governor and Mrs. George E. Chamberlain, and her four maids, Miss Jeanette Scott, Miss Freda Kirkland, Miss Nellie Franzer and Miss Mildred Morgan. Among some of the representatives set present were Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, General and Mrs. C. F. Beeson, Governor and Mrs. George E. Chamberlain, Mrs. Carrie Benson, Colonel and Mrs. John McCracken, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Koehler, Miss Sallie Lewis, Mrs. Hannah Robertson, Dr. and Mrs. K. A. J. Mackenzie, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. James McCracken, Mr. and Mrs. Peter B. McCracken, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McCracken, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Alvord, Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Rockey, Paul Rockey, Miss Bessie Mills, of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Sykes, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Watson, Colonel James Jackson, Colonel and Mrs. Charles E. McDonnell, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Jesselyn, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, Major and Mrs. William Bidde, Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster, Major and Mrs. James Wood, Mr. and Mrs. William Warren, Mr. and Mrs. G. Walter Gates, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Page, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Page, Mr. and Mrs. C. Mears, Miss Susie Stott, Miss Gaeta Ivorda Wold, Mr. and Mrs. Lansing Stott, Dr. and Mrs. A. Panton, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Holbrook, Mr. and Mrs. James Major, Mrs. Raleigh Stott, Miss Caroline Burns, Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Dannenbower, Miss Belle and Miss Claire Houghton, Miss Bess Dooley, Miss Dorothy Morrison, Dr. and Mrs. Sanford Whiting, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bronough, Miss Marjorie Hoffman and her guests, Miss Cross, Mrs. H. H. H. Hoffman, Maurice Dooley, Marton Dolph, Kenneth Beebe, Arthur Mears, Henry Mears, Lewis A. McCarthy, Richard Nixon, Harold Weiss, Harry Failing and many others.

Muir by marriage. Additionally there were Miss Dorothy Morrison, Miss Edie and Clea Houghton, Mr. Whalley Watson and Dr. Reed, who is the surgeon on the U. S. S. Charleston.

A jolly week-end party, which included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hart, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Alvord, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Wheeler and Mr. and Mrs. William Warren, were entertained at the ranch of R. S. Hughes, in Benton County.

Mrs. C. F. Switzer has sent out cards for a reception Thursday afternoon at her Willamette Heights residence. Arthur Alexander, after his recent musical success abroad, is to be the soloist.

Mrs. H. F. Alexander, of Tacoma, who formerly resided here with her sister, Mrs. Frank Woolsey, now also of Tacoma, has visited during the carnival with Mrs. F. S. Kelly (Miss Bess Barker), as Mrs. Carl Thompson of Tacoma, on Thursday. Mrs. David C. Lewis gave an informal luncheon for Mrs. Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lytle and Mrs. Lytle's mother, Mrs. Ayer, Dr. A. E. Rockey and Dr. Paul Rockey returned this morning from New York. While there they met W. H. Hurlbert, Fred Morris, A. L. Craig, A. H. Devers and other Portlanders. Dr. Paul Rockey recently received his degree from Columbia University, and is at home for a summer vacation. He will return in the fall for a two years' service as interne at the Roosevelt Hospital. Mrs. Lytle's mother and Mr. Lytle's elater will remain during the summer. Mr. Devers was on his way back from Europe, and Mr. Morris and Mr. Hurlbert on a pleasure and business trip combined.

Captain Glennon, U. S. N., commander of the U. S. S. Yorktown, was the host at a luncheon last week on board the gunboat in compliment to Miss Frances Wilson and her guest, Miss Dannenbower, of New York. Miss Virginia Wilson acted as the chaperone.

Considerable has been done informally for Mr. and Mrs. Clara B. Lamont (Miss Maude Hahn), who are spending a week here before taking up their residence in Seattle.

Mrs. Judith Scott has as house guests Miss Zenith and Belle Robertson, of Seattle.

Mrs. Edward Failing entertained last Saturday evening for Miss Ruth Hawkins, who leaves on Monday for the East. Miss Hawkins, who has spent the winter at the Hobart Curtis, is a niece of the late Dr. McKinnell.

There will be joy in many small hearts

George Marshall and Miss Gladys Welder. Punch was served by Miss Sallie Lewis, Mrs. Frank Vincent Du Mond and Miss Frances Wilson. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. S. B. Lintinich, Mrs. W. C. Alvord, Mrs. John Shepard and Mrs. William Warrens.

A constant source of admiration was the splendid exhibition of the Rose Show given for two days at the Oriental building by the Rose Society. The show was under the personal direction of Mrs. J. W. Minto, assisted by Mrs. Herbert Holman and a corps of assistants who superintended the gathering of the flowers in addition to the exquisite roses, a unique plant was loaned by Mrs. W. S. Ladd, a peculiar species of the English varietal-colored calceolaria, which faintly resembles an orchid, though is not as delicate.

Mrs. L. Frohman and her daughter, Miss Stella, are registered in New York, at the Waldorf-Astoria. Miss Frohman recently visited Miss Evelyn and Carolyn Wilson at St. Margaret's school, at Waterbury, Conn. Later, in company with her mother, she was entertained at New Haven by some of the Yale men. Mrs. Frohman left for home on Sunday, while Miss Frohman will visit the Portland girls at Smith College, returning with them immediately after the commencement exercises.

Cards have been sent for a tea this coming Saturday afternoon to be given by the University of Oregon Alumnae for the graduating girls at academic schools. Heretofore the annual entertainment has taken the form of a dancing party, but this year the affair will be a reception, to be held at the residence of Miss Alice Benson.

Mrs. Edward Cookingham was the hostess yesterday afternoon at a large reception in honor of Mrs. James Canby, the former Miss Eugenia Cunningham, who is the wife of Major Canby, the new paymaster of the department.

Receiving with the hostess and Mrs. Canby was Mrs. Cookingham, the mother of Mrs. Canby. Presiding in the dining room were Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Ernest Tucker, Mrs. Morton Inslay and Mrs. Frank Hart, assisted by Mrs.

Splendid audiences greeted the trio of performers of the New York Symphony orchestra. Mme. Nordica naturally was received with great enthusiasm, and was in fine voice. Called at the briefest possible notice from the wilds of Idaho, where she was rusticiating, after her brilliant New York successes, she was somewhat unprepared as to concert gowns, while her beautiful diamonds, emeralds and pearls, for which she is famous, are lying in a New York safe deposit.

At the matinee, however, she made a striking appearance in a Dresden gown of white, with pastel blue flowers, worn with a stunning mandarin coat and a much-beplumed hat of black. In the evening she appeared in a delicate robe of a mode tone, elaborately studded with emerald green sequins. As a compliment, her costume and bodice were arranged with roses in the carnal shades. A pretty attention shown the glorious diva after each number by the spontaneous encore she received from the hands of the famous Dammrosch.

Those who had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Dammrosch, who was a daughter of the late James G. Blaine, were much attracted by her gracious manner.

On Wednesday after the concert Miss Lois Steers and Miss Wynn Coman were the hosts at a supper with Mme. Nordica and Mr. and Mrs. Dammrosch as the guests of honor. They also took the distinguished visitors motoring on several occasions.

Oakland teacups are rattling over the announcement of Miss Amy McKee's engagement to Etienne Lanet, Consul-General of France, in New York, who, up to last year, was the representative of his country at San Francisco. Miss McKee is a sister of Mrs. Norman Lang of Oregon City, and a great belle, both in San Francisco and Oakland, where she made her debut some years ago, and is equally sought after by the younger contingent. The bride-elect is a cousin of Mr. E. D. McKee. The wedding is to take place June 11 and they will shortly afterwards take up their residence in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Muir were dinner hosts at the Golf Club last night, entertaining for Admiral Swinburne's two aides, Lieutenant Constable and Lieutenant Pottoot, the latter being related to Mr.

Monday, when Miss Margaret R. Martin meets the children at the Portland Academy gymnasium at 3:30 o'clock and begins rehearsals for the "Toy Shop," Mrs. Gaynor's operetta, to be produced the last week of June for the benefit of the Institute Club of the People's Institute. The many who so thoroughly enjoyed the performance of the "House that Jack Built" last year will be quite as glad to hear that another opera of the same character is to be presented. Chorus re-
