John Sharp Williams Tells of Qualifications for Orator.

LARGE CROWD AT LECTURE

Governor Chamberlain and George H. Williams Seated on Platform With Noted Speaker—Public School Day at Forum.

CHAULTAUQUA GROUNDS, Gladstone Park, July 11.—(Special.)—Intellectual ability and humility was the keynote of the lecture of John Sharp Williams this afternoon. The distinguished Senator-elect from Mississippi drew the largest crowd that has been on the grounds this season, and on the platform were several men prominent in Oregon life, among them Governor Chamberlain and George H. Williams. For more than an hour and a half Williams held his audience, who packed the vast auditorium, and awayed them at will. His subject was "America for Americans," but he took a wide range in his lecture and specialized on oratory.

"Preparation must be made years before," said the speaker. "Use natural words, never make a gesture, but let the gesture make themselves, and exercise carefulness in your choice of language." Williams referred to Reed, Fox, Grady and Webster as some of the real orators. The afternoon was brilliantly successful, both in point of attendance and in the programme.

Public School Day at Forum.

Teachers and pupils of the public schools of Clackamas and Multnomah Counties were out in force this morning to carry out the programme for public school day at the forum hour. One hundred teachers on the platform sang "America," with Mrs. E. E. Williams as accompanist. The platform was banked with beautiful flowers placed there for display by pupils of the Clackamas County schools, and the exhibit was the finest ever seen on the Chautauqua grounds. The programme was under the direction of Superintendent of Schools Gary, and he introduced J. H. Ackerman, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, who gave a masterly address on "Industrial Training in the Schools," followed by County Superintendent Robinson, of Multnomah, whose subject was "Being Brothers With Earth." Both addresses were listened to carefully by a large audience. Mrs. Linn E. Jones, Mrs. Burton and Superintendent Robinson were the judges of the display and the awards were as follows:

Prizes for Flower Exhibits.

Prize of $10 for the best exhibit of cut flowers, Milwaukie school. Individual prizes for exhibits of sweet peas—First, $5, Ellen Jackson; second, $4, Carrie Schmidt; third, $3, Eddie Hayman; fourth, $2, Lyle McCoy; fifth, $1, Anna Lou Sleight.

The Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs tendered a reception to John Sharp Williams and Congressman and Mrs. Hawley at their headquarters this afternoon, and addresses were made by Mr. Hawley, Mr. Williams and Mayor Lane, of Portland, Governor Chamberlain, Colonel Robert A. Miller and Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway and others talked briefly.

The ballgame this afternoon between Mount Tabor and the Spartans was a walkover for the latter team. In their first game five runs were made by Spanton, and Mount Tabor's first score came in the seventh, when their pitcher lined out a home run into deep left field. The score: Mount Tabor . . . 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 2—3 Spartans 5 2 0 1 0 0 1 4—11 Judge and Miss Wolverton, Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Myers and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Richardson were among the thousands on the ground this afternoon.

Interest in Kindergarten.

The kindergarten, under the supervision of Miss E. K. Matthews assisted by Miss Rebecca N. Hattin, has grown in numbers and interest. The kindergarten will be in session during the coming week from 9 to 11 o'clock. The Portland Froebel Association, the Congress of Mothers and the Arletta Club will be hostesses in the kindergarten building Thursday at 11 o'clock, when Miss A. Lewis Clark, Mrs. E. B.

NOTED PERSONAGES AT CHAUTAUQUA. Reading from left to right—Governor Chamberlain, John Sharp Williams, Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway.

Colwell, Mrs. Dunbar and Miss Matthews will speak. A vocal solo will be rendered, after which a social will take place.

Many Hear Evening Concert.

While hundreds of people left the park after the lecture this afternoon, thousands stayed for the evening concert, which was very successful. Dr. E. A. Heritage directed the affair. The numbers were rendered by the members of the Willamette Ladies' Quartet and were heartily received. The first Sunday of Chautauqua will be in accord with the day, and the following programme will be given:

- 9—Devotional hour.
- 11—Sunday school, under the direction of the State Sunday-School Association, R. B. Steele, president.
- 2—Music by Chautauqua Chorus; quartet, by Willamette girls; sermon by Dr. Ira Landright, of Nashville, Tenn.
- 4—Sacred concert by Chemawa Indian School band.
- 5—Programme under the direction of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. of Portland, in which 12 Japanese students will be the performers and a short address will be given by Mr. Fulton, who recently returned from Japan.
- 8—Music by Chautauqua Chorus.

FIGHT IN RESTAURANT

Chinamen and White Men in Dispute Over Plate of Noodles.

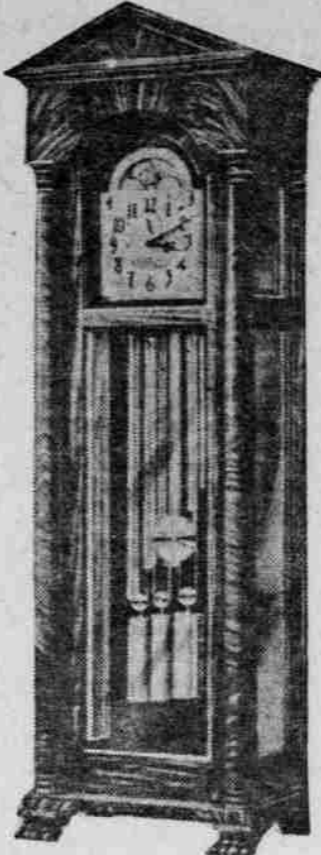

A fight with spectacular features that fanned Chinatown into a fever of excitement for ten minutes last night at 7:30 occurred in the Kum Sun Low restaurant at 61 Second street. It was all over the disputed payment for a plate of noodles, and resulted in the arrest of J. A. Hall, a brakeman on the O. R. & N. Railroad, and of William Porter, a cripple, from Lebanon, Or., temporarily residing at 236 Couch street. Hall was arrested charged with disorderly conduct, because he defended himself against four Chinese, one of whom was armed with a pole five or six feet long. Porter was charged with "vagrancy" because he explained to a small crowd of men gathered in front of the entrance to the police station that Hall had been wrongfully attacked by the Chinese and frankly deplored his arrest.

Appearing against Hall were Ah Lee and Lee Deep, two employees of the restaurant. Ah Lee looked as if he had butted his face into a stone wall and then tried the same stunt over again. Lee Deep also exhibited decorations of the same mournful character. These two men wanted to file charges of assault against Hall, but were informed that they would have to get a warrant. Acting on their own initiative, however, the police placed Hall in jail charged with disorderly conduct, and allowed the Chinese, who had apparently been the aggressors, to go.

Cannot Refuse Switching.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today announced a decision holding that the Hepburn act does not grant plenary discretion to the commission to refuse an application for switching connections with lateral branch roads. It decided that it is the duty of the Interstate Commerce Commission carriers to connect with a lateral branch road if reasonably practicable, safe and justified by sufficient business, upon application of either the lateral line or the shipper.

Two Licenses for One Bride and Groom

Couple Desires Both Civil and Religious Ceremony, and Clerk "Cupid" Prasad Becomes Perplexed.

TWO marriage licenses and two wedding ceremonies for only one bride and groom is the unusual feature attending the nuptials of Henri M. McKerr-Kastan, of Spokane, and Irene Augusta Bainbridge Berry, of this city. The couple appeared at the Courthouse yesterday afternoon and asked for a marriage license. Chief Deputy "Cupid" Prasad wrote out the first one in the usual form, but stared in astonishment when the groom-to-be said he wanted a second for himself and bride. Nothing "Cupid's" amazement, Mr. McKerr-Kastan explained that they were to have two ceremonies, one by a civil officer and the other by a clergyman. The first ceremony was performed at once by Circuit Judge O'Day and the other was pronounced later by a clergyman. The bride is the daughter of Colonel Augustus H. Bainbridge, a retired officer of the Regular Army.

CURE FOR HUMAN ILLS

Where the Emmanuel Idea Differs From Christian Science.

Woman's Home Companion. Rev. Dr. Robert MacDonald tells how the church is once more becoming active in the cure of human ills. Through the "Emmanuel Movement" started at Emmanuel Episcopal Church in Boston, Mass., and taken up by Dr. MacDonald in his own church in Brooklyn, N. Y., the church is again saying, "Arise, take up thy bed and walk." "The complaint is going up from everywhere," says Dr. MacDonald, "that

MADE RIGHT

It Won the Banker.

"At the age of seventeen I was thrown on my own resources," writes the cashier of a Western Bank, "and being low in finances I lived at a cheap boarding-house where they served black coffee three times a day. "At first my very nature rebelled, but I soon became accustomed to it, and after a while thought I could not get along without it. "I worked hard during each school term (I was attending college) and taught country school between times. "At the end of three years I had finished my course—my nerves, too, and I went back to the farm to rest up. This did me some good but I kept on drinking coffee, not realizing that it caused my trouble, and later accepted a position in a bank. "About this time I was married and my acquaintances called me 'Slim.' On the advice of a friend, my wife began to serve Postum and she made it right from the start (boiled it 15 minutes after boiling actually starts). I liked it and have used it exclusively for three years. I am no longer dubbed 'Slim,' my weight has increased 50 pounds and I have nerves to stand any strain without a flinch. And I have increased my salary and my shares of bank stock. I can work 15 hours a day, sleep soundly and get up feeling like a healthy boy." "There's a Reason."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich., "Road To The Road To Wellville," in pkgs. Every read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

the church is losing its hold on practical men and women. The reason is not that the church is not faithful to its duty, but that the world has increased its facilities to satisfy man. But here is a new way of reaching the man of the world. His modern way of living, with all its hurry and worry, has gotten onto his nerves. He sleeps poorly, is depressed and melancholy, has nervous breakdowns, is dyspeptic and sluggish and miserable. The same man who will not listen to a purely spiritual appeal wants help and wants it badly. The church that can promise him health with which to do his work, wins him. His bodily pain is very real to him, for it is so much nearer than a cramped and dormant spirit of which he is not conscious.

Where does the Emmanuel Movement differ from Christian Science? There can be said to be only one point of similarity. It is that both are desirous of getting rid of disease. But they no sooner join issue than they disagree. The point of separation is in what constitutes curable and incurable malady. The Emmanuel movement treats only functional disorders of the nervous system. Christian Science does not distinguish between functional and organic diseases. Then, again, the Emmanuel movement works hand in hand with physicians, taking only such cases as they recommend, cases that are beyond the reach of drugs and the ordinary medical prescription.

F. J. Catterlin.

Messrs. F. J. Catterlin & Co. have been engaged in the brokerage business in this city for several years, in the purchase and sale of bonds, industrial and municipal securities, and management of mines and the promotion of mining and industrial companies.

Mr. Catterlin, who has been long and favorably known in this city by his upright and square dealing with all with whom he comes in contact, has gained for his firm a clientele of satisfied investors whose number is legion. They have recently secured and moved into the rooms formerly occupied by the banking firm of Hartman & Thompson, on Stark street, in the Chamber of Commerce, where they will be pleased to welcome their former customers, and to serve new clients with their best efforts. In order to accommodate their many clients who are heavily interested in land and city property, but whose business they have been compelled heretofore to decline, they have added a real estate department, in addition to a general real estate business they will make a specialty of purchasing large tracts of land and subdividing them into five, ten and twenty-acre lots suitable for small homes.

Mr. Catterlin's many clients, both locally and in the East, are endeavoring to persuade him to open a bank in the firm's new quarters, and have promised him a generous, hearty and substantial support in every way. He now has this matter under consideration, in addition to his already extensive other interests. We wish the firm, in its new home, the full measure of success to which it is entitled.
