THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN, PORTLAND, SEPTEMBER 6, 1908, Enstranses serves followed the wedding, which was served by the meat of the young women who radiusted in the same class with Miss dams from St. Vincent Hospital, Por-land The wedding presents were very and the same class with Miss dams from St. Vincent Hospital, Por-land The wedding presents were very and the same class with Miss dams from St. Vincent Hospital, Por-land The wedding presents were very and the same class with Miss dams from St. Vincent Hospital, Por-land The wedding presents were very and the same class with Miss dams from St. Vincent Hospital, Por-land The wedding presents were very and the same class with Miss dams from St. Vincent Hospital, Por-land The wedding presents were very and the same class with Miss dams from St. Vincent Hospital, Por-land The wedding presents were very and the same class with Miss dams from St. Vincent Hospital, Por-land The wedding presents were very and Mrs. Couture is residence is at Con-don in Eastern Oregon, where he is a well-known capitalist, and where a hand-sen conveniences awaits the return of the happy bride. the contracting parties being Edward G. Inglefield and Miss Loney Winsenburg. The wedding was witnessed only by rel-atives, and in the evening they received their friends. The presents were numer-ous and costly. Mr. and Mrs. Inglefield will reside in Seattle. o The third engagement which has been made in the home of Henry Hahn during the last year has just been an-nounced. It is that of Ralph Hahn and Miss Kate Eather Ramsdell, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Rams-dell. The wedding day has been set for October 2. The first engagement in the Hahn menage was that of Mrs. Harriet Sheldon, who is now the wife of Lieutenant Gregg, who is stationed MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED Hughes-Skinner. Miss Elizabeth Skinner, a daughter Miss Elizabeth Skinner, a Gaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Skinner, of Che-ney, Wash., and Mr. Chester Hughes, a son of Mrs. Edward Hughes, were mar-ried last week at the residence of the bride's parents in Cheney, Wash., Rev. Father O'Brien officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes have left for a wedding trip. On their return they will reside at Starbuck, Wash. EXCLUSIVE LARGEST AND OUTFITTERS LEADING FUR FOR WOMEN AND of Lieutenant Gregg, who is stationed in the Philippines. The second was that of Miss Maud Hahn, now Mrs. C. Sch MANUFACTURERS CHILDREN. Schroeder-Jenesen. One of the prettiest home weddings in Sellwood for some time was solemnized last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. Jenesen, of 594 Tenino avenue, when their daughter, Tillie, was united in marriage to Mr. Sherman Schroeder, a popular young business man of the East Side. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Bowersox. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white mult trimmed in lace and insertions and carried a bouquet of brides roses. OF THE WEST. B. Lamont, of Scattle. Cor. 4th and Morrison Sts. C. E. S. Wood, Max Wood, R. Pringle, Lyons-Good. C. E. S. Wood, Max Wood, R. Pringle, of Chicago; E. B. Judson, of Tacoma; Childe Hassam, of New York, and Judge Charles H. Carey, compose a party that left Portland for Ontario, Or., going thence on the Biltzen River for a month of hunting, fishing and sketching. Both Mr. Wood and Judge Carey are particularly interested in A quiet home wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. M. Good, 120 East Thirty-thild street, last Monday evening. August 31, when her daughter, Miss Jes-ale B. Good, was united in marriage to Buell F. Lyons. Rev. J. J. Staub, of the Sunnyside Congregational Church, offi-ciated. The Latest Conceptions Carey are particularly interested in the latter, as both have made some at-In women's apparel and accessories are brought out in our new Fall mult trimmed in lace and insertions and carried a bouquet of brides roses. Miss Ebba Wahlberg acted as brides-maid and Mr. Carl Jenesen, a brother of the bride, as best man. The appointshowing, combined with such a degree of good taste and adaptability Wicke-Shrum. tractive paintings of the impressionistic A quiet wedding was solemnized Thursto individual needs that all IN QUEST OF HIGH-GRADE APPAR-INDS. . . . On Tuesday occurred the wedding of EL, WHETHER LOW OR HIGH-PRICED, will find here a delight-Miss Nora Estelle Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Stewart, to Lester fully simple solution of the problem of correct outfitting. Special at-Pates, of Los Angeles, Father McDevitt officiating. The bride is one of the popular graduates last year of the PRINCIPALS IN PRETTY PORTLAND WEDDING tention is called to many new showings of tailored suits at $25 to $150. popular graduates has year of the Portland Academy, and Mr. Patee is a well-known clubman of Los Angeles. The wedding is a culmination of a ro-mance which began when Miss Stewart visited, last year, her sister, Mrs. Don The Supremacy of Silverfield's Fall Millinery Is Recognized Lee, of Los Angeles. It is based on the absolute exclusiveness of each individual Hat. The exhibit is Mrs. Clarence Reed Davis, of San Francisco (Miss Mabel Fouch), has ar-rived for a fortnight's visit with her extensive, contains many unique models, and their beauty and distinctiveness will appeal to you. NO TWO ALIKE. Dress Hats, Semi-Dress, Walking Hats, in mother, Mrs. W. O. Fouch. Mr. Davis will join his wife hers and they will great variety, with many Novelties new to Portland, make a really notable collecfor Chicago, where they will tion. Your inspection invited. We want your verdict as to the new styles. Prices spend the Winter. range from ......$5.00 to $35.00 Chester G. Murphy leaves today for a week in Salem at his hop ranch. Silverfield's Fine Furs-Merit Made Them Famous . . . Mrs. E. L. Harmon and daughter. Helen, left a week ago Saturday for a visit in the East, where they will re-main until the new Harmon residence at the head of Lovejoy street is com-Our showing of fine Furs, manufactured in our own factory, is more complete than ever this season, and contains an endless variety of fashionable Furs. Reliable quality, absolute correctness of style, are considerations of prime importance in pleted. . . . purchasing Fur Garments; these are characteristic of every garment we sell. The Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Riley, who nar-rowly escaped death during their trip to Yellowstone Park, have returned home. In company with Miss Judith Scott and a party of Eastern people, they were just completing the last ten minutes of a most interesting ride price of raw furs is steadily advancing, which means an increase in the price of all fur garments this Fall, and as this increase takes place the country over, the farsighted will practice true economy by buying now, while prices are down. Repairing and remodeling of fur garments at the lowest prices.

MR. AND MRS. FRANK YETT.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday morning when Frank A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday morning when Frank Yett and Miss Grace Taylor, both of this city, were united by Rev. E. H. Moure. After the ceremony a sumptious wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Taylor, 250 Benton street. Only relatives of the contracting partles were present. Mr. and Mrs. Yett left on the 8:30 train for British Columbia, where they will spend their homework. where they will spend their honeymoon.

out. Mrs. Hiley was knocked anong the horses, but by displaying remark-able agility escaped with only a few brusses. Mr. Riley was thrown under the coach, his nose was broken and he sustained painful injuries. Miss Scott, who was not hurt, is now visit-ters in Snokane. ments throughout the rooms were artis-tically carried out with Summer blossoms and ferns. After the dainty refreshments were served, Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder left amid the showers of rice and blessings for their newly furnished home on the East NANCY LEE. Mrs. Sophia Legge, of Grove street, Montavilla, was given a surprise party on Saturday evening, August 29. The Bide. Young-Hampton.

A pretty wedding took place at the ome of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Montgomhome of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Montgom-ery, August 20, when Mias Grace Hamp-ton, of Portland, and Robert Z. Youns, of Seattle, were united in marriage by of Seattle, were united in marriage by Rev. J. F. Ghormley, of the Central Chris-tian Church. In the presence of relatives and immediate friends. The bride was attended by Miss Dixie Spinner and the groom by Claude Hampton, brother of the bride. A funcheon was given by Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery in honor of the event. The house was beautifully deco-rated with flowers and paims throughout, Hulda Prait, Henry Rismus, George Mantes, Granvil Howerton, Bertha Kabkee, Mrz. J. A. Mayer, Tina Hansen, R. Brower, Dick Brower, and Mrz. J. Rasmus. Refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Royden Heaman, of White Salmon, were guests of honor at a very enjoyable launching party Thursday even-ing, given by Miss Myrile E. Long. A landing was made near the Rock Island White-Tolsted.

Christensen-Von Beeker

Mr. Seymour Cummings, of Chicago, III., and Miss Euphenia Lynch, of this city were married at St. Francis Church by Rev. Father Black. ANNOUNCEMENTS. The wedding of Miss Wilhalmina Sandrock, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Sandrock, to Donald Gordon Mackenzie, will take place Tuesday morning, September 8, at $:30 o'clock at St. Francis' Church. Miss Guy E. Holman has returned from California and will reopen her studio September 10, exhibiting many new liam Wicke and Miss Mary Shrum being the contracting parties. Rev. Father Villa officiated. The young couple will be at home after September 10' at 54 Twenty-third street North.

day evening at St. Nicholas Church, Wil-

Mrs. Martha von Beeker and Nels W. Christensen were married September 4 by Rev. Henry A. Barden. W. J. Gal-lagher acted as best man. Cummings-Lynch.

nounced, the wedding first week in January.

These new Fall styles give the face a French piquancy enticingly attractive in our American women. The decidedly new Parisian shapes, unusual tints and materials all bespeak their French origin. They are to be found here in all tones to harmonize with the tailored suits. Prices from $6.00 to $25.00.

have returned from a three weeks' out-

For the Newest in Wearing Apparel Visit the Style Store

at the head of Lovejoy street is co

Mrs. James Dowd returned home last

(Concluded on Page 5.).

EVERY READER OF THIS PAPER WHO WRITES AT ONCE WILL RECEIVE A FREE READING

FROM

AMERICA'S RELIABLE ASTROLOGER

landing was made near the Rock Island Club, where a bonfire was built and an effective illumination was made with Jap-anese lanterns. Refréshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spant in story-telling and singing. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Royden Heaman Ruth B. Dilles (Control of Mr. 1997) Heaman, Ruth R Diller, Gertrude Kurth, Ldila T. Winters, Sadle Goodman, Ethel Johnson, Beatrice Burnett, Myrtle E. Long; Messra B. Mailing, D. Ott, Ed De Kastor, Sam Mullen, Ernest Mullen, Gus Ellers and E. E. Wodemeyer.

through the National Park when the six horses became alarmed, dashed furiously down the road, overturning the coach and threw the passengers out. Mrs. Riley was knocked among which Miss Anna Hansen and Mrs. Legge won the prizes. The following were present: Angle Mack, P. H. Swartz, Mrs.

EVENTS OF WEEK.

L. Mack, William John Netherton, Mrs. L. A. Hayden, Louie Kratsmeir, Cath-rina Schmeerlapus, Theo Metca, Mrs. Metca, Bill Jett, Anna Hansen, Irene

Maas, Annie Dahms, Mrs. Leonard Jones, Miss Busby, Little Neal, Miss Edith Han-sen, Gus Parashas, Ethel Halsey, Myrtle

Ranney, Nelson E. Likins, Ray Pratt, Hulda Pratt, Henry Rasmus, George Mantes, Granvil Howerton, Bertha

ing in Spokane.

The Pledmont Girls gave a delightful hayrack party Friday evening. Co-lumbia Slough was visited, where a large bonfire was built, after which ice cream and refreshments were served. Those in the party were: Con-stance Covell, Edith Woodcock, Lillian Yeo, Bessle Yeo, Florence Buxton, Grace Covell, Margaret Faber, Essle Tathan, Anna Stipe, Stella Jones, Lillas Ewing, Ira Steigerwald, Fred Stipe, Will Stone, Hub Stone, Chick Newell, Fred Barker, Clayton Stearns, Lewis Hanson, Rússell Stephens, Chester Vos-per, David Tathan and Ed Covell, . . .

Wednesday last Mrs. Robert Rossiter gave a farewell luncheon at her resi-dence, 817 East Stark street, in honor of Mrs. E. W. Rossiter, who leaves on the Breakwater next Wednesday to join her husband, Rev. E. W. Rossiter, at Bandon. Friends attending were: Mrs. John McMonles, Mrs. W. R. Glen-denning, Mrs. A. E. Rossiter, Mrs. F. J. McMonles and Mrs. M. A. Wood, of this city, and Mrs. M. W. Hunt, of Sa-. . . .

A theater party was given by Miss Lil-lian Cohen, of 14 North Twenty-fourth street, in honor of her sixteenth birthday. After theater refreshments were served. The early evening was spent at her home, where the guests enjoyed a musical pro-gramme. She received many presents from numerous friends. Among the guests were: Hita Prager, Daisy Gerson, Helen McGuire, Ruth Possner, Marguerite Con-rad, Carolyn Friendly, Sadle Garfinkke, Castevide Boober and Element Parent Gertrude Hoeber and Eleanor Prager.

In honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Maud Ferrero and Harry Doniof Miss Maud Ferrero and Harry Doni-van, a cup and saucer shower was given Miss Ferrero on Tuesday evening at her residence, 573 Third street. Present were: Miss M. Dinneen, Miss G. Dinneen, Miss B. Duhrkoop, Miss S. Merrill, Miss L. Kumf, Miss D. Brent, Miss F. Hough, Miss P. Shaffer, Miss D. Malchester and Miss A. Blinn. Miss D. Mark Miss D. Malchester and Miss A. Blinn. Miss D. Mark Miss D. Malchester and Miss A. Blinn. Miss Mark Miss D. Malchester and Miss A. Blinn. Miss Mark Miss D. Malchester and Miss A. Blinn. Miss Mark Miss D. Malchester and Miss A. Blinn. Miss A. Blinn.

WEDDINGS.

Couture-Adams.

On Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock at Oregon City, Stephen Benton Couture, of Condon, was married to Miss Charlotte Adams, of Poriland. The ceremony was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Adams, on Seventh street. The bride has been well known in Portland as a pro-Adams, on Seventh street. The bride has been well known in Portland as a pro-fessional nurse, in which capacity she has made many friends, and is very highly esteemed. The bridal costume was a lingerie princess robe with rich lace trimming. A shower bouquet of bride roses adding the becoming touch of color as the tail, handsome bride, leaning on the arm of her bridegroom entered the rocm, and took their places in the bay window, where the ceremony was per-formed by Rt. Rev. Abbot Thomas, of Mount Angel, in presence of a large party Mount Angel, in presence of a large party of relatives and friends. The decorations throughout the Adams home were floral, choice and artistic. A dainty luncheon

White-Tolsted.

Tusday evening a very pretty wedding took place at the manse of the First Presbyterian Church, when Henry White and Miss Gertrude Tolsted were married by Rev. H. W. Foulkes. The brids was by Rev. H. W. Foulkes. The brids was attired in a gown of white lace over taffeta, and carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by Mrs. Ruby McConnell, as matron of honor, and little Josephine McConnell, as flower girl. The groom was attended by John McNulty, Nautical Expert, United Sound MCNURY, Nautical Expert, United Steats Hydrographic Office, as best man. After the ceremony the wedding party, including William Enright, of New York City, partook of a dinner at the Oregon Grill. A 3108.

Stillwell-Nessly.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Nessly, $23 East Ash street, at $:30 Wednesday evening, September 1, when their daughter Ella was united in marriage to Thomas A. Stillwell, of Bandon, Or., the Rev. Dr. Moys officiating. The bride wore a gown of white lansdowno, and carried a shower bouquet of white asters. Miss Eva Devilbles was brides-maid, and wore a gown of pink organ-die, and carried a bouquet of pink asters. Mr. Henry Hofter acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Stillwell left for the South on a short wedding tour. for the South on a short wedding tour.

Erwin-Michell.

Wednesday noon, September 2, at Tay-pr-Street Methodist Church, Miss Urfor-Street Methodist Church, Miss Ur-sula A. Michell, youngest daughter of Phillip E. Michell, of Stevenson, Wash., and Dr. Clarence W. Erwin, of Union, Or., were married, Rev. Benjamin Young performing the ceremony. The bridal party, after the ceremony, left for the Portland Hotel, where a weiding here Portland Hotel, where a wedding lunch-con was served in a private dining-room, after which an informal reception was held. Dr. and Mrs. Erwin will be at home at Union, Or., after October 1.

Donivan-Ferrero.

Miss Maud L. Ferrero and Harry T. Donivan were married Thursday evening Donivan were mariner residence of the bride's mother, Rev. H. W. Foulkes, of the First Presbyterian Church, officiat-ing. Only the members of the two fam-illes were present. The bride is well known in the younger social set, be-

Wednesday evening, September 2, Miss Alice Berens and Roy Robertson were married at 509 East Davis street by Rev. J. Bowerson. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson will reside in Portland.

Inglefield-Winsenburg.

A very pretty home wedding was sol-emnized Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Inglefield.

color studies. 545 Yamhill st. . . . Mrs. Elizabeth Leonard announces the engagement of her daughter, Frances Esther, to Peter George Wascher, the wedding to take place Wednesday, September 9. No oards.

. . . EDGAR E. COURSEN, Teacher of piano, violin and pipe organ, has returned from his vacation. 658 Lovejoy street. Phones Main 3108 and

. . . Carl Denton, organist of Trinity Church, has returned and resumed teach-ing. Violin, plano, pipe organ. Resi-dence 107 13th st. Phone Main 4129.

Winter classes in metal stenciling, leather and design now forming at Arts and Crafts Shop, 46 Washington street. Bench room for metal workers. The engagement is announced of Mr

S. L. Goldschmidt, of this city, and Miss Bessie Golden, of New York. . . .

Tutoring in the grammar grade granches. Mrs. M. L. Pratt, 320 East branches. Mrs. M. L. Fratt, 320 East Thirteenth st. north. Miss Edith Kelley, teacher of piano and harmony. Studio 416 Tilford bldg. Leschetizky method.

Madam d'Auria announces the opening of her studio at 401 7th st. The engagement of Miss E. Senosky to A. Levy, both of Portland, is an

R. F. PRESCOTT & CO. ENGRAVING

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENTS, CALL-ING CARDS, ETC. 271 1-2 Morrison Street Oregon Portland

ORATORY-DRAMATIC-EXPRESSION For Stage, Platform, Pulpit and Per-sonal Development. Also English for foreigners, intelligent, practical train-ing offered in all branches of the speech arts. All methods based upon modern recognized principles of life and art, MRS. WALTER W. BRUCE, 472 E, Oak St. Tel. East 4113.

LEARN TO Lessons

DANCE 250 Waltz, Two-step, Three-step and stage dancing taught dally. Prof. Wal Willson, 383/4 Wash. bet. W. Park & 10th sts.

W. G. SMITH & CO. Washington Buil, dingFourth and Washington

A graceful figure is doubly graceful in a strictly tailored suit. If properly fitted such a suit will overcome any little defects and strengthen the good points of your figure. This is what "Style Store" suits do. We have expert fitters who give prompt and satisfactory service. Prices are from $20.00 to $100.00

Choose Now

SEND FOR OUR NEW FUR STYLEBOOK, SEASON 1908-1909. MAILED FREE ON REQUEST

journ at their cottage at Centerville.

It is wise to anticipate your needs for the coming season before the rush for Fall shopping begins. Our suits are correct in style, quality and price--the three essentials to all discriminating people. Choose now while everything is fresh and new. When down town, notice our show windows

Nos. 9 and 10.

We have a large assortment of ladies' waists, suits, skirts, hose, gloves, etc .--- all of the newest dress accessories. Prices are always low in comparison with the values.

The Credit Method is for your convenience in Credit if Desired: shopping. You may settle your account in weekly, monthly or semi-monthly payments.

Washington and Tenth Streets EASTERN OUTFITTING Credit is

"The Castleton" A New English Hat

"The Castleton, London "-an exclusive English make that conveys an immediate impression of character, elegance and beauty; built along simple, classical lines, with tall crown richly draped in silk or ribbon-and Pocahontas or other new feather trimming-the shapes of felt or satin. For all its superb character, it is not an expensive hat, $10 to $20.

Piquant Street Hats. Our own milliners - artists to the finger tips-have copied the choicest French models, also originated many clever new designs, in all the most fetching shapes, the materials and tints matching the Fall gowns-especially to meet the demand for immediate - wear hats at modest cost, $5 to $10.

212-214 Third St., Corner Salmon T'C Portland Headquarters for Hats of Distinction. For many years I have been advertising in American and foreign newspapers and magazines; perhaps your next door neig-bor knows me or has consulted me for ad-vice. I have built up a reputation by giv-ing honest, accurate and conscientious serv-ice to my pairons. They will tell you I am America's reliable Astrologor. I do not ask you to take my word for any statement made here, but I do ask for an opportunity to demonstrate my ability. Read whas three of my patrons say about their horo-scopes:

" Newark, N.J. Newark N.J. "My marriago took place as you predicted, and I am the happiest woman in the world. I feel that you are the one real-ly great As-trologer to whom the American people should turn for advice and coun-sel. Everything madicted you predicted in my Horoscope came to pass an accurately as clock work " BERTHA AXT.

> Brandon, Can. "My Horos scope is the best instrument of guidance that of guidance that I have ever had put in my hands. * * I would not take a hundred dollars for the information you have given me, unless I was sure that L would get an-other one as ac-curate as this one." Yours very truly. A. Enco.b, Real Estate Agent.

But and the start of letters similar to the down and the start of letters similar to the down of the start of the down of the

