

SEALS UNABLE TO LEAD ON GARRETT

Great Work by Portland Twirler Results in Shut-out by Six Runs.

WIN IN FIRST INNING

After Collecting One Run in Opener, Beavers Hold Swatfest in Fifth, Scoring Five Runs on Henley.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE. Yesterday's Results. Portland 6, San Francisco 0. Oakland 3, Los Angeles 2.

Little Jesse Garrett and tall, lanky "Cackles" Henley hooked up in the engagement at the Vaughn-street lot yesterday afternoon, and when the little chap got through with the big fellow and his followers, they resembled a flock of chickens routed by a hawk.

Portland tagged the scoring register on the very first assault on Henley, Pearl Casey was the unfeeling one who waded a Henley offering for three sacks, and when Kid Mohler tossed Melchor's relay of the ball wildly to Joe Curtis, the Portland captain dashed over the pan.

Only once did the Seals become threatening, and this happened in the seventh. Deek opened up with a double. La Longe secured a pass, and Curtis beat out an infield hit, which filled the bases with none out. Garrett seemed not to mind this in the least, for he immediately settled down to business, which resulted in a quick exit for the Seals.

Today is bargain day, for two games may be witnessed for one admission this afternoon. The first game will be called at 2 o'clock, and Suter will pitch for San Francisco, while Kinsella will work for Portland. Williams and Graney will be the opponents in the second game.

OLD IRVINGTON RACETRACK BEING TRANSFORMED INTO RESIDENCE DISTRICT

GRADING STREETS AND PUTTING IN CURBS

A STEAM TRACTION ENGINE PULLS THE SCRAPERS AND THE DIRT IS AUTOMATICALLY LOADED ON THE WAGONS.

IRVINGTON racetrack, given over to the demand for more building room in that district of the city, presents a busy scene. The 80-acre tract, laid out into about 400 lots, is to be known hereafter by its new name, Prospect Park. It is owned by a syndicate organized under the title of the Prospect Park Company, few if any of the former owners being interested in the enterprise. A contract has been awarded Elwood Wiles to put the tract in shape for the immediate occupancy of lot owners, his contract including the grading, filling, laying of sewers, gas and water mains and also asphalt effective in pinches, Carson being found for a two-bagger and a three-bagger in the sixth when four runs were scored. The game was characterized by some sensational fielding, in which Fitzgerald, Sues, Butler and Pernoll figured. In the fifth Waters threw high to first and a fox terrier grabbed the ball. The score: Aberdeen 4 0 0 0 1 4 10 - 6 5 2 Tacoma 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 - 2 5 2 Batteries—Pernoll and Spencer; Carson and Shea. Umpire—Caruthers.

up its series with Brooklyn with another victory. The score: R.H.E. Pittsburgh 5 10 2 Brooklyn 2 5 1 Batteries—Lover and Gibson; Pastoris, Holmes and Ritter. Umpires—Rudderham and Emelle.

defeated Bell in the tennis tournament this morning by three sets to one. As Melville Long, last year's winner, did not appear to defend his title, Bundy was declared Southern California's champion. Miss May Sutton and Miss Elizabeth Ryan easily defeated Mrs. B. O. Bruce and Mrs. Robert Farquar in the finals of the women's doubles.

Tom McCarthy, of the famous St. Louis Browns, and afterwards with the Bostonians, is one of the players that one could never forget. He was full of tricks, and the most resourceful outfielder that ever played the game. He had no end of nerve, and was never afraid to take a chance. He could make some of the alleged players of today open their eyes in wonder if they saw such a game as he put up. Here was a fielder who backed up every base, and it was nothing unusual for him to go behind the catcher when there was need. Throw? Well, I guess, yes. He was very strong, quick and accurate and always had the situation gauged to a nicety. Think of an outfielder making two double plays in one game—off the same runner. I can testify to that, for I umpired the game in which it was done. Those who were so partisan that they could not appreciate that kind of a play, yelled "dirty" in Baltimore!

Yacht Upsets in Heavy Wind. BELLINGHAM, Wash., Aug. 1.—The pleasure yacht Linda, of Seattle, with seven persons on board, capsized off Chuckanut Bay last night, and after struggling for more than an hour in the icy waters, the party was picked up by the tugboat Beaver and brought to Bellingham. The yacht was sailing for South Bellingham from the east sound when it was struck by a gale. Before the sails could be altered the craft went over and all were soon clinging for their lives to the hull of the boat. The wind was in the nature of a tornado coming in whirling gusts across the open stretches of water.

BALL GAMES AS SEEN BY UMPIRE

Tim Hurst Discusses Problems Faced by Man With Indicator.

NOT MOVED BY ROOTERS

Decisions Are Not Influenced by Roasts From Grandstand or Players, Says American League Official.

It is remarkable how many people in the grandstand can see plays better than the umpire. The other day while umpiring a game in a certain American League city, I called a ball foul. The players did not even register a kick, but the bleachers one of the reporters took his cue and the next morning the paper pointed out what a difference it would have made had I seen the play the way many of the spectators saw it. Wouldn't it be lovely if the umpire could always see with the vision of the prejudiced partisan spectator? Then it would be tough indeed if the home club ever was beaten.

Best Friend of Players. Then the players. You would think they would have sense enough to appreciate that the umpire is their friend, that he is in the game to give them a square deal. While some recognize this, others are antagonistic at the least pretext. There is but one thing to do with them—fight them on their own ground. The umpire must show that he is the boss in all things. I realize that umpires will make mistakes, just the same as other people, but that gives the players no right, however, to get nasty. I am always open to reason and will listen to a protest properly couched, but when it comes to abuse that is another question.

Some odd incidents happen in the career of an umpire. Often strange people get in the game and act in a strange way. For instance, the never-to-be-forgotten "Andy" Freedman lorded the whole thing when he resigned at the Polo Grounds, being so atrocious that he barred reporters and umpires from the ground. He had a flat fight with one reporter who did not report the game to his satisfaction, and was in a constant turmoil with representatives of the press. Well, he had Tom Lynch on the prescribed list—one of the best umpires that ever lived—and Emelle also incurred his displeasure, and I also was a marked man.

Incident on Polo Grounds. "Is that your reason for objecting to me?" "Yes." "Too bad," said I. "If you'll tell me one friend you have in New York, I'll cultivate him. I think you are the best-hated man in New York."

Two-Year-Old Wonder Takes Woodland Handicap at Meadows. SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 1.—(Special.)—Carrying the highest weight possible to impose on a 2-year-old, 126 pounds, Lee Rose, the greatest colt of his age that has raced on the Pacific Coast, won the Woodland handicap in a gallop today. He was seven lengths ahead of the struggling Ak Sar Ben and Right Easy, who were fighting for second honors.

NORTHWEST LEAGUE. Vancouver 10; Spokane 5. SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 1.—(Special.)—Vancouver jumped to first place today by defeating the Indians with the aid of Empire Frary, by a score of 10 to 5. Vancouver made 14 hits and the Indians nine errors, and 2000 fans, who stayed through the dust, are sore. Engle started to pitch, but lost control in the fifth and Hall went in. Infield work was terribly ballied up. Vancouver has made 72 hits in five games here this week, a new league record. Holm pitched a fair game for the tribe. Score: R.H.E. Vancouver 10 2 3 0 1 1 2 6 10 14 2 Spokane 5 0 0 0 4 1 0 0 5 6 9 Batteries—Engle, Hall and Sugden; Holm and Rogers.

Seattle 6; Butte 0. SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 1.—(Special.)—The Seattle team is playing great baseball these days, the placing of Rowan on first and Oriet on third working a revolution in the team. Behind the steady pitching of Allen, the Seattle team played rings around Butte today and won in a romp. The locals are batting savagely. They got 15 hard drives today, good for ten runs, while Allen let Butte down with three. McKune, Bennett and Frisk pulled off a triple steal, the first of the season, McKune swiping the plate cleanly. The fielding of the locals fairly sparkled, and Cartwright, as usual, played a high-class game for Butte at third. Score: R.H.E.
