

PORTLAND SOCIETY NEWS AND NOTES

CONTINUED FROM THIRD PAGE

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw will be at home at the Nortonia until the completion of their new home.

Hartung-Porth.

A pretty June wedding was that of Alfred Henry Hartung and Mae Josephine Porth on the evening of the 17th at the Second German Methodist Episcopal Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. Hartung, father of the groom, assisted by Rev. E. Hertzler, pastor of the church. The bride, carrying a large bouquet of white flowers, was dressed in a gown of pink silk and white lace. The groom wore a suit of dark blue and white. The ceremony was attended by a large number of friends. The reception was held at the bride's father's home, 329 Monroe street. The decorations of the parlors were pink and white, and of the dining-room pink.

Morden-Wentz.

One of the most charming weddings of the week was that of Miss Verna Wentz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton C. Wentz, to Earl R. Morden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Morden, which took place Wednesday evening at 8:30 P. M. at the Centenary M. E. Church, Rev. Clarence True Wilson officiating.

The church was attractively decorated with quantities of marguerites, palms and ferns. Miss Sadie Ford played the wedding march, and prior to the ceremony Miss Beulah Caldwell sang pleasingly, "I Love You Truly." The maid of honor was Miss Irene Morden, who wore a becoming gown of white silk organza, and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas. The bridesmaids were Miss Amy Larson and Miss Ivy Ford, attired in smart frocks of pink chiffon, and they carried pink sweet peas. Herbert F. Morden was the groom's attendant, and the ushers were Robert Rae and Walter Patterson.

A reception followed later at the home of the bride's parents at 454 East Ankeny street. The refreshments consisted of a profusion of pink roses, Mr. and Mrs. Morden left the same evening for a trip to Seattle and Lake Washington, and on their return will reside at 472 East Couch street.

Gardner-Hembree.

Central Methodist Episcopal Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding Wednesday evening, June 24, solemnized by Rev. J. T. Abbott, pastor of the church, when William Gardner and Miss Pearl Arom were united in marriage. Promptly at 8 o'clock Miss Eleanor Menefee began an accompaniment for Miss Anna Bush, who sang and played Mendelssohn's wedding march and the party entered the church. The bride, leaning on the arm of her father, was escorted by Miss Gardner, sister of the groom, and Miss Ethel Tressler as bridesmaids, and Miss Althea Hembree, sister of the bride, as maid of honor. The party was met at the altar by the groom, attended by Earl Abbott as best man, Frank Thorburn and Bennet Galbraith as ushers. The bride wore a gown of white tulle with a collar of white mesh and the white tulle veil worn by her mother at her own wedding. A reception followed at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner will reside at 303 Eugene street, where they will be at home to their friends after July 1.

Taylor-Senner.

Miss Christina Senner was married Sunday evening, June 21, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Taylor, by Rev. H. Barden. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Barden. At 8 o'clock the bride entered to Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Taylor. The bride wore a pink and white tulle gown, trimmed in Valenciennes lace, and carried a shower of white roses. The maid of honor, Miss Marie Senner, wore a pink frock and carried carnations of the same shade. The groom was attended by his brother, Frank Taylor. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Lilla Nicholas. The house was decorated with garlands of marguerites and roses. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. F. Senner, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas and daughter, Lilla, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Klob, Arthur Van Nortwick, Frank and Delph Taylor, Misses Lilla Henry, Abbie Foremy, May Donaldson, Marie and Lizzie Senner, Mary Peebler, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will be at home to their friends after July 1 at 569 East Seventeenth street.

Jacobs-Lowengardt.

A pretty home wedding was that of Miss Judith Lowengardt and Mr. C. W. Jacobs, of San Francisco, which took place Monday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Lowengardt, at 33 West Park street, Dr. Jonah B. Wise officiating. The bride stood beneath a shower of luncheon roses, interlaced with white roses, white carnations and tulle. Pink was the color note in the living-room and red in the music-room. The bride was gowned in mesquite, trimmed with duchess lace, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Miss Caroline Lowengardt appeared in an imported gown of white lace, and Mrs. Lowengardt, mother of the bride, in black chintilly lace. Mrs. Jacobs, mother of the groom, was in heavy white silk. Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs left for Puget Sound and British Columbia, and will return in a few weeks to Portland, prior to leaving for their future home in San Francisco.

Frost-Kellogg.

The marriage of Miss Ella D. Kellogg, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Kellogg, and Mr. George H. Frost, of Lewiston, Idaho, took place Wednesday afternoon, June 24, at the suburban home of the bride's parents at Crescent Heights, Oregon City. The bride's carriage was composed of Mrs. A. T. Kellogg, matron of honor, Miss Elsie Titt, of Portland, bridesmaid, A. T. Kellogg, best man, George E. Kellogg, Rev. E. S. Bollinger, pastor of Highland Congregational Church, of Portland, officiating. The bride was gowned in white satin and lace, carrying a bouquet of white carnations. The house was literally banked with roses, marguerites, sweet peas, ferns and vines. Mr. and Mrs. Frost left for Lewiston, Idaho, their future home, visiting en route the Sound cities and Walla Walla.

Kornahrens-Camp.

A pretty home wedding was celebrated Tuesday evening, June 23, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Camp, 749 Weilder street, when their daughter, Mazie Crittenden, was united in marriage to Arthur Martin Kornahrens. The spacious parlors were decorated with Caroline Testout and La France roses and palms. At 8:30 o'clock the bride party entered to the wedding march from "Lohengrin," played by Miss Elida Broughton. The bride was gowned in white French lingerie and chiffon and carried on her arm a bouquet of white bride's roses. She entered on the arm of her father and was preceded by her maid of honor, Miss Ella Camp, a sister, who wore an empire gown of pink silk and venetian lace. The groom was attended by J. Albert Beckwith, Rev. Luther R. Dyer, pastor of the First Congregational Church, officiated. After the maid, Miss Harriet Spurrier, wore pink and carried pink carnations. Little Mildred Cason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Cason, was flower girl, and Charles M. Cason was best man. Mrs. Jean Under which the bride and groom stood was made of pure white roses, and a temporary altar was made of ivy and white roses, and the parlor was draped in white and many white roses were used. The hall was in red, with large red bells, and the dining-room was decorated with La France roses. After the wedding a luncheon was served. Mrs. Ella Wigan presided at the punch bowl. 5, at 612 East Fifth street.

PARTICIPANTS IN "THE TOYSHOP"

Lynn Thompson Keady, Gingerbread Man. Rose Agnes Keady, One of the Candy Dolls.

wedding refreshments were served. Mrs. M. K. Clark presiding. Mr. and Mrs. Morden will be home after July 5, at 612 East Fifth street.

ated with La France roses. After the wedding a luncheon was served. Mrs. Ella Wigan presided at the punch bowl. 5, at 612 East Fifth street.

Clester-Brackett.

One of the prettiest weddings of the week took place on Wednesday, June 24, at high noon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brackett, who are among the city's earliest pioneers, when their youngest daughter, Doris, was married to Guy Franklin Clester, the Rev. Mr. Rich officiating. The house was decorated with pink and white. The gown of the bride was white net over taffeta, with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of Frau Karl Druschki roses. After the ceremony Miss Heryl Camp became the possessor of the bride's bouquet. Miss Lottie Fleming, of Everett, Wash., was the bridesmaid, and Tracy Clester, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Tables were spread on the lawn underneath the drooping branches of the cherry trees. Over 60 guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Clester will spend a short time at the seashore, after which they will be at home to their many friends on the old Brackett homestead.

Boulette-Sawtelle.

A quiet wedding took place Wednesday evening, June 24, at 8:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sawtelle, when their daughter, Grace L. Sawtelle, and Harry C. Boulette were united in marriage, the Rev. Dr. D. L. Rader officiating. Miss Viola Sawtelle, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and the groom was accompanied by Ralph C. Ledyard. The bride party entered the parlors to Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by James A. Bamford. "O Promise Me" was played during the ceremony. The bride was attired in a gown of cream silk organza and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. The parlors were beautifully decorated with palms, Oregon grape, evergreens and flowers. Many gifts were received. The bride's bouquet was presented to Miss Nana Ross. Mr. and Mrs. Boulette will be at home after July 7, at East Sixty-first and Couch streets, Mount Tabor.

Boulangier-Hooker.

A pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Hooker, 235 East Seventy-eighth street, north, on Wednesday evening, June 17, when their daughter, Cora Frances, was united in marriage to Leon Boulangier, of this city, by the Rev. H. Oberz of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The house was elaborately decorated with roses, carnations, sweet peas and trailing vines. Miss Cora Frack played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" when the bride entered on the arm of her father. She was attired in a cream silk gown with point lace and carried a bouquet of white roses. Only immediate friends were present. During the evening a number of vocal selections were rendered by the bride's nephew, Master Lloyd Frack, accompanied on the piano by his sister, Miss

CELEBRATE FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF WEDDING

MR. AND MRS. G. L. VOETH.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Voeth celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary, entertaining a large number of friends in their apartments at the "Tamarack," Sixth and Madison streets. Upon the lawn and verandas, gaily illuminated by Japanese lanterns, and in the Voeth suites, which were lavishly decorated with pink roses and ivy, the guests partook of toothsome hospitality and felicitated Mr. and Mrs. Voeth upon their happy passing of the fifth conjugal milestone. A varied assortment of "wooden" gifts, ranging from the humble clotheplate to elaborate items of carving and pyrography and imposing pieces of furniture, were left by the guests, along with their best wishes for many future anniversaries of as pleasant a nature.

Michelbook-Redmond.

A pretty wedding took place from the church, Rev. Father Brine officiating, at McMinnville, Wednesday, June 24. The contracting parties were John Michelbook of that city, and Miss Estelle Fidelia Redmond, daughter of Mrs. E. T. Redmond. The groom was attended by Frank Michelbook, and Miss Josie Michelbook acted as bridesmaid. The bride wore a gown of white with veil held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. The church was decorated with festoons of smilax.

Doane-Van Norden.

A quiet wedding was solemnized June 22 at the residence of Miss May Doane, 655 Gilliam street, in this city, the contracting parties being Dr. O. D. Doane, formerly of The Dalles, and Ida May Van Norden, formerly of The Dalles, but late of Santa Cruz, Cal. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. C. Polling, of The Dalles, there being present only the relatives and a few intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Doane left for a brief visit to British Columbia points, after which they will reside at The Dalles.

Herold-Stevenson.

A pretty home wedding was celebrated Wednesday, June 10, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Stevenson, when their daughter, Letha Grace, was united in marriage to Chester M. Herold. The decorations were of Caroline Testout roses, and maidenhair ferns. At 8 o'clock the bride party entered to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Millie Mead. Rev. W. N. Coffey officiated. The bride was gowned in white and carried pink carnations, and the bridesmaid,

French batiste, trimmed with lace, and carried a shower of bride's roses. She was attended by Miss Lydia La Rue, of Woodland, Wash., who wore a gown of pink organza and carried pink roses. Little Uria Tufford was flower girl, Little Gerald ring bearer and Wendall Poulson best man. Mr. and Mrs. Herold left for a trip to the Sound cities and will be at home to their friends after July 1, at 34 East Eighth street.

Palmer-Shogren.

An attractive home wedding was that of Miss Ruth Shogren and Mr. Burt Arnold Palmer, formerly of Freecroft, Ill., which took place last Saturday afternoon at the Shogren residence on the East Side. The wedding was a quiet affair, celebrated in the presence of the immediate family, owing to the fact that the bride's family is in mourning. Long-stemmed Caroline Testout roses in brass bowls were the effective house decorations. The bride, who is of a striking blonde type of beauty, made a stunning appearance in a smart marquisette gown of a light gray tone, and wore a large plumed hat of same shade. Upon their return from a brief trip, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer will reside at their new residence on East Nineteenth and Flinders streets.

Coolidge-Moritz.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. McC. Applegate, at 50 East Thirteenth street North, was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday evening, June 24, the principals being Miss Henriette Moritz, a sister of Mrs. Applegate, and Mr. Guy Coolidge, both of Seattle. The ceremony was performed in the presence of members of the family by Rev. Paul Rader, of the Hassalo-street Congregational Church. The bride looked charming in an imported gown of white tulle, with lace insertion and embroidered bands of the material. The house was beautifully decorated with roses, ferns and daisy chains. After a dainty wedding breakfast the couple departed on the 11:45 train for their home in Seattle.

Rupert-Henri.

Frank H. Rupert and Miss Adelaide Henri were married Wednesday evening, June 24, at 8 o'clock, at the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. Mr. Young officiating. The bride, who is a student at the Oregon Agricultural College for some time, was dressed in cream crepe de chine over cream silk, trimmed with Duchesse lace. She carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas. Little Miss Pusey acted as flower girl and carried a basket of rose petals, which she scattered before the bride party. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the future home of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Rupert left on a short trip to British Columbia and will be at home to their friends after July 15 at 512 Market street.

Bensinger-Daniels.

Howard J. Bensinger and Miss Hazel M. Daniels were united in marriage on Monday, June 22, at the First Unitarian Church in Spokane, Wash. Rev. George W. Fuller, pastor of the church, officiating. Well-known architect and builder of Los Angeles, Cal., and is a prominent member of the younger set of that city. Miss Daniels is well-known in musical circles in Portland, Vancouver, Wash., and Los Angeles, Cal., where she formerly resided. She has a brilliant soprano voice of wide range and great purity and her husband is a well-known musician. Mr. and Mrs. Bensinger will reside in Spokane, and will be at home to their friends after July 25.

Purse-Gulle.

A pretty early morning wedding was that of Frank Lewis Purse, formerly of Savannah, Ga., and Miss Grace Gulle, the only daughter of William H. Gulle, of this city, Wednesday morning at 7:30 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen the Martyr, Rev. Horace M. Ramsey officiating. The attendants were Miss Jennette Stiles, of R. Eugene Fulton, the bride wore a traveling gown of a mod shade. The ushers were George L. Allen and William Whitfield. Mr. and Mrs. Purse will reside in British Columbia for a short visit. Mr. and Mrs. Gulle are in the employ of the firm of Purse & Co., local real estate brokers.

Hammond-Reid.

Robert W. Hammond, of Ashland, and Miss Sarah E. Reid, of Baker City, were married at the latter place on Wednesday last. Mr. Hammond was a student at the University of Oregon a few years ago, and while at college was a member of the variety show team. He is a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity. His bride also spent several years at the university and was one of the popular members of the Tau Pi Sorority. Mr. and Mrs. Hammond will make their home at Grants Pass.

Reed-O'Deen.

Dr. Thomas E. Reed and Miss Marie E. O'Deen were married Wednesday, June 24, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham O'Deen, 1655 Holgate street, in the presence of the relatives and a few invited guests. Mrs. Echo Kaua, of Pendleton, played the wedding march. Ernest C. Chapman was best man and Miss Agnes Charleson was bridesmaid. The bride carried roses and carnations. Dr. and Mrs. Reed will leave for Boston, Mass., where the former will take a post-graduate course in medicine.

Hiett-Shenberger.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frobenough at Mount Tabor was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, June 17, when Louis B. Hiett and Miss Annie Shenberger were united in marriage by Elder R. D. Bonham. The rooms were decorated with ferns and roses, and the bride party stood under a large bell suspended from an archway of roses against a background of green. After a dainty luncheon was served Mr. and Mrs. Hiett departed for their home in Vida, Or.

Gelsler-Rockwell.

Mr. Arthur Gelsler and Miss Isabella Rockwell, of Mount Scott, were married in the Church of the Good Shepherd Tuesday, June 23, only the members of the family being present. Miss Rockwell has been a teacher in the Lents school, and Mr. Gelsler is the proprietor of the Mount Scott drugstore at Lents. The couple have gone to the seaside for a wedding trip, and on their return to Lents will make their home at the house of Mrs. Hauser.

Motschman-Smith.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Smith, 594 Market Street Drive, a simple and beautiful home wedding occurred on Wednesday evening at 8:30 when their daughter, Lydia M., was married to Otto Motschman, of this city, the Rev. Hiram B. Poulson officiating. Only immediate relatives of the two families and a few of the intimate friends of the bride were present. The home was beautifully decorated. Refreshments were served by

LENNON'S Seattle Stock Sale Continues

A constant and steady stream of buyers are here from morning until night. Word has been passed along that we are offering the most sensational bargains in Gloves, Hosiery, Parasols and Umbrellas ever heard of in this city, or any other city, and we are arousing the interest of all Portland. Now is your opportunity. We are positively disregarding cost entirely.

- 75c Gloves Now 25c. Just 500 pairs of patent tipped pure Silk Gloves, in colors only.
$1.50 Gloves Now 59c. 16-button length fine Venetian lisle; black, white and tan.
$1.50 Silk Gloves 69c. 16-button length, patent tipped, pure Silk Gloves.
25c Gloves Now 9c. Children's fine Venetian lisle, all colors.
$1.25 CHAMOIS GLOVES Now 59c. 6-button length, genuine wash chamois.
$2.00 CHAMOIS GLOVES Now 95c. 10-button length genuine wash chamois.
$2.50 CHAMOIS GLOVES $1.19. Elbow-length mousquetaire, fine French chamois.
$3 Chamois Gloves $1.39. 16-button length mousquetaire, fine French chamois.
$4.50 Gloves Now $2.89. Imported genuine Kassan cape, 16-button length; tans, black.
HOSIERY BARGAINS. Women's fine Lace Hose, in black and white; 25c quality, now, 9c.
Women's fine Maco yarn; double sole and heel; 25c quality, now, 17c.
Most desirable patterns and colors in fine lisle and gauze Hosiery; the regular 50c values, now, 29c.
Wonderful reductions in Parasols and Umbrellas. All new styles and patterns. To be closed out in lots.
Lot 4, 75c values, 29c.
Lot 6, $1.50 values, 73c.
Lot 11, $2.25 values, $1.19.
Lot 15, $4.00 values, $1.98.
Lot 17, $5.00 values, $2.79.
Values up to $50 being sold at much less than manufacturers' cost.

SEE OUR SHOW WINDOWS FOR WONDERFUL BARGAINS TOO NUMEROUS TO MENTION HERE. SALE COMMENCES EVERY MORNING AT 9 O'CLOCK

Lennon's FOR GLOVES AND UMBRELLAS. 309 Morrison Street, Opp. Postoffice. Mail Orders Carefully Filled at Sale Prices.

Blum-Fine. Sunday evening Miss Sadie Fine was united in marriage to Victor Blum by the Rev. Dr. Hellver. Previous to residing here both bride and groom lived in San Francisco. A number of their friends made the journey north to be present at the wedding. The bride was gowned in white duchess satin. The bridesmaids were Miss Edith Abrahms and Miss Alice Cohen. Ted Hulford was best man. The large hall was decorated with lilacs and roses. To the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin," the ceremony was performed in the orthodox Jewish rites, under a canopy of flowers. An elaborate supper was served, then music and dancing was in order until midnight. The happy couple will make a trip through the Northwest.
Nolan-Allen. In the presence of a company of their friends Sunday, June 21, at 8 o'clock, at the Pacific Hotel, M. E. Nolan and Miss Wanda Allen were married. Rev. Henry A. Barden officiating. Mrs. Grace Brown was matron of honor and John Langerman best man.
Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. James P. Kennedy, P. J. Mooney, Mrs. Grace Brown and J. C. Langerman. Mr. and Mrs. Nolan will reside in Portland.
Mall-Mercer. W. H. Mall and Miss Ada E. Mercer were married at noon in the First Presbyterian Church, Wednesday, June 24, and at once took the train for Spokane. Mr. Mall has been a resident of Portland for 30 years and is well known in business circles. Mrs. Mall, the bride, is the daughter of a contractor of the East Side and is an accomplished and popular young woman.
Williams Channell. Miss Lucille Channell and Edwin P. Williams were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Captain and Mrs. Clyde Raabe, 758 East Taylor street. Rev. Nelson E. Allen officiating. The bride was dressed in white silk, and carried bride roses. Miss Nellie Raabe played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March."
Lyons-Patterson. Mr. Ernest Lyons and Miss Amie Patterson were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wehring, in Hillsboro, at 8 A. M., June 24. It was a quiet home wedding and Mr. and Mrs. Lyons departed on the early train for Puget Sound. They will be at home to their friends in Hillsboro after August 1.
Christianson-Anderson. The marriage of E. A. Christianson and Miss Charlotte M. Anderson was solemnized at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. Henry A. Barden, 271 College street, June 20, at 11 o'clock. A. D. Christianson, father of the groom, acted as best man, and Mrs. Belle Griffin attended the bride.
Casey-McGregor. Miss Floy I. McGregor and Dr. Fred E. Casey were married Monday at 5 P. M. at the home of the bride's parents, 284 Park street, in the presence of a few friends. Father O'Hara officiating. Dr. and Mrs. Casey left for Glendale.

None Charged None Altered

H. B. LITT Every Ladies' and Misses' Cloth Suit (Including White Suits) $8 $12 $16 $20 Formerly $35.00 to $90.00. ENGRAVED WEDDING AND SOCIETY STATIONERY R. F. PRESCOTT & CO. 27 1/2 Morrison St. ESTABLISHMENT MAX 415 WASHINGTON STREET, CORNER OF ELEVENTH. Entire stock, consisting of Laees of all kinds, real and imitation, Batistes, Spangle Robes, Allovers, Silks for afternoon and evening gowns, Cloths, Handkerchiefs, Belts, Jewelry, Bronzes and Bric-a-Brae. Below Cost—Retiring From Business Store for Rent. Fixtures for Sale. N. E.—No Garments Carried Over. Store Opens at 9