PRUNE TRADE DULL

Buyers Not in Speculative Mood This Year.

OFFERS AT LOW PRICES

Crop Prospects Indicate Exceedingly Strong Position in Market, but Interest Is Lacking—Outlook in Canned Goods.

The statistical position of the prune market is a very strong one. Crops on the Coast will be light and there will be little or no surplus from last year on hand when the new fruit is marketed. The total carry over stock of Oregon and California prunes at the present time is not over 500 cars, and there is little doubt that most of it will be cleaned up before the new season arrives. There is no pressure to sell, but it must be acknowledged, at the same time, there is no anxiety shown to buy.

The output in Clark County, from all that can be learned, will not exceed 75 or 100 cars, as against about 225 cars shipped last year. The orchards in the Willamette Valley are faring better than in Clark County, and packers now estimate about half of a normal crop in the Valley. As far as California is concerned, it seems as if estimates grow smaller as the crop advances to maturity.

One or two Oregon packers are said to be offering new crop prunes in the East on a 3-cent bag basis, but without attracting takers. This total indifference of the trade shows that buyers are not in a speculative mood this year, as otherwise, in view of the crop prospects, they would be buying new Oregon prunes like hot cakes, and paying more money for them, too.

Commenting on the prune market in the East the New York Commercial of June 16, said:

"There is a steady tone noted in spot prunes, but no large buying is noted. Holders are steady in their ideas. There is a fair local interest in spot Oregon prunes. Future Oregon prunes are quoted on a 2¾c four-size bag basis f. o. b. October shipment. Future Santa Clara prunes are offered on a 4c basis. October shipment, but so far as can be learned, little buying has been done in any quarter."

MOVEMENT OF CALIFORNIA FRUITS

Shipments of Cherries and Apricots Will Decline From Now On.

The movement of deciduous fruits from California in the past week is reported by the California Fruit Distributors, as follows:

Cherries, 48 cars—Shipment of cherries has remained steady during the week, but will decline for the next seven days. Quality has been very good.

Apricots, 79 cars—Shipment has remained steady, but on account of the low prices they will stop packing in the early shipping districts quite generally from now on. There will be a very sharp falling off in apricot shipments for the next week.

Plums and prunes, 85 cars—The bulk of the Clymans have been shipped and the other seasonable varieties that immediately follow will soon be quite liberal in supply. We have been endeavoring to impress upon growers the necessity of packing only first quality fruit. There is no doubt the quality of the plums going forward, as regards size and general appearance, will be better than those that have gone forward. Shipments will increase the next seven days.

Peaches, 43 cars—The bulk of Alexanders is off and the larger part of the shipments of the coming week or so will be of Hale's Early, Triumph and a few St. John. The Hale's Early are of average quality, while the Triumphs, the first yellow free peaches, are said to be very nice. Shipment will remain steady for the coming week.

Pears will be absolutely clean this year in all respects. Prospects for good size and general good quality in all respects.

HEAVY PRICE CUT NEW CANNED PACK

Low Figures Named by Canners May Not Attract Quick Business.

In the announcement of opening prices on the full list of California canned fruits, 1908 pack, on a basis of from 50 cents to 75 cents a dozen cans lower than that named on July 12, the 1907 date of opening, the packers in most instances have made the terms of contract to buyers reach cash, less 1½ per cent on arrival and examination of the goods. The features in the 1908 campaign are prospects given of unusually keen competition in the selling of the goods, as the result of a large prospective pack, and the prospect of the development of a hesitating policy in buying quarters. Most of the packers are in the field with prices. In some instances competitors of the California Fruit Canners' Association are quoting 2½ cents to 5 cents a dozen lower on several of the items in the list, and all appear more or less anxious to book contracts.

Under conditions now existing in jobbing quarters and with small sales of futures to the retailer, it is the impression among some authorities that the buying of the 1908 pack of canned fruits, even on the low basis quoted will be a matter of slow progress. The jobber, it is pointed out, has this year little to lose and something to gain by waiting. It is said that he still has on his shelves some goods that cost high. So, too, has the retailer, and it is this feature, as much as any other one thing, that is making the latter a slow buyer of futures from the jobber.

As far as packers are concerned, it is known that in Oregon, Washington and California they are still carrying considerable stocks of last year's pack, which they must clean up before they can venture on the new pack. One concern on the Sound is offering 8000 cases of gallon pie fruits of the 1907 pack at prices 33 1-3 per cent less than they held the same goods for last Fall. As packers cannot sell futures as in ordinary years it follows that the pack must be a light one in some lines, not because of any scarcity of fruit, but because of a lack of demand.

SALE OF IDAHO WOOL POOL.

Boston Buyer Takes the Lot at 15½ Cents. Condon Sale Called Off.

Forty-two growers in the vicinity of Malad, Idaho, pooled their wool, aggregating 700,000 pounds, and sold it for 15½ cents. Griff Davis, representing the growers, went to Salt Lake and there closed the deal with H. S. Hallett, a Boston buyer. Hallett has begun shipping the wool East. Eastern buyers are at Soda Springs, Idaho, and have offered 15 cents for the wool there. Douglas & Valentine, the sheep kings of Bannock County, are reported to have received better than 14 cents for their clip.

The wool sales slated for Condon Friday were called off, as only a few buyers were present. There is stored in the warehouses there about 500,000 pounds. The calling off of the sale was the result of the action of some of the wool growers, who in former years have refused to sell to buyers and have held for better prices. Other buyers who wished to sell this year shipped their clip to Heppner, where they received from 12 to 15½ cents. Murtha & Mohannam, Rock Creek wool growers, who own about 6000 sheep, refused to sell at Heppner last week and are keeping their clip until next year.

Young Ducks at Low Prices.

The feature of the poultry market was the sharp decline in young ducks, the price dropping to around 12½ cents, as a result of the free arrivals and the very slow demand. Hens were quoted at 11 cents and were inactive.

Receipts of eggs were not heavy, but buyers were backward and the market was barely steady. Butter was firm at last prices, and cheese was quoted steady.

Fruit Trade Is Dragging.

The fruit market was quiet again yesterday. strawberries were in heavy supply and good berries sold as low as 90 cents in the afternoon, though in the forenoon shipping stock sold up to $1.50 per crate. A car of cantaloupes arrived, also liberal express shipments of apricots and other early fruits. A shipment of fresh figs was received and quoted at $2 per box.

Grain Markets Are Dull.

There was nothing doing in the grain markets yesterday. Wheat was quoted nominally unchanged, and oats and barley were dull and easy. A very weak undertone prevails in the hay market. The local flour trade is fair, but the export demand is limited.

Demand for New Hops.

There were no new developments in the hop trade yesterday, beyond the report of continued contracting at 9 cents. The market both for futures and spot hops was strong, though the demand for the latter was light.

Advance in Hams.

A new provision price list will go into effect Monday quoting an advance of ½ cent on all sizes of hams. The remainder of the list is unchanged.

CASH GAIN NINE MILLIONS

NEW YORK BANKS' HOLDINGS STEADILY INCREASE.

Surplus Reserve Stands at $58,000,000—Expansion of Loans in Past Week.

NEW YORK, June 19.—The Financier will say:

The statement of the Associated Banks of New York City for the week ending June 20, showing as it did an enormous increase of $26,000,000 in loans, $13,000,000 in cash and $32,000,000 in deposits, caused considerable surprise when first issued, but explanation is found in the fact that during the week the New York Clearing-house admitted to membership the National Copper Bank and the inclusion of the figures of this institution was largely responsible for the heavy gains noted. Eliminating the figures of the National Copper Bank and comparing with the previous week, the Associated Banks really gained about $9,000,000 in loans, $6,500,000 in specie, $2,500,000 in legal tenders and about $15,000,000 net deposits. This is practically the measure of increase which the preliminary estimates earlier in the day indicated. The increase in loans, however, was a little larger than had been anticipated. The gain in cash, amounting to about $9,000,000, is due to a movement of funds to this point from the interior and loans which the sub-treasury is making to the banks on current account.

The statement of clearing house banks for the week shows that the banks hold $58,771,875 more than the requirement of the 25 per cent reserve rule. This is an increase of $5,320,575 in the proportionate cash reserve, as compared with last week. The statement follows:

Loans	$1,239,922,100	$26,055,500
Deposits	1,332,125,500	32,092,100
Circulation	57,615,700	981,300
Legal tenders	76,909,200	2,671,300
Specie	312,117,300	10,649,800
Reserve	389,026,500	13,321,100
Reserve required	330,314,625	8,000,525
Surplus	58,771,875	5,320,575
Ex-U. S. Deposits	63,525,800	5,175,900

The percentage of actual reserve of the clearing-house banks at the close of business yesterday was 30.04.

The statement of the banks and trust companies of Greater New York, not members of the clearing-house, shows that these institutions have aggregated deposits of $959,087,200; total cash on hand, $73,195,200, and loans amounting to $856,451,300.

ROCK ISLAND SLUMP

Sudden Decline Unsettles Stock Market.

TRADE GENERALLY DULL

Renewal of Gold Export Movement Expected — Improved Conditions of Weather Beneficial Factor. Bonds Are Irregular.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Today's stock market confirmed the tendency of the previous days of the week by the arrest of yesterday's fall in prices and the lapse into tense dullness. The news offered nothing to account for this reversal of the narrow movement and it was obviously caused by the restriction of the dealings to the hands of professional operators and their unwillingness to venture far in the absence of initiative from strong speculative leadership.

Support was evident in Union Pacific and this was the most effective factor in the market. The Union Pacific refunding bonds, when issued, continued to sell below the subscription price and with the majority of the transactions at yesterday's new low figure of 95¼.

Discounts eased again in London and the tone of our foreign exchange market was easy. Authorities in the exchange market, however, were inclined to look for some renewal of the gold outgo next week, when the sales of exchange against remittances for foreign subscriptions to Union Pacific bonds are completed. After the July 1 settlements are met abroad, the demand for our gold is expected to subside.

The improvement of weather conditions for the making of the Winter wheat harvest was a beneficial factor of importance as the critical period for that harvest causes a feeling of anxiety over any harmful prospect.

The statement of May net earnings of the Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis showed the benefit of an effective cut in operating expenses and counteracted, to some extent, the bad effect of the Baltimore & Ohio statement published some days ago.

The unsettled closing was due to a sudden decline in Rock Island securities.

The large change in the items of the bank statement must be read in the light of inclusion of accounts of a new clearing-house member, which has added $14,000,000 of deposits, $4,000,000 cash and $10,000,000 loans to the statement. The percentage of reserve to deposits indicated the unabated accumulation of banking reserves. The trust company statement does not show any progress by those institutions toward the increase of reserve, which must be at 1 per cent by July 1.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $1,351,000. United States 2s and the 4s registered have advanced ½ and the 4s coupon ½ per cent on call during the week.

IDEAL FOR CROPS

Perfect Weather Conditions Give Easy Tone to Market.

Harvesting Proceeds Without Interruption in Southwest — Fine Growing Weather in Northwest—Decline at Liverpool.

CHICAGO, June 20.—Ideal weather conditions Southwest and Northwest was chiefly responsible for an easy tone in the local wheat market today, the July delivery showing a net loss of ¾c. A selling movement, headed by a leading long interest, exerted a pressure on wheat values, which was irresistible and the downward trend of prices was not checked until the decline had gone far enough to induce a moderate support from shorts. In addition to marked improvement in harvesting conditions in the Southwest and fine growing weather in the Northwest, the market was affected by a penny decline at Liverpool. July started with a loss of ⅛@1⅛c to ½@⅝c at 86⅝c to 87⅛c, sold at 87⅛c and fell off to 86c. The close was easy at 86⅛@86⅝c for the near option.

There was a firm and quiet market for corn. July opened ⅛c lower to ¼c higher at 69⅞c to 70c, and declined to 69⅛c. The close was barely steady at 69⅝@69⅝c.

There was a very fair trade in oats, and the market was active and quite firm. September opened ⅛c lower to ⅛c higher at 45⅛c to 46c, held within that range, closing firm at 45⅝c.

Provisions were quiet. Light offerings and a moderate advance in hogs resulted in a betterment throughout the list. September pork closed 17½c higher; lard was up 12½c, and ribs closed 10@12½c higher.
