MISS CLAIRE
WILCOX, DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS.
THEODORE B. WILCOX, FROM A PASTEL BY LILLIE V. O'RYAN

MASTER JOSIAH NUNN,
SON OF DR. AND MRS.
RICHARD NUNN,
FROM A MINIATURE BY MISS SALLY CROSS OF BOSTON

It is welcome news to learn that Mr. Walter S. Hobart, prominent in both San Francisco and Burlingame society, has been chosen as judge for our forthcoming horse show, as he had much experience in matters equine. He will also bring some of his smartest traps, as will his assistant, Mr. E. S. Baylard. It is rumored that Mr. Hobart's family will also come north for the event, and possibly Mrs. Peter Martin (Miss Lily Oelrich), of New York and Newport fame.

Considerable interest has centered during the past six days in the Multnomah Club's open handicap tournament, which was held on the Multnomah course, where excellent playing was the rule.

Mrs. Warren F. Houghton, Miss Ertle and Claire Houghton will be hostesses at the first prominent affair of the Fall season, which will take the form of a reception on Wednesday afternoon, complimentary to Mrs. Robert Howard, Jr., who was Miss Von Dastton.

Miss Lois Steers has been confined to her residence for some weeks as the result of a railway accident over a month ago in British Columbia, at which time she sustained painful injuries. It is announced that no serious consequences will follow, and that she will be out again in the near future.

Miss Esther Goodman returned last week, after a year's visit in New York and Florida, and has taken apartments at the Nortonia. En route Miss Goodman stopped in Chicago to see the first production of "The New Generation," a drama by her brother, Jules Eckert Goodman, a Portland boy.

On Tuesday the Rock Island Club will close its doors, after a most successful summer. On Friday night a farewell dancing party was given at the pretty club, which was preceded by several dinner parties. Many were conveyed to and from, in launches, while others motored. Among the largest dinner hosts were: Mr. and Mrs. G. Lombard, Mr. and Mrs. James McCracken and Chester Murphy, each entertaining the officers of the Italian cruiser now in port. Mr. and Mrs. George Willard Brown had as their guests

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Greenbaum, of San Francisco; Miss Marion Jackson and Howard Holland.

On Wednesday Misses Evelyn and Carolyn Wilson, the twin daughters of Dr. George F. Wilson, left for New York, with Miss Georgina Burns. They will sail on the 16th for Europe. Miss Evelyn Wilson for some time has contemplated going abroad to join Miss Anita Burns, who recently decided to spend the winter in Paris with her aunt, Miss Minnie Couch. At the last moment Miss Carolyn Wilson decided to join her sister for her European journey. Miss Georgina Burns goes directly to Florence, Italy, where she will have the distinction of being the only pupil of the eminent artist, George De Forest Brush. W. J. Burns returned from Europe last week, having spent a fortnight en route home in San Francisco. Mrs. Burns will sail from England on October 4.

The first smart dancing party of the Fall season will have as its hosts Mr. and Mrs. William Mac Master who will entertain for Eastern friends. The affair, which will include the younger set, and a few of the younger married set, is to be given on Tuesday evening at the Mac Master's charming new place, near the golf links.

On today's page is reproduced a miniature by Miss Sally Cross, of Boston, who has made many friends since her arrival last June, as a guest of Mrs. Lee Hoffman. As a miniature artist, Miss Cross has a splendid reputation in the East, as her work is strong and her likenesses are particularly accurate. While she came West primarily for recreation, she has nevertheless found time to paint two striking miniatures, that of Little Josiah Nunn and another of Mary Louise Wright, the 2-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. O. S. Wright. Miss Wright is most paintable, having piquant features, great blue eyes and a wealth of brown curls.

M. Etienne Lanet, of Paris and San Francisco, who married Miss Amy McKee, of Oakland, about three months ago, has been appointed Minister Plenipotentiary to Uruguay, with headquarters in Montevideo, for which post he will leave directly with his beautiful young wife, who is a sister of Mrs. Norman Lang, of Oregon City.

Recent acquisitions to Portland society are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Corbett, of Brooklyn, N. Y., the former being a brother of Harrison Corbett. Miss Mae Corbett, a sister, who is a charming girl, arrived only last week to visit the Howard Corbetts at their Wilmette Heights residence. Owing to the fact that Miss Corbett is in mourning, there will be no formal entertaining in her honor, although two informal teas have already been given, one on Thursday, at which Miss Henrietta Felling and Miss Mae Felling asked in a few friends, and another on Friday, given by Mrs. S. G. Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. David T. Honeyman gave a dinner on Tuesday of 12 covers, complimentary to Miss Webb, of London, to which they asked Miss Frances Wilson, Miss Amy Hettahu, Miss Emma Houghton, Miss Josephine Smith, Ernest Webb, Kenneth Beebe, Plowden Stott, Hawley Hoffman and Erskine Wood.

At last report Miss Hazel Wedder and Miss Leslie Wedder had left England and were spending the month of September in Scotland.

Mr. and Mrs. David C. Lewis have returned from Seattle, where they went for the horse show. While in Seattle Mrs. Carl D. Lewis (Miss Laura Jordan) gave a pretty luncheon at the Firloch Club in compliment to Mrs. Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Fleischer and Miss Flora Fleischer are planning a trip to Europe this winter. They will leave Portland in November, spending a few weeks in New York prior to sailing.

After a four months' absence, Mr. and Mrs. William Brewster are again at their Loveloy-street residence, which has been occupied during the summer months by Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Corbett. During that time Mr. and Mrs. Brewster divided their time between Hood River and their country house near the golf links. Mr. Brewster has also spent some time in the East.

The Harrison Corbetts have just moved into their attractive new home on Kearney street, which adjoins that of Mr. and Mrs. George Good.

Camille d'Arville, who in private life is Mrs. Crellin, prominent in Oakland society, has just signed a contract to appear as co-star with Jeff de Angella and Emma Carus, in "The Gay White Way," which opens within a fortnight in New York City. Camille d'Arville visited here some years ago with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Herbert Holman.

In honor of Miss Aveline Webster, of New York, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Alford on Tuesday evening entertained with a bridge out party, to which were bidden

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Greife, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Corbett, Miss Grace Warren, Miss Hazel Dolph, Miss Olive Felling, Miss Isabelle Gaud, Miss Mae Corbett, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Miss Josephine Smith, Miss Dorothy Morrison, Antoine Labbe, Kenneth Beebe, William Barrett, Harry Felling, Irving Webster, Don Monroe, Raymond Wilcox and Elliot Corbett.

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Blumauer and Miss Hazel Blumauer will sail from New York on January 4 for a six month tour of Europe. They will leave here in November to spend the Christmas holidays in New York, and are planning to meet Mr. and Mrs. M. Fleischer in Italy.

On Friday Miss Isabelle Gaud returned to Smith College, accompanied across the continent by Miss Clara Wedder, who also goes to Smith, and Miss Helen Barber, who goes to Bryn Mawr.

Miss Polly Hewitt, who is a great favorite among the younger set, is to return in the near future to Wellesley. Mary Livingston will also leave shortly for Mount Ida, while Miss Marguerite Hume and Miss Helen Bates will return to Smith. Miss Dorothy Holbrook is to enter an Eastern school preparatory to Bryn Mawr.

Since June Mrs. Lee Hoffman, Miss Marjorie Hoffman, her guest, Miss Sallie Cross, of Boston, and Hawley Hoffman have spent the majority of their time at the Hoffmans' country place on the Barnes road, where they have been rusticated and incidentally dispensing hospitalities. As they have their horses and also their motor, the place is most accessible.

The pastel painting of Miss Clara Wilcox, which appears today, was painted this summer at Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox's beach residence, by Lillie V. O'Ryan, and has called forth much admiration. Miss O'Ryan will also do a miniature of Mrs. Wilcox and her son, "Teddy."

In compliment to Mrs. Frank Vincent Du Mond, of New York, who is to return East on Wednesday, August Berg gave a small dinner on Thursday at the Portland grill, which included Mr. and Mrs. C. E. S. Wood and Erskine Wood.

On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Corbett gave a small dinner for Miss Mae Corbett, of Brooklyn, N. Y., which included Miss Aveline Webster, Miss Ernestine Felling, Don Monroe, Walter Beebe and Antoine Labbe.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lamont, of Seattle, the latter formerly Miss Maud Hahn, sailed on Wednesday from Vancouver, B. C., for Alaska, where they are going on a moose hunt. They have had a number of things done for them in Vancouver, to which place they motored from Seattle with a party of friends.

Colonel and Mrs. James Jackson will accompany Miss Marjorie Jackson on the 20th to New York, where they will remain for some months. Miss Jackson, however, has indefinite plans for returning, as she expects to devote herself assiduously to her art.

Miss Kathleen and Miss Caroline Burns will close their residence at Gearhart Park and return home this week.

Miss Ernestine Felling has returned from a winter spent in Boise, Idaho.

Among those giving dinner parties last Saturday evening at the Golf Club were Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gaud, Miss Isabelle Gaud and John McPherson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gaud recently had as a house guest Ensign William Barrett, who is out West on a month's leave of absence.

Mrs. Alma D. Kats has sent out cards for a bridge party this coming Tuesday afternoon at her apartments on Twenty-third street.

Miss Marjorie Hoffman will return in the near future to Bryn Mawr.

For the coming season Miss Wynn Comman and Miss Lois Steers have announced a most interesting series of concerts, which will include Arthur Hartman, the celebrated violinist; Josef Lhevinne, pianist; the Metropolitan Quartet, which consists of Madame Rappold, Josephine Jacoby, Ricardo Martin and Campanari. For the final attraction Madame Nordica and her company are scheduled.

Mrs. C. A. Coburn and her granddaughter, Miss Jean Slauson, returned on Monday over the Canadian Pacific from a two months' visit in New York.

The Portland Kappa Sigma Alumnae were hosts at a banquet last week given in the Navajo grill of the Danmoore which was in honor of the active members of the fraternity who are in many instances returning shortly to their various colleges. Present were: Dan S.
