CAME TO OREGON IN 1852

Biographical Sketch of Mrs. Henrietta Baker Gore Inman.

Mrs. Henrietta Baker Gore Inman, a pioneer of 1852, and among the earliest in Lin County, died on August 21 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary M. Morgan, 729 Union avenue North, this city, in her eighty-sixth year.

Mrs. Inman was born in Jefferson County, Indiana, May 2, 1852, was the youngest of ten children and the last of her generation. Her father's name was John Settle, also a Lin County pioneer of 1852. Mrs. Inman's first husband was James Gore, a settler, who was married at Burlington, Iowa, on August 12, 1841. The Settle and Gore families, upon arrival in Oregon, went at once to Lin County and settled on a donation claim near what is now the town of Lebanon.

Mrs. Gore was the mother of four children before she came to Oregon, and eight afterward. Mr. Gore died on August 15, 1858. After remaining a widow 11 years, Mrs. Gore married John Cowan Inman in November, 1869, in Lincoln County, and he died on May 15, 1902. Since that date she had lived for the most part with her daughter, Mrs. Mary M. Morgan, of Portland.

She is survived by six children, as follows: Mrs. Rachel Kennedy, Los Angeles; John A. Gore, Seattle; Mrs. Mary M. Morgan and Mrs. Harriet T. Bean, Portland; Delazon Gore, Eugene, Or.; Mrs. Juliette Baker, Corvallis. There are 26 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.
