

is so potent that the accessories seem unnecessary. Mrs. Katherine Trenchell, a pupil, gave a number of interesting readings her lines with a delightful conception and expression. Pleading solos were given by Miss Sarah Glance and Miss Mabel Selover.

Mrs. I. Frohman has returned from a five months' visit in Florida and other Eastern cities.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt Lewis, of Medford, are Portland visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reed, of Chicago, have returned from their wedding trip, and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Fouch, formerly Miss Mabel Pouch, who has been entertained considerably this past winter in Chicago, where she has studied art.

Miss Sally Cross, of Boston, famous for her miniature work, was in town yesterday afternoon for a tea given by her hostess, Mrs. Lee Hoffman.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Russell leave tomorrow for New York, sailing after a month for Europe.

Miss Cora Mark, whose marriage to Mr. Solomon Garde is to take place Tuesday evening at the Hotel Portland, has had many pleasant affairs given in her honor. On Tuesday afternoon Miss Clementine Hirsch entertained with four tables of bridge, including Mrs. I. N. Lipman, Mrs. Felix Friedlander, Miss Florence Kohn, Miss Florence Wolfe, Miss Miriam Jacobs, Miss Helen Rosenfeld, Miss Mabel Beck, Miss Daisy Rosenor, Miss Cora Mark, her cousin, Miss Clarice Marx, of San Francisco; Miss Sybil Lipsett, and Miss Mal Hirsch. Thursday afternoon Miss Germaine Samuel entertained for Miss Marx, and yesterday afternoon Mrs. I. N. Lipman gave a bridge for them.

In a column under the head of weddings is given an account of the Holman-Nicholson wedding on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hope, Jane Hope and Miss Alice Sansbury were to have left last week for a trip through Yellowstone Park. Owing to the washout their proposed visit has been postponed.

Mr. and Mrs. George Willard Brown leave on Tuesday for Seattle, returning the latter part of the week with Mrs. J. A. Brown and Miss Fannie Brown.

Miss Emma B. Carroll presented Miss Jean Park McCracken, Miss Emma Wood and Miss Emma Fordyce in a piano recital, Wednesday evening, at her residence, 607 Flanders street.

A tea on Thursday afternoon was given at St. Helens Hall by the Art Department, under the direction of Miss E. B. Clarke. Fully 500 specimens of work accomplished last year were on exhibition. Claire Wilcox, Genevieve Hall and Gene Morrison are particularly well represented, and show much skill in their work. They presented some splendid white and black compositions from life, pictures of each other, and several of little Hunt Lewis, all being excellent likenesses. In addition, they have done cast drawing, landscapes, charcoal sketches, and have also made attractive looking curtains, of colored stencil work, conventional designs on lawns and unbleached muslin.

Mabel Smith, Elsie McLean and Grace Honeyman have contributed several water color and charcoal sketches. Vivian Tully and Eva Carlisle show several pen and ink drawings. Margaret Wallace has done some work in oils, and Selma Haas some attractive series in water colors.

Mrs. S. W. Northcott, of Sumner, has arrived with her two months' visit with her daughter, Mrs. George Martin Adams.

In commemoration of the birthday of President Jefferson Davis, the daughters of the Confederacy were delightfully entertained on Friday evening at the residence of Colonel and Mrs. H. H. Duff. Benjamin I. Cohen delivered an interesting address on the South, and was followed by Dr. C. M. Wells. "Dixie" ever loved by Southerners, was played by Dr. George H. Small, Jr. Mrs. S. J. S. Rowell, president of the local chapter, presented a pleasing paper on "A Tribute to the Memory of Jeff Davis." Captain Burkhardt gave an interesting speech on "Soldiers Who Fought for Davis." Mrs. Sylvia McGuire recited "The Return of the Southern Soldier," and Mrs. Elia Hitchcock read a paper on "Jefferson Davis' Services During the War."

NANCY LEE.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

The Irvington Clubhouse was the scene of festivities last Wednesday evening, June 10, when Miss Irma Austin entertained a number of her friends with a dancing party. The hall was tastefully decorated with pink roses and pink and green tulle. A set of 30 dances formed the programme. Miss Irma was assisted by her mother, Mrs. H. H. Austin, and Mrs. F. A. Daly. Miss Hazel Russell also assisted in receiving. Among those present were: Misses Hazel Russell, Sue Barnes, Jeannette Scott, Florence McGinnis, Evaline Heins, Marie McGrath, Jessie Gumma, Carrie Lee Chamberlain, Hazel and Freda Kirkland, Doris and Ruth Plummers, Hazel Barrett, Mildred Clemons, Hazel Collins, Bernice Stinson, Muck, Evelyn Hitchcock, Edna Minsinger, Marie Cavalline, Lella McCarver, Lucia Macklin, Marguerite Egbert, Lucille Delahunt, Wynne Kocher, John Potter, Irene Collins, Bernice Stinson, Messrs. Harry Trueblood, George Prentiss, James Cluck, Fred Gomes, James Harrow, Irving Lupton, Lee McKnight, Harold Watson, Guy Egan, Tom Lightner, Oriel Smith, Harry Calavan, Clarence Miller, Valentine and William Henkel, John Brown, Herbert Cooke, Eric Leitich, Harold Minor, Ernest Graham, Gene DeLaney, Frank Barnes, Stanley Kirkland, James Mann, Leland Townsend and William Curran.

The teachers of the D. P. Thompson school and their friends had a delightful trip to Estacada on Saturday, June 6. Their special car left Portland at 9:30 o'clock and arrived at Estacada at 11:45. On reaching the hotel the time was enjoyably spent in listening to music, including some excellent numbers by Mrs. E. Fred Le Olson. Dinner was served at the hotel. The party also went to Casadero, where they visited the big power plant and fish ladder. The members of the party were: Mrs. Fred Le Olson, Mrs. H. E. Kelly, Mrs. Carrie M. Ogle, Mrs. Laura Black, Misses Addie Naylor, Edna L. Amos, Laura B. Myers, Katharine P. Russell, Zeigler, Bessie Dupee, Hattie Williams, Lena Spinney, Cora N. Sullivan, Rachel Hallingby, Martha Irwin, Mary McMahon, Belle Chance, Olivia King, Olga Reed, Hallingby, Myrtle Williams, Lois Kennedy, Florence Williamson, Georgina Bell, Blanche Mickey, Edith Mickey, Mary Ritter, Orla Cooley, Edith Bloom, Ermo Hall, Beldine Merrill, Miss Mickey and Miss Cowan.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Sessel entertained 40 of their friends Wednesday evening at their residence on Hawthorne avenue and Marguerite street. The house was prettily decorated with roses and ferns and the evening spent in dancing. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. Sessel, Mrs. F. Maddux, Mrs. C. Maddux, Mrs. Gean Wilson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Barry, Mrs. Fleming, Mrs. J. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elliott, Mrs. James Fleming, Mrs. J. Murray and daughters, Star, Ethel and Edna, Mrs. Clarence B. Metzger, Miss Fanny Seelye, T. Tomlinson, G. B. Cline, Misses Lita and Grace Erickman, Miss Edith Broadlove, Miss Ora See, Miss Helen Rowcliff, J. Rowcliff, A. W. Marrott, Miss Elizabeth Farrar, Mrs. Aaron Levan and daughter, Marie, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Maguire, Jesse West, Mrs. Anna Holden, Frank Tufts, George Burkhart, Clarence Sessel, Myrtle and Ethel Sessel.

Rev. George W. Fulton, who has just returned from Japan on a furlough, will speak at the Young Women's Christian Association Sunday, June 14, at 4:30. Rev. Fulton has spent many years in Kanazawa, Western Japan. His work is varied, calling him to many outside towns so that he knows the country by heart. He is responsible for having introduced a correspondence class in Bible work, which now numbers 2000 members. Rev. Fulton is on his way to Pennsylvania, and will not be long in this city.

Miss Constance MacCorkle will give a few interesting facts about the Northwest Conference at Seaside.

The musical programme is as follows: Piano solo, Miss Lorna Ganong; contralto solo, Miss Emma Harlow; bass solo, A. W. Ledbury; contralto solo, Miss Maisie Foster; soprano solo, Miss Ella Dewart; baritone solo, Joseph Tauscher; soprano solo, Miss Eva Wells.

The ninth grade of the Hawthorne Grammar School held a lawn party at the home of Miss Helen McPaul Wednesday evening, June 10. The trees were decorated with Chinese lanterns and festoons of blue and white, the school colors. Mrs. R. L. Hawthorne was the guest of honor. Those present were the Misses: Ethel Gales, Mildred Graham, Bessie Legg, Emma May Durbill, Gladys Dobson, Josephine Breit-

Special Sale of Gloves, Parasols and Hosiery at

Lennon's

16-button length genuine kid; the latest shades of tan and brown; $3.50 value..... $2.45

16-button length genuine cape; tan, brown and black; $4.00 value..... $2.95

2-clasp Kayser's best make short Silk Gloves; patent finger tips; 75c value..... 39c

Ladies' fast black Lisle Hose, 35c value..... 19c

Ladies' plain white and lace Hose, 40c value..... 25c

All Parasols greatly reduced at

Lennon's

FOR GLOVES AND UMBRELLAS

309 Morrison, Opposite Postoffice.

ter Superior and several members of the faculty occupied places at the different tables. On these occasions, the instructors reserve to themselves the privilege of serving the students. Fun and music and song filled the evening, which was

KENNETH SOLSBE AND HIS PRIZE-WINNING DOG CART.
The above illustration shows Kenneth Solsbe, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Solsbe, formerly of Mount St. Helens, who was the winner of the $10 prize for the best decorated dog cart in the Rose Festival parade, June 4.

barth, Essie A. Cox, Ella Muller, Lillian Busby, Bernice Thoburn, Ida Dingle, Sadie Neer, Ethel Helgerson, Hortense Greffort, Ruby McKimmon, Mabel Rhoads, Ruth Renfer, Dorothy Tate and Vera Carson; Masters, McPaul, Noren, Mackechnie, Doane, McKeen, Baltra, Ross, Adams, Royer, Berni, Goodall and Ghormley. The evening was ended by the singing of the school song. Mrs. McPaul was assisted by Mrs. R. L. Hawthorne and Mrs. Charles M. Cox.

The undergraduates of St. Mary's Academy and College treated the outgoing seniors right royally on Thursday, June 11. The observation car of the street railway company carried the classes of '08 and '09 about the city from 2 P. M. to 6 P. M. This enjoyable function was followed by a delightful lawn party on St. Mary's grounds. The tables were handsomely decorated with lights and roses, and delicious viands, prepared by the class of '09, were spread. Mother Provincial, Sispronounced unsurpassed in St. Mary's class, '08.

The commencement festivities of the West High School started with Class day on Monday. Pursuant to a time-honored custom, all seniors were excused from recitations. Early in the morning they took cars for the Oaks. After visiting the various attractions they took dinner at the Yacht Club. The afternoon was devoted to aquatic sports and Knight Peary put his launch at the services of the class. Most of the class, which consists of 109 members, were present. The class officers are: President, Paul Bridwell; treasurer, Walter Dobie; secretary, Jane Knox; sergeant-at-arms, Jack Hickson.

Mrs. Phillip Blumauer on Wednesday entertained with a pink luncheon, followed by bridge, at her apartments in the Blumauer building, in honor of Mrs. W. J. Brennan, formerly of Maud Godard, of Klamath Falls, and Mrs. J. L. Stevenson, of New York city, and Mrs. G. Holtkemper, Jr., of Klamath Falls. Present were Mrs. John G. Clemson, Mrs. John Davenport Clark, Mrs. Henrietta Kucher, Mrs. A. Godard, A. E. Eastman and Mrs. Julius Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Vall, 422 Oxford street, celebrated their wooden wedding last Thursday evening in the presence of a large number of their family and friends. Progressive 50 was played. Harry Vall capturing the first prize and Gilbert Martin getting the consolation. Sumptuous refreshments were served and a short musical programme was enjoyed after the cards. The rooms were beautifully decorated with roses and greens. Many valuable presents were received.

Mrs. G. W. Craw gave a tea Wednesday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Lillian Reed, of Newcastle, Penn. The drawing-rooms were decorated with baskets filled with pink and red roses and potted plants. The guests were: Messdames Lavalley, Hanna, Kearn, Waggoner, Doughting, Hanlan, Tucker, Richardson, Stungers, Bodley, Laycock, Kirkland, of Independence, and Misses Craw, Reed, Dingherty and Hinton.

The students of the Oregon Conservatory of Music gave their first annual recital on Wednesday evening. A large audience of friends was in attendance and much appreciation was shown. The hall was decorated with the Conservatory colors, purple and gold. Each number on the programme was well rendered.

The programme at the last meeting of Evening Star Grange was in charge of Miss Lela Johnson and was mainly furnished by the children of the Juvenile Grange. The brothers of the Grange will have charge of the programme of the next meeting, which will be held July 1, instead of July 4, which is the regular meeting day.

A launching party composed of some 60 members of the Alert Bible Club of the White Temple, and their friends, went down the Columbia River Friday

Establishment Max

The entire stock of imported Laces, Batistes, Silks, Cloth and Novelties for less than cost

RETIRING FROM BUSINESS
Store for Rent
Fixtures for Sale

LARGEST AND LEADING FUR MANUFACTURERS OF THE WEST.

Silverfield's

Cor. 4th and Morrison Sts.

EXCLUSIVE OUTFITTERS FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

OUR JUNE WHITE SALE

The opening of our June White Sales has attracted considerable attention for the unequal values we are offering. QUALITY CONSIDERED. On all the newest of desirable merchandise in white, at the radical reductions of from 20 to 50 PER CENT.

EXTRA SPECIALS FOR MONDAY

New White Serge and Linen Suits at 20% DISCOUNT

Children's Dresses at 1/2 PRICE

The new arrivals in strictly tailored linen and white serge Suits for Summer season at the reduction of 20 PER CENT, offers an opportunity for the purchase of new merchandise at this most tempting reduction.

Manufacturer's entire sample line, consisting of Infants' and Misses' Dresses; ages from 6 months to 6 years, and up to 14 years; all this season's styles, at HALF PRICE. MOTHERS TAKE ADVANTAGE.

Muslin Underwe'r AT 20% OFF

Everything in Women's, Misses' and Children's Undergarments, such as gowns, skirts, corset covers, drawers, vests, chemise, etc., on new clean merchandise of the finest quality. This reduction of 20 PER CENT should be most inviting.

New White Lingerie Suits at 20% DISCOUNT

Our showing of these Dresses is the most correct and authentic for the Summer season. Every new line to make the figure more attractive, daintily trimmed with lace or designs of tucking; material of the sheerest sort, combined with the most artistic designs of lace. Prices $15.00, $18.50, $25.00, up to $65.00, all at the 20 PER CENT REDUCTION.

A TIMELY REMINDER—THE PROPER CARE OF FURS

NOW IS THE TIME TO STORE YOUR FURS. The commonest cause of the injury or ruin of furs is MOTHS; actual wear is responsible for little of it. This has been learned to their sorrow by many imprudent people. Through oversight, through carelessness or through false economy, they neglect to provide for the proper care of their furs during the Summer, and ruin follows. Let us relieve you of the anxiety of properly caring for your furs. We have every facility for giving them the treatment they must have to keep them in prime condition.

WE STORE FURS NOT AS A SOURCE OF PROFIT, BUT AS AN ACCOMMODATION TO OUR CUSTOMERS

HIGHEST PRICES FOR RAW FURS SEND FOR PRICE LIST

PHONE AND OUR MESSENGER WILL CALL. PHONES: MAIN 1295, A 1295.

REMODELING AND REPAIRING OF FURS AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES

WEDDINGS.

McClure-Cox.

One of the prettiest weddings of the month took place at the Centenary M. E. Church Tuesday evening, June 9, when William C. McClure, a Portland boy and graduate of the Portland High School, 1902, and Miss E. Esther Cox, a former student of Portland Academy, were married. Dr. Clarence True Wilson officiating. Miss Hildegarde Plummer presiding at the organ. The bride is a popular member of the younger set of the city. The groom is a very successful grain broker of Portland, being the senior member of the firm of McClure-Cox.

The auditorium of the church was artistically decorated with palms, pink and white roses, sweet briar and other decorative flowers and plants. From the center near the altar hung a huge wedding bell of pink and white roses, the supporting bell ropes being streamers of handsome Carolina Testout and La France roses. The bride, unaccompanied, gown in a cream empire gown in a train, carrying a bouquet of Bride roses and lilies of the valley, preceded by the ushers, bridesmaids and maid of honor, made a beautiful picture as she marched up the aisle, where she met the groom accompanied by his best man, George D. Kilton. The maid of honor, Miss Marion Plummer, was gowned in a dainty frock of white over pink and carried a large arm bouquet of sweet briar. The bridesmaids were Miss Kina McKelvey and Miss Frances Batchelor, who were gowned in pink tulle dresses made semi-empire with wide pink sashes and carried arm bouquets of pink carnations. The ushers were Oliver G. Walker, Clyde S. Hanaway and Harold Poway.

After the ceremony, a short reception was held in the church parlors, after which the bride and groom entered an automobile and were driven to their new home, 173 East Thirty-second street, where they will be at home to their friends after June 21. The bride-elect was the guest of honor at several informal affairs preceding her wedding, the most notable among these being showers given by Miss Frances Batchelor, Miss Kina McKelvey and Miss Marion Plummer, and a luncheon given by Miss Rita Bernson.

Holman-Nicholson.

Decidedly the prettiest June wedding was that of Miss Grace Bryham Nicholson, daughter of W. T. B. Nicholson, and Lawrence Holman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Holman, which took place on Wednesday evening at the St. Stephen's Pro-Cathedral. Rev. H. N. Ramsey officiating. The bride is an attractive girl, a brunette type of beauty, and made a striking appearance in an empire gown of shimmering tulle, trimmed with rare old ancestral lace, and carrying a huge arm bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Mabel Howe acted as maid of honor, and wore yellow flowered chiffon cut princess and carried yellow sweet peas. Raymond Holman attended his brother, and the ushers were David Jordan, Floyd Cook, Lester Hodson and Martin Schacht. A large reception followed at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Holman. The Holmans have long been famous for the beauty of their roses, so the decorations were naturally of this flower, particularly great masses of perfect specimens of Caroline Testout. Mrs. Holman was handsomely gowned in a chiffon gown of a delicate shell pink, which blended into deeper rose tints. Presiding in the dining-room were Mrs. Dan Malaker and Mrs. Len Crellin, of Oakland, assisted by Mrs. David Jordan and Mrs. Martin Schacht. Punch was served by Miss Margaret Boot and Miss Ruth Crellin.

of Oakland, Webber's orchestra was stationed at the head of the stairs and concealed by a bowler of greens and palms. Mr. and Mrs. Holman have gone to British Columbia on their honeymoon trip, and will visit here for a short time before taking up their home in St. Helens, Or. The bride, who is extremely popular, has been the motif for some weeks past for a round of entertaining.

Groul-Leoper.

A pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Whitten, 480 Geary street, Wednesday evening, June 3, when their daughter, Bertha Matilda Leoper, was united in marriage to Mr. Homer Groul, of this city, the ceremony being read by Rev. Melville T. Wire. The reception hall was decorated in ivy and marguerites and the parlor and dining-room in roses and Oregon grape. Promptly at 8 o'clock the bridal party entered to the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin," which was played by Mrs. Lillian Simpson. The bride wore a gown of white silk chiffon over white silk, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. Miss Mabel Leoper, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a pale yellow gown with lace trimmings and carried white carnations. Charles L. Kinney, of this city, attended the groom. A reception followed the wedding, at which light refreshments were served to a select company of guests, while a party of ten young people, including the bride and groom, were served at a small table in "the den." Miss Bertina Robertson, in a pleasing gown of silk organza over pink silk, presided at the punch bowl. During the evening Miss Irene Stokes sang "Call Me Thine Own," "I Love You Truly" and "Sweetest Story Ever Told," while Mrs. Lillian Simpson also rendered a couple of vocal selections, and Miss Margaret

(Concluded on Page 5.)

WEDDING AND CALLING CARDS RUSHTON'S
BUCHANAN BLDG. 445 WASHINGTON.

ENGRAVED WEDDING AND SOCIETY STATIONERY
R. F. PRESCOTT & CO.
27 1/2 Morrison St.

100 Suits Half Price

Tomorrow (Monday) we will put on sale at one-half price, 100 of our carefully selected, handsomely tailored, newest style suits—these are our representative goods, excellent from every standpoint.

The prices are reduced for the sake of quick selling; the high standard maintained at this house makes a cut-price offer of this kind an event in suit buying not to be overlooked.

- | | | | |
|------------|---------|---------------|---------|
| $55 Vals. | $27.50 | $35 Vals. | $17.50 |
| $45 Vals. | $22.50 | $32 Vals. | $16.00 |
| $40 Vals. | $20.00 | $25 Vals. | $12.50 |
| $38 Vals. | $19.00 | $22.50 Vals. | $11.25 |

The Bartholomew Co. The House of Tone
392 Washington St.