Bryan Adopts Roosevelt Methods of Running Convention.

PLATFORM MADE BY HIM

Nebraska Chose Kern When Bryan Left It Free, and Convention Took Him for Bryan's

Candidate.

BY FREDERICK V HOLMAN. DENVER, Col., July 11.-(Special,) The Democratic National convention before daylight Fricay morning nom hefore daylight Friday morning acom-hasted Bryan as its candidate for President. There was no help for it and the convention did not wish to eacape from it. It was not convinced by its enthusiasm; that was merely a manifestation. It was for Bryan first, last and all the time. The old-rashloned methods of run-

The old-fashloned methods of run-ning a National convention are now old-fashloned. The predatory boss is dead or forgotten. The new, the popu-lar, boss is now supreme. While Roosevelt has stolen the principles of Bryan, the latter has adopted the con-vention methods of Roosevelt. It is a fair exchange; no robbery. There was not a motion nor an important matter nor a question that was not prear-ranged from Lincoln. Everything was according to programme except the failure of the intended south and slight to Judge Parker. That failed because the delegates were somewhat new to the delegates were somewhat new to the game. Their manhood stood them in good stead. I do not say all this is not proper, but it is new to Democratic conventions.

Unanimous Report of Bryan.

The report of the committee on resolutions was not submitted to the convenlations was not submitted to the conven-tion until after midnight this morning. The report had been agreed on by the committee by II o'clock last night. It had been consummated after an almost continuous session of nearly 72 hours. Robert D. Imman, of Portland, had the honor of being one of the subcommittee. Judge Parker left the committee-room late last night to prepare to go to the convention. After he left the report of the committee was phoned to Bryan and he changed the platform.

The report was submitted to the con-

The report was submitted to the convention as the unanimous report of the committee on resolutions. But it was not. It was the unanimous report of Bryan, and while it was adopted and goes forth as the platform of the committee, it is the platform of Bryan.

New York Disappointed.

While the convention was apparently harmonious at the close there is the tankle of disappointment and dissatisfaction by the New York Democrats. The leaders of New York made no nomination for Vice-President. Towne, now of New York, and yesterday of anywhere and today of nowhere, was a candidate for Vice-President. But he was his own candidate. New York apparently did not know he lived in New York. They supposed he still lived somewhere in the West, but did not know exactly where.

Why Kern Was Nominated. New York applied to Bryan for his

New York applied to Bryan for his wishes and just before the convention assembled New York learned that Bryan had no candidate. Those who applied to the Nebraska delegation were informed that it did not know whom Bryan favored, but inquirers were informed that Nebraska had heard that Indiana was supporting Kepn, who was said to be a good man for Vice-President. The boys on the attract were alsaid to be a good man for Vice-President. The boys on the street were already seiling pictures of Kern and Bryan. In this Nebraska was indiscreet, but it was apparently housest. Bryan favored no candidate, so Nebraska expressed its individual preference. Certainly when the chief had no choice, the underling was free, possibly too free. Freedom is the slogan of Democracy and. reedom is the slogan of Democracy and, New York refused to put up a candi-ate, why, somebody must be put up as candidate. Bryan might be the whote semecratic party, platform and all, but a platform is necessary in deference to custom. A candidate for Vice-President is almost as necessary as the almost useless accessory to a wedding, a bride-groom. The latter, according to the groom. The latter, according to the latest etiquette, is necessary, but not im At Sea About Vice-President.

So when the convention met this afternoon, the question was: Vice-President, who? and who is the Vice-President? The nominating speeches began. Somebody from Connecticut named McNeill. He is a coal merchant who, it is said, had sold coal at a loss to the peer. It was reached. to the poor. It was probably poor coal, But the weather is now so hot that the thought of a coal fire gives one a shiver. McNeill out no ice.

Somebody named Towns and the applause lasted blank minutes and no white pigeons, called doves, sailed through the fainted air and died from fright. fright it was a very peaceful demon-stration, and all the time Kern was being seconded for the nomination, and being seconded for the nomination, and all the Indiana delegation, except four apparently deaf men, were shouting themselves hoarse, until out of shame the other apparent candidates with-drew affrighted, like the pigeons, alias dozes, of last night, and then there was nothing to do but to nominate Kern, much to the surprise of the man from Lincoln who had no candidate. Thus harmony

s harmony was established tonight Yorkers left by fast trains tonight carry the good news, for the telegraph sorvice is very inadequate and uncertain at Denver, and New York might not understand the telegraphic reports. There are many things New York does not understand. Harmony, for instance.

Choice of Kern Good Politics.

But the nomination of Kern is good politics. As long as New York stood aloof, it is important that the State of Butter-milk and glucose and ice should be recognized. That is a great combination. If Bryan should carry Nebraska and Indiana, New York may go to the devil, as is quite evident she will to the knowing.

fortunate, but when the ante was su ficient it discarded Towne and came in the game with a straight finsh of Kern' and the nomination was made by accla Denver is being deserted tonight by delegations. Tomorrow most of the Ore-gon delegation leave for bome. It has been a great convention, full of interest men wearing badges with the words: "I live in Denver. Ask me." But whether with badges or without, every Denvertie gut himself out to assist strangers and point out the way. Denver belongs to the Portland class, Although it is so far East, it is really Western and it cannot but regret that it is not nearer the Pacific Coast. But its heart is right and one can but overlook its birthplace.

New Way of Running Convention.

The new way of running a National convention seems strange to an old-timer. At former conventions there was always at least a pretense of recognizing a speaker who addressed the chairman. At the Denyer convention the chairman read from a paper and said he would recognize a delegate who did not even ask for recognition. I suppose it is all right, but it seems strange in a Democratic convention. Seats have been successfully contested in this convention on weaker grounds.

contested in this convention on weaker grounds.

With this telegram I retire as an amateur correspondent; I have no desire to be a professional. I have endeavored to give information from original sources as I have had facilities and have not relied on rumors. A tiresome speaker at this convention said after he was being called down by the audience: "I will now say my last word." A delegate then shouted "say 'amen." I join in that sweet prayer.

INDIANA TO HAVE CHAIRMAN Lamb Hailed as Skillful Campaign

General. DENVER. July 11—The Democratic National committee will confer with William J. Bryan at Lincoln Monday next. The committee met today for the purpose of organizing, but in view of a telegraphed invitation from Mr. Bryan, which was submitted to the committee by Dr. Hall, the Nebrasks member, it was decided to defer action until the wishes of the Democratic candidate could be ascertained.

Thomas Taggert, of indians, was elected temporary chairman and Urey Woodson, of Kentucky, temporary secretary, to serve until permanent campaign managers are selected. DENVER, July 11. - The Democratic

John F. Lamb, of Terre Haute, Ind., is tonight prominently mentioned for chairman of the Democratic National committee. The skillful manner in which Mr. Lamb has, during the convention just closed, handled the Vice-Presidential campaign of John W. Kern, has made him prominent in the party, and his friends are strongly urging him as the most suitable man to manage the National campaign.

No definite selection of a chairman will be made until after the members of the National committee have conferred with Mr. Bryan at Lincoln Monday next. It is known, however, that Mr. Lamb would be acceptable to Mr. Bryan, who has been, it is said, strongly impressed by the work of Mr. Lamb, not only as manager of the Kern campaign, but also on the committee on resolutions. John F. Lamb, of Terre Haute, Ind.,

Mr. Lamb was for years law partner of the late Senator Voorheez.

NEUHAUSEN MAY RESIGN

AGENT SAID TO BE AT OUTS WITH DEPARTMENT.

Report That Intention Is to Keer Him at Work Until Land-Fraud Cases End.

WASHINGTON. July 11 .- (Special.) T. B. Neuhausen, until lately an Inspector of the Interior Department, and recently made Special Agent and Attorney of the General Land Office, is soon to be dropped from the Govern-ment service, according to information obtained here today. It is also learned that Neuhausen's recent appointment is only temporary, and that his commis-sion will expire October I, when, in all probability, he will quite the service. sion will expire October I, when, in all probability, he will quite the service. Neuhausen's old office of Inspector was abolished by law on July I, and it was therefore necessary to give him a temporary appointment as Special Agent in order that he might assist in the prosecution of the Booth and other land-fraud cases. He will be expected to conclude his part of this work by October 1

October 1.

Neuhausen is to be let out, it is said, because his work has been unsatisfactory officials of the Interior Department and General Land Office. It is maintained that he has not "made good." Moreover, while assisting in the prosecution of land-fraud cases, it is alleged that Neuhausen has continually blocked the regular work of the inspectors and special agents in Oregon, has disregarded in-structions from Washington and is be-lieved to have inspired criticisms and attacks upon Secretary Garfield, Commisthe land-fraud trials drag along through August, and it is imperative that Neuhausen be retained to assist Prosecutor Becker, it is possible that upon appeal from the Department of Justice, he may have another tempor-ary appointment of three months, but it the present plan to let him go October Before that date he will be expected clear up all his regular work which has at already been turned over to Mr.

Land Commissioner Dennet is due in Portland about July 26, when he will in-spect the local Land Office and the offi-ces of the Surveyor-General.

Taft Determined on Compliance With Law Regarding Funds.

CASH FOR CAMPAIGN FIGHT

But Sheldon Does Not Believe Publicity Will Frighten Away Contributors-Will Dispel Delusion About Slush Funds.

HOT SPRINGS. Va., July 11.-That the publicity of campaign funds is to be made a feature of the coming campaign has been made very clear. Mr. Taft had extended talks with Chairman Hitchcock and with George R. Sheldon, treasurer of the National committee, who arrived today, and the necessity for the strictest possible compliance with the New York inw in relation to the publicity of campaign funds of the National committee was the chief Taft Scouts Idea of Evasion.

Referring to suggestions that the Republican party might receive funds outside of New York and not include them in the report of the National treasurer, Mr. Tatt replied promptly that it was possible to commit perjury in such a case, but he scouted the idea that the autrent of relief the surrous of the that the purpose of giving publicity to the funds of the party in the coming National campaign is not entirely sin-cere. Mr. Sheldon also declared that in accordance with the New York law all the funds that come to the National committee in what over state they may be collected, will be published, with the names of the donors.

Campaign Funds Will Be Tight.

Mr. Sheldon said he believed money for campaign purposes would be very "light" this year, but he did not believe the publicity of campaign funds would lessen the amount contributed. He declared that compliance with the law in his requirement would dispel the popular

SHERMAN TO DROP CAMPAIGN

Cannot Direct Congressional Fight and Run at Same Time.

WASHINGTON, July 11.-Representative James S. Sherman, candidate for Vice-President on the Republican ticket, in a short time will retire from the Conin a short time will retire from the Congressional committee, of which he is chairman. The announcement of Mr. Sherman's prospective resignation was made here today by Senator Hemenway, of Indiana, who, accompanied by Representative McKinley, of Illinois, arrived in Washington this morning from Hot Springs, where they had been in conference for several days with Judge Taft. It was deemed wise for Mr. Sherman to relinquish his position as chairman of the relinquish his position as chairman of the Congressional committee, largely on ac-count of the duties and responsibilities which will devolve upon him as one of the National candidates. It has not been determined yet who his successor will be.

It is likely that Mr. Seerman's formal resignation and the announcement of the name of his successor will be made si-

Mr. Hemenway and Mr. McKinley are en route to Chicago. They left here today to join Speaker Cannon in Chicago, and the three will go theme to Mackinac Island in the upper lakes for a brief rest. It has not been deter-mined yet whether Mr. Hemenway will undertake the direction of the Western campaign with headquarters at Chi-cago. The matter is under consideration. Mr. Hemenway is not anxious to under-dertake the work, but he may be persuaded to do so. He has an important commission in his state this year, and feels that he ought to devote more time to that than he would be able to give to it if he should take charge of the Western National headquarters. The matter will be determined finally probably within a few days.

Speaker Cannon left Washington Wednesday night for Utica, N. Y., where he conferred with Mr. Sherman, and left last night for Danville, his Illinois home, thence to join Messrs. Hemenway and
