BEACH HOUSE OF M. AND A. SHOGREN, NEAR ILLWACO BEACH LIFE SAVING STATION.

NORTH BEACH, Wash., Aug. 15.—(Special.)—The cool rains clear the atmosphere and render life at Long Beach ideal this season. It is refreshing to step out of the heated city into the coolness of North Beach. Tourists come down in hundreds every week-end and the season is at its height of activity.

Tennis will be a feature of the Summer's pleasure at Breakers, Wash., where an invitation tournament under the auspices of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club and the Irvington Tennis Club will be held from August 17 to 22, inclusive. It is intended to make the tournament, which is sanctioned by the National Lawn Tennis Association, an annual affair. Tennis is almost a necessary accompaniment to the pleasure of a Summer resort, as the games and other entertainments that go with the game are a great part of the life at the beaches.

The tournament at Long Beach is attracting wide attention. The plan has a good deal of novelty about it, as it is the first tennis held at a beach resort on the North Coast. The beaches on this side will send a large representation over and many Portlanders will go down for it. The days are filled with social functions.

The events of the tournament will give everyone who has ever been a recipient a chance. They are: Gentlemen's singles, scratch, for "The Breakers" cup, to be won three times before becoming the permanent property of the holder; ladies' singles, handicap; gentlemen's doubles, handicap; ladies' doubles, handicap; ladies and gentlemen's doubles, handicap. Some of the noted players of the Coast will take part and it is expected that the tournament will be the success it deserves to be. The tournament committee is composed of A. B. McAlpin, chairman, D. S. Gellinger, Walter A. Goss, Irving Rohr, W. K. Scott, Brandt Wickersham. Mr. McAlpin will be referee.

SEASIDE SEASON AT HEIGHT. Guests From Many States at Oregon's Beach Resort. SEASIDE, Or., Aug. 15.—(Special.)—Seaside has received a throng of visitors this past week that fanned all the hostleries, and the over-Sunday crowd was especially large. So prominent is this resort that a very large percentage of its guests come from the neighboring states, Idaho, Washington and Montana, season after season. A Summer—or a week—can well be spent at Seaside, acknowledged by all travelers to be one of the loveliest resorts on the Pacific Coast. Affairs socially have been many this past week. Chief among them being Mrs. John Gill's Indian fancy dress party and Tom Patton's tea. The cottages are all filled and the hotels booked for the remainder of the season.

Seaside Personals. Miss Evelyn Wilson is a recent charming addition to Seaside's social life. Dr. N. H. Skine with Mrs. Skine and children Jean Mackay and Donald, have come down from Portland for the month of August.

Mrs. P. E. Morey with her charming young daughter Miss Shirley Eastham, and their guest Miss India Stroy, of Pittsburg, Pa., are recent additions to social life at the beach. Miss Stroy and Miss Eastham were college friends at Osgood on the Hudson. Edward Eastham is also of the party.

Mrs. Louis Friede and daughter Marlon are at the Moore Hotel. Mrs. Eva Cohn and her daughter, Miss Selma Cohn, who have been guests of Mrs. Charles Barntester for a fortnight, have returned to Portland and are at home at the Nortonia.

Arthur Alexander, the popular tenor, is to give a concert at Seaside under the management of Mrs. Edna B. Jones on Sunday, August 16. Mr. Alexander will leave in September for England to continue his concert work there, and probably this will be the last opportunity to hear the talented young artist this year. Mr. Alexander's programme will include many of his big London successes. The concert will be given at the Octagon hall and will doubtless be largely patronized, for the population at Seaside is made up largely of Portlanders who know Mr. Alexander's genius. Mr. Alexander is a guest at the Moore during his stay.

Dr. Gustav Baar has lately come down to the beach. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Osmund, of Oregon City, together with Mrs. B. R. Root and son, Talcott, of Portland, are at Seaside.
