F. G. Deckebach Takes Hand.

F. G. Deckebach, vice-president of the Salem Brewing Association, arrived in Portland yesterday to aid in the investigation. He is severe in his denunciation of the management of Collins Springs and violently accuses Captain Belcher of brutal and criminal neglect.

Guests Heard Victim Groan.

"I have been told that on the night of the accident other guests at the hotel heard him striking matches in the hall of the second story between 12 and 2 o'clock at night. He was evidently trying to light his way, for the Kerosene lamps there are extinguished at 10 o'clock. He must have fallen from a rear doorway, in which I am told there is no railing for protection."
