GREAT TAFT RALLY

Republicans to Hold Ratification Tomorrow Night.

BAKER THEATER ENGAGED

Senator Fulton, Judge Northrup, Dr. Coe and W. D. Wheelwright.

Speakers—First Gun of the Presidential Campaign.

When the Forty-fifth Precinct Republican Club started the movement to hold a Taft and Sherman ratification meeting, the promoters had no idea the affair would assume proportions demanding a larger hall than at first was suggested, and that some of the most prominent leaders of the party would be present.

The rally, which is to be held in the Baker theater, promises to be one of the features of the campaign about to be opened. The arrangements have been completed for instruction, entertainment and enthusiasm at the Baker tomorrow night, the programme to start at 8:15 promptly.

Ben Riesland and his associates of the precinct club expect the outcome of the ratification meeting to be the formation of a central organization to be named Taft Club No. 1, which is to be the parent of a number of auxiliary precinct clubs organized to act in harmony with the Republican State Central Committee. Mr. Riesland, who is to preside at the rally, will appoint a committee to formulate plans for the organization of these clubs. That duty performed, there will be no further time taken up with affairs connected with the organizations in prospect, but speakers will be announced without delay.

Those invited to make the principal addresses are Senator C. W. Fulton, Judge Henry H. Northrup, Dr. H. W. Coe and W. D. Wheelwright.

Music will be furnished by a brass band and the Taft Male Quartette, recently organized.

NEW EMPIRE BEING OPENED

Snake River Valley Will Furnish Stock for Portland Industry.

"The Snake River Valley, which includes a stockman's paradise of 3,000,000 acres, is destined to prove the stock-supplying district for Portland's new industry, the Union Meat Company," said C. S. Loveland, of Boise, Idaho, at the Imperial Hotel yesterday. Mr. Loveland is National Bank Examiner, being assigned to the Union Meat Company, and with Mrs. Loveland is spending a few days in this city.

"The Snake River Valley is tributary to the Riparian-Lewisian extension of the O. R. N. and has the advantage of a down-hill grade of 1200 miles to Portland," explained Mr. Loveland. "This district produces immense crops of alfalfa, which yields from six to seven tons an acre, and the finest quality of sugar beets and other foodstuffs necessary to successful stock raising."

"To give an idea of the remarkable growth of our section, I might explain that in the Twin Falls-Salmon River valley project, 8000 acres of land were opened to settlers June 1 last. Of that acreage less than 5000 acres remains unclaimed. The reclamation of this tract, along with similar undertakings, is being managed under state supervision, regulated by the provisions of the Carey Act. In fact these lands are being acquired by the highest type of citizen, and the great majority of settlers consisting of native born American citizens and homeseekers, who are immigrating to our state from other sections."

"Twin Falls, which was only a sage brush district four years ago, is now a thriving town of 4000 inhabitants. It now already has a schoolhouse worth $20,000 and has contracts for the construction of another at a cost of $60,000. A bond issue of $150,000 has been authorized for other public improvements."

While Mr. Loveland refused to discuss the condition of the banks of the country coming under his inspection, he said crop conditions throughout Eastern Oregon and Idaho are excellent, and were reflected by the earlier reports from those districts.
