MRS. JOHN G. EDWARDS OF HAY CREEK, ORE., A POPULAR VISITOR WHO IS A GUEST OF MRS. WALTER F. BURRELL.

ORDINARILY this season of the year is considered practically dead and all entertaining in a state of semi-mourning, but the past few weeks have been a happy exception. However, many have become imbued with wanderlust and migratory influence is rapidly making itself felt in all quarters. For the coming month North Beach will naturally be the Mecca for Portlanders, owing to the tennis tournament, which is attracting much attention, as a beach tourney is a decided novelty.

andra Court for the summer. In the interim, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin are occupying their attractive residence on Twentieth street.

With the exception of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Teas launching party, last week, that given on Monday by Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Talbot, in compliment to Miss Talbot, of New York, was one of the largest and jolliest affairs of the summer season. There were about 100 guests, with Parson's orchestra in attendance, while the gallery with a pontoon effect leading from the porch to the Summer house, was hung with lanterns and arranged with seats, serving as a rendezvous between dances. Supper followed being served at two long tables. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mr. and Mrs. David C. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Freeman, Dr. and Mrs. Otis Wright, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Skene, Mrs. John K. Kollock, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Towle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Forest, who are recent arrivals from Spokane; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kerr; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warren, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. George K. Wentworth, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. J. Ernest Laidlaw, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mrs. Zera Snow, Miss Smyser of New York; and Mrs. W. M. Wallace, of Illinois; Misses Effie and Claire Houghton, Miss Virginia Bortup and her fiancé, Mr. Richard Emerson, Miss Caroline Burns, Miss Kathleen Burns, Miss Grace Warren, Miss Margaret Walter, Miss Inez Barrett, Miss Louise Carey, Miss Cross, of Boston; Miss Aveline Webster, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. David M. Pratt, of Elmira, N. Y.; Mrs. Hazel Crocker, Miss Virginia Bortup and her fiancé, Mr. Richard Holder, Tom Robertson, George Warren, Frank Robertson, T. S. McGrath, Max Wood, Harry Felling, Raymond Wilcox, John McPherson, Hawley Hoffman, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Warren, Jr., Robert Strong, Jordan Zan, Arnold Rothwell, Plowden Stott, Mr. Wernicke and J. Wesley Ladd.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ayer have taken apartments for a month in Victoria, B. C. On Thursday Mrs. C. E. S. Wood left to join them for the remainder of their stay.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Allen Lewis were dinner hosts on Thursday, entertaining for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Towle, who are recent arrivals from St. Paul. Additionally there were present Mr. and Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mr. and Mrs. David C. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin and Mr. and Mrs. John Shepard.

In honor of the much-feted visitor, Mrs. John G. Edwards, of Hay Creek, Ore., Holt C. Wilson gave a pretty luncheon on Saturday at the Rock Island Club. Present were Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Miss Mae Felling, Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Miss Sally Lewis, Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mrs. Zera Snow, Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. Howard Mather and Mrs. K. A. J. Mackenzie.

Miss Lisa Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Drake, of Bend, Ore., are having an interesting visit in Geneva.

Professor William Lyon Phelps of Yale University, who all Yale men love and call "Billy Phelps," will be in Portland August 4, and in route home from Berkeley, Cal., where he has been delivering a course of lectures in the Summer school of the University of California. On the evening of August 4 the Yale Alumni Association of Oregon, 25 strong, will tender Professor Phelps a typically enthusiastic Yale banquet at the University Club.

Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett was the hostess Wednesday afternoon at a charming musical which was given in compliment to Mrs. John G. Edwards, of Hay Creek, whose picture appears on this page today. Miss Villa Whitney White, of Boston, and Miss Large, of Chicago, were the soloists, and as they are great favorites here they were naturally received enthusiastically. Miss White has a voice of excellent range and purity of tone. Her interpretation is artistic and pleasing. Miss Large is a concert pianist, who has a splendid reputation. Her playing is exceedingly brilliant.

The musical was given in the handsome music-room of Mrs. W. S. Ladd's residence on Sixth street, and later tea was served on the lawn, which is decidedly the most beautiful and picturesque in Portland with its great variety of rare trees and shrubs.

Pouring tea were Miss Mae Felling and Mrs. Richard Koehler. Among those asked to meet Mrs. Edwards were Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Miss Henrietta Felling, Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mrs. William Ladd, Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. Guy W. Talbot, Miss Talbot, of New York; Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, Mrs. Frank Vincent Du Mond, Mrs. William Warren, Mrs. S. B. Linticum, Mrs. K. A. J. Mackenzie, Miss Sallie Lewis, Mrs. Howard Mather, Mrs. Tom Kerr, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Miss Carrie Flanders, Miss Louise Flanders and Miss Nina Adams, of Honolulu.

A letter from Mrs. Chauncey Winslow (nee Alice Elston) states that she and Mr. Winslow are having a pleasant visit in Venice, and that they are expecting to leave in the very near future for Vienna. For many weeks while in Paris, Mr. Winslow was ill, but has now entirely recuperated. Their plans for returning to America are as yet indefinite.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Burns and Miss Anita Burns are planning to return from Europe the end of August. Mr. and Mrs. George Goode and Miss Frances Lewis who are now in Paris will sail for America the latter part of September.

Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett left on Friday for the beach for her mother, Mrs. W. S. Ladd, taking with her Miss Alta Smith, who graduated this June from Smith College with highest honors. Miss Smith was said to be the most popular girl in the class.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Meier are now in Germany, but will leave soon for Switzerland. While they have traveled through England, Scotland, the Alps, and their two boys, Harold and Allen, have been at school at Oberzessell, which is near Cologne. The boys will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Meier to the Alps, and together they will sail for America about the middle of September.

Mr. T. Brooke White, of London, who resided here some years ago, where he had many friends, is again visiting in Portland. Mr. White was prominently identified with the Portland Rowing Club and was a splendid oarsman. Since leaving home he has been engaged in reclamation service at Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett left on Friday for the beach for her mother, Mrs. W. S. Ladd, taking with her Miss Alta Smith, who graduated this June from Smith College with highest honors. Miss Smith was said to be the most popular girl in the class.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Courson, Miss Courson and Master Raymond Courson leave tomorrow for a five weeks' sojourn in Alaska and at Crescent Lake, in the Olympics.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Judge have returned from a trip to the Puget Sound cities and Victoria and Vancouver, B. C.

Mrs. Newton Rountree has returned to Alexandria Court after a visit in Seattle.

Keast, of Victoria, B. C. Miss Florence Williams, Morris Whitehouse, Antoine Labbe, Max Snow, Sam Which, Mason Eburne, Clifford Nichols and Mr. Delbruck, of Berlin.

A number of informal affairs have been given for Mrs. David M. Pratt, of Elmira, N. Y., and her fiancé, Mr. Richard Emerson. She was accompanied West by her daughter, Miss Madeline Pratt, and while here they are guests of Judge and Mrs. John H. Woodward, at their parents' picturesque houseboat near The Oaks. Mrs. Pratt is a sister of Mrs. Frederick Hopkins and Lewis Venn Woodward.

Miss Floretta Elmore and Miss Eldo Elmore are guests at the Portland Hotel, having come up on a shopping tour from Astoria, preparatory to a trip East.

Dr. Konrad Delbrueck, of Berlin, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Koehler, is their guest for a month prior to their departure for Europe. Mr. Delbrueck will accompany Mrs. Koehler and Miss Ise Koehler abroad.

Alexander H. Kerr leaves tomorrow morning for England, sailing from New York on the Cunard line, and returning in the Fall.

A number of the prominent girls have recently affected a radical departure in the arrangement of the coiffure, several wearing the Grecian knot which is now undergoing such a vogue in the East and abroad, while others are doing their hair in severely plain lines, a low pompadour in front, with accentuated sides, and back and held tightly in place by a net. Another novelty is the director's coat, which is worn with lingerie and accented with ribbons, to which the General responded in a happy vein. Among the officers present from Vancouver Barracks were Lieutenant Walter S. Foster, Major General John G. Ebert, Lieutenant-Colonel J. C. Gresham, and Major H. L. Hawthorne, Colonel A. B. Ainsworth, Dr. W. E. Carll, Dr. George S. Whiteside, Dr. A. C. Smith, M. W. Smith, R. B. Hoge, T. B. Wilcox, Dr. K. A. J. Mackenzie, General T. M. Anderson, Charles F. Beebe, F. H. Ransom, Guy W.
