

tiful Summer home of W. J. Faubion, on a trip to Mount Hood, it being a distance of 14 miles. The party started at 8:30 A. M., and reached Government Camp at 10 o'clock, where they were greeted by the hostess, Mrs. O. C. Youm. At 12 o'clock a delightful luncheon was served at Mountain View House. In the afternoon the party again set forth for Crater Rock, but which they failed to reach on account of the snow being too soft. In the evening Mountain View House was thrown open for the enjoyment of the guests. Dancing, cards and other games were indulged in until 12 P. M., when supper was served. Those in the party were: Miss Jennie Faubion, Mildred Faubion, Edith Dougherty, Mary Pomperon, Mrs. Pomperon, Ray Pierson, Justin Dicus, Edward Hayward, Harry Thornton, Wilbert Shaffer, Charles Alfred, Henry Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Youm and Nicholas A. Szankowsky.

One of the most enjoyable events of last week was a launching party given Sunday by Misses Sadie Goodman and Myrtle E. Long, being chaperoned by Mrs. R. O. Steohr. The party left the city about 9 A. M., and arrived at the festive point, which was a pretty spot on the bank of the river near Vancouver, where the day was pleasantly spent. One of the participants of the party, Mrs. Morgan, of New York, who is spending a few months in Portland, is a very clever elocutionist, and entertained very pleasantly with a number of his favorite pieces. The program was composed of Mrs. Ruth E. Diller, Gertrude Kurth, Florence Hunter, Josephine Kelleher, Lydia Johnson, Edith Johnson, Mabel A. Monro, Amelia Felchinger, Anna Weigardt, Messrs. Theodore Opsund, George Leburg, L. A. West, Jr., Gus F. Eilers, Hale Call, Frank Callahan, Jack P. A. Pettit, Fred Taylor and S. Thomas.

Saturday night, July 11, an informal dance was held in the dining hall of the hotel at Bonnevile. The Portland colony, in whose honor the affair was arranged by genial "Billy" Robinson, the hotel manager, enjoyed themselves to the limit. A tempting midnight supper was served in the outdoor area, where the tables were placed and lighted by Chinese and Japanese lanterns. Miss Anne Leach, of Portland, gave good music. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dunaway, Mr. and Mrs. Donlon, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Busch, Mrs. J. S. McCord, Mrs. Herbert Thorne, Mrs. P. R. Kelly, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Jackson, Miss Frances Batcher, Miss Irene Leach, the Misses McKelvy, Miss Luck, Miss Juraburg, Dorothy Dunaway, Messrs. Reed, Loeb, Peters, Halleck, Chappell, Craig, Hanna, Clark and "Mine Host" Robinson.

Members of the male chorus of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church gave a launching party on Wednesday night, July 15, at the home of Mrs. W. C. Dunaway. Starting from the foot of Salmon street the party, consisting of about 50, were taken to a beautiful spot beyond Oswego, where they landed, made coffee and served a picnic dinner. After enjoying the delights of a bonfire for sometime, the company returned to the launch and landed at the foot of Salmon street. The young men, led by Professor Wilder sang several numbers, which were heartily enjoyed by the ladies. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dunaway, Mr. and Mrs. Donlon, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Busch, Mrs. J. S. McCord, Mrs. Herbert Thorne, Mrs. P. R. Kelly, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Jackson, Miss Frances Batcher, Miss Irene Leach, the Misses McKelvy, Miss Luck, Miss Juraburg, Dorothy Dunaway, Messrs. Reed, Loeb, Peters, Halleck, Chappell, Craig, Hanna, Clark and "Mine Host" Robinson.

The reception given by George Wright Relief Corps Friday night in honor of Mrs. Bertha Johnson, of Heppes, who is spending the Summer in Portland, was enjoyed by all. A short program was rendered. Mrs. Gitman gave an interesting talk on some of the pleasant events of her trip to Saratoga, N. Y., last year as delegate-at-large from Oregon to the National encampment, G. R. E. Remarks by members of the Relief Corps followed, after which ice cream and cake were served.

Wednesday, July 15, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Littendahl entertained the members of the Alert Bible Club of the First Baptist Church with a lawn party at their home, 520 Hancock street.

Mrs. William Bailey gave a dainty luncheon Wednesday at her home 157 Stout Street, in honor of Mrs. Eva Childs, of Baker City.

WEDDINGS.

Johnson-Matheson. One of the prettiest of this season's weddings solemnized in Astoria occurred Saturday afternoon, July 11, at the home of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Archibald McLean, when Elizabeth A. Johnson, daughter of Captain Charles H. Johnson, both of Portland, were united in marriage. The house was beautifully decorated with a profusion of flowers, ferns and ivy. To the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin," the bridal party came down the long hall, which was transformed into a fairy bower of California poppies and ferns, to the drawing room, gaily festooned with marguerites and ivy, and stood under a rose wedding bell hung within a canopy of crimson rambles. The bride was attired in a trailing suit of Copenhagen blue and was attended by her sister, Ethel Matheson, in a gown of champagne poplin. George Stevens, of Astoria, was the best man. The bride was given away by Mrs. Gloria W. Schacht, of Minneapolis. Only the immediate families were present. Rev. H. P. Short, of Astoria, performed the ceremony. Immediately after the wedding an elaborate dinner was served in the dining-room, amidst a profusion of roses and carnations. Captain and Mrs. Johnson left on the steamer State of California, and will be at home after September 15 at 408 Broadway, Portland.

Reames-Furry. The pleasant country home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic E. Furry, of Jackson County, near Medford, was the scene of a charming wedding the evening of Tuesday, June 30, when their eldest daughter, Nina Mae, was married to Ernest Reames, of Phoenix, Ar. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Shields, of the First Presbyterian Church of Medford, and was witnessed by 120 guests from Southern Oregon and Northern California. The drawing-rooms were handsomely decorated with pink and white sweet peas and asparagus fern. The bride was dressed in a gown of cream-white silk, with a veil of white and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies and ferns. Both the bride and groom are descendants of old pioneer families and are well known and popular young people. After the ceremony a beautiful wedding supper was served in an evergreen pavilion which had been erected on the lawn. Here the color scheme of pink and white had been carried out. Mr. and Mrs. Reames will make their home in Phoenix.

Hutcheon-Miller. A pretty country wedding took place on Barnes Heights at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, when their daughter, Ellen Frances, was united in marriage to John D. Hutcheon by Rev. C. J. Renard, of Portland. The bridesmaids were Ethel and Theodora Miller, sisters of the bride, and best men were Alfred and Claude Hutcheon, brothers of the groom. The bride wore a beautiful dress of white with a white net veil with a wreath of lilies of the valley, and carried a bouquet of bride roses, tied with white satin ribbon. The bridesmaids wore white over pink and carried pink roses. The wedding march was played by Florence Miller, sister of the bride, and the bride was given away by her father. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served and the table was laid for 140. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing. They will make their home at 159 North Sixteenth street.

Palmer-Murphy. William L. Palmer, a prominent business man of this city, and Myrtle C. Murphy, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Murphy, were married Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Church of the Holy Redeemer, Piedmont, Rev. Father Cantwell officiating. The bride was prettily dressed in a gown of cream silk, landowne, trimmed with rich cream lace and chiffon, and carried a large bouquet of bride roses. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. The rooms were daintily decorated with roses, sweet peas and Oregon grape, which presented a very pretty effect. Mr. and Mrs. Palmer left immediately for an extended trip to the East, and will make their home in this city on their return.

Jacobsen-Perkins. A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hyatt, 25 East Thirty-fourth street, Wednesday evening, July 15, when Nellis W. Jacobsen and Mary L. Perkins were united in marriage by the Rev. J. J. Staub of the Holy Redeemer Congregational Church. The rooms of the spacious home were lavishly decorated in foliage and flowers presenting a most charming and artistic appearance.

Ostrander-Folck. W. N. Ostrander and Miss May Folck were married July 15, at 264 Park Street, by Rev. J. Boweox, in the presence of a few friends.

LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEER, EDITOR AND POET.

Bert Huffman, of Pendleton. PENDLETON, Or., July 18.—(Special).—The first book of original poems ever issued in Eastern Oregon has just been published in this city by Bert Huffman, a native of Union County, who has resided in this city for the past six years, and whose writings are well known in the Northwest. Mr. Huffman's little volume is entitled, "The Song of the Oregon Pine," and consists of about 40 pages of his choice verse, with a halftone of the author and several Moorhouse illustrations. The author is 35 years old and is now editor of the East Oregonian, but before engaging in the journalistic profession six years ago, he was a locomotive engineer, running on the O. R. & N. out of La Grande. A number of his poems have appeared in "The Oregonian" within the last few years, and have been widely copied.

presence of a few friends. After a visit among relatives at Silverton and Salem they will return and after August 1 will be at home at 162 East Thirty-fourth Street.

Sundberg-McFarland. A quiet wedding took place at the Grace Methodist Episcopal church parsonage on Wednesday night, July 15, when O. W. Sundberg and Noma McFarland, both of this city, were married by Dr. William H. Heppes.

Malsden-Litchfield. On July 6, in Roseburg, Or., Miss Nellie Litchfield and Peter Malsden, both of Portland, were married by Rev. E. H. Hicks, of the Baptist church. Mr. and Mrs. Malsden will be at home after August 1 at 25 Northrup street.

Peterson-Angell. P. W. Peterson and Minnie Angell were quietly married by Rev. C. C. Poling at the First Evangelical Church, Portland, Wednesday evening, July 15, at home after August 1 at 625 East Harold street.

Ryon-Phillips. Myron Worth Ryon, of Wasco County, Oregon, and Miss Hazel L. Phillips, of this city, were married at the Grace Methodist Episcopal parsonage July 6, by the pastor, Dr. William H. Heppes.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Mr. Sidney S. Mayer, of Portland, and Miss May C. Nordman, of San Francisco, will be married next Autumn, at a date yet to be fixed. Their engagement was announced last Sunday at a coaching party given by friends. Miss Nordman is the daughter of L. Nordman, a wholesale jeweler of San Francisco. She is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. W. Ottenheimer, at 745 East street, and will remain in Portland until September, when she will return to San Francisco, where the wedding will take place. There will be no formal reception, but Mr. Mayer and Miss Nordman will meet their friends at the home of Mrs. Ottenheimer.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude E. Stephens, formerly of Portland, and a daughter of the late Judge T. M. Stephens, of the Circuit Court, No. 4, to Mr. Arthur D. Frazee will take place at San Francisco on July 23.

Mrs. Eva Cohn and Miss Selma Cohn, of San Francisco, will be at home Monday afternoon at the Hotel Nortonia.

COMING EVENTS.

A Chinese program is to begin at Chautauqua from 6 to 6 o'clock this afternoon under the management of the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations. The Chinese missions are taking great interest in the affair, and are working hard to have a first-class program. These missions are the Methodist Episcopal, Rev. Chan Sing Kin, pastor; United Brethren, Rev. May Lang, pastor; Baptist, Rev. Ng Tong, pastor; Christian, T. Lee, superintendent; Episcopal, James Kan, pastor; and Presbyterian, Jew Fox, pastor.

The Chautauqua program will consist largely of musical numbers by Chinese of all ages and both sexes, the little children having a prominent part and a splendid time is promised. Some of the songs will be given in Chinese and some in English. The Sunday at home at the Young Women's Christian Association is to be a delightful affair. A secretary will see that everyone has a good time and will have charge of an informal program. All young women are cordially invited to make themselves at home any time during the day especially from 4 to 6 o'clock.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Mrs. Louis Rosenblatt is at Gearhart Park. Mrs. and Mrs. W. A. Kirks have returned from Hood River.

Miss Edith Schade is at Long Beach for a ten days' sojourn. Mrs. T. Kretzman and daughter, Esther, are sojourning at Seaside.

Miss Bertha Waggoner is going to Long Beach for a month. Miss Nellie Baker, of Walla Walla, is visiting Mrs. Edwin G. Fanning.

Miss Marie Lallemand is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jennings at Seaside. Mrs. Freda H. Reineman left during the week for a few weeks' visit in Seattle.

Mrs. M. J. Walsh and family have gone to Long Beach for the Summer. Ernest Blue has returned from Nehalem Beach, where he invested in several lots of beach property.

R. J. Shihler and wife, with their two sons and a nurse, have gone to Newport for a few weeks' vacation. Mrs. Helen Rice, of this city, returned a few days ago from a Summer outing with friends at Suver, Polk County.

Mrs. A. E. Watson, principal of the Kern School, and Miss Frazier have returned from their visit to Hood River. Mr. and Mrs. R. Yost and Mrs. Cooke and family are spending their vacation at Seaside occupying Miss Pauline Yost's cottage.

Mrs. Emma E. Fillman, of Eureka, Cal., who is spending the Summer in Portland, has taken apartments at the Alexandra Court.

Mrs. F. M. Riggen and sons, Donald and Laurence, are spending the week at Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Caukin, 412 San Rafael street.

Miss Wilcox and Miss Eleanor Wilcox, of Irvington are spending the week of July at Spokane, the guests of Mrs. William Bradley.

Mrs. J. C. Hare and Miss Elizabeth Johnson have returned from a two weeks' outing at Gladstone Park attending the Chautauqua.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Kahn, of Boise, Idaho, are visiting with Mrs. Kahn's mother, Mrs. Charles Lauer, on Everett street.

Miss Hazel Foster, accompanied by Miss Anna Cavanaugh, leaves Monday for the South, where they will make an extended visit.

Clarence H. Himes and Frank Lowe went to Stayton yesterday morning and will be the guests of Mr. Lowe's father for a few days.

Mr. E. Jamison, wife and daughter, Le Conte, opened their cottage, "Bide-a-Wee," at Seaview last week and will remain the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Franz Elling, daughters Christine and Frederick, have left for a six weeks' sojourn in their mountain home near Sandy.

Mrs. Carrie Couder, president of the George Wright Relief Corps, No. 2, will visit the department presiding, Jennie Higgins, at Eugene, Or.

Mrs. William T. Barff, of Everett, Wash., left Friday for her home after having spent two weeks visiting relatives and friends in Portland.

Mrs. J. Bullivant, Sr., Miss Anna Bullivant and Edward Bullivant left Tuesday, via the Northern Pacific, for a trip through Yellowstone Park.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Schwarzschild and daughter, who have been at the Alexandra Court for the past month, have returned to their home at Eugene.

Miss Margaret Delaney, accompanied by her foster father, Rev. Harry Pratt, Rev. Henry Marcott and Dr. Templeton made the trip to Bull Run during the week, in Dr. Templeton's automobile, where they spent the day fishing. They report a good time and successful catch.

Mr. and Mrs. George Reid, formerly of Portland, and now of Spokane, Wash., returned to Portland a little while ago for their Summer vacation, but will take a number of side trips, among others one to Newport this week.

Thompson C. Elliott, a well-known business man of Walla Walla, arrived in Portland from Seaview, Wash., last Tuesday morning, where he had been enjoying a brief vacation, and returned to Walla Walla last Wednesday. He went to Chautauqua on Tuesday.

Miss Lulu Barnes, of Missoula, Mont., and Miss Mabel Carl, of Butte, Mont., who have been visiting Mrs. Row of the East Side, the past month, will leave this week for San Francisco. Mrs. Row will accompany them for an extended visit with friends and relatives.

Miss Mabel Mills, a former member of the Rose Coursen-Read's Treble Clef Club, has had a big success in her present home, Marshfield, singing the contract solos in Handel's Messiah, which was given there recently by the Progress Club, under the direction of Eimer A. Todd.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Wilhelm and daughter, of Portland, and Mrs. Captain Otto Wel-

Advertisement for Silverfield's Largest and Leading Fur Manufacturers of the West. Stylish Summer Apparel Specially Priced. Owing to the backwardness of the Summer season, we find ourselves with an overstock of Ladies' and Misses' Summer Apparel, which we must dispose of within the next 30 days. Suit Department Specials for Monday: $35.00 White Serge Suits for $22.50, $55.00 Light Wool Suits for $28.65, $15.00 White Linen Suits for $8.75, $12.00 Colored Jumper Dresses for $7.50, $8.00 White Lingerie Dresses for $3.49, $6.00 White Lingerie Dresses for $2.39, $2.00 White and Colored Waists for $.83.

land, of Yaquina Bay, are spending a portion of the Summer at Willott Springs. Master Holt Wellander is also in the party. The first week in August they will visit Newport and Yaquina Bay for a month's sojourn. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Haddock, of Bedford, Ia., arrived in this city last Thursday evening, and will remain a few days visiting old-time friends, among them the family of Robert R. Reid, Deputy County Clerk. They expect to go to Yaquina Bay next Tuesday, and will see the ocean for the first time. Mrs. Carrie Heppell, a teacher in the High School in Dunkirk, N. Y., came to Portland a short time ago to visit her uncle, Peter Taylor, and his family. This is Miss Heppell's first visit to the Pacific Coast, and her friends are giving her the best possible opportunity to become acquainted with this part of the Pacific Northwest. They went to Vancouver last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. MacDougal have returned to Portland, after a three years' stay in the Orient. They are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George P. Robertson, of 56 Union avenue. Mrs. MacDougal was formerly Miss Ethel Hopkins, of Portland. Mr. MacDougal is in the employ of the Atlantic, Gulf & Pacific, of San Francisco, the largest contracting company in the Philippine Islands. They leave Saturday for San Francisco. Reads Poem at Dedication. Mrs. Helen N. Packard, of this city, read an original poem at the unveiling exercises of the Stinson Monument Association of Portland, Mr. July 4. The monument was erected by the surviving members of the Fifth Maine Infantry to their departed comrades. Mrs. Packard is widow of John A. Packard, who enlisted in the Fifth Maine at the beginning of the war as a private, and was promoted to Lieutenant. He died from the effects of wounds received in the battle of Hagerstown, Md. After the monument was presented to the city Mrs. Packard placed a wreath upon it, made of Oregon grape, which was sent her from this city by her sons for the occasion, which attracted much attention and many compliments.

Advertisement for W. G. Smith & Co. THE BEST ENGRAVED AND PRINTED Wedding and Visiting Cards. W. G. SMITH & CO. Washington Building, Fourth and Washington.

Advertisement for Lennon's Famous Seattle Stock Sale. ONLY A FEW DAYS MORE OF LENNON'S FAMOUS SEATTLE STOCK SALE. By far the greatest Glove, Parasol and Hosiery Sale ever held in Portland. Prices in most instances cut below factory cost. Extra Special Bargains This Week. LONG SILK AND LONG LISLE GLOVES: 16-button length, pure silk patent tip'd, black only; $1.50 value, cut to, 55c. 16-button length, Kayser's and Fowles' pure silk, patent tipped, $2.00 quality, cut to, pair, 98c. All sizes, in black, white and all colors. 16-button length fine Venetian lisle, in black, white and tan; $1.25 55c quality, cut to, pair. 16-button length fine Milanese lisle, $1.50 quality, cut to, pair, 79c. PARASOL BARGAINS: Greater reductions—every parasol in the house cut to less than factory cost. $2.00 Parasols cut to, 98c. $3.25 Parasols cut to, $1.79. $5.00 Parasols cut to, $2.39. $7.25 Parasols cut to, $3.79. Children's Parasols, 75c value, cut to, 19c. GREAT UMBRELLA SPECIAL—Men's and women's Silk Umbrellas, most beautiful line of handles; 50 styles; reduced from $10 to $4.95. GREAT HOSE BARGAINS: Women's good quality Lace Hose; new patterns; black and white, 25c quality, cut to, pair, 9c. Women's guaranteed Maco Yarn Hose, tan and black; 35c 19c value, cut to, pair. Children's "Kas-tie-on" Hosiery—every pair guaranteed; 35c 23c value, pair. MORRISON STREET OPPOSITE POSTOFFICE. Parasols Made Up of Your Own Material. Umbrellas Repaired.

Advertisement for H. B. LITT LINEN SUITS TOMORROW Formerly $15.00 to $65.00 at ONE-HALF PRICE (All New) 351 WASHINGTON ST.