

WILL MAKE THE GREATEST CROP OF CHERRIES IN ITS HISTORY THIS SEASON.

Though the fruit was damaged and will not be as large as in some former years, the quality is considered in some of the earlier varieties to be superior.

Market Breaks Badly on Heavy Receipts.

The strawberry market went to pieces entirely yesterday, and before the close of business on Front street there was the worst break of the season.

SALES MADE AS LOW AS $1

The early morning market was in fair shape and the berries sold fast at $1.75 to $2.25 per crate.

Present Week Will See the Heaviest Supply on the Local Market—Optional Dealings on Board of Trade Begin July 1.
