

SOCIETY

MRS. EDWARD C. GRELL
A recent acquisition to Portland society.

WITH the first invitational tennis tournament at the Breakers from August 17 to 21, and threatening weather at home, society folk have had a week of unusual quiet for this season. About the only break in the even course was the dancing party Friday evening at Council Crest, which Miss Sanbury gave in honor of Miss Gertrude Wiseman, of Sacramento, and the Misses Calvin, of San Francisco. The Misses Calvin arrived here this week with Miss Jane Hoge, who has been visiting them. They are also guests at the R. H. Hoge residence.

Among those going down to Long Beach for the tournament are: Miss Stella Forrester, Miss Lottie Landreth, Miss Lily Fox, Miss Mabel Goss, Miss Hazel Hotchkiss, of California; Miss Myrtle Schaefer, Miss Irene Campbell, of Chumawa; Mrs. Robert Northrup, Mrs. Don J. Zan and Nancy, Mrs. H. B. Judge, Mrs. Walter Cook, Irving Rohr, Kenneth McAlpin, F. H. V. Andrews, Mr. Freeman, of California; Mr. Jordan, A. E. McAlpin, Carl Lewis, of Seattle; Messrs. Mercereur, R. W. Wilbur, James Shorers.

Mrs. Richard Koehler, her daughter, Miss Irie, one of this season's prominent debutantes, and relative, Mr. Delbruecke, of Berlin, left last week for an extended tour of Germany, England, France and Italy.

The exodus to the Continent this year has been remarkably great in the smart set here. Mr. and Mrs. George Good, Miss Frances Lewis, now in France; Miss Gertrude Russell, now in Ireland; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Corbett, who return to New York this month; Miss Emily Holbrook, Miss Lisa Wood, Mrs. A. H. Devers, Miss Mabel Devers and Mrs. Montgomery and her charming daughter, Miss May, are among the fortunate travelers who have been conspicuous by their absence from social functions here the past season. Mrs. Devers and Miss Mabel will return to Portland in the near future, having arrived in New York a few days ago. No doubt the homecoming of all these tourists will be motifs for rounds of gayety galore the coming Fall and Winter.

Miss Ethel Rogers, who has been visiting Miss Genevieve Thompson and who has been the motif for given-in-honor events galore, left Wednesday for a trip to Alaska. Her mother, Mrs. Rogers, and brother arrived from South Greenfield late last week to accompany her on the trip. Miss Harriet Kinney was another member of the party.

They left Wednesday evening, taking with them Miss Dorothy Holbrook, who will visit at Mr. Mullay's home in the State of Chippewa, Mexico, where Mr. Mullay is manager of a large rubber plantation. As an instance of the way values differ in localities, it may be interesting to note that the steps of the Mullay home and fence surrounding it are of solid mahogany.

Miss Lella Shelby has left for a visit in Victoria and Vancouver, B. C., and Shawinigan Lake with several English girls. She will also pass a few days in Seattle with Mrs. Carl D. Lewis (Miss Laura Jordan).

Among the interesting events of the coming week, is the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. S. Lpman, which will be celebrated next Tuesday evening. A dinner for the family will be given at Hotel Portland and at 9:30 there will be a reception at which all friends will have an opportunity to extend congratulations.
