TILLAMOOK CRANBERRY BOGS IDEAL
Possessing typical features and peculiar advantages of soil and climate.

TILLAMOOK CRANBERRY COMPANY

This company owns 103 acres of Cranberry Bog a few miles south of Nestucca Bay, containing in its formation the elements that make a perfect soil for the raising of cranberries of superior quality and abundant yield. The company, in order to secure immediate development of this property, makes following liberal

OFFER TO INVESTORS

TRACTS OF ONE ACRE or more to each purchaser, including for each acre one
SHARE OF STOCK in the Tillamook Cranberry Company, and one
LOT AT CRANMOOR BEACH, which is the ocean front of the property, a splendid beach, near the Slab Creek camping-grounds, and sure to become, on the completion of proposed railroad lines, one of the best and most accessible Oregon beach resorts.

METHOD OF MANAGEMENT

The Marsh of the Tillamook Cranberry Company will be developed by the Corporation. The purchasers will own their individual holdings of land, and contribute to the development fund. All the land sold will be uniformly improved. The crop will be cared for, harvested and sold as a whole, and the proceeds distributed as a dividend on the Stock. A fruit specialist, of high authority in the State, and wide experience in the cranberry marshes of Cape Cod, Massachusetts, will supervise the planting and caretaking of the property. The purchasers, being all the stockholders of the Company, will direct the management of all its affairs, making the investment entirely safe.
