

PACIFIC NATIONAL SHOW TOMORROW

Great Livestock Exhibition and Racing Meet Ready to Open.

$40,000 IN CASH PRIZES

Portland Country Club and Livestock Association Will Present to Public View Results of Investment of $150,000.

HOW TO REACH COUNTRY CLUB. Take the Ross City Park car, "East Ankeny," from Third and Morrison or Third and Yamhill.

Portland, tomorrow, launches out into a field of sportsmanship on a scale greater than this city has ever known.

Carloads of Livestock Arrive. That the coming week's entertainment will be notable in the annals of such endeavors may be taken for granted from the fact that at noon, yesterday, 35 carloads of livestock, cattle, sheep and swine, just shown at the State Fair in Salem, the finest ever held, were shipped to Portland for the Pacific National.

$40,000 in Cash Prizes. It is unparalleled in the history of such events that a city undertaking to ask public patronage for causes of this character should offer the munificent total of $40,000 in cash prizes, particularly upon its initial effort, but that is what the Country Club and Livestock Association is doing.

College Maid a Great Pacer. College Maid, the world-record "guidesman pacer," will be one of the feature attractions of the week. She has placed her record at 2:09 since coming to the Coast with the string of Kuster-erwin & Company, of Laramie, Wyo., and will attempt to beat that mark tomorrow afternoon, Wednesday and Thursday.

Stock Sale Thursday and Friday. The strong features for Thursday and Friday will be the stock sale, in which the nominations include more than 30 head of the best grade of cattle and the same number of "bred in the purple" horses.

Portland, tomorrow, launches out into a field of sportsmanship on a scale greater than this city has ever known. With it, there will be marked down to the credit of the livestock men of the Northwest a grander display of stock, for which the state is already renowned.

Plans for Taft's Tour. Colonel Daniel Russell, Sergeant-at-Arms of the United States Senate, Indianapolis, will be in charge of the Taft special train. He is expected to arrive Sunday. The Rev. John Wesley Hill will accompany Judge Taft on the tour. He will deliver some of the addresses. Dr. Hill will arrive in the city tonight.

Drop Foraker as Orator. National Committee Selects Hughes to Speak at Camp for Taft. NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Regardless of whether Senator Foraker's defense of his relations with the Standard Oil Company as evidenced by letters made public by W. R. Hearst, is deemed sufficient to clear him of suspicion of impropriety, there is a distinct feeling here tonight that he will be eliminated from consideration as a speaker for the Republican National ticket.

Diamond Ring Their Gift. Friends of Fred Jacobs Honor Him at Portland Hotel Banquet. Nearly 60 men dined at a special table at the Hotel Portland last night, the guests of Fred A. Jacobs. The occasion was in the nature of a four-fold celebration—the host's birthday, the presentation to him of a diamond ring, and the annual gathering of the staff of the Jacobs-Silve Company, the particular object being to meet J. J. White, who recently came to Portland to become head of the sales department of the firm.
