

and Mrs. Frank Freeman, Miss Effie and Claire Houghton, Miss Hazel Croker, and Tom Robertson.

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Wood and two children have returned from a ten months' tour of Europe.

Mrs. William T. Fangle and small daughter are spending a month in Seattle.

Miss Effie Houghton left yesterday for a week's visit at the Breakers Hotel, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Knapp and Miss Leslie Knapp.

Floyd J. Cook sailed yesterday morning on the Rose City for San Francisco, where he will visit for several weeks.

Gordon C. Moore has gone to Denver to attend the annual convocation of the Kappa Sigma fraternity. Mr. Moore is a Salem boy who was graduated from the University of Oregon this year.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Fenton have returned from their honeymoon, and have taken apartments at the Hill Hotel.

Miss Snow, John Dism, Elmer Sterle and Glen Scott constituted a canoeing party from Eugene to Portland, which arrived the early part of the week. All four are members of the Kappa Sigma fraternity at the University of Oregon. Among the others returning of University of Oregon students were Gerald Eastman, Dudley Clark, Varro Beach, Ronald Mackenzie, Gordon Moore, Cecil Espey, Charles Taylor and Dean Hayes.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Lyman have left for their launch for a three days' cruise, taking with them Mr. and Mrs. Ker (Miss Laura Dunne), Miss Frances Jeffery and Dr. C. C. Mason, on Thursday, June 25.

A Portland boy, Alfred Gilbert, who graduated from Yale this June and shortly afterwards won the world's championship for polo sailing, sailed on June 27 for Europe, where he will compete the vacation season. The next, a launching party, will be given July 5.

When work is resumed in the Fall by the chorus it is expected that there will be a perceptible increase in their number.

Mrs. Robert May Tuttle and Miss Ada Alice Tuttle entertained 30 of their friends on Monday evening at a garden party at their residence on the Base Line road. The lawn was illuminated and furnished with rugs, settees and large vases of flowering plants. A musical programme interspersed with humorous readings was given on the lawn, where refreshments were also served. The evening was finished in the house with cards. This is one of a series of little parties on Mount Tabor, which have been greatly enjoyed by the Mount Tabor residents. Other entertainers have been: Mesdames George S. Rodgers, W. D. Deaver, R. L. Gillespie, J. A. Applewhite, W. A. Laidlaw, Frederick Powell, C. H. Gantenbein and Mrs. Jennie E. Wright, whose Mount Tabor home is a spacious art gallery of her own paintings. A collection of Mrs. Wright's pictures is now on exhibition at Marshall Field's art rooms in Chicago. Both in that city and in New York Mrs. Wright's work is better known than in Portland.

In honor of Mrs. J. J. Murphy, formerly of Salem, Or., a most delightful event of the week was an at home given by Mrs. Edward S. Lamport and Mrs. H. M. Branson, on Thursday, June 25. The hostesses were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Alice H. Dodd. The spacious home of Mrs. Lamport was beautifully decorated, many flowers being sent by Mrs. Murphy's friends. The reception

J. J. Young
"The Quality Shop"
341 WASH
Cor 7th

Something New
BELTS and GLOVES
To Match

White Washable Embroidered Belts and White Silk Gloves, $1.00 set; Long Gloves $1.85 set.

Washable Chamolix Belts and Gloves to match, $2.25 set, and Long Gloves $4.25 set.

Tan Kid Gloves and Belts to match $2.50 set.

New Parasols made of imported cretonnes. Made with bronze frame and elegant bleached wood handles. Not found elsewhere. They are next season's advance styles, $5.00 up.

New White Linen and Colored Silk Tokio Parasols with 16 little gold ribs, prices up to $9.50.

Visitors are welcome and your visit made interesting.

EXCLUSIVE OUTFITTERS FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

Siberfield's
Cor. 4th and Morrison Sts.

LARGEST AND LEADING FUR MANUFACTURERS OF THE WEST.

THE GOING-AWAY TIME
WE ANNOUNCE AN UNUSUAL SALE, COMMENCING MONDAY, ON LADIES', MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S

SUMMER APPAREL
FOR OUTING AND BEACH WEAR, CONSISTING OF

Ladies' Linen and Lingerie Suits Linen Skirts Lingerie and Linen Tailored Waists Summer Millinery Sailors and Trimmed Hats Ladies' Parasols Suitcases Traveling Bags Etc., Etc. Khaki Suits and Separate Skirts Sweaters Children's Dresses in Lawn, Gingham and Linen Summer Underwear Knit Vests Hosiery, Tan and White

ALL RADICALLY REDUCED
GREATEST BARGAINS EVER OFFERED on Summer Wearing Apparel, owing to the backwardness of the season. Supply your Summer needs for your going-away time at a great saving.

Store Your Furs Now It is not generally known that we have a most complete and up-to-date cold-storage plant for preserving Fur Garments during the warm weather. All Furs taken for storage are thoroughly cleaned before being returned, and small fee charged insures them against damage by moths, etc.

MR. AND MRS. HARRY GEORGE

A POSTOFFICE CLERK AND HIS BRIDE.

at the Olympic games in London. Prior to sailing Mr. Gilbert was presented with a handsome diamond medal. He will return to Portland the latter part of the summer, at which time he will meet his fiancée, Miss Mary Thompson, of Seattle, where their wedding will take place. They will then leave for a trip east and later Mr. Gilbert will resume further study in medicine at Yale.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kerr have gone on a motoring trip, taking in their car Mr. and Mrs. George Connor Mason.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Coman (Miss Gertrude Cahalin) have returned from their wedding trip and are at the Nortonia.

William Vanderbilt Dolph has returned from his freshman year at Williams.

A number of girls and several of the bachelors were asked over to Vancouver Barracks Friday evening to the hop. A number also stayed at the post over the Fourth as house guests of the various officers and their wives. Among a few of those asked were Miss Josephine Smith, Miss Caroline Burns, Miss Margaret Walter, Miss Leslie Knapp, Miss Hazel Dolph, Miss Ima Koshier, Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Alita Smith, Miss Webster, of New York, Irving Webster, Tom Robertson, Harold Wells, Mr. Bradley and Hawley Hoffman.

Mrs. W. H. Mills, Misses Elizabeth and Ardella Mills, of San Francisco, who have been guests of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Rockey, returned home this evening. On Friday afternoon Mrs. Rockey gave a tea in compliment to her visitors, which was a pretty affair and comparatively large. Serving was Mrs. Ralph Wilbur and Mrs. Warren E. Thomas.

Sailing on Wednesday for Alaska were a number of Portlanders, including Dr. A. S. Nichols, the Misses Veda, Mildred and Beulah Nichols, Miss Ella Stephens, Miss Caroline Kamm, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Wicks, Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Tucker, Mrs. I. D. Peters and Mrs. H. E. Noble.

Misses Ella and Mae Hirsch are guests at Seaside of Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Fieschner.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Blumauer, Miss Hazel Blumauer, Mr. and Mrs. Louisa G. Clark and Mrs. Murphy, of Eugene, are among those registered at the Hotel Moore over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Durham and their daughter, Mrs. John Easterbrook Jones of Boston, have taken the C. J. Schnabel cottage at Seaside for the summer.

Mrs. E. L. Heller, of New York, with her daughter, Miss Margaret, will spend the summer here as the guest of Mrs. S. Lipman.

An account of the Boothe-Lyttle nuptials appears under the head of weddings.

NANCY LEE.

tion hall and broad staircases were hung with Indian baskets filled with La France roses and foliage. The parlor was decorated with huge bunches of the same, while the library was massed in profusion with crimson rambles. A vine-covered veranda made a cozy nook, in which Miss Grace Rineman served punch. Refreshments were served.

Miss Mildred Bagley and Bertha Duncan rendered piano solos. About 75 of Mrs. Murphy's old friends called during the afternoon and each contributed to a page in the "Guest Book" by writing some little memento of the day or an original verse.

Mrs. Olga Bartsch-Lang entertained the members of her "B Sharp Sight Singing Club" at her home Monday evening. A musical programme was rendered, in which the members took part, consisting of solos, duos and quartets. Refreshments were served, after which musical games were played the rest of the evening. The club members include: Misses B. L. Brown, Beattie Douglas, Edith Gordon, Elva Dolan, A. J. Strong, May C. Wright, Gene Wilson, Florence Lefler, Sadie Weston, Marguerite Robertson, Irene Stokes, Martha Kleigel, Alice Banfield, Susie Hall, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. L. G. Wilson, Mrs. Summerville, Messrs. L. G. Lennon, S. McMillan, E. E. Wiedensyer, V. W. Bodley, O. Morgan, A. Robinson, M. Jacobs, A. T. Weise, F. E. Kleinsmith and A. W. Robison. The club resumes study in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill gave a launch party for the Rose City Social Club Wednesday evening, July 1, on their new boat, Rose City. Mr. Merrill, who was 77 years old his next birthday, made netting covered with roses and evergreens. Chinese lanterns were picturesquely arranged to light the entire lawn. Dainty refreshments were served at a late hour. Those present were Miss Mathieson, Miss Carlson, of Chicago; Miss Briggs, of Vancouver; Miss Stoker, Miss Eisenhardt, Miss Williams, Miss Moore, Dr. and Mrs. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins, Mrs. Brownell of Umatilla; Mrs. Bolter, Mrs. Moore, F. M. Stoker, Dr. W. Proebstel, W. C. McWilliams, A. R. Barnell and E. C. Blackwood.

A delightful affair of last week was a hayrack party on Saturday evening. Planned by a number of the Piedmont and Woodlawn residents. The wagon was filled with alfalfa and the ride made interesting by songs and stories. Troutdale was the objective point, where a delicious supper was served. Present were Mrs. Burdard, Miss Lorenze, Miss Hummel, Beattie Nielson, Helene Blumauer, Franco Blumauer, Gertrude Smith, Carrie Gavin, Jessie Royal, Carmine Allison, Ruby Scott, Bessie Thompson, Margaret Donaldson, Messrs. Burdard, Davis, Miles, Rutledge, Wade, Richards, Hoff, Donaldson, Kelley, Hecker.

The Social Endeavor of Marquam Hill entertained Mr. and Mrs. James E. Rogers at Gales-street Plaza last Monday evening in honor of their tenth wedding anniversary. A handsome crystal punch set was presented in a large tin receptacle, and the evening was delightfully passed in races and games. The "Jungle Carriers" Band, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. David H. Smith, furnished music for the occasion, and before their departure were given a hearty toast by all present. The grounds were beautifully decorated for the evening and delicious fruit punch was served to more than 60 guests.

A very pleasant reception was given in honor of Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Snider, of the Congregational Church of Beaverton, at the home of G. W. Stitt. More than 100 were present to pledge their hearty support to the new pastor. Mr. Snider comes from Cloverdale, Cal. Addresses were made by Rev. A. N. Hamlin, pastor of the Methodist Church of Beaverton, by Rev. Arthur J. Folsom, superintendent of the Congregational Churches of Oregon, and by the new pastor, Mr. Snider. Various musical numbers added greatly to the pleasure of the evening. Refreshments were served.

On Thursday evening, at their home, 706 Jackson street, Oregon City, the Misses Porter entertained the members of the Bridge Club. The rooms were prettily decorated with ferns and flowers. The prize, a handsome hand-painted gift, was won by Mrs. J. H. Walker. Refreshments were served. Present were: Mrs. T. W. McBride, Mrs. T. W. Clark, Mrs. J. H. Walker, Mrs. W. H. Howell, Mrs. Viola Godfrey, Mrs. Jennie Meldrum, Misses Vera Caulfield, Martha Koerner, Clara Koerner, Nell Caulfield, Marjorie Caulfield, Mary Bel Meldrum, Miss Porter and Miss Kate I. Porter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hare entertained about 25 of their friends at their summer home, Ashdale, with a week-end party. Mr. Hare made the party at the station with a large hay rack, and amid much merriment they were escorted through the beautiful farm to the residence, where dinner was served in the large dining-room, which had been profusely decorated for the occasion. About 4 P. M. refreshments were served on the lawn, after which the hay rack was brought into service again and departed to take the evening train for Portland.

The Mizpah Social Club met at the home of Mrs. Lillian Haynes, Kern Park, on Thursday, July 2. The meeting was held on the lawn and a pleasant time was had. Lunch was served during the social hour. The club will meet with Mrs. S. Shultz, 1701 Base Line road, on August 6. Those present were: Mesdames Greenwood, Branner, Brown, Haynes, Slapp, Kinney, Roady, Julian, Wilson, Shultz, Smith, Kellogg, Beiding, Shultz, Lincoln, Parcel.

On Monday evening, June 29, Dr. and Mrs. Holmes gave a reception at 431 Rigney street, for their daughter, Harriet, on the occasion of her 14th birthday. The house and lawn were tastefully decorated with red, white and blue flowers and Chinese lanterns. The guests were happily entertained with games, music and dancing. Refreshments were served at 11 P. M. About 30 friends and schoolmates were present.

Little Miss Nadine Bohlander entertained a number of her friends Friday afternoon in honor of her 8th birthday. Refreshments were served and games were played. Those present were: Adeline Smith, Merle Ellis, Andrae Gentry, Margaret Dake, Elsie Isensee, Emma Isensee, Jennie Kanersher, Myrtle Shaw, Dorothy Drake, Dorothy Tarbox and Nadine Bohlander.

Mrs. E. E. Treasler presented in rental at her studio, 86 Seventeenth street North, Saturday, June 27, the following pupils: Helen Brown, Dorothy Bade, Margaret Caldwell, Irma Duncomb, Dorothy Duniway, Helen Holbrook and Eva Jacobson.

WEDDINGS.

Clausenius-Fichtner.

The marriage of Herman Clausenius, Jr., to Miss Beatrice Anita Fichtner was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, 411 Mill street, on Friday evening, June 19, at half-past 8. The Rev. William S. Gilbert, of Astoria, performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and friends.

Both the young people, and the families on either side, belong to Calvary Presbyterian Church, and the new marriage ritual of that denomination, arranged by the General Assembly, two years ago, was used on this occasion, including the exchange of rings between the contracting parties. The bride was given away by her father.

The wedding robe was of ivory crepe de chine, trimmed with rich silk cluny lace, a gift for the occasion from London, England, of a school friend of Miss Fichtner, at present traveling abroad. The tall, slender figure of the bride looked beautiful indeed, her train adding an amount of dignity which she carried charmingly. Her veil of delicate tulle fell in soft folds around her, as she advanced carrying a bouquet of a bride's own roses—purest white. The bridesmaid, Miss Julia Clausenius, sister of the groom, was attired in a white lingerie dress, over pink. Her bouquet was of Caroline Testout roses. Frank Tyler Woodward, of Everett, Wash., acted as best man. Mrs. W. S. Harper presided at the piano, and played the Mendelssohn wedding march.

The dress of the bride's mother was of rich black silk, with insertion stripes of Chantilly lace, over white taffeta silk.

Miss Margaret Lamberson, organist of Calvary Church, had arranged the decorations of the different rooms, and her artistic taste had succeeded in producing an effect that, familiar as Portland people are with flowers, was unique for both beauty and simplicity. The east parlor, in which the ceremony took place, appeared a very bower of marguerites and wild grasses, while Indian baskets, filled with flowers, hung here and there in the room, lent an air of the West that was appropriate. The entrance hall and stairway were redolent with the perfume of sweetbrier, long branches of which formed green arches over doorways and twined up the staircase. In the parlor and dining-room Testout roses, marguerites and wild pansy blossoms had been used in profusion.

After the wedding, a reception was held. Refreshments were served in several rooms. The handkerchief carried by the bride, a gift, was an exquisite little confection of soft silk center with broad border of rare lace, and had been sent by an aunt in Scotland, who resides near Balmoral.

On ascending the stairs, the bride untied the white ribbon around her bouquet and tossed it back to the bevy of expectant girls clustered below. To the general surprise, it was found to have been composed of four separate bouquets.

which were caught by as many different candidates for priority on the matrimonial list.

The groom—one of Portland's well-known young business men—had a residence on Portland Heights all in readiness for his bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Clausenius left at a late hour for their new home.

Boothe-Lyttle.

A beautiful June wedding was that of Miss Ethel May Lytle, a popular

(Continued on Page 2.)

WEDDING
AND CALLING CARDS
RUSHTON'S
Buchanan Bldg., Wash. St., Bet. 4th & 5th

THE BEST ENGRAVED AND PRINTED
Wedding and Visiting Cards
W. G. SMITH & CO.
Washington Building, Fourth and Washington

DR. FRANC LUCILLE HARD, OF EUGENE.

A Bridesmaid at the Boothe-Lyttle Wedding on Tuesday.

The little craft this last Winter and Spring. She is 44 feet over all, 10 feet beam and 4 feet deep.

Fifty-seven years ago Mr. Merrill came to the Oregon country, locating somewhere on Puget Sound. Then he returned for his young bride more than 53 years ago. A quarter of a century ago they came to Portland. Both are enthusiastic members and workers of and in Masonic and G. A. R. organizations. The Rose City came down the river at a 10 to 15-mile gait.

Next week Mr. and Mrs. Merrill go South to enjoy a trip of three months through California.

A novel garden party was given by Miss Gladys Moore, 302 Gantenbein avenue, in honor of Miss Christina Mathieson and Miss Hilda Carlson, of Chicago. Decorations consisted of flags, bunting and

ESTABLISHMENT MAX
415 Washington St., Cor. of 11th.

Entire stock, consisting of Laees of all kinds, real and imitation; batistes, spangle robes, allovers, silks for afternoon and evening gowns, cloths, kerchiefs, belts, jewelry, bronzes and brie-a-brac.

BELOW COST Retiring from Business

Store for rent, fixtures for sale.

ENGRAVED WEDDING AND SOCIETY STATIONERY
R. F. PRESCOTT & CO.
27 1/2 Morrison St.

FOR THE NEWEST IN WEARING APPAREL VISIT THE STYLE STORE

LATEST DESIGNED LINGERIE WAISTS

Open a charge account—it's a fine Summer convenience

First favorites of fashion for the Summer months at seaside or in town are the sheer lingerie waists. An infinite variety is demanded and we have prepared to meet this demand, by ordering special shipments of the very last designing of the leading artists of the East. Two superb assortments have just been added to our splendid stock, representing distinct style-ideas in all-over Swiss embroidery, also Irish hand embroidery. These are super-excellent values; dressy for every Summer occasion, and not too elaborate for practical use.

Special $4.75
SEE WINDOW 17

Summer Parasols "Kayser" Gloves (Silk)

Every parasol idea that combines stylish appearance with good service is here represented in Indian head, linen, batiste, silk-taffeta and rajah—white and colors—hemstitched, hand embroidered and with fancy borders.

Summer is hard on gloves—get the best because they're far the cheapest—one pair of these is equal to three ordinary ones—they're 16-button, with patent (double) tips, in black and colors.

The prices range from $7.00 down to $1.00 Regular $1.75 and $2.00 values Special $1.20

Credit if Desired: You have the privilege of having all your purchases charged to your account, remitting in weekly, semi-monthly or monthly payments as convenient.

Cor. Washington and Tenth Streets EASTERN OUTFITTING COMPANY The Store Where Your Credit Is Good

106.0