

YOUNG BUSY IN EASTERN OREGON

Bourne's Right-Hand Man Reported to Be Working for Chamberlain.

DEMOCRATS ARE NOT IDLE

Deal Said to Have Been Consummated Whereby A. A. Bailey Will Vote for Governor and Name New Board.

What is John C. Young, private secretary to Senator Bourne, doing in Grant, Harney and adjoining counties? The appearance of Mr. Young in the interior counties has started the rumor that his mission is to bolster up the Statement One Republican members for the double purpose of perpetuating that doctrine and securing the election of Governor Chamberlain to the Senate.

At any rate, these acquainted with the methods of Senator Bourne and his gumshoe lieutenant aver that Young is not touring the remote counties of Eastern Oregon for his health. Neither is he there without the sanction of his chief. Just what his errand is, Young has not disclosed, except perhaps to a few of Bourne's trusted friends, but the object of his county-to-county canvass doubtless will develop before many days.

Bourne Looking to Future.

Young's exit to Eastern Oregon immediately following the announcement that Bourne would return in September is also taken as an indication that something is in the wind. Bourne and his managers here are known to be interested in seeing that Statement No. 1 is enforced next Winter. This plan of Senator-making worked out satisfactorily to Bourne and he wants to see it retained even if it involves the election of a Democrat. The people of the state having been good to him once, he is naturally concerned in supporting the system and taking another chance of securing the popular indorsement for another term less than four years hence.

Mr. Young has spent some time in Grant and Harney Counties, interviewing prominent Republicans in both counties. These counties, which with Malheur constitute the Twenty-second Senatorial District, which elected for Senator last June, C. W. Parish, an anti-Statement Republican. Just what recognition a petition asking Senator-elect Parish to vote for Chamberlain would receive is a doubtful question. Several times since his election, he has been asked to do so, but he would not vote for any Democrat for Senator. His first choice is Senator Fulton and at all times a Republican.

Where Does Bailey Stand?

At the same time Governor Chamberlain and his managers are not overlooking any opportunity further to line up Statement members and insure their support of the Governor. A deal is said to be incubating, if it has not hatched entirely, whereby A. A. Bailey, hold-over State Senator from Clackamas and Multnomah, is to support Chamberlain for Senator in return for the passage of a bill creating a new Board of County Commissioners, the members of which shall be named by the Governor on recommendation of Bailey.

The proposed additional Board of Commissioners is a separate board whose duties it will be provided shall consist of the general management of the bridges and ferries of this county. Two of the members of this board, it was reported yesterday, were to be Ferdinand E. Reed and G. W. Holcomb, a former member of the State Legislature.

Kay's Support Falling Off.

It is further represented that the Bailey-Chamberlain alliance involves not only Bailey's support of the Governor for Senator, but the support of Bailey in his candidacy for President of the Senate by Democratic members of the upper house. This would mean that some of the support supposed to have been corralled by Senator Kay, of Marion, had got away from him. In fact, it has been rumored that by insisting on his Republicanism, Kay has estranged some of the Democrats who were supposed to have been pledged to his support.

Ever since the June election, Bailey has avoided announcing his position respecting the election of Senator. He was elected in June, 1906, as a Statement No. 1 man, but when urged for a statement as to what he would do when the Legislature meets next Winter he has always replied: "You may class me as non-committal. It is a long time between now and next January, but I expect to vote right at the proper time."

TO ABIDE BY FIXED RATES

HARRIMAN LINES TO CONFORM TO RECENT DECISION.

Will Haul Lumber at Schedules Fixed by Interstate Commerce Commission.

Pending a final decision by the United States Supreme Court in the lumber rate controversy, the Harriman officials have announced that the rates fixed by the Interstate Commerce Commission will prevail. This amounts to a victory for the Oregon and Washington lumbermen, since the decision of the Commission virtually restored the tariffs that were in effect prior to November 1, 1907. Following the ruling of the Commission the railroads appealed the case to the Supreme Court of the United States.

This announcement was made yesterday by W. E. Coman, assistant general freight agent of the Harriman lines for the Northwest, in the following form:

"The rates from November 1, 1907, to October 15, 1908, on shipments from parties to the injunction suit will be the rates as ordered by the Commission, which will be published effective October 15.

"The rates on shipments on and after October 15 will be the Commission's rates as published, regardless of what the final outcome is in the court up to the time of decision by the Supreme Court."

The rates as announced by the Harriman roads will apply to shippers affected by the suits of the Oregon and Washington Lumber Manufacturers' Association and the Willamette Valley Lumbermen's Association, or the "210 case." The effect of this action on the part of the railroad is to enable the lumbermen of Oregon and Washington to resume business relations on the same basis that existed before the arbitrary advance in rates was announced last Fall. It will also enable lumber manufacturers of this state, also of Washington, to re-enter the Missouri River and other Eastern territory from which they have been excluded for nearly a year by reason of the unfavorable freight rates, which prevented them from competing in those fields with other shippers in Minnesota and Michigan who had better rates.

HILL COMPANY TO CONTROL Independent Office for New Line Will Not Be Opened Here.

Although General Passenger Agent Adams, of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railway, is not yet ready to make announcements regarding the sale of tickets over the new line in Portland, it is quite definitely settled, it is understood, that the Hill passenger offices in the city will handle the tickets, and that no independent ticket office will be opened. The tickets will undoubtedly be placed on sale at the Northern Pacific office at Third and Morrison streets and at the Great Northern office at 122 Third street.

As these two roads own the new line jointly, they are quite willing to handle the sale of tickets. They can do so with but little additional trouble, and probably without hiring more ticket clerks. Separate accounts will, of course, be necessary, and it is likely that one man in each office will be put in charge of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle tickets.

One strong reason why no independent ticket office will be opened is that it is next to impossible to find a suitable location on railroad row. All available locations have been snapped up by the lines represented here, and those in the district are always on the lookout for more central offices. Recently the Northwestern office was compelled to abandon a desirable location near Third and Morrison and go ## elsewhere temporarily until suitable offices could be secured.

Official announcements are expected soon from the head of the passenger department of the new road to the effect that tickets will be handled in the offices of the Hill lines now having offices in the city.

Rain Ends Forest Fires.

Henry Conlin, of San Francisco, representing the general department of the Southern Pacific Company, is spending a few days here, being registered at the Portland. Mr. Conlin came to Portland to superintend defensive measures for the protection from forest fires of his company's extensive holdings in this state. Reports received by him yesterday were to the effect that the rain-storm of Wednesday had practically extinguished all the forest fires in the state. Mr. Conlin is a life-long friend of Thomas B. Neuhausen, special agent and attorney of the land department, who has assisted the Government in the prosecution of the Oregon land-fraud.

SELF DELUSION

Many People Deceived by Coffee.

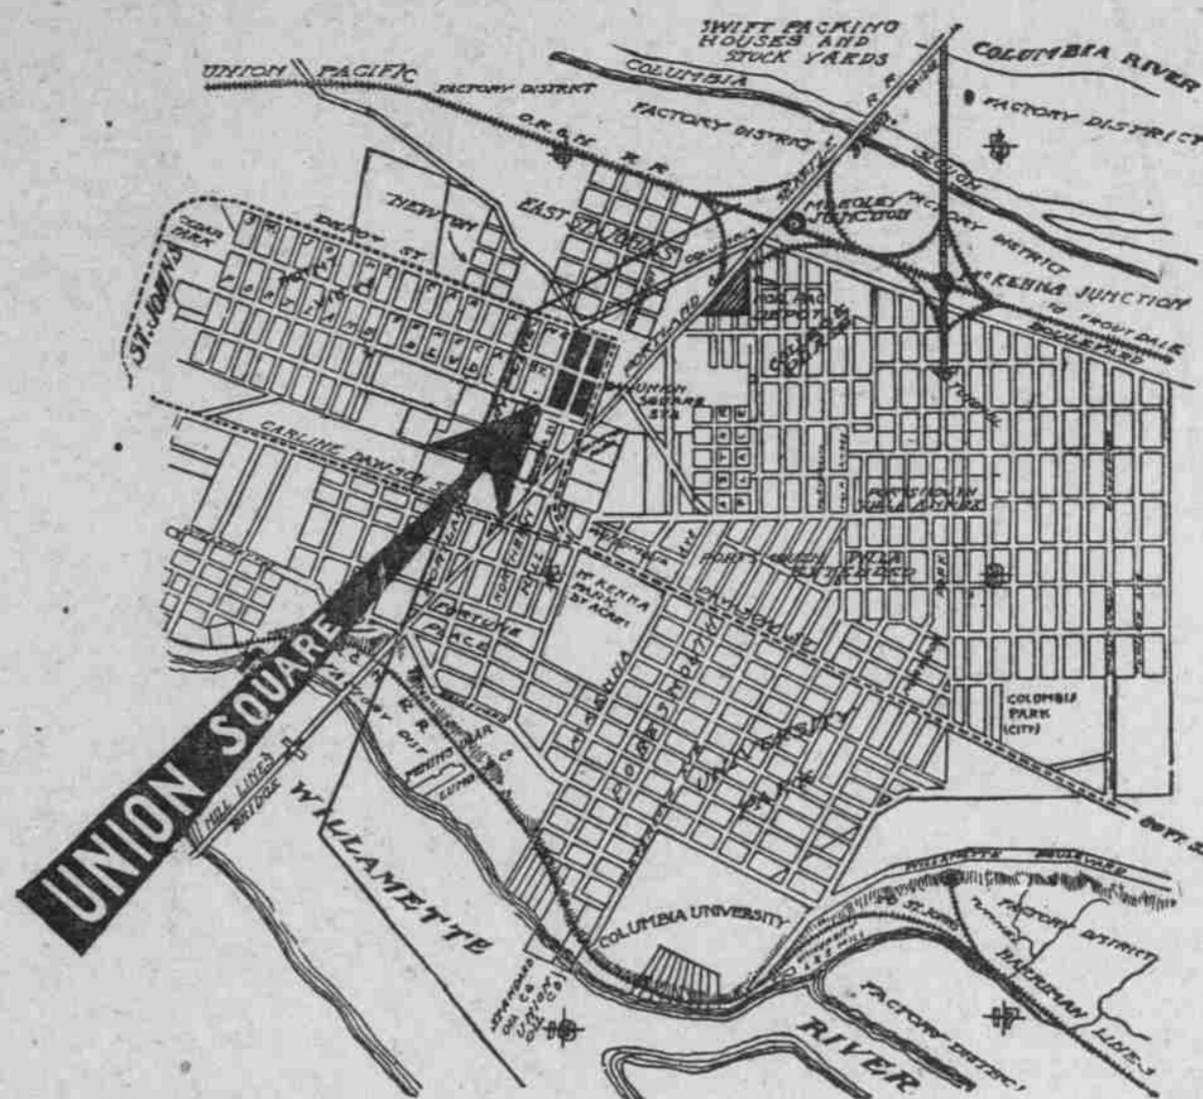

We like to defend our indulgences and habits even though we may be convinced of their actual harmfulness. A man can convince himself that whisky is good for him on a cold morning, or beer on a hot summer day—when he wants the whisky or beer? It's the same with coffee. Thousands of people suffer headache and nervousness year after year but try to persuade themselves the cause is not coffee—because they like coffee.

"While yet a child I commenced using coffee and continued it," writes a Wis. man, "until I was a regular coffee fiend. I drank it every morning and in consequence had a blinding headache nearly every afternoon. 'My folks thought it was coffee that ailed me, but I liked it and would not admit it was the cause of my trouble, so I stuck to coffee and the headaches stuck to me. 'Finally, the folks stopped buying coffee and brought home some Postum. They made it right (directions on pkg.) and told me to see what difference it would make with my head, and during that first week on Postum my old affliction did not bother me once. From that day to this we have used nothing but Postum in place of coffee—headaches are a thing of the past and the whole family is in fine health."

"Postum looks good, smells good, tastes good, is good, and does good to the whole body. 'There's a Reason.' Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read 'The Road to Wellville,' in pkg.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.
