Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kerr, Mrs. Stuart and daughter Dellberta have returned from a Summer's outing in their cottage at Seaside.

On Thursday Henry Weasinger returned to Cornell.

Phil Metchan, Jr., was host Friday afternoon to a party of officers from the Italian cruiser Puglia, who were driven about the city and surrounding country in Mr. Metchan's motor.

Owing to the recent death of John P. Freeman's father in San Francisco, the wedding of Miss Mabel Devers and John Plagemann was most quietly celebrated Thursday noon at St. Mark's Episcopal Church by the Rev. Francis E. Ramey, the bride, who returned but a fortnight ago from a most interesting tour of the world, which she took with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Devers, in a decided brunette type of beauty, with handsome brown eyes and made a pretty picture in a Parisian wedding gown cut on severely tailored lines. After a trip to the Puget Sound cities, Vancouver, B. C., and Banff, Mr. and Mrs. Plagemann will return and occupy apartments at the Hotel Portland. NANCY LEE.

EVENTS OF WEEK.

A delightful party was given by Miss Vivian Marshall on Friday afternoon at her home on Multnomah street in honor of Miss Mabel Wood. Five hundred guests played and during the course of the afternoon announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Wood to Clifford F. Marshall, brother of the hostess. The wedding will take place October 7. The table in the dining-room was very attractive, a large floral piece of red roses in a bed of ferns occupying the center. The color scheme was red and white, carried out in the lamps, the bell pendant from the dome, the streamers and the fringes of hearts that decorated the room, won the prize, and Miss Wood, the guest of honor, received a complimentary prize. Those present were Miss Mabel Wood, Miss Helen Rosenfeld, Miss Evelyn Rigler, Miss Barbara Sargent, Misses Lilla and Nina Guthrie, Mrs. N. B. Gregg, Miss Nonna Lawler, Miss Corinne Crook, Miss Frances Batchelor, Miss Anna Shea and Mrs. Dodge and Miss Blanche Layman, of Oakland, Cal.

The first concert of the season at the Seaman's Institute, Front and Flinders streets, was given last Wednesday and was in every respect extremely successful. The singing, readings and instrumental music were of a high order, and every performer was enthusiastically endorsed by a large and appreciative audience. The affair was under the direction of George Clark and the following took part in the program: Miss C. J. Russell, Miss Barton, Mrs. L. E. Cornell, Miss Althea Hembree, Miss E. Bennett Johnson, E. P. Abbott, A. D. Hay, J. G. Kipnick, T. W. B. Lawson, W. Ward, J. H. Ferguson, steamship Cambrian King; W. McLean, C. Bradley, F. Burke, F. Thayer, steamship Ross City. The concert closed Wednesday being arranged by Madame d'Auria in honor of the Italian cruiser Puglia, which will be represented by a contingent of officers and enlisted men.

Herr Waldemar Lind and his mother entertained delightfully at their apartments, 511 Tenth street, on Monday evening, in honor of Mrs. F. Gail, daughter and son, of El Paso, Tex., who have been making a three months' tour of the West. Mrs. W. G. Stiles assisted in receiving the guests, and delightful musical numbers were furnished by Mrs. Alice Brown Marshall, the well-known pianist, Miss Story and Herr Lind. Mrs. Sylvia W. McGuire, the popular reader of negro dialect, contributed to the program of the evening some of her original darkey dialect stories. A very elaborate supper was served. Among those present were Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Story, Miss Story, Mrs. Cody, Miss Myrtle Cody, Mrs. W. G. Stiles, Miss Stiles, Miss Padden, Miss Boothe, Judge Van Zant, Paul Stiles and Ted Stiles.

At the annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Congregational Church for the election of officers for the ensuing year, an incident of more than usual interest occurred. The desk secretary, Mrs. Egbert, was beautifully decorated in honor of her silver jubilee. Pink and white asters, with ivy, myrtle and rose geraniums, completely concealed the out-cast, while a vase filled with long-stemmed pink carnations and asparagus fern diffused fragrance from the top of the desk.

Taking advantage of this anniversary Mrs. Egbert's friends presented her with a silver loving cup in appreciation of her faithful, continuous service of 25 years as financial secretary. The cup, of purely Greek design, needed only the exquisite engraving to make it all one could desire.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Wood gave a family party on Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Wood's sister, Mrs. John Dixon, of Hamilton, Ont. Their new home on Schuyler street was tastefully decorated with pink and white asters, ferns and palms. After a musical program delicious refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. John Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood, Mrs. Fraser, Mrs. Eschricht, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wood, Misses Mildred Pawley, Edith and Marie Eschricht, Margaret Wood, Ruth Walters, Dorothy and Frances Wood; Messrs. Thomas F. Wood, William Patton, George Pawley, Lewis Graham, Frank Wood, Albert Eschricht and Herbert Wood.

Mrs. W. P. Short, Mrs. Emily Leaman and Marguerite Leaman have returned from a visit to Timber Valley, where they spent two pleasant weeks on the farm of G. C. Leaman and William A. Hogg. While there they were entertained on Pine Grove farm by the Misses Moorehouse, who gave a dinner in honor of their mother's birthday. The guests were Mrs. W. P. Short, Mrs. Emily Leaman, Mrs. William A. Hogg, Mrs. Mark Hogg, Mrs. C. Claxton, Mrs. E. H. Moorehouse, and the Misses Vesta, Irma, Halle, Harriet and Helen Moorehouse. Marguerite Leaman, Alice and Edna Claxton and Master Ivan Moorehouse.

The H. A. I. Club of St. James' English Lutheran Church, West Park and Jefferson streets, held the regular monthly business and social meeting at the home of E. R. Gellinsky, 574 East Taylor street, Wednesday evening, September 3. The afternoon was spent socially and much enjoyed by the company. At 4 o'clock a delicious lunch was served. Those present were Mrs. Beale Smith, Mrs. Calkin, Mrs. Emken, Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Morse, Mrs. Morrison, Mrs. Ferdner, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Gilman, Mrs. Mickley.

A pleasant surprise party was given in honor of Miss Doris Ford at the home of her parents on East Fifteenth street last Wednesday evening. The occasion was the birthday of Miss Ford. The evening was spent in games and other amusements, after which refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. Denholm, Grace Elerath, Ruth Elerath, Doris Ford, Estella Ford, Fenton Ford, Alfred Lomax, Daniel Foster, Edmer Lee, Claude Lomax and Mrs. Ford.

The hayrack ride and picnic that was to have been given to the members of the Katuncka Club and their friends, by Dan Quimby, on Labor day, was postponed. However, the party assembled at Mr. Quimby's residence, where the evening was spent at cards. Those present were Misses Bernice Gilman, Bennett, Madeline Berry, Holland, Eleanor Cannon and Florence Holland, and Messrs. Wisstrand, Davies, Walker, Courtney, Seely, Minor and Quimby.

The ladies of the Summer Woman's Relief Corps recently gave an old-time social, to which the Post and their friends were invited. The program consisted of the usual number of recitations and solos, and finished with a playlet, "The Dapper Wedding," given by the young girls. Their singing and dancing were most enjoyable. Refreshments followed. The corps expects to give a number of socials this coming winter.

A pleasant surprise was given to Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hare Wednesday, September 3, by members of the Wednesday evening club, of which they have been members since its organization in 1904. T. J. Cleaton, in behalf of the club, in a few appropriate remarks presented Mr. and Mrs. Hare with a beautiful silver tray, the occasion being their 25th wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Charles Adven, of Portland, who has been spending the Summer at Long Beach, gave a marshmallow toast party on Tuesday night. Among the Portland people present were Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. John Drew, Mrs. Arthur Petrie, the Misses Leala Drew, Annie Rice, Ruby Petrie and Mr. Leslie and Chester Adven. Mrs. Adven and her sons returned to Portland the following day.

The members of the "Merry Twelve" Club were entertained at the home of Mrs. J. C. Pritchard on Thursday afternoon. Five hundred was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Staba and Miss Hazel McBride. The next meeting will be held at 523 Weidler street, Thursday, September 24.

The Macabee Club of the L. O. T. M. of the World, held its September session at the home of Mrs. Hood, 425 East Grant street. The October meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Louise Mc-

GEORGE HOTCHKISS STREET

A Portland singer deserving more than ordinary attention is George Hotchkiss Street, the present baritone soloist at Grace Methodist Episcopal Church. During the last five years, while holding a commercial position, Mr. Street has spent evenings and spare moments in cultivating his voice and studying music in other forms, in addition to studying three modern languages—German, French and Italian; musical history, old and new operas and miscellaneous English works. Mr. Street has had the advantage of studying the ideas of 11 different teachers, but baritone of great prominence in Europe, particularly in Dresden, where he lived for a number of years, and in Berlin, his present address. The advance made from a musically uneducated beginner to the front rank of Pacific Coast singers in such a short time is good evidence of what hard work, perseverance and a good method will accomplish, and with the experience of foreign study and travel there is nothing to prevent him becoming one of the leading vocalists in the country. Mr. Street's natural ability as a teacher has enabled him at this early date to produce several voices which would be a credit to many older and more experienced teachers.

Miss Tillie Schmorl entertained a dozen friends at her home, 106 Oneonta street, in honor of her 25th birthday. The afternoon was spent in games and music, after which a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess.

The opening party at Larow's Hall was held Wednesday evening, and proved a successful affair. The decorations were particularly attractive.

WEDDINGS.

Hayes-Collins.

A pretty wedding last week was that of Miss May Collins and Dr. James C. Hayes. The ceremony was celebrated Tuesday morning, Sept. 1, at St. Mary's Church at a nuptial mass. Rev. W. A. Daily officiating. The church was prettily decorated with palms and cut flowers. A quartet composed of Messrs. Tauscher, Hickey, Kent and McGuire sang Lohengrin's Wedding March as the bridal party entered the church, and during mass several beautiful selections were rendered. Miss Josephine Kearney presided at the organ.

The bride looked handsome in a gown of white mesaline, trimmed with princess lace and ornamented with pearls. She wore a full length veil and carried an arm bouquet of bride roses. Miss Genevieve Ward, who was bridesmaid, was gowned in white point d'esprit and wore a blue picture hat. Her flowers were pale pink carnations. The ringbearer was little Marie Kirby, who looked winsome in a dainty white frock. Kaiser Pratt, of Eugene, a brother-in-law of the bridegroom, attended him. The ushers were Ray Collins and Jack Kenny. The ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, 206 Victoria street, to which were bidden the wedding party and the immediate relatives. Dr. and Mrs. Hayes left on the afternoon train for a trip to British Columbia. The bride is the leading soprano of St. Mary's choir, and the bridegroom is a prominent physician of the East Side.

THE IRRESISTIBLE CURRENT

By Mrs. I. Lowenberg. "So saturated with an object that is expressed with every evidence of conviction and with the small intensity of white and vividly colored by splashes of genuine passion and of real tragedy." "The Irresistible Current" is the tendency toward a better philosophy of life, an agreement upon the essential of human conduct that will take place of creeds and a reliance upon a human love and brotherhood that is after all the highest expression of the best religion."—The San Francisco Argonaut.

EASTERN OUTFITTING CO. The Store Where Your Credit is Good

The San Francisco Examiner says: "Among the novels of the day that seem to be penned solely with the purpose of entertaining, this one comes occasionally one like this one to break the monotony. Like Upton Sinclair's 'The Jungle,' Isaac S. Brown's 'The Liberator' and Winston Churchill's 'Mr. Crew's Career,' Mrs. Lowenberg's novel is written with a purpose. It is an interesting sketch of comedy and tragedy that protests against the last barriers that stand in the way of the progress of social evolution—the intolerance of 'immoral' creeds.
