FLEET RECEPTION MARRED BY RAIN

Enthusiasm of Sydney Citizens Is Not Dampened by Downpour.

OFFICERS ATTEND RACES

Jackies Defeat New South Wales Teams at Baseball, but Are Beaten in Football-Admiral Sperry Holds Reception.

SYDNEY, Aug. 22.—Despite a heavy downfall of rain that swept over this city this afternoon the entertainments for the men of the American battleship fleet which included a regatta, ball and baseball matches, races at Rose Hill and matinee performances at all theaters were carried out as per programme.

A baseball team composed of sailors carried out as per programme.

A baseball team composed of sailors from the battleship Nebraska defeated the team of the Sydney University by a score of 3 to 0, and the team representing the entire fleet defeated the New South Wales team by a score of 6 to 4. In a Rugby fotball match New South Wales team turned the tables and defeated a team from the fleet by a score of 6 to 3. A large number of officers and men attended the complimentary races at Rose Hill, where the programme included "The Battleship Hurdles" and stake races which in compliment to the stake races which in compliment to the visitors have been named "The Admiral Sperry," "The American President," "The American Freet," "The Admiral Dewey"

and "The Flagship."

At the conclusion of the races 300 officers of the fleet were entertained at luncheon by residents of the city.

Admiral Sperry Receives.

During the afternoon Admiral Sperry gave a reception on board the flagship Connecticut to a large number of guests. Connecticut to a large number of guests.

Among those were Governor-General and Lady Northcote, Admiral Sir Harry Rawson, Governor of New South Wales and his wife, and the Lord Mayor of Sydney and his wife. The main deck of the ship was covered by awnings and the decorations consisted of British and American flow interturing. The spirits hand played flags intertwined. The ship's band played during the reception. Officers and men of the fleet were entertained at the theaters of Sydney this afternoon.

There was a race in the harbor rester-day afternoon between the speedy launch of the Connecticut and the Invincible, a private launch, in which the latter was an easy winner. A number of visitors went on an excursion this morning to miles away. They were given a hearty reception. Several parties were made up and entertained at luncheon at the beach. Others visited the local colleries.

Vice-Admiral Sir Richard Poore, com-mander-in-chief of the British squadror in Australasian waters, gave a dinner this evening in honor of Lord Northcote, Ad-miral Sir Harry Rawson and the senior Subsequently Admiral Poore held a re-ception on board the cruiser Powerful, which was brilliant and well attended.

Harbor Is Hinminated.

The city and the harbor were again illuminated tonight very much as they were last night. There was a gorgeous figet was surrounded all the evening by hundreds of gaily lighted and decorated harbor craft of all kinds. The display of fireworks, which was beautiful, continued for an hour and a half from a central position facing the harbor. The effect, coupled with the lighting of the fleet, the illumination of the streets and the continual transition of the streets and the continua illumination of the streets and the contin-ual Hashing of the scarchlights, was strik-ing and beautiful. A slight shower did not spoil the enjoyment of the evening. The shores and heights around the harbor were packed with a dense crowd that was estimated at between 200,090 and 300,-

Five thousand sallors had liberty and came ashore. They behaved themselves well. A large number of them were entertained at a concert, at which the band from the first division of the fleet con-tributed. Others attended smoking concerts in various parts of the city, while the remainder walked the streets viewing the sights.

Congressman Longworth said:
"The Democratic candidate for President needs no introduction to the American people. He has introduced himself twice already, and they have failed to return the call. His supporters tell you that he has improved with age, that he has broadened by years of experience as a candidate and by much travel. Do not be misled; he is the same, he is the same old Bryan. Today he is no better and no worse than he was in '96. If he was unfit to be President then, he is unfit now. He has no more deeply settled convictions upon matters of National importance now than he had then. He is still groping in the dark for an issue that he thinks may land him votes.

"The Republican platform, on the con-trary, breathes hope and patriotism in every line. Our candidate is pre-eminently fit to stand upon this platform. He is pre-eminently fit to be President. From the day that he for whom the American people would gladly have broken the third-term rule, the best-beloved and most popular President this country has ever known, declared solemnly that he would not accept a renomination, it was inevitable that his successor should be William Howard
