

BOURNE SURE OF TAFT'S ELECTION

Declares Him One of Greatest Men Nation Has Produced.

WILL BE NO MAN'S ECHO

Senator Says Oregon Will Give Him 20,000 Plurality and Whole Pacific Coast Support Him. Wants Him on Stump.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Sept. 5.—Senator Bourne's long sojourn at Hot Springs evidently had more than one marked effect upon Oregon's junior senator, to judge from the following article which appeared in the Washington Star this evening:

"Senator Jonathan Bourne has arrived in Washington for a few days, but will soon leave for home to take part in the campaign. He will be on the stump almost continuously from the last of September until the last of October. As the most energetic advocate of the nomination of President Roosevelt, having spent thousands of dollars of his personal funds for that purpose, his views of the present situation are of interest.

No Doubt of Taft's Election.

"I do not think there is the least question of the election of Taft," he said today. "So far as Oregon is concerned, the Democrats have no show on earth out there, notwithstanding their claims. The Republican National ticket will win by 20,000 votes. I think it will be practically the same in all Pacific Coast states.

"A close personal study of Mr. Taft since his nomination convinces me that he is one of the greatest men of the Nation. I am certain he will be the echo of no man, and that his individuality will stand out with that of any other man of the country. He has courage, ability of the highest order, and a tactful way of doing things that will be gratifying.

Wins All Who Meet Him.

"I confess I would like to see him make some speeches and get about through the country. He is a great mixer, makes a favorable impression upon everyone, and people who meet him become recruiting sergeants for him. I would like him to make a dozen or so speeches. His speech of acceptance was one of the greatest documents from a public man in this country and, if he follows that up as he should, he need have no fear.

"As to President Roosevelt's also talking the stump I do not think that necessary; at least it does not look that way now. However, the whole situation will be better observable October 1.

"As a matter of fact, the independent vote of the country will settle the coming election, and these men have probably not made up their minds. Nobody doubts, though, that the independent vote will be practically sold for Taft. There is no other way of reasoning their attitude. It is not conceivable that they could or would support the Democratic nominee."

COMPLAIN OF CRUELTY Japanese Seal-Poachers Brutally Treated in Russian Prison.

VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 5.—News was brought by the Empress of India that the trial of the Japanese sealing schooner Mye Maru, for alleged poaching at the Comandorski Islands, was going on at Vladivostok when the steamer Japan left, the crew being released on bail, meanwhile, Captain Nomura, of the sealer, testified that he was 12 miles from land when seized, but the court pointed out that the limit was 20 miles. Captain Nomura instanced the Behring Sea regulations, stating that America permitted sealers to go within three miles of the rookeries, and said he concluded the same regulations applied.

Sawyers Claim Record.

MONTESEANO, Wash., Sept. 4.—(Special.)—Five sawyers working in the mill of the Sunset Shingle Company here a few days ago made what they claim is a record cut of shingles. They cut 22,000 shingles on five upright machines in ten hours, making an average of 46,000 shingles for each man.

MOB HOOTS YOUNG PRINCE

GLASGOW SOCIALISTS MAKE ANGRY DEMONSTRATION. Arthur, of Connaught, Hears Growl of Unemployed in Great Scotch City.

GLASGOW, Sept. 5.—For two days past Glasgow has been threatened with a recurrence of the bread riots, following an attempt made Thursday of a large number of unemployed to force a hearing before the Municipal Council. The trouble culminated today, when a large number of socialists and unemployed men took part in a hostile demonstration against Prince Arthur of Connaught, on the occasion of a review of 10,000 members of the Boys' Brigade.

MYSTERY IS DEEP

Question Who Shot Roberts Is Still Unanswered.

TWO THEORIES ADVANCED

Police Say Revenge Was Motive, Family Says Simple Hold-up. Evidence Gathered by Detectives Kept Secret.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 5.—With the police and the two interested families taking different opposite views of the shooting of Charles E. Roberts, of Baltimore, on the board walk while in a wheeled chair with Mrs. W. S. G. Williams, of the same city, there seems no prospect that the mystery will ever be solved. The police insist that the Roberts and Williams families could tell who committed the crime, if they would, but are concealing facts to avoid a scandal and advancing the robbery theory with the same motive. The two families concerned insist that the crime was committed for the sole purpose of robbery. Mr. Roberts having had a large sum of money in his possession at the time. They say that the only motive of the police in rejecting this story is the desire of the police to defend themselves from charges of inefficiency.

The police have questioned all who know anything about the shooting, and this information all confirms their belief that a youthful relative of Mrs. Williams fired the shot. Chief Woodruff attacks the credibility of Thomas DeFord, Mrs. Williams' brother, saying that while Mr. DeFord protests that he has not seen Mrs. Williams since she spent a day at Narragansett Pier some weeks ago, he was at Atlantic City the Monday before the shooting with Mrs. Williams. Mr. Woodruff believes Mr. Roberts himself can name his assailant, but the latter adheres firmly to the hold-up story. Roberts continues to improve, but gives the police no aid in solving the mystery.

WILLIAMS COUPLE RECONCILED

Had Been Estranged by Husband's Habits of Intemperance.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 5.—Mrs. W. S. G. Williams, the society favorite who has figured so prominently in the mysterious shooting with Mrs. Williams at Atlantic City board walk, returned from Atlantic City this evening and went direct to her home in Long Green, where her husband met her at the station. It was their first meeting since his return from Europe. While Roberts and Mrs. Williams have frequently met and been friends for two or three years, there has never been any gossip concerning them. Williams and Roberts were friends and their wives were friends. The fact that Roberts always carried considerable money, which was known not only to his friends, but to others, bears out the robbery theory. He nearly always had on his person from $200 to $500.

he drew $2000 from the bank. This, together with what he had in his purse, made the amount he carried about $2500.

The relations between Mr. Williams and his wife had not been of a pleasant nature for some time and some of his actions were so out of the ordinary that it was thought necessary to place him under the care of a guardian. On June 18, 1907, Judge Burke, of the Baltimore County Court, signed an order at the instance of Williams' wife, adjudging Williams an inebriate, and appointed James Hewson to take charge of his person and keep him in restraint.

SCHOOL FAIR BIG SUCCESS

DISPLAY AT CORVALLIS FAR SUPERIOR TO PREVIOUS YEAR. Vegetables and Fruit of Mammoth Proportions Grown by Pupils of Benton County.

CORVALLIS, Or., Sept. 5.—(Special.)—Pumpkins four feet, and cabbages 40 inches in circumference, beans ten inches long, timothy six feet high, cucumbers two feet long, beets of the same length, oats seven feet high, potatoes ten inches long, apples 14 inches and peaches 12 inches in circumference and other products of mammoth proportions, all grown by Benton County school pupils, are among the exhibits at the All-Benton-School Fair now in progress.

The real story of the display, however, is not in the giant sizes, but in the extent and profusion of the display. The display at this second fair of the sort in this county, is declared by experts to be 100 per cent better than a year ago. A display of livestock with a parade of show animals was among the features yesterday. Numerous shows, besides balloon ascensions, provide amusement for visitors. A baseball game was played yesterday forenoon and later a field and track meet, with the Benton County school pupils as participants, was held.

day forenoon and later a field and track meet, with the Benton County school pupils as participants, was held.

The speakers yesterday were A. T. Buxton, master, and J. J. Johnson, state lecturer of the State Grange. The presiding officer of the day was President Kerr, of the Oregon Agricultural College.

Today there was the largest attendance of any of the three days of the fair, being fully twice that of the best day last year. The feature of the day was a businessmen's parade, in which nearly every business house in town was represented by a float. Another balloon ascension and parachute jump took place at 11 o'clock; the aeronaut alighting without accident. At 2 o'clock an address was delivered by Hon. S. A. Lovell, of Pendleton, on "Oregon Problems."

The success of the fair has led to a strong sentiment in favor of developing it next year into a county fair. Some urge the purchase and improvement of the grounds on which the present fair is being held. It is very probable that such action will be taken.

The streets and fair grounds have been brilliantly illuminated with colored lights every evening and tonight a Mardi Gras parade was held. Another Dry Sunday Ahead. ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 5.—Another dry Sunday, in so far as the saloons are concerned, will be experienced in this city tomorrow in obedience to Governor Fort's edict that the Sunday-closing law should be enforced.
