FORGER CAPTURED AFTER HOT CHASE

Great Crowd Joins Police in Pursuit of Young Man Through Streets.

YOUTH ADMITS HIS GUILT

Declares Following Races Led to Cause of Undoing Which Has Landed Him Behind Prison Bars.

After making unsuccessful attempts to pass worthless checks at the Harris Trunk Company, the Imperial Hotel and Olds, Wortman & King, A. R. Heiller, aged 19 years, from Little Rock, Ark., endeavored to escape from the big department store, at Fifth and Washington streets, at 5:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was nursued by several burnoon. noon. He was pursued by several hun-dred men, women and children and was captured in the rear portion of the Honeyman Hardware Company's store, at Fourth and Alder streets.

Fourth and Alder streets.

Heiller was overtaken by Policeman Nelson, Deputy Sheriff Goldstein, K. K. Kubli and others, and was escorted to police headquarters by the two officers, where he made a full confession.

"I have been traveling around the country, playing the races," said Heiller, and I used up a big bunch of money. Since leaving my home in Little Rock, I lost heavily on the races and drew several sight drafts on my uncle, William Loeb, a clothler of Little Rock, and he refused longer to honor the drafts. Being without funds, I cashed a $50 check on Sweeney & McCarthy, 1809 Fillmore street, San Francisco, and then came up here. I tried to secure money by passing forged checks here and failed."

San Francisco, and then came up here. I tried to secure money by passing forged checks here and falled."

Much excitement followed the pursuit of Heiller, as the scene of his sensational flight and capture is in the heart of the business section of the city. He was locked up in a cell, and an investigation of his story will be made by the police. He did not succeed in passing any bad checks here, so far as known, and it may be that he will be turned over to the San Francisco authorities, if it proves true that he is wanted there, as he says he is. Heiller first appeared in this city at the imperial Hotel, where he sought to cash a check for $50, on the Merchants National Bank. He talked with Phil Metschan, Jr., but the latter declined to cash the paper or to advance any money on it until assured as to the character of the applicant, Heiller declared he belonged to the Los Angeles Lodge of Eliks, and Mr. Metschan telephoned to Secretary Clyde M. Bills, of the Portland Lodge, asking him to inquire by wire of the Los Angeles Eliks of the the comment of the Los Angeles Eliks.

Member of Republican National Committee From This State Feels Confident on Return From Colorado Springs.

R. E. Williams, National committee man from the State of Oregon, has returned from Colorado Springs, after a conference with Frank Hitchcock, manager of the National Taft campaign. Mr. Williams prophesies that Oregon will give Taft a big majority in November.

Mr. Williams, together with Judge W. M. Cake, chairman of the Republican state central committee, will conduct the Presidential campaign in Oregon. There will be a meeting of the various county chairmen during the time the plans of the campaign will be discussed and arranged. Outline Plan of Campaign.

"The meeting will be held for the purpose of outlining the various plane for the campaign, and arranging the details," he said. "Judge Cake will be at home by that time and we pro-pose to make it one of the most vig-orous campaigns that Oregon has ever seen."

Judge Cake, who is chairman of the Republican state central committee, has gone to Boston as a representative of the supreme lodge of Knights of Pythias. He attended the conference of Republican leaders with Mr. Williams at Colorado Springs.

"Every state west of the Missouri River was represented except Nevada," asid Mr. Williams, "and Oregon's representation was by no means outdone by the other Western states."

Campaign funds will not be distributed in Oregon as freely as breezes from the Pacific Ocean. There will be much conversation, but very fittle

"We won't have a great deal of money to spend," said Mr. Williams, "for the simple reason that there is "for the simple reason that there is little to be spent. The National ap-propriation for this state is practically nothing, for they believe that Oregon should go Republican without much expense or effort on the part of the committee. Judge Cake and myself think so also, and we have no doubt but that Oregon will give Taft a big majority in November."

Oregon Election a Surprise.

Prominent Republicans from other states were deeply interested in the po-litical situation of Oregon, he said. On every hand there were inquiries concerning the possibility of a Dem-ocrat representing this state in the United States Senate, and urgent de mands that such a political catastro-phe be averted, if possible.

"Many of the most prominent polit-ical leaders of the West seemed to think that Oregon's political standing was gone if she sent a Democrat back to Washington," he said. "They could to Washington," he said. "They could not understand how this state should have given a Democrat the popular vote, for they all know it is a Republi-

East until the latter part of August. He is now attending a National meeting of the Knights of Pythias and on his return will take charge of the National campaign of this state. He and Mr. Williams will personally conduct the details of the campaign.

Mr. Hitchcock stated that Mr. Taft, the Presidential nominee, was deeply grateful to Senator Fulton for his efforts in his behalf during the National convention at Chicago. Senator Fulton's work there was of great assistance to Mr. Taft, he says, and the nominee fully appreciates what Oregon's representative has done.

Senator Fulton enjoyed the distinction of being the only person besides the National committeeman and state chairman who was fiviled by Mr. Hitchcock to attend the conference.

MRS. AUGUSTA SEIB REGRETS FORCED TRANSFORMATION.

Explains Why She Chose to Masquerade as Man for Nine Years.

NEW YORK, July 22.-Mrs. Augusta Selb, the young woman who masquer aded as a man for nine years, was back to support. Here I married a man who promised to do everything for mother and me, and he turned out to be a bigamist. Then, one day, I saw a younger man who looked very much like me, and I thought to myself. 'Why should not I be a man and earn more money, and be rid of the pestering attentions of men who were born that way?' So I cut off my lovely blond hair and practiced wearing men's clothes for a while, just as I am pra ticing wearing these skirts now.

"Pretty soon I got a place as a walter at the Waldorf. Outside the dining-room I used to say 'damn it' just like a man, and once in a while I went out with other waiters and had a glass of

"I had some funny experiences. A waiter was in love with a nice girl and she made eyes at me. He got fealous and started to thrash me. I had a cut over the eye, but just like a man, I told everybody. You ought to see the other fellow."

"No, we're not going to sell our res-taurant. I have done nothing wrong and I'm going to make an honest living in spite of these"—and she kicked her despised petticoats.
