BY W. J. PETRAIN. Bobby Groom made his first ap ce on the mound yesterday after an absence of two weeks, and the man-ner in which he pitched circles around the visiting bunch was exceedingly pleas-ing to the big Saturday crowd, for Port-land, won the game by a score of 4 to 1. All of the runs scored were more or less in the nature of a gift, for Madden and Groom presented Oakland with the one chalked to her credit and Happy Hogan assisted all of Portland's runs across the plate.

nogan assisted all of Portland's runs across the plate.

Naturally it mattered little to the home crowd how far the Athenians heaved the ball, for every wild throw meant runs for us, but when Bu'l Perine called a balk on the lanky one, which gave the visitors their only run, his umps was called all kinds of mean things by the fans. At that time Portland had one run to the good and the ace allowed Oakland on the balk, which was a paipable one, tied up the score. All the unkind things directed at Bull were forgotten after the fourth in-ning, for during that chapter the hoffic guard achieved three more runs, thanks to Mr. Hogan.

Heaves Ball Over First.

Vess Loucks started off quite well when Portland faced him in the opener. Casey and Bassey each skied out, but Raftery, like Heitmuller in Oskland's half, secured an infield poke, and gained safety with an infield poke, and gained safety with case. Then came "Happy Bill's" first case of generosity. When Ote Johnson banged one at his shins, Hogan heaved hadly to first and all hands were safe. Jack fryan found Loucks offerings anything but puzzling, and promptly banged a corking hit to right on which Raftery denied the rubber in front of Mr. Lewis. McCredie picked out Hogan for an easy mark, but this time William was on the job nicely and the managers's tap retired the side.

As an opener of the second inning As an opener of the second inning Hogan tried to redeem himself for his bad toss and succeeded in working Groom for the only ticket Bobby issued during the malinee. Bill stole second, and, because Madden's throw hit him on the hand, continued to tilird, and Tom gets chalked with an error. Bobby then settled down nicely and wafted Miller and Altrace.

After ducking back and forth between the Portland infielders, Hogan finally secured third again in safety, whereupon he took occasion to claim a balk on Groom, which the umpire promptly allowed, and the run scored.

Runs Come in Fourth.

The third inning was unproductive, in the fourth the fans had their nce. McCredle led off with one of his celebrated infield bunts just out of reach of the pitcher, catcher and third baseman, and was safe at first. Cooney proved a good waiter and was given transportation. Tom Madden dumped a sacrifice at Mr. Hogan, who contributed his second bad heave. This one was much more offensive to Mr. Loucks than the first, as it sailed far war "Truck". Bagan's head. over "Truck" Eagan's head. Before "Dutch" Altman could field it McCredie and Cooney had scored and Madden was on third. Pearl Casey came through with a clever bunt on a hit and run signal, and Madden scored easily while Casey went out at first. Bassey could not negotiate, but we had a total of four, which padlocked

e game. Bobby Groom settled down to business and pitched a magnificent game. Of the four hits secured by Oakland not one of them was batted out of the infield, and three were of the scratchiest variety. The only really legitimate hit secured was Heitmuller's in the first inning. This clout was a liner, a trifle to the left of second, and was knocked down by Cooney after a hard try. Had luck been with Phil the ball would have stuck in his glove, and the little fellow would have been credited with a sensational play.

A peculiar play happened in the seventh. Ryan walked and was sacrificed to second by McCredie, who gets no credit for the effort in the official score, although he sarned it. Mac's bunt was taken by Hogan, who tossed him out at first, but Ryan started to go to third base, on seeing Hogan near the pitcher's box. He was caught between the bases and a double play resulted. McCredie should have a sacrifice credited to him, for Ryan was sent to second as the manager had planned. Loucks pitched a good game. planned. ASKED PUNISHMENT

Superior Judge Lawlor Refuses to Issue Citation and Attorney Will Carry Matter to Supreme Court Tomorrow.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—Henry Ach, attorney for Abraham Ruef, said tonight that on Monday he will apply to the Supreme Court of the state for a writ of preme Court of the state for a writ of mandamus to compel Judge Lawlor of the Superior Court to Issue an order citing Detective William J. Burns and two of his assistants, Schindler and Lawler, to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt of court. In support of his application Mr. Ach will present the affidavits which have already been presented to Judge Lawlor, who to day refused to issue the order asked for. The affidavits are from citizens whose names are in the trial jury-box, and who may be called as witnesses in the trial of Abraham Ruef for bribery. They assert that they as prospective jurors were approached by Detective Burns' assistants and an attempt made to prejudice them in order to disqualify them as jurors.

LOWER COURT DENIES ORDER

Prosecutor Hency Defends Action of Detective Burns.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25 .- Superior Judge Lawlor today denied the motion of Henry Ach, attorney for Abraham Ruef, for an order to show cause why William J. Burns and two of his assistants, named Schindler and Lawlet should not be adjudged guilty of con-tempt of court for alleged attempts to influence prospective jurors in the trial of Abraham Ruef, soon to be called in Judge Lawlor's court.

Judge Lawlor's court.
Francis J. Heney; attorney for Mr.
Burns in the case, argued that the special agent of the prosecution has a perfect right to ascertain the state of mind of any man whose name may be in the jury box and who is liable to be called as a juror. Mr. Heney, in the course of his remarks, said that after the trial of Ruef he will insist upon an investigation of the charges contained in the affidavit and will present other cases in which it is alleged there have been attempts to tamper with Judge Lawlor stated that information had come to him of several at-tempts to tamper with the process of the court, but he refused to delay the trial of Ruef at this time and intimated that the matter will be taken up later.

Ruef Case Is Contnued.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—After 20 days on the witness stand in the preliminary examination of Abraham Ruef in the Parkside bribery case, former Supervisor Gallagher was excused this morning with the understanding that he may be

OAKLAND MANAGER AND CAPTAIN IS A REAL VETERAN OF THE DIAMOND

George Van Haltren Served Twelve Years in Major League, and as Many in Minor Associations.

Sporting critics of Eastern cities are indulging in lengthy ink-slinging contests in an effort to see who can sing highest the praises of Honus Wagner, the mighty swatsman of the Pittsburg team, and Cy Young, the veteran pitcher of the Boston Americans. Out here on the Pacific Coast we have a ball player whose record for 12 years in the major leagues, and almost as many in the brush and minor leagues, en-titles him to similar commendation. During all the time he was with New York he was rated as one of the league's leading batsmen, and his retirement from the major leagues was brought about by an unfortunate accident which occurred in 1963. During the early portion of that year Van sustained a broken ankle while sliding to a base, and this kept him out of the game for the balance of that season. Incidentally it ended his major league career, for, while New York retained him for the remainder of the season, he was turned adrift at the season, he was turned adrift at the end of the season.
