

THE POCKS NEAR

ONG BEACH, Wash., Aug. 1 .- (Special.)-North Beach is enjoying the crest of its seasonal activity. steamers Potter and Hassalo bring crowds daily to rest, recuperate and enjoy life at this beautiful resort. - The entire beach of 18 miles is dotted with cottages, some pretentious, handsome homes, others typical seaside bungalows, camping parties, and hotels. These are clustered in pretty little towns known as Ilwaco, Scaview, Centerville, Newton Station, Long Beach Breakers, Ocean Side, Loomis, Oceanside Park, and Nahcotta.

Every train coming from Megler-the boat-landing station-brings an influx of visitors and cottagers who leave the train at these various points of destina-Carefree and happy these soasiders stroll the beach, go bathing in the surf, take long tramps through the woods, and go on various outing excur-sions to nearby points of interest. Just now the cottages are well filled and the hotels are taking care of their usual heavy bookings for the mid season. The weather is most delightful, and the days are all too short for the visitor at the beach. Every night great bondires il-luminate the stretch or sandy beach and merry parties hold informal social af-
