

MISS HAZEL HOTCHKISS OF BERKELEY, THE BEATING COAST TENNIS CHAMPION.

PARTICIPANTS IN THE TENTH ANNUAL STATE TENNIS TOURNAMENT

MISS AMY HEITSHU.

THIS past week was characterized by unusual gaiety and enthusiasm, considering that the season is thus far advanced. This was doubtless due to the fact that the Tenth Annual Tennis Tournament proved too strong a magnet and the usual exodus to the beach and mountain resorts was consequently deferred until a later date.

smart Charlotte Corday hat of lace, with ostrich plumes of turquoise that Mrs. Teal appeared in a dainty net gown over a delicate shade of blue, and worn with a white plumed hat.

By Mrs. J. Ernest Laidlaw in honor of Mrs. Hugh Laidlaw, who recently came down from Alaska for the summer.

Of much interest to Portlanders is the coming wedding of Miss Bessie Henry, of San Jose, and Edward Grellie, one of the very popular bachelors, which will take place July 22, at the Henry residence in California.

Mr. Henry, her father, for many years was president of the street railway system in San Jose, but in latter years they have spent a portion of their time at the Spanish Rancho, near Lake Orisko, which is teeming with tradition and romance.

On August 18 a prominent affair will be the celebration of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. S. Lipman, when many relatives from afar will travel here for the event.

Miss Henry is athletically inclined, an excellent horsewoman and a skilful chauffeur, being one of the first California girls to drive her own car.

Irvington has been the mecca during the week just ended, as an exciting playing has been the order of the day at the tenth annual state tennis tournament.

Mr. and Mrs. David T. Honeyman were the chaperones for a jolly boating party on Tuesday, which was given in honor of Mrs. Laidlaw's birthday.

Miss Hazel Welder and her sister, Miss Leslie, are at present in Florence, Italy. Since leaving here they have traveled through Spain and have cruised on the Mediterranean.

John Reed, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Reed, returned from Harvard for the summer when he completed his sophomore year.

Miss Alta Rich writes from England of the interesting time she has been having in London. With Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Rush, she is to leave shortly for Berlin and Ostend.

Many letters of condolence have been sent to Italy to De Forest Brush, the celebrated artist, owing to the death of his daughter, Georgia. The news was particularly distressing, as it occurred while Mr. Brush was en route to Europe.

Miss Hazel Hotchkiss, of Berkeley, the Pacific Coast champion, has naturally been the cynosure of all eyes. She is petite and vivacious and knows tennis from A to Z, and is said to enjoy a bit of handball, and even baseball.

An al fresco dinner was given on Tuesday by Miss Margaret Walker at terrace tables placed under the spreading trees. Present were Miss Kathleen Burns, Miss Aveline Webster, of Brooklyn, N. Y., Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Leslie Knapp, Miss Josephine Smith, Miss Malda Hart, Hawley Hoffman, Raymond Wilcox, Chester G. Murphy, Mr. Roser, Bruce Honeyman, Antoine Labbe, Dr. Frank J. Sladen, Maurice Dooley, Irving Webster, Harold Wells, Joseph Bradley, Kenneth Beebe, Harry Felling, Plowden Stott, Charles Holbrook, George Warren and Tom Robertson.

Miss Georgia was a handsome girl of 14 years, whom her father on many occasions has delightfully depicted in some of his most beautiful work.

On Tuesday with Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett were Miss Henrietta Felling, Miss May Felling and Miss Frances Wilson. On Wednesday Mrs. Walter Cooke had with her Mrs. Ralph Hoyt, Mrs. Fred Jacobs, Miss Lily Fox and Miss Margaret Cattlin. On Thursday Mrs. John A. Shepard presided, assisted by Miss Leslie Knapp, Mrs. R. Lea Barnes, Miss Gladys Welder, Friday with Mrs. F. J. Raley were Miss Hazel Hotchkiss, Miss Daisy Bradford, Miss Myrtle Schaffer, Mrs. F. H. V. Andrews, Mrs. Archibald Stewart and Miss Catherine Woodward.

A number of Zeta Psi fraternity men recently gave a banquet of 17 covers at the Rock Island Club. Among the Stanford men present were Frank Branch Riley, Chester G. Murphy, Dr. Otis B. Wight, Harry Sladen, George W. Brown, Harry Litt, Eugene Rockey, Raymond Holman, George W. Durham and Dr. Paul Rockey. The last being also a graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of New York.

Among the very many attractive costumes was that of Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, who appeared in a broadcloth tailored gown, with a suggestion of turquoise velvet on the collar, and worn with a

A pretty tea on Thursday was given by Mrs. J. Ernest Laidlaw in honor of Mrs. Hugh Laidlaw, who recently came down from Alaska for the summer.

Miss Josephine Smith is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frederick Leslie Warren, in Astoria, having gone down to assist Mr. Warren at a reception that she gave at her residence on Friday.

will go there in Mr. Murphy's launch. En route they will go swimming at The Oaks.

Mr. and Mrs. Gay Lombard have again gone on a motoring trip to California and with them are Dr. and Mrs. George Marshall. The trip will occupy weeks and they will motor from place to place as fancy wills, going, in all probability, as far as the Mexican border.

Miss Kathleen Burns is visiting in Tacoma over the week-end, a guest of one of her college friends at Bryn Mawr.

Miss Mabel Devera, who, with her parents, is making a complete tour of the world, is at present in Paris. They have thus far toured the Orient, India, Egypt, Italy and Switzerland and will leave shortly for England.

Mrs. J. J. Murphy is visiting at her beach residence with her daughter, Mrs. L. G. Clarke. Chester Murphy throughout the summer will spend the week-ends at Seaside.

Miss Georgia Burns, Miss Virginia Burns, Alexander Lanthicum and Jack Burns spent the past week at Cloud Cap Inn.

Archbishop Orth, of Vancouver Island, formerly Father Orth, of Portland, is sojourning at Florence, having gone there on account of ill health. Later he will leave for Carlsbad.

Mrs. Katherine Daly, is also at Florence, but is to leave shortly for the Alps, returning home in the Fall.

After visiting in Hood River, Miss Christina Latta, of London, sister of John Latta, spent the week-end at Cloud Cap Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin have returned from a brief visit in the East.

Robert Smith has returned from a brief trip to Chicago and Seattle.

The Misses Marshall, who for some time resided at the Hill Hotel, write from London that they will leave soon for Paris.

Mrs. Lauritz W. Therkleson and Miss Hazel Therkleson have left the Portland Hotel and are sojourning at Seaside.

George P. Stanley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Stanley, has returned from his freshman year at Andover.

On her way to Europe, Miss Workman, of Los Angeles, has been the guest of Mrs. Cleveland Rockwell.

Adjacent to the Rock Island Club, two houseboats have recently been moored, those belonging to Little V. O'Ryan, the miniaturist, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dirker.

Mrs. C. M. Macrum has returned from a six weeks' visit in California and Eugene, Or.

Mrs. O. C. Leiter is visiting in Victoria, B. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hickman have sailed for Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Emmons and Harold Emmons and Mr. and Mrs. Amedee Smith are registered at Cloud Cap Inn.

Judge L. B. Stearns, Mrs. M. E. Spaulding and little daughters Mary, Helen and Frances, left on Thursday for Ocean Park.

Miss Frances Jeffery called on Tuesday for a brief trip to Alaska.

Mrs. F. D. Keuttner was the hostess at a luncheon of 15 covers Tuesday on the roof garden of the Hotel Norton, which was followed by bridge.

On Tuesday the annual Summer Jinks of the Stanford Club will be held at the Rock Island Club.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rountree, of Seattle, are visiting relatives here and at Hood River.

Miss Mary Lola Goddard is a guest at Seaside of Mrs. W. D. Fenton. On Wednesday last Miss Goddard gave a luncheon in honor of Miss Alice Bretherton, who is to marry Clifford Brown, of Salem, on August 12. The guests were Miss Frances Obersteiner, Miss Henryetta Lauer, Miss Eholwynne Harris, Miss Mary Dale, Miss Hannah Cornell, Miss Grace Ellis, Miss Edna Church, Miss Ella Doble, Miss Milola Ward, Mrs. Ralph Fenton, Miss Mary De Bar, Mrs. George Haskell Marsh, Mrs. Frank Rowe, Miss Rachel Vogel, Miss Helene Robinson, Miss Jessie Chase and Mrs. C. A. Macrum.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

The Misses Segal have been entertaining Miss Bess Schwartz, of Denver, Colo., for the past month. Miss Schwartz, during her stay, has been the guest of honor at a number of entertainments.

Among them was a launching party, with David Palfay as host, and later in the week Jack Lauterstein entertained about 35 guests on board the launch Eva in Miss Schwartz's honor. The Jolly Eight Club, of which Charles Stark is the president and Mr. Palfay the secretary.

Miss Josephine Smith is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frederick Leslie Warren, in Astoria, having gone down to assist Mr. Warren at a reception that she gave at her residence on Friday.

A farewell bachelor dinner will be given on Tuesday in honor of Edward Grellie and will include William H. Warren, Jordan Zan, Chester G. Murphy, Albion Boody, W. B. Mackay, David T. Honeyman and Walter Beebe. Coincidentally it is also Mr. Grellie's birthday. Rock Island is the objective point and the men many, gave a third launching party on board the launch Eva. A feature of these launching parties was the object-ive point a few miles up the river, where, around a huge bonfire, supper was served. Miss Goldenberg entertained for Miss Schwartz last Thursday evening at her home and the evening was enjoyably spent in cards and music. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Goldstein were host and hostess at a hayrack party early last week for Miss Schwartz, which was very unique and proved a success in every way. Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Weinstein entertained 50 young people for Miss Schwartz on a stately yacht. At Johnson's Creek a stop was made and a dainty luncheon served. A number of luncheons have been given in honor of Miss Schwartz, whose visit in Portland terminates in a couple of weeks.

FOR THE NEWEST IN WEARING APPAREL VISIT THE "STYLE STORE"

VERY NEWEST SWEATERS

Many Styles Never Before Shown in Portland For Men, Women, Girls and Boys

For beach or mount ains—the tennis court—the woodland tramp—picnic or camp fire—the sweater is indispensable. It is the utility wrap of every well out-fitted person, and it is most becoming when selected from these very new and different styles, a large shipment of which has just been unpacked. There's the fancy knit coat style with pockets; the jaunty cut-away, semi-fitted; the double-breasted effects with rolling collars and mercerized buttons; the Derby; the automobile coat sweater, all in a variety of colors—some in dainty white with blue dots inwoven. Men, women, girls and boys will find the widest, choicest range in finest grade goods, at very reasonable prices.

Midsummer Shipment English Picadilly Suits

To accommodate our customers who need something strikingly high class and handsome and do not want "left overs" from a Spring stock, we have imported this choice selection of standard English Picadilly Suits, elegantly tailored along mannish lines, of a fine finished cloth in all colors, trimmed with satin bands and cut in the newest hipless styles—these suits will appeal, by their simple elegance, to every woman of discernment in dressing. They are very moderately priced.
