

SOCIETY

BY NANCY LEE

MRS. JOHN WHITE, FORMERLY MISS FANNIE BROWN, WHOSE MARRIAGE TOOK PLACE IN TACOMA LAST THURSDAY.

A MARKED abatement of all social affairs is evident, and the exodus to the beach and mountain resorts is decidedly on the increase. Since motoring has become an established fact, the ranks of society are additionally depleted over the week-end. The torrid weather has, however, not interfered with golfing for each day may be seen befeathered figures swinging across the green with the usual complement of caddies.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Corbett, who are now motoring in Europe, are planning to sail for America the latter part of the current month.

Mr. Roderick Macleay returned on Wednesday from several months spent in Europe and New York City. He left here in February to visit his sister, Mrs. Dugelin, who was Miss Martha Macleay, at Brighton, England, and later motored through Germany, England, Italy and France. In the latter country he met Miss Frances Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. George Good, who were also touring through that country. While in England, Mr. Macleay visited with his sister, Mrs. Joseph D. Grant (Miss Edith Macleay), who has an attractive place near London, where she spends a portion of the year, and the remainder in San Francisco, and at the adjacent English colony, Burlingame. Mr. Macleay crossed over the latter part of May to act as an usher for the New York wedding of Miss Gretchen Hoyt and Mr. Harry Corbett, and since that time has been entertained in the various Eastern cities.

Mr. and Mrs. George Good and Miss Frances Lewis are now in France motoring through the Valley of Loire, the beautiful chateau district, though they are making Tours their headquarters. They have recently been joined by Miss Minnie Coock.

General Frederick Funston, who was formerly in command of the Department of the Columbia and stationed at Vancouver Barracks, has recently been transferred to Fort Leavenworth, where he will assume the duties of commandant of the Cavalry school. A banquet was given last week at the Bohemian Club, San Francisco, in honor of General Funston, by a number of the artistic lights and raconteurs of that famous club. Another rush of congratulations has kept General Funston's telephone busy, it being occasioned by the arrival of a baby girl, who has been named Barbara. This makes the Funston nursery contain three, the other children being boys, Frederick, Jr., and MacArthur, named after General MacArthur.

A number of informal hospitalities have been extended Miss Florence and Miss Grace Hammond, of San Francisco, who have been guests for the past fortnight at the Hotel Portland. The Misses Hammond are daughters of Mr. A. B. Hammond, who at one time was prominently identified with Oregon, when his family resided at Flavel, which place he owned. Mr. Hammond also has large lumber and timber interests throughout the state. He built the Astoria & Columbia River Railway and was president of the Corvallis & Eastern. The two Hammond boys, Leonard and Richard, have since married and the latter is now living abroad. Two of the Hammond girls, Miss Edwina and Daisy, are also in Europe, studying in France.

On Tuesday Miss Genevieve Thompson gave a pretty luncheon at the Golf Club in honor of the Hammond girls, to which she asked Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Miss Ethel Rogers, of South Greenfield, Mass.; Miss Hazel Croker, Miss Barbara Croker, Miss Rhoda Felling, Miss Malda Hart, Miss Harriet Kinney and Miss Grace Warren.

One of the most elaborate luncheons of the summer season was that on Tuesday at the Golf Club given by Mrs. Robert Treat Platt, in compliment to Mrs. William Lyon Phelps, of New Haven, wife of Professor Phelps, of Yale University. Mrs. Phelps is a woman of scholastic attainments, has a charming manner and is remarkably well poised. The decorations for the luncheon were greatly admired, and consisted of a huge bowl of pink Japanese lilies, while the table was strewn with baby roses. Favors were corsage bouquets of sweet peas. The following guests were conveyed to and from the clubhouse in a launch: Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mrs. W. C. Alvord, Mrs. John K. Kollock, Mrs. Frederick Sykes, Mrs. William Brewster and her guest, Miss Howe; Miss Henrietta Pailson, Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. Fred Strong, Mrs. W. E. Jones, of Boston; Mrs. Harrison Corbett, Miss Aveline Webster, Miss Miriam Strong, Miss Suzie Stot, Mrs. Harrison Platt, Mrs. Frank Towle, Miss Etta Felling, Professor Luella Clay Carson of Eugene, Or., and Mrs. Mersereau of New York.

Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox came up from the beach the latter part of the week to superintend some improvements which are being made on her imposing King's Heights residence.

Tomorrow Mrs. Richard Koehler, Miss Iles Koehler and Mr. Delbruck, of Berlin, leave for a six month's visit in Germany, England, France and Italy.

On Thursday at noon Miss Fannie Brown and John White Brown, of Tacoma, were married at the Browne residence on Everett street, Dr. A. A. Morrison performing the ceremony. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to the fact that the bride is but recently out of mourning for her father, the late Captain J. A. Browne. However, the day was happily closed, it marking the thirty-fourth wedding anniversary of Mr. Browne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Browne, of Tacoma. The drawing-rooms were profusely decorated with greens, palms and rhododendrons. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served in a small drawing-room of the Hotel Portland, which was banked with palms and the table strewn with water lilies. Place cards were Dresden statuettes of a bride and her maids. The bride was gowned in a smart broadcloth of a turquoise tint, fashioned on the modified director's lines, with a guttie of lace and embroidered chiffon and a high circle effect of crushed black satin that terminated at one side with a sash. Her hat was a large black chip with nodding weeping-willow plumes. Mrs. J. A. Browne, the bride's mother, was in a striking gown of lavender French voile, with handsome lace and a large plumed hat of black. Mrs. George Willard Browne was attired in a becoming lingerie frock worn with a Charlotte Corday hat of lace with plumes of a lavender shade. Mrs. George Browne, of Tacoma, was gowned in white broadcloth, with a white-plumed hat. Mr. and Mrs. Browne left on a trip to the Sound, going later to Vancouver, B. C. where they have taken apartments for the winter. The bride's going-away gown was of tan linen with a suggestion of black satin, worn with a Charlotte Corday hat of black and a vivid parasol of red.

It is to be regretted that Miss Ethel Rogers, of South Greenfield, the charming guest of Miss Genevieve Thompson, is to leave on Wednesday. Tomorrow Mrs. Rogers and Miss Rogers' brother are to arrive as guests of Mrs. Thompson, after which they will leave the middle of the week for a trip to Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Grelle have returned from their wedding trip and are now residing on Franklin street, Willamette Heights. Mrs. Grelle will prove a decided acquisition, for she has the most accomplished manner, is highly accomplished and has enjoyed much Europe and travel. While at Stanford, Mrs. Grelle, then Miss Besse Henry, was a bookish girl and in addition to her other studies, made a splendid record for two years while taking law courses.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman, who recently returned from their wedding trip, were dinner hosts on Wednesday, asking Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Durham, Mrs. W. E. Jones, of Boston, and Mrs. Norris B. Gregg, Mr. and Mrs. S. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chapin, Miss Inez Barrett, Miss Isabelle McPherson, Miss Genevieve Thompson, Mrs. Ethel Rogers, Miss Marjorie Hoffman, Maurice Dooley, William Banks, C. E. Roser, Charles Wernicke, Leland Clarke, Lester Hodson and Wilson Clarke.

Mrs. A. H. Devers and Miss Mabel Devers arrived in New York, after a tour of the world, and are expected home the latter part of the month.

Miss Malda Hart gave a launching party to the Rock Island Club on Tuesday, in honor of Miss Florence and Grace Hammond, of San Francisco, when her guests were Miss Genevieve Thompson, Mrs. Ethel Rogers, Miss Marjorie Hoffman, Maurice Dooley, William Banks, C. E. Roser, Charles Wernicke, Leland Clarke, Lester Hodson and Wilson Clarke.

In honor of Miss Gertrude Wiseman, of Sacramento, Mrs. Frank Branch Riley entertained informally on Wednesday with several tables of bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Keating have recently had as guests Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Connelly, of Atlanta, Ga. Mrs. Connelly is a daughter of the late Senator Joseph E. Brown, who was also Governor of Georgia several terms. She is also sister of the present Governor-elect, Joseph E. Brown, of that state.

An informal launching party to the Rock Island Club on Friday included Miss Grace Warren, Miss Hazel and Barbara Croker, Miss Genevieve Thompson, Miss Ethel Rogers, Mr. Bodine, of Salt Lake; Wilson Clarke, Ben Reid, of San Francisco, and George Warren.

H. E. Mackay, who went South to act as the best man at the Grelle-Henry wedding, in San Jose, returned home the early part of the week.

Mrs. William Warrens and her children are spending the summer at Seaside. Mr. Warrens joining them for the week-ends.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kerr are entertaining Mr. Roderick Macleay at their cottage at Gearhart Park.

In honor of Miss Genevieve Thompson and Miss Rogers, a launching party was given on Wednesday to the Rock Island Club where dancing was followed by a supper. Present were Mr. and Mrs. George Westworth, Jr., Miss Hazel Croker, Miss Malda Hart, Miss Louise Carey, C. E. Roser, W. A. Spanton, William Banks, William Johnson, Leland Smith, and Egbert Mersereau, of New York.

Judge Tracey C. Becker, who has spent a number of weeks at the Arlington Club during the land-fraud trials which he conducted for the government, left on Wednesday for California where he will attend the annual jinks of the Bohemian Club, of San Francisco.

Arthur Alexander is to appear in a recital Saturday, August 16, at Seaside, Or.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Raley, of Irvington, left for Indiana where they will purchase
