

honor. Mrs. Lamont, who is an excellent equestrienne, has daily taken long rides over the various country roads.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Frohman (Miss Margaret Hinton) during the engagement of "The Thief" occupied apartments at the Nortonia.

Mrs. S. D. Smith, Miss Laura Smith and Russell Smith have returned from a fortnight's visit at the Hotel Empress at Victoria, B. C.

Mrs. F. E. Stanley, George Cornella and Baby Frederick Stanley, are guests at Long Beach.

Mrs. Charles J. Schnabel and family have returned from Hood River and will spend the remainder of the summer at their cottage at Seaside.

Mrs. J. P. O'Brien and daughter, Miss Lillian, left for Long Beach last Monday.

Miss Vera Haynes, formerly of Roseburg, Or., but recently of New York City, is a guest of her uncle, Mayor Harry Lane, and Mrs. Lane.

Mrs. Frank Warren, Jr., was the hostess at a luncheon of eight covers complimentary to Mrs. Frank Towie.

Hon. Alexander Hewitt Kerr, Lord of Kingshull, Kilmacshannon, Ireland, and manor of Suffolk County, England, left last week for New York, where he was joined by Mrs. Kerr and Miss Jeanie Kerr.

Mrs. H. W. Corbett's handsome summer residence, "Westborough," is the scene of a house party this week, with Mrs. David Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Mason and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mason as guests.

J. W. Matthes has returned from a trip abroad. Mr. Matthes was recently appointed by Queen Wilhelmina as the Dutch Consul with headquarters here.

Mrs. James F. Ewing gave an informal tea at her home on Portland Heights, in honor of Mrs. Caroline Ladd, of Boston, sister of the late William Ladd.

Miss Stella Frohman is expected home this week after an extended visit in the East and Florida.

Miss Gaeta Ivorda Wold and R. R. Boyer are guests over the week-end at Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Smith's residence at Seaside.

Alfred Smith, who for many weeks was at the Good Samaritan Hospital with a serious attack of fever, has now entirely recuperated.

Mrs. William Heiser, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, who was formerly Miss Cora Lane, is visiting her mother, Mrs. William Lang. She is accompanied by her cunning son.

Arthur R. Watson, of San Francisco, who married Miss Frances Pease of the Bay City, is contemplating, with his brother-in-law, R. H. Pease, Jr., a fishing, motor and hunting trip in his big touring car, their route being through Mendocino and Humboldt Counties, thence through Crescent City and Grants Pass to Portland.

Miss Gertrude Wiseman, of Sacramento, who visited here two Summers ago, is again a guest of Miss Alice Sanbury.

Trips to Mount Hood this season have been rapidly gaining in popularity. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Koehler, Miss Ise Koehler and Mr. Deibruker, of Berlin, who composed a week-end party to Cloud Cap Inn, have returned. Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Tucker, Miss Sally Lewis and Miss Nina Adams, of Honolulu, left for Cloud Cap Inn yesterday.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

An occasion long to be remembered by those present was a surprise party given by Mrs. Will F. Powell, at her home, 168 East Taylor street, last Saturday evening, in honor of her husband's birthday. The house was beautifully decorated with roses, sweet peas and white, the dining-room being in pink and violet.

During the evening the guests were pleasantly entertained with a musical programme, consisting of several selections by the Central Christian Church Orchestra, under the leadership of C. H. Chamberlain, vocal solos by Miss Crosby and Messrs. H. A. Easton and N. R. Stone, and piano selections by Misses Marguerite Hine and Flossie Wood.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. William F. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hine, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Easton, Mr. and Mrs. C. Henry Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Montgomery, Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Ghormley, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Salling, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ghormley, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Froebel, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Crosby, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ghormley, Mr. and Mrs. M. Steele, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Ennis, Mr. and Mrs. Russen, of Vancouver, Wash., Mrs. O. E. Wood, Mrs. W. B. McKinnon, Mrs. O. E. Win Russell, Mrs. N. A. Nielson, Mrs. Irene Wignate, Mrs. E. A. Wiley, Mrs. S. B. Farnelle, Misses B. Mahoy Fox, Flossie Wood, Marguerite Hine, Elizabeth Nielson, Bertha Crosby, Aileen Tatom, Letta Sattin, Olive Ryan, Beva Salling, Beatrice Wignate, Dora Evans, Olga Lange, Mabel Evans, Emma Wheeler, Myrtle Evans, Messrs. Dr. J. T. Le Fevre, A. M. Dickenson, N. B. Stone, Chester Lloyd Froebel, Charles Vinson, Andrew Hine, A. A. Crosby.

The Mayflower Club of the Y. W. C. A. is an organization of about 25 young girls who meet weekly. They have been enjoying some pleasant outings during June and July. One of the outings was held July 4 up the Clackamas where the day was joyously celebrated. Another pleasant outing was a launching party to Gwago, which they enjoyed immensely.

They also enjoyed a cherry party at the Mount Tabor home of Mrs. Laidlaw, at which time the club was delightfully entertained by games. Their last outing was held at the Haunted Castle where many interesting Frank Lally, Joe Morris, Arthur Harris and Mr. and Mrs. George Dove.

ANNOUNCEMENTS. Edward Drake and W. L. Swan will open a modern and up-to-date cloak and suit house about September 1, at 415 Washington street, corner Eleventh. Both these gentlemen have been employed a number of years with a large local department store.

COMING EVENTS. Prof. Ringler's Summer dancing classes daily. Learn now before the season opens.

WEDDINGS. Latourette-Dauton. Mortimer Dillon Latourette and Miss Edna Dauton, both of Oregon City, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dauton, in West Oregon City, at 8:30 P. M., Wednesday, July 29. About 30 of the relatives and immediate friends of the young couple witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Mr. Bowas, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. The bride was attended by four bridesmaids, two of whom were her sisters. They were: Misses Bessie and Helen Dauton and Edna Caulfield, of Oregon City, and Japanese lanterns. Merriment and games were indulged in during the fore part of the evening after which piano and vocal selections were rendered by Miss Finger and Mr. J. H. Callahan. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McMurphy, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Mutschman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Seidel, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Finger, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bailey, Miss Grace Eatchel, Miss Edna Welker, Miss Carolyn E. Thurman, Miss Jennie Clemens, Miss Lillie Hooker, Mrs. C. Voseburg and son, Mr. Hallie A. McMurphy, Mr. Lloyd Painter, Mr. Earl Lambert, Mr. J. H. Callahan, Mr. E. L. McKern, Mr. L. A. Miller, Miss Grace Finger, Master Robert Seidel, Master Mark Clemens and Master Callie Finger.

Mason-Hanna. A very pretty and quiet wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, July 23, at 9 P. M., when Miss Emma Hanna and Dr. Clay Mason were united in marriage by Rev. A. A. Morrison, of Trinity Episcopal Church. The wedding took place at the house of the groom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. I. T. Mason, 788 Kerby street. The house was prettily decorated with sweet peas and ferns. The bride wore a lingerie gown of white batiste with maitresse lace and carried bride's roses. The groom, Dr.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

On July 9 Mr. and Mrs. John Todd celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home near Corvallis. Mr. Todd was born in England in 1818, and Mrs. Todd in Scotland in 1818. They first met in Illinois, then moved to Nebraska, coming to this country over 30 years ago. They had nine children and five grandchildren. Of the nine children only four are living—Mrs. M. H. Cox, Mrs. S. D. Hughes and William and Chester Todd. Two of the grandchildren were recently married and one of them, a bride of a month, Mrs. William C. McClure, attended the celebration. The gathering of the old residents and relatives was a testimonial of the respect and esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Todd are held by all who know them. During a bountiful repast, which was enjoyed by all, many stories were told of the early life in Oregon.

Carlson and Joseph Peters, A. E. Roy and William Blum, Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wolf entertained a party in their boat, Vison. A Fleming, fleet captain of the club, assisted. A run was made to the mouth of the Willamette in the Vison, one of the speediest boats on the river. Guests were Mr. Ives, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Cronin, Miss Myrtle Hawkes, Miss M. Kelly, R. L. Ringer and C. H. Williams.

Mrs. Marquette Reed gave a birthday party last Wednesday evening at her home, 111 Third street, which was enjoyed very much. Several hands of "600" were played. Mrs. Reed received many lovely presents. The rooms and porch were made invitingly cool by decorations of flowers and ivy. She was assisted in receiving and serving refreshments by her daughters, Mrs. Vall, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Becker. Those present were: Mrs. E. C. Flynn, Mrs. Ellen Mills, Mrs. Bertha Gilman, Mrs. Maud Gilman, Mrs. Mary Pfundner, Mrs. Della Mickle, Mrs. Sadie Hamilton, Mrs. Hamlin, Mrs. R. Bird, Mrs. Nicholas Becker, Mrs. Harry M. Vall, Mrs. Helen Lamar, Mrs. J. E. Murphy, Master Leonard Murphy, Catherine Murphy, Miss Helen Vall.

The Phelathia class of the Beat Forty-fifth-street Baptist Church met at the home of Miss Robeson, 41 Buchtel avenue, Friday afternoon. The following officers were elected for the year: President, Louise Gilbert; vice-president, Virginia Shrake; secretary, Fay Harrington; treasurer, June Harrington; reporter, Margaret Sward. Miss Robeson has resigned as teacher of the class, as she is to leave soon for Boston to finish her work in education. Mrs. Blanche Hurlbert, a very successful Phelathia worker, will take the class during Miss Robeson's absence. The regular Friday meeting will not be held during August. Miss Robeson served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Ladd, of Seattle, celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary Thursday night with a reception and banquet at the Fraternal Brotherhood hall in that city. The evening was spent in music, cards and dancing, there being over 175 guests present. Mr. and Mrs. Ladd were the recipients of many beautiful presents. One gift from Rainier Lodge of which Mr. Ladd is president, was a silver tea service, and from Myrtle Lodge a set of pearl handled knives. Mr. and Mrs. Ladd were married in Portland July 21, 1883.

A jolly crowd of picnickers took a trolley ride to Estacada Sunday where the day was most pleasantly spent. Those present were: the Misses Kate Maron, Truda Dove, Lily Bird, Mary Thompson, Christine Wade, May Dove, Polly DeKiser, Dolly DeKiser, Cell Fay, Messrs. Jack Finn, Dan Madigan, Jack Kenny, Tony DeKiser, Joe Tanscher, John Shannon, Frank Lally, Joe Morris, Arthur Harris and Mr. and Mrs. George Dove.

ANNOUNCEMENTS. Edward Drake and W. L. Swan will open a modern and up-to-date cloak and suit house about September 1, at 415 Washington street, corner Eleventh. Both these gentlemen have been employed a number of years with a large local department store.

COMING EVENTS. Prof. Ringler's Summer dancing classes daily. Learn now before the season opens.

WEDDINGS. Latourette-Dauton. Mortimer Dillon Latourette and Miss Edna Dauton, both of Oregon City, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dauton, in West Oregon City, at 8:30 P. M., Wednesday, July 29. About 30 of the relatives and immediate friends of the young couple witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Mr. Bowas, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. The bride was attended by four bridesmaids, two of whom were her sisters. They were: Misses Bessie and Helen Dauton and Edna Caulfield, of Oregon City, and

THE BEST ENGRAVED AND PRINTED Wedding and Visiting Cards W. G. SMITH & CO. Washington Building, Fourth and Washington

Siberfield's Largest and Leading Fur Manufacturers of the West. Our Grand August Fur Sale. Furs at Manufacturer's Cost. SPECIAL 1: Grand assortment of Neckpieces, Throws and Ties, all of the latest styles. Best of workmanship and beautifully lined. Values to $18.00. Your choice for only $3.25. SPECIAL 2: An immense showing of Neckpieces, Throws, Ties and Ascots, in many different furs. Values to $12.00, for only $3.85. SPECIAL 3: Latest creations in Stoles, Boas and Shawls, all leading styles for the coming season. Values to $18.00. Choice $6.65. SPECIAL 4: Extra special on Fur Jackets of the latest styles, in leading furs. $28 and Upwards. SEE MORRISON-STREET WINDOW DISPLAY. Have Your Furs Remodeled at Summer Prices. Those who have furs to be remodeled or repaired will do well to bring them in NOW, as only a few days remain in which to have them attended to at reduced Summer rates. STORED FREE of charge.

AFTERMATH SALE FOR ONE DAY ONLY, MONDAY, AUG. 3. The Left-Over Lots of Lennon's Seattle Glove Stock will be bunched in three lots and closed out at sensational prices of, pair 25c-50c-75c. Our famous Seattle stock sale, which has now passed into history as the greatest and most successful Glove, Hosiery, Parasol and Umbrella sale ever held in Portland, has left on our hands a lot of Gloves, consisting of odds and ends, some slightly mused, some slightly soiled and some mismatched. We will devote one day—tomorrow, Monday, August 3—to the selling off of these Gloves, and to insure a positive clearance of these goods we have placed them in three lots at the ridiculously low prices of 25c-50c-75c. Good judges will find among these gloves—Values up to $1 for .25c Values up to $2 for .50c Values up to $3 for .75c. NOTE—We will include at these prices the balance of the Seattle stock of Hosiery. Phenomenal values in Women's Hosiery at 25c, 50c and 75c. SALE FOR ONE DAY (MONDAY) ONLY. Sale Commences 8:30 A. M.; Closes 6:00 P. M. Lennon's FOR GLOVES AND UMBRELLAS. 309 Morrison St. Opposite Postoffice.