Which Is Your Nose?

Our new Eyeglass Mountings stick like glue. If you have had trouble getting glasses to stay on your nose, come and see us. We can either make yours fit (without charge) or can furnish new ones that won't come off.

If you wear glasses have them up-to-date. We look old quick enough without the aid of ancient "specs." We charge no more for our new and nobby mountings than you pay elsewhere for the old styles.

IS GREETED WITH THREATS

Brutality Another Count on Which Mrs. Brimmer Asks Divorce.

"I will wring your damned neck and throw your head out into the street." That remark was not addressed by William Brimmer to a cackling rooster which kept him awake nights it might have been justified as such. It was the picturesque salutation with which he, on one occasion, knocked her down and kicked her. Late one night he ordered her to pack and go. She started to pack. The noise bothered him and he told her to keep quiet until morning and then she should go. She did so. She not only wants a decree of absolute divorce, but she wants her maiden name back, Bessie May Robinson.
