Lingerie and Net Waists, Vals. to $25.00 for $6.85

Sale Highest-Class Dress Waists $6.85

(None on Sale Until 9 o'clock Monday)
Here is an occasion that comes but once a year—the selling of our regular stock of highest-class dress waists at one price lower than the cost of materials alone. The making—always the biggest item in this class of waists—is not counted at all. The patterns are exclusive and novel, as well as smart and neat. Most of them are the famous "Castleton" brand. This sale offers an opportunity to buy the best at the cost of an ordinary waist.

They include Hand-Embroidered Lingerie Waists with wonderfully delicate figures embroidered by the deft fingers of French needlewomen. The lace trimmings are distinctive and exclusive in style—two-thread German Valenciennes and filet lace panels, Irish lace yokes, dotted lace panels, etc. Also white and ecru Lace Net Waists, trimmed with heavy medallions of Irish crochet and Cluny lace, etc. One style has a novel heavy lace berth—a quite elaborate. They're not ordinary waists in any sense of the word. Regular values all the way up to $25.00 on sale Monday $6.85 for only.....

POISON GIVEN TO PASSENGER IN CAB

Mysterious Murder of Young Man on San Francisco Street.

DYING WHEN JOURNEY ENDS

Cyanide of Potassium Administered While Revalk Is Returning From Farewell Party Before Sailing for Manila.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—Cyanide of potassium was found in the stomach of Yernal Revalk, a young high school student who died at the Harbor Hospital this morning after a ride in a cab from Fillmore street to the Ferry Depot. Young Revalk had attended a party given in his honor at a private residence on Sutter street last night, and was to have started for Manila Wednesday. He escorted one of the young ladies attending the party to her home and later appeared on Fillmore street and called a cab. He was apparently all right when he entered the cab, but was dying when the cab reached the Ferry Depot.

Letter Found in Pocket

In the pocket of young Revalk's coat after his death was found a letter from Leland Sparks, son of the late Governor Sparks, of Nevada. The letter was post-marked in Reno. Before starting on his last ride Revalk gave the cab driver a letter addressed to Leland Sparks at Reno and asked that it be mailed. It was mailed by the driver on the way down Market street. Young Revalk was to have started for Manila on next Wednesday to take a position in the Government service and the party which he attended last night was given in his honor.

Father Thinks It Murder.

R. E. Revalk, father of the dead young man, believes that murder has been committed. He said: "There is foul play somewhere and we have placed the matter in the hands of the detectives. A thorough investigation will be made." He entirely rejects the theory of suicide. It is known that young Revalk visited a saloon before taking the cab, for he called up one of his school fraternity brothers on the telephone and asked him to call for him to talk over the times. Revalk is spoken of in the highest terms by his schoolmates and all others who knew him and is said to have shown no signs of despondency last night.

LAUGHS AT LIFE SENTENCE

Female Prisoner Takes Penalty for Killing Child Calmly.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 1.—Life imprisonment was the punishment meted out to Mrs. Sarah Morasch today in the District Court of Wyandotte County, Kan., for the murder of 4-year-old Ruth Miller, a niece of the woman by marriage. Mrs. Morasch sent poisoned candy through the mail to Ella Van Meter, 14 years old, a half-sister of the murdered child. The older girl, for whom it was intended, did not die. The candy was sent in a spirit of resentment because the girl had laughed at the woman. Mrs. Morasch accepted her punishment with a smile and, when asked if she had anything to say, turned laughily and walked to her chair. The woman is 43 years old.

KEEPS NAVAJOS IN CONTROL

Troops Ordered to Prevent Conflict About Grazing Rights.

DENVER, Aug. 1.—General Earl D. Thomas, commanding the Department of the Colorado, has been instructed to dispatch immediately six troops of cavalry to the Navajo reservation. The orders came from the War Department yesterday and are induced by the fear that renegade Utes will induce the Navajos to rebel. The chief cause of the dissatisfaction is the use of the water-holes and grazing land by the whites. The Indians say the white men are stealing their privileges and resent the action. The troops will be sent from Forts Whipple, Apache and Wingate.

ISSUE EMERGENCY NOTES

Whole $500,000,000 Will Be Out Before Congress Meets.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The Treasury officials are making satisfactory progress in getting out emergency notes under the circulation amendment passed last session of Congress. Acting Secretary Coolidge said today that the Bureau of Engraving and Printing is delivering to the Treasury from $2,000,000 to $3,500,000 in the new currency daily and that by the middle of September fully $100,000,000 would be ready for delivery to the banks on call. It is expected by the time Congress meets in December the whole $500,000,000 authorized will be printed and ready for distribution.

HAS YELLOW FEVER CASE

Steamer From Laguna, Mex., Is Quarantine at New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Henry Larsen, a fireman on the steamship Horda, was taken to the Swinburne Island Hospital today, suffering from yellow fever. The Horda arrived here from Laguna, Mexico. The boat will be held in quarantine for disinfection before proceeding to Norfolk, where she is to load a cargo.
